Home from Utah—

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Harris have returned home following a ten-day trip which took them to Oakland, California, and Ogden, Utah, where they visited relatives.

Chehalis People Visit—

N. B. Coffman, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. D. T. Coffman, both of Chehalis, were visitors last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Carr. They are on their way to Los Angeles where they will meet Mrs. N. B. Coffman and her grandsons, who have been visiting at Los Angeles with friends for several weeks. The party will return through Roseburg in about three weeks.

To Release Band Pigeons—

A band of pigeons is being sent to Roseburg by the Victoria, B. C., Pigeon Racing Club and will arrive here tonight to be released by J. E. Dent, agent American Railway Express company, from the offices on Saturday morning at 5 o'clock. A great deal of interest is being manifested in these pigeon races and Roseburg seems to be a good releasing point for the birds as they apparently make fine starts and record time from here north. This is the fifth set of birds to be sent to Roseburg by various clubs from the north this year establishing a record. Three coops are being sent for the race tomorrow.

In Roseburg—

Miss White Visits—

Miss Adelaide White stopped over in this city Thursday as the house guest of Mrs. Frances Lintott on her way to Los Angeles to spend the summer with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. M. M. White, Miss White and Mrs. Lintott have been in Eugene for the marriage of the former's sister, a college friend of Mrs. Lintott, the event being solemnized Wednesday morning. Miss Adelaide White has been in The Dalles during the past winter as instructor in the city schools.

Visitors Here Today—

Mr. and Mrs. Wan Little of Seattle spent the day in Roseburg, driving here yesterday from the north to visit with relatives and friends. They came via eastern Oregon and the McKenzie pass and report the road in fine condition. The pass is now open and tourists are able to get through without any trouble. Mr. Little reports that Mr. and Mrs. Little are enthusiastic about Oregon scenery, especially the southern part and plan to return here for a vacation next year.

FLASHES OF LIFE

(Associated Press Lens Wire)
BOSTON—There's such a thing as plenty of room at the top, with little at the bottom. The police forced a steepjack, who had spent three days on top of a skyscraper and wanted to stay there, to descend because motorists in the narrow Boston streets were craning their necks and inviting accidents.

OSISING, N. Y.—More people have been trying to get into Sing Sing prison than those who are trying to get out. Visitors have been running as high as 3,000 a day and they have been holding picnics on the prison grounds. Friends are to be forbidden and the number of curious gazing at convicts is to be curtailed.

PEKING—Clever, these Chinese! Sundry gambling and opium joints are operated by women. As a result, a school has been opened for the training of women detectives.

SOUVENIRS
Warden: "Did you search that crook before you turned him loose?"
Guard: "No, I didn't."
Warden: "Well, there's a skeez hammer and three sets of balls and chains missing."—Jules.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Grostine, of Taft, Calif., passed through Roseburg today on their way to Seattle, where they will enjoy their vacation. Mrs. Grostine was formerly Mrs. Norman Agee and made her home in this city for many years. She enjoyed a brief visit here with her many former friends.

Visits Enroute Home—

Mrs. E. G. Allen and son and daughter of Myrtle Point stopped overnight Thursday in this city to visit with the former's sister, Mrs. E. J. Wainwright. They were enroute to their home following a visit in eastern Oregon with Mrs. Allen's parents.

"Be a Lowbrow"

If you'd succeed as a dancer, be a lowbrow, advises Margaret Harney of E. St. Louis, Ill., dance instructor and member of the National Institute of Social Dancing. Highbrow conversation bores dance partners, she says.

DECORATIVE, AND IT WARDS OFF COLD!

Simply braid the hair and wind it around the neck, girls, fastening it in the back with hairpins and setting it off with a decorative pin in front. That's Dolores Del Rio's new style hint. The Mexican film beauty's fad has become popular in Hollywood, even though the weather's warm.

Mr. Roscoe Here—

Geo. Roscoe, who was in this city a year ago visiting and on business, arrived yesterday to spend a day or so. While here last year Mr. Roscoe installed two or three large prune dryers in the county. His home is in Los Gatos, Calif.

Hike and Picnic—

The Mt. Waileta Camp Fire Girls group enjoyed a picnic and hike today, going this morning to Umpqua Park where they had a swim and picnic lunch. They later enjoyed a hike around Mt. Nebo.

Going to Medford—

Burr Miller, of Seattle, who has been spending the week in this city visiting his mother, Mrs. Rena Miller, and friends, is driving to Medford Saturday to visit over Sunday with his brother, Earl Miller, before his return to Seattle.

Visitor Today—

Lawrence Jennings, resident of Remote, was in Roseburg this morning attending to business affairs and visiting with friends.

Is He Wig-Wagging?

Is he a Boy Scout signalling his pal? No!! He is a wiggle-wagging golfer trying to get comfortable. Alas! The secret of ease in addressing the ball is comfort in dressing before you start out.

Golfers everywhere are finding they can be more comfortable in the new Lewis Golf Suit. It's a sensation! A wonderful new freedom in underwear. And of course, equally comfortable in the office and on the fairway. Ask to see it.
