ARCHDUKE LEOPOLD IN U. S. FILMS TO RAISE DUEL COIN

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., July 21.—Archduke Leopold of Austria today began his work as a film extra to raise funds for his return to Hungary and the duel to which he challenges Count Laszlo Szechenyi, Hungarian minister to the United States.

The duel is sought by Leopold to avenge an insult which he said the minister hurled at him two weeks ago when the embassy declared "tactless" the archduke's request that it handle a loan which he was attempting to flort. Count Szechenyi is now in Europe. The archduke wants to follow him to fight the duel. But it is a case, according to his secretary, Alfred Neuhardt, of the spirit being willing, even eager, but the pocketbook woefully weak.

Beginning his day at 8 o'clock in the morning, the noble actor rehearsed and toiled and perspired before the camera all day. His faithful secretary mopped the royal brow after each camera shot.

Since the bit played by the archduke, that of a German army captain called for a crop of hair, and the archduke, although young, is approaching baldness, a toupee was pasted upon his pate.

One difficulty arose. The archduke was required to salute a general. Leopold could not register the correct salute.

"Excuse, please," he apologized. "I have never salute. In my country everybody they salute me, but I do not salute."

UNKNOWN GOLFER TAKES LEAD FROM EVANS AT SEATTLE

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

SEATTLE, July 21.—Minus its nationally famous star, Chick Evans of Chicago, who fell yesterday before the brilliant playing of Harold Neimeyer of Seattle, a virtually unknown, the fourth day of the western amateur golf tournament, today found one middle westerner and seven Pacific coast players paired in the 36 hole quarter finals of the elimination match play.

The matches today were as follows:

Frank Dolp of Portland, defending champion, vs. Fay Coleman, Los Angeles.

Bon Stein, Seattle, vs. Neimeyer.

Eddy Held, St. Louis, vs. Roy Moe of Portland:

Dr. O. F. Willing of Portland, vs. Chandler Egan of Medford.

Dolp yesterday defeated Tom Green of Seattle and Don Moe of his own home town to successfully defend his crown in the first two rounds of match play. Stein, runner up to Dolp last year, in his effort to again reach the finals of the western tourney, conquered Louis Klaue of Spokane and Dixie Fleager, his club mate.

Held, the only one of the seven middle western qualifiers to survive the first two rounds, eliminated Harold Thompson, Los Angeles, and Chuck Hunter of Tacoma.

A hard struggle between the two old rivals, Forest Watson of Spokane and Dr. O. F. Willing of Portland, was settled at the nineteenth hole when the Oregon man eliminated Watson with a par four at the extra hole.

After playing sloppy golf for the first ten holes, Chandler Egan pulled himself together and won the eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth, in succession, to take the match, and eliminate Emerson Cary of Hutchinson, Kansas. He shot birdies at the eleventh, thirteenth and fourteenth, and pars at the twelfth and fifteenth.

The program calls for the 36 hole semi-finals tomorrow with the finals Saturday over the same distance.

ROOT PREDICTS 300 MILLION TAX SLASH

DENVER, Colo., July 21—Reduction of at least $300,000,000 in federal taxes next year, repeal of the federal inheritance tax and a special session of congress in October are forecast by United States Senator Reed Smoot of Utah, a Denver visitor.

He expressed a hope that congress will reduce the corporation tax one and one half per cent, which he said would mean about $150,000,000. "After that," he said, "we will take as many of the discriminatory items as we can." These, he explained, are certain automobile and semi-luxury taxes.

GERMAN APPRENTICES EARN TWELVE DOLLARS MONTHLY

BERLIN, July 21.—Almost four million wage earners in Germany must content themselves with a monthly wage of $12, or 50 marks, according to figures by the institute for economic research. Most of these underpaid workers are apprentices.

By far the largest group of wage earners draws monthly wages of $25 to $75. It comprises 8 1-3 millions. Almost 5½ millions earn from $12 to $25.

The figures were arrived at on the basis of sales of official insurance stamps. Under the German law, all wage earners are compelled to enroll in one of the government invalid, old age and sickness institutions. The premium is paid weekly, in proportion to the income, in the form of insurance stamps bought at the post office. The statistics cover the cases of

Of these 18 millions, only 350,000 earn more than $75 monthly.

DEPOSITORS ORDERED PAID

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

PORTLAND, Ore., July 21.—Frank C. Bramwell, superintendent of banks, has authorized the payment of a 20 per cent dividend to depositors of the Bank of Stanfield in process of liquidation. Notices will be published today and the dividend payments will be made at the end of 10 days.

FLASHES OF LIFE

(By The Associated Press.)

OAKLAND, Calif.—There's a difference of opinions among delegates to the convention of Business and Professional Womens clubs as to the reasons for bachelors of both sexes, says Miss Mary Zapp of Pocatello, Idaho. The modern girl seldom finds a man who meets with her approval as a companion and who still earns as much as she does. And Mrs. Elva Wilcox of New Jersey answers: "It is all a question of romance which some never find."

NEW YORK—A life of ease "for a model husband" has been ended. Vincenzo Barbaro, 31, obtained a written promise from his bride that she would earn enough money to support him and her two children and also do the housework. A year passed. Mrs. Barbaro became ill and had to quit work in a factory. Then she said in court, he hit her and she had him arrested. "But," she explained regarding the situation up till the blow, "he was a model husband. He did not drink or smoke. He never stayed out late and he was no bother."

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Douglas County.

Wadhams & Co., Incorporated, Plaintiff, vs. L. E. Freyler, Ida Freyler, his wife, and also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein, Defendants.

To L. E. Freyler, to Ida Freyler, his wife, and also to all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein, the above named defendants:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you, and each of you, are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause within four weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, or within four weeks from the date of the service thereof, if the same be served upon you personally without the state of Oregon, and if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief therein demanded, a succinct statement of which is as follows:

For a decree of the above entitled court quieting plaintiff's title in and to the following described real property, namely: Lot four in block fifteen in the town of Glendale, in Douglas County, Oregon.

This summons is served upon you, and each of you, known and unknown, by publication thereof in the Roseburg News - Review, a newspaper of general circulation published at Roseburg, in Douglas County, Oregon, pursuant to the order of the honorable J. W. Hamilton, Judge of the above entitled court, duly made and entered on the 22nd day of June, 1927, directing and authorizing that this summons be published once a week for four successive weeks and requiring you to appear and answer plaintiff's complaint within four weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, which is the 23rd day of June, 1927, the date of the last publication of this summons being the 21st day of July, 1927, or within four weeks after personal service hereof, if personal service of this summons be made upon you without the state of Oregon.

GUY CORDON,
Attorney for Plaintiff.
Residence and postoffice address: Roseburg, Oregon.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

Notice is hereby given, that the undersigned Administrator of the estate of Lewis Ash, deceased, has filed his final account in the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Douglas County, and the Hon. Geo K. Quine, Judge of said court has appointed Tuesday, the 2nd day of August, 1927, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day in the county courtroom in the courthouse in Roseburg, Douglas County, Oregon, as the time and place for hearing objections, if any, to said account and the settlement thereof.

All persons interested in said estate are hereby notified to file their objections, if any, to said account at or before the date appointed for final hearing as aforesaid.

Dated this 23rd day of June, 1927.

ADDISON H. ASH,
Administrator of the Estate of Lewis Ash, Deceased.

SUMMONS NO. 5161

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Douglas County.

Clarence O. Baker, Plaintiff, vs. Mabel Baker, Defendant.

To: Mabel Baker, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of plaintiff filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before four weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint, plaintiff for want thereof will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said complaint, a succinct statement of which is as follows, to-wit:

For a decree dissolving the marriage contract now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and awarding to plaintiff an absolute decree of divorce from defendant, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof once each week for four consecutive weeks in the Roseburg News - Review, a newspaper of general circulation published and issued regularly in Roseburg, Douglas County, Oregon, by order of the Hon. J. W. Hamilton, Judge of the above entitled court, made on the 17th day of June, 1927, and you are hereby required to appear and answer the same on or before four weeks from the date of the first publication hereof, which is the 23rd day of June, 1927.
