ESKIMO PIE

She says she doesn't know anything that costs so little and gives so much as Eskimo Pie. You just peel back the wrapper and let your teeth sink into that crunchy chocolate coating and down through that big helpin' of de-licious ice cream. Boy, how it hits the spot! And our doctor says it's great to keep a fellow strong and vigorous, too. I'm an Eskimo Pie fan for life, yes sirc!

CLAIRE WINDSOR PUTS SIGNATURE ON DIVORCE PLEA

(Associated Press Special Wire)

LOS ANGELES, July 15.—The Examiner says Claire Windsor, film star, last night, announced her intention of today affixing her signature to a divorce complaint against her actor husband, Bert Lyell, in which she will charge mental cruelty. A property agreement will be signed by her at the same time.

While their affairs were moving toward a divorce action, the two screen stars last night showed that the action would not be a bitter one. The couple dined together as the guests of mutual friends, Edwin Carewe, the director, and his wife. Later they went to a theatre together.

"I believe it is true that my wife is to seek a divorce," said Lyell. "However, there will be no scandal to it. We have a great deal of respect for each other thru all our differences."

He said he had signed several deeds over to his wife and would sign a cash settlement today.

SAN FRANCISCO—South Sea Island dappers are wearing more and more clothes—and the one who most strenuously opposes the new style is Joseph Barnard, Bishop of Sajaia, and the Union Island. The natives, he says, are ruining their health by the adoption of white men's habits. Only the scantiest clothing allows them to remain well, so the women should not wear even the flimsy lingerie of their white sisters.

MAJOR LEAGUE RESULTS

Two crushing defeats at the hands of a tall-end club round John McGraw's Giants today in anything but a happy frame of mind.

Cincinnati punctured Giant aspirations yesterday, winning the first game, 8-6, and then shelling Virgil Barnes for an 8-3 win.

Pittsburgh took the third game of the series from Brooklyn, 6-5.

"Tiny" Osborn's at-line pitching gave the Chicago Cubs a 6-1 win over the Boston Braves. Chicago thus held on to its game and a half lead over the Pirates for first place.

The St. Louis Cardinals, after three straight victories over Philadelphia, bowed before Clarence Mitchell's southpaw pitball shoals, 7-2.

The Cleveland Indians stopped an 8-game losing streak and the Yanks at the same time. The American league leaders were set back 4-1.

Although held to five hits, the St. Louis Browns beat Boston, 4-2. Detroit was leading Washington, 2-0, when rain halted the game in the third inning. The Athletics and White Sox were rained out.

YOUTH MAKES TRY TO BREAK JAIL

Glen Yau, the 16-year-old Los Angeles boy, held in the city jail on a motorcycle theft charge, made another attempt to escape jail yesterday. The boy pried loose a section of two-by-four from the wall, after knocking off a section of plastering, and was using this in an effort to pry his way out of the cell when J. G. Hodges, working for Chief of Police Vaughn who was at the jail yesterday attending the officers' convention discovered the boy at work. Yau attempted to stand the officer off with the board, but was finally overpowered and was locked in an individual cell.

THEATRES

LIBERTY THEATRE

Clear the decks and prepare to welcome the newest star to appear on the comedy horizon!

Harrison Ford, for years leading man for numerous well known feminine artists including Norma Talmadge, Marion Davies and Gloria Swanson, attained his greatest triumph as a light comedian by his artistry in "The Nervous Wreck," "Almost a Lady," and "Up in Mabel's Room." He possesses a subtlety of manner that strikes a responsive chord with his audiences.

He is sure to materially add to his laurels by his clever characterization in the Metropolitan picture, "No Control." In this he plays the part of a radio "bug," who becomes enamored of a pretty circus rider, portrayed by Phyllis Haver. His work under the big tent results in some of the funniest situations ever filmed.

Phyllis Haver, who was seen to exceptional advantage in Leatrice Joy's latest picture, "Nobody's Widow," is co-featured with Ford in "No Control," which comes to the Liberty today.

"Cradle Snatchers," the stage farce that had Broadway audiences shouting with laughter during a two years' run, has been transferred to the screen by Fox Films, and local audiences are promised a mirth-fest, when this picture has a showing at the Liberty theatre commencing next Sunday.

There's a nice present for the lucky bidder at the Auction House next Saturday. Sale starts at 2 p. m.

INSURANCE RECORDS SHOW FARM COMEBACK

CHICAGO, July 14.—The farmer is emerging from six years of agricultural depression, insurance figures by Robert D. Lay, president of the National Life Insurance company, indicate.

"For the first time in six years," he says, "farmers are back to normal in the amount of money borrowed on life insurance policies. Their borrowings are an accurate index of their financial situation. When times are bad they borrow heavily and the loans diminish as times grow better."

"For 18 months the statistics on 200,000 rural policies show an improvement, and figures for May show a return to the normal of 1921."
