the synod to meet in Albany in 1928. The recommendation will be taken up the last day of the synod. President Greene in his report spoke of the department of Bible and religious education being established at the college, asking for support from the synod.

AN IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Readers of The Watch Tower be distributed a message of comfort and hope, as well as fort and good cheer; a message which vitally concerns every thoughtful in this manner of the opportunity which is theirs to hear an address by Judge J. F. Rutherford, president of the International Bible Students Association, to be delivered by him on the seventh day of the international convention of Bible Students in Toronto, Can.

Through the gracious providence of Jehovah, an offer of the facilities of the National Broadcasting Company of New York was extended by its president on June 15 to Judge Rutherford, to broadcast his address, without charge to him or to the people. The offer was accepted for Sunday, July 24, 1927. Simultaneously, therefore, among the people of the entire nation (and also among many in lands beyond the seas) there will be heard the voice of the speaker of the platform of The Coliseum, Toronto, by telephone wire to New York City. Entering at that point upon the network of interconnected radio stations, it will be broadcast simultaneously by the stations listed on this card. A select musical program preceding and following the address will be provided by the courtesy of the Broadcasting company.

Listeners in the British Isles, Australia, South America, Africa, and Continental Europe will have opportunity to hear this program broadcast by Stations KDKA and WGY on short wave at 11 o'clock. This program will be broadcast Sunday, July 24, promptly at 11 o'clock.
