Sharkey Tells Why He Loves Fighting Game

NEW YORK, July 19.—Jack Sharkey is telling a love story. The scene is in the little dressing room down one flight of steps from the ice pavilion on top of Madison Square Garden. Outside, 1500 fans are gathered around a ring pitched in the center of the rink. They are waiting for the daily afternoon workout. One can hear the buzz of their conversation filtering through the doorway. Johnny Mackey is peering as he tapes his star's precious knuckles. Sharkey? Oh, to be sure, Sharkey is talking. The Fighting Photographers—well, here's the love story.

"I love to fight," chatters Sharkey, explaining why fighters get that way. "I always liked a fight. The greatest thrill in my life is standing up at the first bell, rubbed, tingling with the massage and stepping forward under the big lights looking for the first opening to put a punch through and wondering if the other fellow will land first."

HOW MRS. WEAVER WAS HELPED

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

As Mrs. Weaver herself says, "I was never very strong."

A mild statement describing her condition, for according to her doctors, she was subjected to no small amount of ill health. Fortunately, her sister was familiar with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begged Mrs. Weaver to try it. "After three or four weeks," writes Mrs. Weaver, "I felt a great difference in myself. I would go to bed and sleep sound, and although I could not do very much work, I seemed stronger."

kept on taking it and now I am well and strong, do my work and take care of three children. I sure do tell my friends about your wonderful medicine, and I will answer any letters from women asking about the Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Weaver, East Smithfield St., Mt. Pleasant, Pa.

If you know that thousands of women suffering from troubles similar to those you are enduring had improved their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, wouldn't you think it was worth a trial?
