COUNTY HEALTH ASSOCIATION HAS ANNUAL MEETING

Charles McElhinny Selected New President at Session Held Saturday Night.

The meeting of the Douglas County Health Association at the Umpqua hotel Saturday night, was the best attended meeting the association has ever had. The representation from the various communities of the county was exceptionally good, there being delegates present from as far away as Reedsport and Glendale.

The program opened with a song led by Charles S. McElhinny, with Frances Listot, accompanist. Short talks on nursing service were given by the county health nurses, Miss Helen Atwood and Miss Amy Erickson. Dr. T. W. Laraway, county health officer, spoke briefly on "The Four Co-operating Factors in the Health of Douglas County," after which Miss Rosina Porter gave the treasurer's report.

Reports were received from the group chairmen and then the nominating committee made its report and the new officers were chosen as follows: Charles McElhinny, president; J. E. McClintock, vice-president; Mrs. H. E. Cully, secretary. The committee appointments were Mrs. F. H. Churchill, chairman of the nurse committee; J. H. Booth, chairman of the finance committee; Charles S. Stanton, chairman of the publicity committee; Mrs. H. C. Boyle, chairman of Christmas Seal sales. The educational and supply committee chairmen are still to be selected.

Mrs. Glendora Blakey, state advisory nurse, was present and talked briefly on "What to Expect of a Public Health Nurse."

The main address was given by Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar, executive secretary of the Oregon Tuberculosis Association, on "What is the County Health Association? How Does it Function? What Are its Relations to the County Health Unit?" The county health association has been very active in the past in handling the Christmas seal sale and taking a general part in the public health program, and it is planned this year to enlarge and extend its work, including all of the county in its scope.

CHINESE FAIL TO FIND PROMISED PROSPERITY

FOOCHOW, Fukien Province, China, Sept. 17.—The people of Fukien are wondering where is to be found all the prosperity promised by the Nationalists when they swept this province some months ago.

Taxes are higher than last year. Poppy planting and opium production is as widespread as it was 12 months ago. In the cities the labor unions have forced higher wages, but the ordinary coolies and peasants are no better off than before.

Since last December there have been five changes in the provincial government as administered by the Nationalists. At present an admiral of the Chinese navy heads the Fukien commission, but the military general formerly in charge has refused to move out until he receives a million Mexican dollars and so far the Fukienese have paid him only one-fifth that amount.

General Lu Hing Tang, former bandit chief, is in control of several coast counties.

POSTCARD REVEALS MINER'S DECALOGUE

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Sept. 17.—An illustrated post card of gold rush days, dated 1854, one of the first written to "folks back east," has come into the possession of Miss Eudora Garoute, state historian.

"Ten commandments for the Argonauts" are illustrated by Charles Nash, pioneer artist. Among them are these:

"Thou shalt have no other claim than one." "Thou shalt not go prospecting before thy claim gives out; neither shalt thou take thy gold dust to the gambling table, for monte, roulette, faro, lansquenet and poker will prove to thee the more thou puttest down the less thou takest up." "Thou shalt not remember what thy friends at home do on the Sabbath Day. Six days thou mayest dig or pick all thy body and stand on Sunday washed all thy dirty shirts, darned all thy stockings, tap thy boots, make thy bread and boil thy pork and beans."

"Thou shalt not grow discouraged nor think of going home before thou hast made thy pile." "Thou shalt not steal pick or shovel from thy fellows, nor pick out specimens from the company pan and put them in thy mouth."

"Thou shalt not tell false tales about 'good diggings in the mountains' to thy neighbors to benefit a friend who hath mules and provisions to sell."

MARKETS

(Associated Press Special Wire) PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 18.—Butter and egg prices are unchanged on the dairy exchange today and trading is steady on Saturday's quotations. Some dealers have been offering 1 and 2 cent premiums above the exchange prices for extras, with shortage of high grading eggs the reason given for such action.

Receipts of country dressed meats and poultry were very light early this morning and trading of all lines was at steady prices.
