

SOCIETY

BY GRACE CARROLL

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personal—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

Weddings, both large and small, and the showers and pre-nuptial parties attendant on them, have continued to be the most important events of the week past and have made the social calendar delightfully interesting to town folk. Visitors arriving and leaving have provided inspiration for a few informal affairs. Clubs, aside from a few social organizations, have disbanded for the summer and but little of social interest is promised for the weeks ahead.

This week-end, extending into a two-day holiday, will afford many folk the opportunity for short trips, to coast, mountain and camp sites or popular resorts, and, as many are planning to take advantage of the brief celebration, the city will seem quite deserted.

Mrs. West Hostess for Informal Luncheon

Mrs. Birney R. West was hostess for an attractive luncheon on Tuesday at the Rose Hotel for the pleasure of the members of her bridge club which meet on that day. Following the luncheon the group were bidden to the hostess' home for bridge.

Seated about the tables were Mrs. E. R. Thurber, Mrs. J. W. Brown, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. Nathan Fullerton, Mrs. Fred Schwartz, Mrs. J. R. Wharton and Mrs. West. Honors for the afternoon went to Mrs. Schwartz and second prize was won by Mrs. Fullerton.

Former Roseburg Boy Weds June 26

A recent wedding of interest to circles in Roseburg, was that of Lyle McCulloch, formerly of this city, and Miss Ethel Lambert, the ceremony being solemnized June 26 at Powers, Oregon.

The service was read by Rev. Jacob Moenaw at Christ's church before an assemblage of relatives and friends and following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was given at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles Lambert, for members of the bridal party.

The bride is an attractive young woman and formerly made her home in Cottage Grove where she is well known. Mr. McCulloch attended school in Roseburg and has a wide circle of friends here. For the past few years he has been residing at Powers.

Mr. and Mrs. McCulloch are on a trip to Washington points.

Mrs. S. L. McAfee of Park College, Parkville, Mo., arrived mid-week from San Francisco, where she has been attending the Presbyterian Assembly, and will be the house guest of her niece, Mrs. Wm. Campbell, at 1932 North Jackson street, for a brief visit before her return home. While here Mrs. McAfee will be the inspiration of several lovely affairs.

D. A. R. Meets for Interesting Session

The Umpqua Chapter, D. A. R., held a regular meeting on Monday afternoon at the Soldiers' Home, Miss Adeline Stewart and Miss Katherine Busenbark, joining as hostesses for the afternoon.

It was announced that Eulalia Chapter of Klamath Falls would dedicate a marker for Stone Bridge over Lost River on the south Emigrant highway on July 10. Several are planning to attend from this city, among them Mr. Riddle, who is crossing the river in 1927. He drove an ox team couple of days ago, enroute stopping near the bridge to camp.

An entertaining talk was given by Mrs. A. J. Bellows, who told of attending the dedication of the first house built in Douglas county, the place at Cabin Creek. An article on the thirty-sixth annual continental conference of the D. A. R., held at Washington, D. C., was read by Mrs. Frank H. Churchill, Mrs. Wm. M. Campbell read a review of the address given by the President General at the conference and some of the resolutions adopted at the conference were also read. "Tribute to Our Flag" was given by Mrs. Charles Sowers.

Mrs. Bart Riddle was presented a certificate of membership. Introduction of a new recruit, Miss Katherine Busenbark, was made by Mrs. Churchill, who presented her with the regent's pin.

Following this ceremony Miss Adeline Stewart gave an interesting talk on the government of the various countries abroad which she visited two years ago.

At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served by the two hostesses.

To observe the national holiday the Ladies Auxiliary of the D. of H. T. in Roseburg has arranged for a picnic to take place at Maple Grove, July 4. Those in charge wish that all members in town attend and invite guests. Each member is to take the cups and spoons for their party and coffee will be furnished by the lodge.

Lovely Garden Wedding Event of June 28

An evening wedding of distinction was that of Miss Dorothy Winston and Mr. Laverne Lander on Tuesday, June 28, the service being solemnized at a pretty garden ceremony at the attractive home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winston, at Winston.

The gardens were softly lighted by the glimmer of lanterns among the big oaks and banks of flowers combined with ferns decorated the background. The aisle from the house to the arbor was marked off with tall baskets filled with graceful flowers in shades of pink, lavender, yellow and blue, each tied with pink tulle and showers of baby's breath and fern.

The arbor between two trees formed the improvised altar and the lattice work was effectively arranged with rose vines and asparagus fern. At the base were two large baskets filled with waxy white lilies where the bride and bridegroom plighted their troth. Rev. Joseph Knotts officiated at the ceremony at 8 o'clock before an assemblage of over one hundred relatives and friends of the bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. C. S. Heinline played the wedding march from Mendelssohn preceeding and softly "drifted" the ceremony. Before the service Mrs. Chas. A. Brand sang, "Because," and as the couple knelt at the altar, to exchange vows, sang, "I Love You Truly."

The bridal party formed a lovely picture advancing through the aisle to the altar. Little Ula Agnes Winston, cousin of the bride, in pale blue organdie, carrying a blue basket and scattering rose petals in the path of the procession. Miss Norma Winston, sister of the bride was maid of honor, and was dressed in pineapple silk and pink, elaborated with silver trimming. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink sweet peas. Miss Thelma Smith, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her dress was an attractive model of lavender pineapple silk and her colonial bouquet matched in color detail.

John Lander, Jr., brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man and Kenneth Winston, brother of the bride, was usher.

The bride on the arm of her father, was charming in a gown of white pineapple silk over satin, which was distinguished with a quiet skirt caught on each side with silver wreaths. Her long tulle veil was fastened with an orange blossom wreath. She carried a shower of Cecil Brunner roses and sweet peas.

The reception followed in the house and garden. Mrs. Geo. A. Bradburn presided, and assisting were Mrs. Harry Winston and Miss Harriet Groves. Large bowls of orange sweet peas and ferns decorated the long table from which the guests were served. The wedding cake centered the table.

Serving from the punch bowl were Miss Agnes Irwin, Miss Doris Pickett and Miss Maxine Stearns. Out of town guests for the affair included Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Charney of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Munson of Oakland, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Winston of Rawlins, Wyoming, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. S. S. of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCormack of North Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Russell D. Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Renner of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lamb of Carville, Mrs. Genevieve Dillman of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cracraft of Cathlamet, Washington.

Immediately following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Lander left for points south by motor. On their return they will reside here.

The bride is a member of a well known family and attended school in Roseburg, graduating from high school in 1924. For the past three years she has been assisting in instruction in the Dunning and kindergarten departments of the Heinline Conservatory of Music. Mr. Lander is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lander of Winston. He also attended high school in Roseburg and is well known here.

Former Roseburg Girl Is Wed Here

Miss Florence Dryer, formerly of Roseburg who has been making her home in Grants Pass for the past year, became the bride of Koeth E. Groul of Grants Pass at a quiet ceremony on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the Baptist church in Roseburg. Dr. Frank B. Matthews officiating before only a small group of intimate friends of the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jennie Dryer of Lapwai, Idaho, and is well known in Roseburg, having been employed by the Douglas Creditors Association. For the past year she has been in Grants Pass, there being at the office of the Josephine Creditors Association.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride and bridegroom left for Newport and following their trip will reside in Grants Pass.

Miss Helen Chase Becomes Bride at Pretty Ceremony

At a very attractive home wedding solemnized quietly Wednesday afternoon, June 29, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chase, at 628 South Stephens street, Miss Helen M. Chase and Mr. Roby D. Goff, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Goff of Oakland, plighted their troth.

Rev. Everett, Presbyterian student pastor at O. A. C. read the service at 4:30 o'clock, using the impressive double ring ceremony, before the members of the families of the bride and bridegroom and a few intimate friends, numbering about thirty.

The bride, on the arm of her father, was charming in a rose colored georgette frock elaborated with gold lace. The full sleeves were an additional note of distinction and a pretty effect was given by the buckle-belted front at the waistline. She carried a bridal bouquet of rose buds and sweet peas combined with maiden hair fern. The bride was met at the foot of the stairway by the bridegroom and the couple took their places before an improvised altar at the fireplace, before which was placed a three-cornered screen decorated with profusions of sweet peas and ferns. Two large baskets of Canterbury bells were arranged at the base. Lovely garden flowers in baskets and bowls formed the predominating decorations about the room.

Proceeding the hour for the nuptials Miss Geraldine Richardson of Bandon, sorority sister of the bride, sang "Just a Cottage Small by a Waterfall," and Mrs. Frances Linnett, accompanied on the violin by Mrs. A. J. Young, played the wedding march from Lohengrin as the bride descended the stairway. Her father, Mrs. Linnett and Mrs. Young played softly "To a Wild Rose" during the service.

The bride and the bridegroom held informal reception following the ceremony. Mrs. Young and Mrs. Linnett played several selections during the remainder of the afternoon.

Assisting in the rooms and serving were Miss Fern Busenbark, Miss Floy Strader, Miss Marian Fisher and Miss Dorothy Chase.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Goff left for Newport and in August will go to Phoenix, Arizona, where the bridegroom is instructor of industrial art in the city schools.

Mrs. Goff is an attractive young woman and a member of a family well known in the city. She graduated this year from O. A. C. where she was a member of Delta Omega sorority. Mr. Goff graduated from O. A. C. in 1926. He is an Alpha Phi Delta and a member of Phi Tau Chi honorary fraternity.

Temple Closes for Summer Vacation

On Monday evening Umpqua Temple No. 1, Pythian Sisters, held an interesting session which marked the close of the meetings of the lodge during the summer vacation period extending over this month and August. The temple meetings will be resumed again the second Monday in September.

Miss Pearl Jones was elected delegate to Grand Lodge, this year to be held in The Dalles, and Eva Marks was named alternate. At the meeting the temple voted to contribute $10 to the Pythian Relief fund for the Mississippi flood sufferers.

Plans were formed for a picnic to be held July 17 at Umpqua Park, the Knights of Pythian lodge joining in arranging for the affair. The picnic will be for members of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Munson of Oakland, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Winston of Rawlins, Wyoming, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. S. S. of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCormack of North Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Russell D. Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Renner of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lamb of Carville, Mrs. Genevieve Dillman of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cracraft of Cathlamet, Washington.

An adoption committee, to secure homes for Pythian children in the Pythian Home at Vancouver, was appointed and included Julia Jones, Eva Marks and Mae Parker.

During the social hour, following the business session, the members were entertained with a vocal solo by Hazel Shaw accompanied by W. L. Torrey. Later the group was surprised with a supper prepared by Mrs. Jack Horner, Mrs. O. Shaw and Mrs. W. L. Torrey.

Will Study Music in Portland

Miss Harriet E. Groves will leave for Portland Monday, July 4th, to spend about two months studying piano with Mrs. Helen Lambert, one of Portland's best known piano teachers. While in Portland Miss Groves will review the Dunning Normal Course under the direction of Mrs. Jean Warren Carrick.

For the past year Miss Groves has been teaching piano and the Dunning System in Roseburg, Southern, and Oakland, having completed the Dunning Normal course in Portland one year ago. Miss Groves expects to return and continue her classes this fall.

A party of Roseburg people were brought to Reedsport and Winston Bay Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Hall of Klamath Falls will be a pretty event of Sunday morning at the Wright home in North Roseburg, only a few relatives and close friends being asked for the nuptials.

Rev. R. W. Asher will officiate at the service. The couple will make their home at Klamath Falls where Mr. Hall is employed.

ETHEL

FASHION NOTE

LONG SKIRTS HAVE NOT COME BACK—IN FRONT!

©1927 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

Roseburg Women Visit in Washington, D. C., Before Going Abroad

Mrs. Pearl B. Heath and Miss M. A. Ring of Roseburg, who left for the east June 19 to visit before sailing on the President Roosevelt from New York City for France June 29, were in Washington, D. C., for a few days this week, while they were staying at the Grace Dodge hotel. They also visited in Boston before going to New York City.

Mrs. Heath, who has been supervisor of art in the city schools for the past year, and Miss Ring will study in Paris for three months, both taking under prominent teachers of art. They will visit with Mrs. Heath's sister, Mrs. J. C. Van Schreve, while in the French capital and later plan to spend a few weeks at other points, dividing their time between Versailles, Malmesbury and Menton. Before their return to the states Mrs. Heath and Miss Ring will visit in Italy and Switzerland, and in Holland will be guests of another sister, Mrs. J. C. Heath, Mrs. B. Van der Liden. On their return to the west coast Miss Ring will take up Mrs. Heath's duties in Roseburg while the latter has a year's leave of absence.

Pretty Home Wedding Tuesday Morning

At ten o'clock on Tuesday morning, June 28, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Church, in Camas Valley, Miss Mildred Church and Mr. Loren Nokes were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. Joseph Knotts of the First Methodist church officiating. The wedding took place on the lawn beneath the large shade trees in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Cut flowers in pretty arrangements formed the background for the service.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Nokes left at once on their honeymoon trip, motoring north. They expect to make their home in Portland.

Mrs. Nokes has been teaching school since her graduation and has a large circle of friends in Camas Valley. Mr. Nokes has been a resident of Drain.

Miss Esther Harris to Be Bride of Albert Hall

The marriage of Miss Esther Harris, niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wendell Wright, and Mr. Albert Hall of Klamath Falls will be a pretty event of Sunday morning at the Wright home in North Roseburg, only a few relatives and close friends being asked for the nuptials.

Rev. R. W. Asher will officiate at the service. The couple will make their home at Klamath Falls where Mr. Hall is employed.

The bride-elect has been making her home with her uncle and aunt in Roseburg for the past several months and has a number of friends in the city.

Mrs. Greta Thornton Complimented at Pretty Affair

Mrs. Greta Thornton, a charming bride-elect, was the inspiration for a delightful evening of bridge and a miscellaneous shower planned Tuesday by Mrs. G. V. Wimberly and Mrs. J. R. Wharton, who asked twenty-two intimate friends of the bride to the Wimberly home.

Cut flowers of the season were colorful in the rooms. The prizes went to Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. Carl Wimberly, Mrs. Chas. S. McKinney. At the end of play luncheon was served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Chas. W. Wharton and Miss Florence Wharton.

The guest list included Mrs. Greta Thornton, Mrs. Roy Catching, Mrs. Ralph Quine, Mrs. Nathan Fullerton, Mrs. Kenneth Quine, Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. Chas. McKinney, Mrs. Guy Gordon, Mrs. Carl Wimberly, Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker, Mrs. H. L. Whipple, Mrs. Geo. Wharton, Mrs. A. B. Crawford, Mrs. Fred Schwartz, Mrs. A. M. Throne, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mrs. A. R. Moore, Mrs. G. Johnson, Mrs. J. Harold Nichols, Mrs. Chas. W. Wharton and Miss Florence Wharton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bemis, accompanied by the latter's sister, Miss Verma McDonald, left this morning by auto for northern points on a two-week trip. They will stop in Portland to visit with Mr. Bemis' brother, Franklin Bemis, and family, and in Seattle will be guests of another brother, Clifford Bemis. They will motor through British Columbia, visiting at Nanaimo, Banff and Lake Louise and on their return home will stop in Victoria.

Mrs. Osborn Is Hostess for Visitors

Mrs. Grant Osborn arranged a most delightfully informal evening of bridge on Thursday at her apartments, asking a group of intimate friends of Mrs. Ivan B. McKinney of Portland, who is visiting her parents here, and Miss Florence Wharton, who is home for the summer from Boise, Idaho.

Dorothy Perkins roses formed a pretty color note in the rooms where three tables were in play. First prize was won by Mrs. McKinney at the end of play. Refreshments were served by the hostesses. Bidden were Miss Florence Wharton, Mrs. Ivan B. McKinney, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. Herbert D. Quine, Mrs. Harrie Booth, Mrs. C. W. Wharton, Mrs. A. M. Throne, Mrs. Arthur Knausz, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Miss Verma Kohlhaugen, Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen, Miss Eva Rice, Miss Alice Teland and Miss Beas Wharton.

Mrs. Myth Hanan, who has been in Roseburg visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hanan, and friends, returned the first of the week to Pine Ridge, Oregon.

Beautiful Wedding Service Solemnized at Church in Evening

One of the season's most attractive and impressive weddings was solemnized Wednesday evening, June 29, when the nuptial vows were exchanged by Miss Gertrude Wickham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wickham of Roseburg, and Mr. Hugh Whipple, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Whipple of Drain, with the beautiful Episcopal double ring ceremony at the hour of 8 o'clock in the First Baptist church before a large assemblage bidden to the nuptials, relatives and friends of the bride and bridegroom numbering over three hundred.

The auditorium of the church, beautiful in itself, was enhanced by the use of masses of garden flowers and potted plants. Below the altar a background of ferns and greenery was brightened with profusions of Dorothy Perkins roses, statelily lilies, gladioli and Canterbury bells in delicate shades, forming the very lovely and fitting setting for the ceremony, which was read by Dr. Frank B. Matthews.

The color note re-echoed in an arrangement of flowers near the piano above the platform. The bouquets were used in marking off the aisle seats. Two tall floor lamps on each side of the raised platform and the lights above the altar shed soft beams of light over the auditorium.

Before the hour for the service Miss Gladys Strong played as the prelude, the "Spring Song," from Mendelssohn. Elsie Carleton Strang, with Miss Strong at the console, sang "Until, and Beyond," at the hour of the service. While the wedding party advanced through an aisle of white ribbon held by the ushers and as they were assembling at the altar, Miss Strong played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

The Misses June Bouck of Eugene and Betty Whipple of Roseburg were the quaint little flower girls, each frocked alike in pink organdie trimmed with lace, and carried small baskets filled with rose petals, which they scattered before the procession.

Mrs. Joe Deets, sister of the bride and matron of honor, chose a blonde silk crepe gown, enhanced with a wide crushed belt of pale green, which found a corresponding detail in a pretty flower on the left shoulder. The bottom of the skirt was banded with wide silk hand-painted lace in blonde, rose and green tones. Her slippers matched the costume, and a rhinestone ornament was worn in her hair.

Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen, maid of honor, wore a pale orchid silk frock, the simplicity relieved with a lovely front overskirt of silver lace. She wore a bandeau of cloth of silver and silver slippers. Both attendants carried bouquets of pink carnations and ferns with single sprays of pink gladioli and Delphinium.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white georgette and lace, rows of the material and silk lace forming the skirt of the sleeveless robe. Creamy satin ribbon with silver ornaments at the shoulder and waistline made a charming deviation from the usual. She wore a short silk tulle veil, which was beautifully embroidered and caught to the head in cap shape with a wreath of orange blossoms. The ensemble was completed with silver slippers. She carried a shower of pink roses and ferns.

George Singleton acted as best man and Joe Deets, Loren Britt and Dale Hatfield were the ushers. At the close of the service Miss Strong played, "Midsummer Night's Dream," from Mendelssohn, and the wedding party proceeded through the aisle of ribbon held by Frank R. Bouck of Eugene, and J. Allen Wickham.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents at 702 South Mill street. Hostesses of roses, sweet peas, Canterbury bells and Dorothy Perkins roses with ferns predominated in the attractive rooms. The parents of the bride and bridegroom received with the wedding party.

Assisting in the rooms were Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Miss Fay Geddes, Miss Vesta Beckley, Miss Lois Byrd, Miss Mildred Cochran and Miss Grace Carroll. Cutting the ties were Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen and Mrs. Carlos Pace, Mrs. B. F. Shields, Mrs. W. J. Clark and Mrs. E. E. Bouck of Eugene cut the cakes and presiding at the punch bowl was Miss Lotus Knight.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Whipple left on a motor trip for Seattle and Canada where they will spend two weeks. For her going away costume the bride chose a suit of ivory stripe in the tan tones. Her green chapeaux matched a quaint vest worn with the suit and accessories completed the ensemble.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Whipple graduated from Roseburg high school and have a wide circle of friends here. The bride attended Oregon Normal school and for the past few years has been teaching. Mr. Whipple attended O. A. C. where he was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Mrs. Ivan B. McKinney (Toka Haynes) of Portland has been an attractive visitor in Roseburg for the past week. She will be joined here today by Mrs. McKinney and they will spend the week-end with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Haynes.

Jeanette Rice and Allen Hewitt Wed at Quiet Ceremony

At a quiet but very lovely wedding ceremony read Wednesday morning at the hour of 9 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents on East Cass street, Miss Jeanette Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Rice, became the bride of Mr. Allen W. Hewitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hewitt.

The nuptial vows were read by Rev. Joseph Knotts, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, in the presence of the members of the families of the bride and bridegroom. An attractive background for the ceremony was formed with masses of lovely garden flowers in baskets and vases.

Immediately following their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt left for the northern part of the state and on their return will make their home in Roseburg.

The bride and bridegroom both attended and graduated from Roseburg high school and have a wide circle of friends in Roseburg. Mrs. Hewitt graduated from O. A. C. in 1926, and for the past year has been one of the members of the teaching staff in the Grants Pass schools. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Phi sorority and Phi Chi Theta national honorary society. Mr. Hewitt is employed here by the Associated Oil company.

Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen Dinner Hostess for Wedding Party

Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen arranged one of the most charming affairs of the week for Tuesday evening, entertaining at a 6:30 o'clock dinner at the Louis Kohlhaugen home on Military street for Miss Gertrude Wickham and Mr. Hugh Whipple and members of their wedding party.

The table was exquisitely appointed in pastel colors, four streamers of girlish and pink tulle extending from the chandelier above the table to the four pink candles, lending a lovely effect. Centering the table was a long basket of orchid and pink blossoms. The individual basket for the bridesmaids and bachelors for the men completed the appointments. A miniature shower bouquet distinguished the cover of the bride-elect. Seated about the table were Miss Gertrude Wickham, Mrs. Fred L. Strang, Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Deets, Miss Gladys Strong, Mrs. Hugh Whipple, Mrs. George Singleton, Mr. Dale Hatfield and Mr. Loren Britt, and the hostess.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen, Miss Verma Kohlhaugen and Miss Rosina Porter. Following the dinner hour rehearsal for the wedding at the church was held.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white georgette and lace, rows of the material and silk lace forming the skirt of the sleeveless robe. Creamy satin ribbon with silver ornaments at the shoulder and waistline made a charming deviation from the usual. She wore a short silk tulle veil, which was beautifully embroidered and caught to the head in cap shape with a wreath of orange blossoms. The ensemble was completed with silver slippers. She carried a shower of pink roses and ferns.

George Singleton acted as best man and Joe Deets, Loren Britt and Dale Hatfield were the ushers. At the close of the service Miss Strong played, "Midsummer Night's Dream," from Mendelssohn, and the wedding party proceeded through the aisle of ribbon held by Frank R. Bouck of Eugene, and J. Allen Wickham.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents at 702 South Mill street. Hostesses of roses, sweet peas, Canterbury bells and Dorothy Perkins roses with ferns predominated in the attractive rooms. The parents of the bride and bridegroom received with the wedding party.

Assisting in the rooms were Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Miss Fay Geddes, Miss Vesta Beckley, Miss Lois Byrd, Miss Mildred Cochran and Miss Grace Carroll. Cutting the ties were Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen and Mrs. Carlos Pace, Mrs. B. F. Shields, Mrs. W. J. Clark and Mrs. E. E. Bouck of Eugene cut the cakes and presiding at the punch bowl was Miss Lotus Knight.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Whipple left on a motor trip for Seattle and Canada where they will spend two weeks. For her going away costume the bride chose a suit of ivory stripe in the tan tones. Her green chapeaux matched a quaint vest worn with the suit and accessories completed the ensemble.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Whipple graduated from Roseburg high school and have a wide circle of friends here. The bride attended Oregon Normal school and for the past few years has been teaching. Mr. Whipple attended O. A. C. where he was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Mrs. Ivan B. McKinney (Toka Haynes) of Portland has been an attractive visitor in Roseburg for the past week. She will be joined here today by Mrs. McKinney and they will spend the week-end with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Haynes.

Greta Thornton and O. M. Berrie to Wed This Evening

An affair of interest to circles in the city will be the marriage of Mrs. Greta Thornton and Mr. O. M. Berrie, both of Roseburg, which will be an event of this evening.

It is planned that the wedding take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pournon (Yeva Buick) in Salem tonight at a quiet service. Following their marriage the bride and bridegroom will leave on a motor trip of northern points, including British Columbia. Most of the time will be spent at Lake Louise, in Canada.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Mary E. McLendon of Roseburg and is a young woman of charming personality. Mr. Berrie is in business in Roseburg, and both he and Mrs. Thornton have a wide circle of friends here.

Club Has Afternoon Frolic at Grove

The Garden Valley Women's Club enjoyed an outdoor meeting on Thursday afternoon at Hutton's Grove, with Mrs. R. S. Hutton as hostess. Following the regular business session, the guests were divided into two teams of equal numbers to compete in an athletic contest consisting of a relay race, baseball throw, shot put, discus throw, broad jump and yard dash. Mrs. G. McDaniel was scorekeeper and Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Sr., judge. The teams were evenly matched and the contest spirited, resulting in a victory by a small margin for Miss Niday's team, to whom the loving cup was presented.

At the close of the afternoon's (Continued on page 3.)

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS:

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF. ©1927 BY NEA SERVICE, INC. Pools rush in where wise men fear to wad.

MOVIES

LIBERTY THEATRE

World Series is in This Stirring Baseball Picture.

The world series, Americas baseball classic, has been utilized as the background for a motion picture, just as the Yale-Harvard game formed the background for "Brown of Harvard" and with the same here, in William Haimes. This is "Slide, Kelly, Slide," Me-Tro-Goldwyn-Mayer's spectacular romance of big league baseball, which comes Sunday to the Liberty Theatre with Haimes as the redoubtable "Kelly," Sally O'Neil, Harry Carey, Dorothy Sebastian, Karl Dane, and a famous cast, augmented by the best known professional ball players in the country, such men as Bob Meusel, "Irish" Meusel, Tony Lazzeri, and other heroes of the New York Yankees.

Double Bill at Liberty Today. "Alaskan Adventures" the thrilling Pathe adventure picture and record of the miracles of nature filmed in the northern wilderness is at the Liberty today.

This six-reel subject is a masterpiece of photography and scenic beauty and combines adventure and the drama of vast silent spaces and the mystery and lure of nature at its wildest. Two years in the making, "Alaskan Adventures" recites the pictorial experiences of Capt. Jack Robertson, noted explorer, and Arthur H. Young, world's champion bow-and-arrow shot and big game hunter.

Today and tonight marks your last chance to see that wonderful movie actor, "Ranger," the Barrymore dog stars, in FBO's production of "When a Dog Loves," which has furnished mighty entertainment for the patrons of the Liberty theatre for 2 days.

The work of this dog star has placed it at the top of canine actors for the films and much of its success is due to the splendid story and direction.