ond place, stole home in the tenth

inning against Cleveland and enabled the Senators to win in their sixth straight from the Indians

7 to 2. Bill Barrett's daring

thievery in the ninth won for the Chicago White Sox against Boston,

7 to 6. With the score tied in the final inning, Barrett singled, stole second, went to third, when the catcher's throw rolled to the outfield, and came home while Flak-

stead juggled the ball.

The Yankees drubbed the Detroit

Tigers, 8 to 5, in the last of the six-

game series.

The Athletics made it 7 to 4 over

St. Louis.

There was little activity in the National league. St. Louis gained half a game on the Cubs and Pirates, who were idle. Grover

Cleveland Alexander had a great day against Philadelphia, holding

Melvin's men to four hits and

whitewashing them, 7 to 0.

The league-leading Chicago Cubs

were rained out at Boston. Other teams were not scheduled.

County Allots

$5,000 TO APPLY

ON COAST ROAD

An appropriation of $5,000 to apply on the county's share of the construction cost of the Rosevelt highway between Reedport and Marshfield was voted by the county court today. The county

state, government and Unqua Improvement District are all cooperating in this road project, each bearing a proportionate share of the cost.

Tax Money To

BE APPORTIONED

TO ROAD DISTRICTS

A division of tax receipts to the various road districts of the county is being ordered by the county court during the present term. The appropriation will be based on a proportion of one-half for the county and one-half for the district. Such distributions are ordered by the court whenever the accumulation of tax money is sufficient to allow the money to be credited to the various districts.

M. B. JOHNSON
DIES AT SUTHERLIN

Martin B. Johnson, a resident of Sutherlin for many years and well known in that vicinity, died early this morning at the age of 66 years.

Mr. Johnson was born in Nicholville, Minn., May 5, 1861. He came to Oregon about 19 years ago, settling at Sutherlin, where he has since made his home.

Mr. Johnson is survived by his wife, three step children, six sisters and three brothers. Arrangements for the funeral will be made on the arrival of relatives. The body has been removed to the Douglas Funeral Home.

After having established himself as a filmland's greatest female impersonator, Syd Chaplin has forsaken that role and swung to the opposite role of characterization in Warner Bros. production of "The Better Ole," directed by Charles F. Reisner.

In "Charley's Aunt," "The Man on the Box" and "Oh, What a Nurse" he impersonated successfully a prim old aunt—but with her jolly moments, a kitchen lady's maid, a newspaper woman and an irresistible nurse.

Now comes a complete change with "The Better Ole." An Old Bill Bushy, Bruce Bairnsfather's universally loved character, Syd Chaplin plays the gruff old soldier, set in habits and endearing eccentricities, with walrus mustache, stubby pipe, woolen muffler, fingerless mitts, unkempt in appearance but with a tender conscience and a heart of gold.

"The Better Ole" has been acclaimed everywhere as the funniest of war pictures. It is at the Liberty Theatre for the last time today.

With apologies to such gentlemen as O'Sullivan and Goodyear, might we suggest another remedy for that down-in-the-mouth or down-at-the-heel feeling? For a general rejuvenating process, toning up and injection of pep, there's nothing that can compare to Ed Wynn's initial starring picture "Rubber Heels" which reached the Antlers Theatre yesterday.

"Rubber Heels" directed with as much mastery by Victor Heerman, presents Wynn as the graduate of a correspondence school in detecting. With sheep skin in hand, he applies for work at Conklin's private police agency. Though Wynn doesn't know it, Conklin's office is really a meeting place for Crooks. Naturally, when the conscientious rookie discovers this, all sorts of things are apt to happen. And—they do!

FLASHES OF LIFE

(By The Associated Press.)

LONDON — Thunderbolts mean nothing to Fraulein Tessa Rasche, petite stout girl. She and Mrs. Elliott Lynn outdressed a storm in going by air from Croydon to Southampton in order that the fraulein might connect with the Leviathan for a trip to the United States.

NEW YORK—Nicola Testa, electrical wizard, at 71 is finally re-settled to live to be 130, or one better than one of his ancestors, who died at the age of 129. The inventor was born at exactly midnight, so he is not sure when his birthday is.

RAPID CITY—In Squaw creek the trout seem to prefer presidential flies to worms. Right after Mr. Dawes left Chicago for New Mexico, announcing that he was for flies, the president changed his methods and hauled in six fish, one a two pounder.

VER SUR MER—One of Commander Byrd's pleasant recollections of his landing place in France, will be a farewell brew at the home of Mme. Emile Coiffier.

CHICAGO—With his wealthy bride, who preferred another marriage to a European trip with a sister, Richard Bennett, actor, is to spend his honeymoon in Chicago at work. His bride received her final decree of divorce last Friday from Harry Conhill Hastings, San Francisco polo player.

PARIS—It may be tough on fellows who want to see Dimpsey fight Sharkey, but Jack Kearns must have his bit. He plans to arrive in New York one day before the fight, and if collection of his bill interferes with the bout, well, he's sorry—that's all.
