

LUMBER MILLS IN THE AZALEA DISTRICT BUSY

Two Mills Now in Full
Operation and Others
Ready to Start
Runs Soon.

A busy section of Douglas county is that of Azalea, some 3 or 4 miles off the highway, where four small sawmills are operating, supplying lumber for both local and outside trade.

George Jantzer has a well-equipped mill, with a capacity of 20,000 feet daily. Some 20 men are employed in the mill and woods, and Mr. Jantzer, who, through years of experience, is efficient in all phases of mill work, is his own foreman.

Some two years supply of timber remains near the mill and when that is exhausted, Mr. Jantzer plans to move his mill to a new location and increase its capacity.

Being able, through having complete equipment, to turn out any kind of lumber desired, and giving quick service, Mr. Jantzer has received around 15 bridge lumber contracts around the county and recently got a $4,000 contract for the lumber of the new steel bridge at Galice, over Rogue river, which structure is to replace the big bridge washed out during the high water this spring.

While admitting that the lumber market is not what it was a few years ago, Mr. Jantzer maintains that, handled intelligently there is a good profit in the small mill and a ready market for all they can produce.

A short distance up the road, is the mill owned by L. R. Jenks. Extensive repairs have been made, and active operation will start next week.

The Jenks mill has also a daily capacity of 20,000 and gives employment to some 16 men. Timber sufficient for seven or eight years cutting is adjacent to the mill and logs are trucked in and dumped in a pond large enough to hold 150,000 feet. The old mill dam on Azalea creek went out in the high water last spring so a new and larger one had to be constructed.

Fir, pine and cedar logs are being sawed and both rough and dressed lumber is being turned out and trucked to Glendale, where it is loaded for California and the East. The mill ships two or three cars each week.

The slump in the market some years ago was caused by overproduction, according to Mr. Jenks, but with many mills down now, and with overhead costs cut to a minimum he finds that all the lumber they can saw, can be disposed of to good advantage, and the mill can run the year round.

The John Jantzer mill, still farther up the road, is not running full time, and Mr. Jantzer contemplates disposing of his logs to one of the other mills.

The Clare-Morrison mill formally at Dillard, now has new holdings above Azalea, and will start operating shortly, when their equipment is fully in shape.

DAPHNE HUGHES TO REPRESENT STATE AT CONFERENCE

Miss Daphne Hughes, one of the five delegates to represent the Oregon Older Girls' organization at the International Older Girls' conference at Geneva, Colo., near Denver, Colorado, will leave tonight for Portland to join the other four delegates and chaperon from this state, going to the convention. Miss Hughes was a delegate to the state meeting this year and was selected as one of the representatives for the two weeks of summer camp. The girls from each state represented will have the right to try out for the Shield, a trophy which Oregon has held for two years, and which, if won again this year, will be kept by the state organization.

The convention is carried on in the manner of a school, with morning study and devotional session. Physical exercises are also a part of the program and athletics and sports are given in the regular classes. To compete for the Shield

Richards to Solve Your Problems

Have you sent your question to Richards? Dozens of others have. Richards will be busy answering them for tomorrow's edition of The News-Review. Richards will answer questions about business, love affairs, journeys, plans, changes, real estate, health, and most anything, in fact, if the writer sends the inquiry addressed to Richards, in care of The News-Review. All of his replies will be printed, provided you sign your name and address, as an evidence of good faith. Only your initials will be published. Questions are answered by the magician in the News-Review or during the regular performance at the Antlers theatre. He does not

RICHARDS

REBEKAHS!
Every Rebekah is asked to cash two quarters of loganberry juice to contribute to Grand Lodge entertainment next May.
By order of the Lodge.

each girl attending is rated on four points: spiritual, intellectual, physical and moral life. For the past two years the Oregon girls have held the highest rating and had a splendid record. The evenings at the meeting will be given over to stunts, the groups of girls from each state, presenting some stunt to represent her state. It is planned that the Southern Oregon Older Girls' conference be held here in August, and on her return Miss Hughes will have charge of the conference.

LUCY ANN WATSON PIONEER PEEL RESIDENT DEAD

Mrs. Lucy Ann Watson died at her home near Peel yesterday about 1:20 p. m. after a long illness. Lucy Ann Matthews was born July 19, 1853 on Deer creek, being the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Matthews. She was married to Charles F. Watson of Glide, Oregon, on October 23, 1881, where they made their home. To this union were born nine children, seven of whom survive, James and Nancy having passed before. They are Mrs. O. C. Houser of Roseburg; Mrs. D. C. Smith, of Sandpoint, Idaho; Mrs. V. B. McKean and Mrs. J. P. Brumach, of Dixonville, and Mrs. C. D. Talcott, of Melrose, two sons, Ellis and Floyd of Glide. She is also survived by four brothers A. A. Matthews of Glide; L. G. Matthews, of Dixonville; I. A. and L. L. Matthews, of Roseburg and also 17 grandchildren. Services will be held in the chapel of The Douglas Funeral Home, Saturday, July 9 at 2 p. m., Rev. Frank B. Matthews, officiating. Interment will take place at the Masonic cemetery. Funeral arrangements are being taken care of by H. C. Stearns.

TWO NEW BRIDGES ARE BEING BUILT NEAR CANYONVILLE

Work on the two bridges over Canyon creek, just south of Canyonville, is progressing rapidly and it is expected that they will be open to traffic by August 1.

The new bridges are steel pony trusses and are replacing old wooden structures, which were rapidly deteriorating and had also been considered weakened by the high water this spring. The structures are 71 feet long and 20 feet wide and are costing around $6,000. One bridge is to have a wooden decking, while the other will be paved.

Contract for the construction was let to the O. N. Pierce Co., of Portland, and this work is in charge of A. M. Yerks, who has worked for that company for 20 years and is one of their most efficient foremen. Some 10 men are employed on the job. Before the bridges are carrying the traffic now, but, according to Mr. Yerks, the bridges can be opened about the first of next month.

DON'T PUNISH THE LAD
Victor: "If George doesn't stop crying send him down and I'll sing to him."
Vera: "No, that won't work. I've threatened him with that already."
—Humorist.

DAILY WEATHER REPORT
U. S. Weather Bureau, local office, Roseburg, Oregon, 24 hours ending 5 a. m.
Relative humidity 5 p. m., yes. 43
Precip. in inches and hundredths: Highest temperature yesterday 72
Lowest temperature last night 52
Precipitation last 24 hours 0
Total precipitation since first month 0
Normal precipitation for this month .39
Total precip. from September 1926, to date .35.90
Average precip. from Sept. 1, 1877 .33.93
Total excess from Sept. 1, 1926 .1.97
Average precipitation for 49 wet seasons, (September to May, inclusive) .31.12
Forecast for southwest Oregon: Generally fair tonight and Saturday, not much change in temperature.

ARTHUR W. PUGH,
Meteorologist.

Today

NASH Announces

3 entirely new series of cars

including

New Body Designs

Lower Body Lines

New Radiator Design

Greater Smoothness

New Alloy Steel Springs

New Riding Comfort

New Larger Motor

Smaller Wheels

New Interior Finishes

New Color Harmonies

New Steering Ease and

New Lower Prices

your inspection is invited

L. R. CHAMBERS MOTOR COMPANY

444 North Jackson Street

Phone 649

Roseburg, Oregon

FLASHES OF LIFE

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.—Because of the use of cigarettes by women a "landslide in physical, mental and moral degeneracy" is feared by Dr. D. H. Kress, of Washington, vice-president of the Anti-Cigarette League of America. He thinks the habit explains decreasing birth rate. He gave his views at the conference of New Jersey Seventh Day Adventists.

NEW YORK—Martha Mason, stage dancer, was fined $5 for leaving her car on a street seven hours. Her excuse was that her darling chow puppy chewed a cigarette stub and became frightfully ill.

RAPID CITY—Since Mr. Coolidge has ridden a horse given him by cowboys the question arises whether he will smoke a pipe presented by Indians. It is of cherry wood, decorated with beads, porcupine quills and buckskin. J. T. Standing Elk, spokesman for the donors, told the president to smoke it.

GUILFORD, Conn.—Having survived turmoils in China where he was a missionary for 33 years, the Rev. Charles E. Ewing was killed in an automobile accident three weeks after his return home.

WASHINGTON—For every five American citizens there is one auto, is on the way home to England, tomorrow, the Department of Commerce notes.

KEOTA, Iowa—Where men are men, hailstones are as big as baseballs. Sundry folk tell of using a tape measure and proving the pellets were eleven inches in circumference.

NEWARK, N. J.—Alo, four thousand barrels, all antedating the 18th amendment and some of it 20 years old, is to be shipped to Pittsburgh and become vinegar for pickles. It is going in tank cars, its owners now sell coal and ice.

NEW YORK—Having driven her automobile 11,000 miles on five continents, Miss Violette Cordery, seven years ago she began driving cars in races. The long tour was for the purpose of studying the service a car could give under all conditions.

WAY AHEAD OF THEM

First parent: When are Lucy and the young man going to get married?

Second parent: I don't know—they're quarreling over what the alimony settlement is to be.

Judge.

WRITE IT DOWN
She: "Mrs. Blank is offended at something I fear. She hasn't been near us."
He: "Find out what it is and I'll try it on her again."—Horibier, Berlin.

INDICTED FOR AUTO THEFT

Clyde Cornett and Lester Rodd, arrested some time ago in Roseburg on an auto theft charge, were indicted by the federal grand jury in Portland yesterday. The men were turned over to the government by the county. They drove a car from Newport, Oregon, to Glenn's Ferry, Newport, before the theft, which resulted in their arrest at Roseburg, the government claims.

DETAINED, MAYBE

"Can I speak to your father today, my little man?"
"Papa is at the law courts."
"But you said that a month ago."
"He's still there."—Die Musikette, Vienna.

TWO-FACED BACKBITER

Percy: "What do you think of Brown?"
Patrick: "He is one of those fellows who pat you on the back before your face and bit you in the eye behind your back."—Answers, London.

JUST FOR A WHILE

He: "When you promised to obey at the altar you waived certain rights."
She: "Yes, but it wasn't a permanent waiver."—Answers, London.

"DUMB, DRIVEN"

Simon: "The trouble with Fenestra is she has too much pulchritude."
Simonetta: "That's funny; I always thought she was kinda pretty."—Judge.