FLASHES OF LIFE (Associated Press Local Wire) STONY BROOK, N. Y.—The Rev. A. C. Robertson, of Louisville, tells like flinging a brick at anybody who calls him "a gentleman of the cloth." He told a minister's conference here that a preacher should avoid "the Belasco collar" and other distinctive ministerial garb. NEWARK, N. J.—Millions and millions are little compared with a mother's love. A wealthy uncle and aunt wished to adopt Sally Miles, 12, whose parents are divorced. Judge Walter Van Riper denied permission, saying "I do not believe the court is morally justified in destroying the sacred relationship of parent and child simply for financial benefits." NEW YORK—Extra! Interview with J. P. Moran when he left for Scotland "You can repeat what you wrote last year when I called. Group hunting? Yes, that's it, or part of it. Just say the same thing." MACKINAC ISLAND, Mich.—In addition to being governor of New Hampshire, Huntley N. Spaulding is a golfer. Anybody who can do 18 holes in 84 is entitled to such distinction. He won the championship of the governors' conference with no hard opposition. Pieno at Idlewild Park.

The Choice of an increasing percentage of the folks we serve is to have the last service held in our splendid, beautiful chapel. We think ourselves that it is the better way. Chapel services always have an element of appropriateness about them that is soothing and comforting. Our chapel is placed at the disposal of those who call upon us—no charge is made for its use.
