Policy of Associated Press Told to W. C. T. U. Delegates

Purpose is to give impartial report on all News Happenings and to provide "Clean" News at all Times—Necessary to Serve all Classes without Favor—Accuracy and Fairness to all is Aim.

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 31.—The Associated Press attitude on "Clean News" was the subject of an address here today by Edgar T. Cutler of Chicago, superintendent of the Central division of The Associated Press, at the fifty-third convention of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

A lack of information of the real mission of The Associated Press and the more than 1,200 daily member newspapers that it serves has, said Mr. Cutler, led in some quarters to a feeling that their particular duties were not adequately covered by the public.

"If you will realize at the start that The Associated Press' mission is to report impartially all happenings of general interest and that it can have no interest in taking sides on any question, whether it be peace or war, religion, woman suffrage, the politics of republicans or democrats, or the question of 'dry' or 'wet' it will bring us quickly to an understanding of this world-wide news organization, which has been spoken of as one of the greatest forces for good of our times," he declared.

"Perhaps I can state it best by quoting the recent remarks of Mr. O. J. Bell of Fulton, Missouri, a man respected by his fellow newspaper workers for his impartial handling of public questions and who has earned a place high in his state. Mr. Bell said this:

"In a free country it is essential that the people know the truth concerning not only their government but also of those things of news which affect them as individuals. In a free country intelligence must not be bound or subsidized or corrupted. It must be free; it must be honest. Because it collects and disseminates The Truth in this free country, The Associated Press is a great national bulwark.

"Every intelligent newspaper reader in America knows The Associated Press is a cooperative, non-profit-making organization which devotes itself exclusively to just one task—reporting the truth. He knows The Associated Press has no editorial policies to conform to and no self-seeking masters to please. Hence he trusts The Associated Press, even though he mistrusts some of its member newspapers.

"If The Associated Press were a privately owned institution, selling its services to whomever would buy, it could not serve the nation as it does, for though it might be ever so honest and ever so capable, it could not free itself entirely from suspicion and doubt. Because it is what it is, The Associated Press has the confidence of the public. And being incorruptible and unafraid, as well as always intelligent and ever alert,

SHE WENT FROM BAD TO WORSE

Down to 98 Pounds—Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cleveland, Ohio.

"After having my first baby, I lost weight, no matter what I did. Then a doctor told me I would be better if I had another baby, which I did. But I got worse, was always sickly and went down to 98 pounds. My neighbor told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it helped her very much, so I tried it. After taking four bottles, I weigh 116 pounds. I had just done wonders for me and I can do my housework now without a bit of trouble."—Mrs. M. Ritscher, 19094 Nelson Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

If some good fairy should appear, and offer to grant your heart's desire, what would you choose? Health? That's the best gift. Health is riches that gold cannot buy and surely health is cause enough for happiness. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be the good fairy who offers you better health.

side. It is not for us to editorialize on such news, or to discriminate in its handling, but to know it represents the action of thousands on either side who have their own following and who have their right to be heard.

"One of the most satisfying things an Associated Press official or editor encounters at the end of some political or partisan campaign, is to have the leaders of both sides say: 'You have been fair. And that is our great desire to be fair. Generally speaking, we are succeeding in our purpose notwithstanding the fact unless we are biased in their favor we are partial to the other side.'

"And because it is impartial, The Associated Press serves its country best. Can you think of anything more harmful to the people at large than for a news source to be in the hands of designing men who place a taint upon the news, or color it to meet their own ends. On the other hand, will you agree with me that in placing before the sixty or seventy millions of people who daily read our dispatches, the truth, clearly stated, is one of the most potent influences in our country in safeguarding it against a destructive element? I think you will, for some of the greatest publishers and public women and men have said as much.

"Within the last ten years the newspapers have printed 25 per cent more religious news, news of moral and spiritual things, there has been a call for more, and there have been editorials favoring that class of news.

"But remember that the newspaper reaches all classes and conditions of people and to be a successful medium it must carry some thing of interest to each class. Yet in that very fact lies its great value as a channel for reaching all the varied race conditions that go to make up our wonderful country."

Pish at Idlewild Park.

FLASHES OF LIFE

(Associated Press Teamed Wire)

NEW YORK—If fair Helen should wish to take off weight she would refrain from her specialty. "When I don't play any tennis for a couple of weeks," Miss Wills explains, "I get thinner."

LONDON—White male is being sold in some London saloons, and the police are making a great search for stills.

NEW YORK—Swiss cheese that comes from Switzerland is to be known hereafter as Switzerland cheese. The consulate general of Switzerland announces the change is made because some Swiss cheese comes from other parts of Europe and also the United States.

NEW YORK—Broadway musical comedies are to be on the air, beginning with "Peggy Ann" next Saturday night. The Rialto understands that the producers of "Peggy Ann" will receive $6,000.

SINAI, Rumania.—Michael, the boy king of Rumania who is popularly known as "Mickey," is to be reared like any ordinary American boy. A threat by his mother of "a good smack" failed to make him desist from pulling his dog's tail, but an added threat of being sent to bed without supper worked.

NOTTINGHAM, England.—Cattle owned by the Prince of Wales are learning to control their own water supply. Electrical devices installed in the drinking troughs at his Grove farm in Leaton, provides that as the animals drink their muzzles press on flanges which release further supplies of water into the troughs.

HOLYOKE, Mass.—One wife who had "gone to the country" is being asked by her husband to return. Arrested for celebrating her departure, she was placed on probation in district court on condition he got his wife back as soon as possible.

BERGEN COUNTY, N. J.—This community claims to have the only flying chimp of pollen. Chief Sicaudi uses an airplane to direct his 18 motorcycle patrolmen to traffic jams along roads leading to the Teletoro airport.

NEW YORK—Miss Susan Brandeis, daughter of the justice, is being asked by Mr. A. L. Seed criticism of woman's smoking. She thinks he is a perfect simper when he implies that because a woman smokes she has the proclivities of a fallen woman. The Long Island railroad announces that male puff-puffs who object to women puffing in its smoking cars will get no sympathy from the road.

MINNEAPOLIS—Having fought for 18 years as corresponding secretary of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. Francis P. Parks of Evanston, Ill., said: "I do not choose to run for re-election." The organization then elected Mrs. Anna Marston Deyo of San Francisco.

NEW YORK—One authoritative estimate is that the wealth spawned by Lindbergh totals $7,000,000, comprising $1,000,000 for being married in front of a movie camera and $6,000,000 in commercial offers. The estimate is made by Commander Fitzhugh Green, his secretarial aide, in Popular Science Monthly.
