

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

BY GRACE CARROLL

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs and Personal—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

MANY Roseburg folk will be attracted to Salem at some time during the coming week when the state fair will hold full sway for six days. Perhaps the most interesting two features will be the horse show and auto races, the former opening on Monday, and for five night following will be held the affair which annually thrills hundreds of horse lovers the state over. Some fine strings from California and Oregon stables will add color to the show and a new pair, Stella Vane and Buckley Verdie, imported from England by Aron M. Frank, will be seen.

The fall social calendar is gradually listing entertainments of note and with bridge clubs and the larger clubs' "big" meetings again for luncheons and suppers to the next month, on the first Tuesday in October, meeting at the attractive new club building, which is the former Bell home on South Jackson street. Mrs. Wm. Bell will be installed as the new president.

Very informal has been the entertaining this week, groups meeting mostly for luncheons, dinners or supper parties followed by bridge. A few travelers are returning to the city after the summer spent at resorts and trips out of the state, and visitors have continued to come and go the past few weeks, supplying interest and inspirations for social events.

Roseburg Matrons Entertained in Eugene

The matrons of the Thursday Bridge Club enjoyed to Eugene this week to be the guests of Mrs. V. M. Peterson, who was a member of the club while making her home in this city. The party was entertained at the attractive new Peterson home in North Eugene at a one o'clock luncheon and afterward spent the afternoon with bridge.

Zinnias and gladioli arranged in baskets and laden in the garden corresponded with the decorative theme. Mrs. W. Wade held dinner at the end of the party. The members of the club are the Mesdames Fred Schwartz, S. G. Sellick, A. J. Hochradel, Clair K. Allen, E. R. Thurber, Chas. B. Wade, Blaney R. West and Irvin Brunst.

Ladies Asked for Informal Afternoon

On Tuesday Mrs. A. J. Lilburn was hostess for an informal afternoon affair, inviting to her home in Laurewood a group of ladies. The guests spent a pleasant time in quilting and chatting and at the close refreshments were served.

Visitors Return to Spokane Tuesday

Mrs. Katherine Hoelt and her two daughters, Mrs. John May and Mrs. Willis Mercer, have been the home guests of Mrs. N. A. Simons, on 715 South Stephens street for a fortnight. The visitors left Tuesday evening for their homes in Spokane, Wash.

Dinner Party Honors Two Visiting Matrons

Flowers of the season were used in the table appointments at the dinner party for which Mrs. Bertha Parrott was hostess at her home on South Jackson street on Tuesday evening in compliment to two visiting matrons, Mrs. C. W. McKee of Hollywood and her sister, Mrs. S. K. Willett of Portland.

Seated about the table were the two home guests, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. Mae Fisher and the hostess. Later in the evening Mrs. John Thruway joined the group for cards.

Recent Wedding Is Surprise to Friends

A recent event surprising to their friends in the city was the wedding of Miss Dorothy Randall, daughter of P. T. Randall of Roseburg, and Harold W. Irwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Irwin of Klamath Falls and formerly of this city. The marriage was solemnized at a quiet afternoon ceremony in Medford last Saturday, Rev. H. L. Tompkins, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Medford officiating at 4:30 o'clock before only Mr. and Mrs. Brown and the bride's sister, Miss Eugenia Randall of this city.

The bride is an attractive young woman and both she and Mr. Irwin have a wide circle of friends in Roseburg. She has been a student at Berkeley high school in Berkeley, California, and during the summer has been in Roseburg visiting with her father. The bridegroom is a graduate of Roseburg high school, where he took prominent part in athletics, and attended O. A. C., majoring in commerce. He is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. Recently with his parents he moved to Klamath Falls, there being in business with his father.

Visitors in City Return to Homes

Two charming visitors in the city who left this week, have been Mrs. C. W. McKee of Hollywood and her sister, Mrs. S. K. Willett of Portland. Mrs. McKee has been in Roseburg for the past month as the guest of Mrs. Bertha Parrott at her home on South Jackson street, and her sister visited for a week at the home of Mrs. John Thruway on East Cass street. Mrs. McKee left Thursday to be accompanied by her sister as far as Ashland, where Mrs. Willett will visit with friends for a few days before her return to Portland. Friends have been enjoying the opportunity to renew acquaintance with the two matrons and several affairs of an informal nature were given in courtesy to them while they were in Roseburg.

Members of the Missionary Society of the South Methodist Church were entertained at the home of Mrs. C. W. Oden at 443 South Stephens street on Thursday afternoon.

Junior High P. T. A. Takes Up Work

A well attended meeting of the Junior High P. T. A. was held Sept. 20th with the new president, Mrs. Louisa Kohlhagen, presiding. The meeting was opened by singing "America" with Mrs. G. C. Finley at the piano.

Several very interesting business sessions were held at which numerous committees for the year were appointed. The organization is rapidly taking up the work for the season. Among the important matters to come before the association was the appointing of a committee to investigate the purchase of a new organ for the music department of Junior High. It was decided to entertain the faculty of the Junior High at its next meeting and necessary committees were appointed toward that end.

A short program followed the business session as follows: Mrs. Elmer Beckley, the new county council chairman, spoke briefly on the object of her work and what she hoped to accomplish. Mrs. F. H. Churchill spoke next and took up the district and state work in a very interesting manner, telling the association of their duties in adding their work. Mrs. E. D. Williams, the delegate from the Junior High school to national congress of Parents and Teachers held at Oakland, Calif. last May, gave a summarized report of the convention in which she tried to bring the inspiration of the national convention to the meeting.

Matron and Daughter Home From Canada

Mrs. A. R. Moore and daughter, Jacqueline, are back from a trip to Canadian points during the past six weeks. They spent last week-end in a city with friends and return to the Moore country home south of Roseburg. Accompanied by Mrs. Moore's sister, Mrs. Alyssa Russell, of Portland they visited in Winnipeg and Calgary and spent some time at the popular Canadian resorts, Banff and Lake Louise.

Maid Known Here Weds Medford Man

An out of town wedding of interest to circles in Roseburg was the pretty afternoon ceremony last Sunday at which Miss Jessie A. Morduff and Charles H. Beery of Medford plighted their troth. The bride has visited in Roseburg on several occasions and has a number of friends in the city.

The marriage took place at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Chirwin in Central Point and Rev. J. M. Johnson read the service. Mr. and Mrs. Beery have been on a wedding trip to the coast and spent Friday in this city at the home of Mrs. Jack Allison, a friend of the bride, before going on to Medford this morning. Mrs. Beery has been a teacher in Grinnia Pass and will continue her work for the winter.

Mrs. W. E. Boise Home From Trip East

Mrs. Watson E. Boise returned in early week after an extended stay in the east. In Minneapolis Mrs. Boise attended the national W. C. T. U. convention and afterward visited with friends there and in St. Paul and her former home, Jamestown, North Dakota. She also visited with friends in Chicago and enroute home in Idaho and Washington cities.

Two Maids Entertain With Evening Affair

Flowers in keeping with the fall season supplied a cheerful motif in the rooms of the Rodgers home on Corey avenue for an attractive evening party on Thursday for which the Misses Etha and Mary Rodgers were hostesses to a group of their friends.

The guests found pleasure in games and music and later in the evening were served a tempting hot and cold supper. Bidden were Mr. and Mrs. L. F. LaBarre, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Clark, Miss Evelyn Hawn, Miss Agnes Miller, Miss Claudia Hunschler, Miss Louise Yekini, Miss Lella Brown, Grant Pond, Mr. Smith, Clyde Beal, Sig. Jonasson, Millard Craig, Clair Conley.

Evening Affair Honors Miss Wamsley

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Clark were hosts at their home on Corey avenue for an evening party on Tuesday honoring Miss Emma Wamsley, who left Thursday to be an instructor in the schools at Anchorage.

Games and music were diversions of the evening with a tasty pull at the close. The invited list included Miss Wamsley, Mrs. C. H. Chas. C. Wamsley, Mrs. Thomas Shumway, Miss Leah McLaughley, Miss Maud McLaughley, Miss Ruth Jennings, Miss Lois Boyd, Clarence Rand, Harold Rand, Stein Jonasson, Arthur Long.

Matron Invites Club for Sewing

Inviting the matrons of the Roseburg Art and Embroidery Club to her home on Wednesday, Mrs. Henry Snyder arranged sewing for the diversion of her guests.

Later the hostess, assisted at the tables by Mrs. Earle Rhoades, served an early dinner, placing covers for Mrs. L. W. Ingles, Mrs. Walter Stubbfield, Mrs. Earl Decker, Mrs. Carl Palm, Mrs. Homer Palm, Mrs. Gene Barker, Mrs. J. G. Stephenson, Mrs. Jess Hicks, Mrs. Alice Rhoades, Mrs. J. P. Byrd, Mrs. L. F. Wageman, Mrs. Earl Rhoades.

Master Harding Host This Afternoon

Jackie Harding, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding, was host this afternoon to a group of young friends on the occasion of his ninth birthday anniversary. Master Harding entertained his guests at a matinee and afterward the group went to the Harding home on Watson street for refreshments.

Asters in pink, blue and white, predominated in the rooms, and corresponded with the pink and blue color motif at the large table where covers were placed for seventeen boys and girls.

Mrs. Bubar Luncheon Hostess Wednesday

Mrs. Dean B. Bubar was hostess for a lovely one o'clock luncheon followed by bridge on Wednesday at which she entertained the matrons of the Monday bridge club and two guests in the Bubar country home.

Tables for the luncheon were placed in front of the cozy open fire and were afterward cleared for play. The afternoon's honors went to Miss H. D. Harris. Enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. H. C. Waddell, Mrs. B. C. Zigler, Mrs. Wm. Dell, Mrs. Geo. A. Bradburn, Mrs. H. D. Harris and two guests, Mrs. A. D. Kent and Mrs. E. H. Stewart.

Platinum Buckles

A jaunty little black satin turban has twin platinum buckles at each side of the front panel to give it double chic.

Daughter Roseburg Matron Is Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Smith (Mildred Miller) of Gaston, Oregon, are visiting at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Rena Miller, on 223 South Pine street. Mr. and Mrs. Smith's marriage took place on September 22 at Vancouver, Washington. Their marriage is of interest to circles in Roseburg, where the bride has made her home. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home at Gaston following their visit here.

Mrs. G. R. Child Will Leave Coming Week

After a most delightful visit with friends in Roseburg during the summer season, Mrs. G. R. Child is leaving the coming week to visit with cousins in Turner, Oregon, for two weeks before her departure for San Francisco, where she makes her home and where she will spend the winter. During the season Mrs. Child has taken the J. E. Sawyer home at 451 East Avenue and has had groups of her friends together fortnightly at informal at homes. The last meeting of the group, which has met as a dramatic club during the summer, will be on Tuesday of next week.

Former Roseburg Matron and Daughter Will Visit Friends Here

Mrs. J. H. Phipps, Medford matron, is being warmly welcomed by friends in Roseburg, where she formerly made her home. Mrs. Phipps will visit here prior to her departure for Portland, there meeting her daughter, Miss Esther Pearson, who will arrive October 1 from New York City. They will return to Roseburg together to visit with friends, whom Miss Pearson has not seen for twelve years. Later they will go to Medford and Miss Pearson will be the guest of her mother in that city. She will visit with two girlhood friends, Miss Ruth Caro, in San Francisco and Mrs. Gordon Stewart (Mildred Parks) in San Bernardino before returning to the east.

Californians Return Home This Week

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bell and daughter, Beverly, and Mrs. Bell's sister, Mrs. Monda Manning, who have been guests of Mr. Bell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell, at their apartments on South Jackson street, returned to Los Angeles this week. The visitors, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell, spent ten days in a motor trip to Portland and Washington cities, visiting a week here on their return.

Auxiliary Entertains With Supper and Social

The Umpqua Post, American Legion Auxiliary, following the business meeting on Tuesday evening at the armory, entertained with the first social event of the group during autumn, asking the legionnaires as guests for a supper and social hour. About sixty enjoyed the pleasant occasion.

The auxiliary members are making tentative plans for their winter work and will outline for a social affair soon.

W. C. T. U. Has Election of Officers

An annual election of officers of the W. C. T. U. was the feature of the business session at the meeting of the group on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. D. H. Morgan in Laurewood.

Mrs. J. D. Osborn, retiring president, presided at the meeting and Mrs. J. Bettes led the devotions. The W. C. T. U. year is just taking up and the new officers who were elected are Mrs. T. B. Busch, president, Mrs. S. E. Collier, first vice-president, Mrs. W. E. Boies, second vice-president, Mrs. R. A. Bauerback, corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. W. Young, recording secretary, Mrs. Victor Mitchell, treasurer.

A social hour was enjoyed by the ladies after the meeting. The organization will meet again in two weeks at the home of Mrs. G. L. Backstrom on South Stephens street.

Mrs. Josephine Carr Guest at J. Wharton Home

Mrs. Josephine Carr, Los Angeles matron, is a guest at the home of her uncle, Joseph Wharton, in West Roseburg, for a few weeks. Mrs. Carr arrived in the city Friday and will be remembered by many here, having visited friends in Roseburg on a number of occasions. She has been spending the summer season in the east. During her stay several affairs are planned by relatives to welcome Mrs. Carr.

Club Meets for Play

The members of the Entre Nous Bridge Club met for play on Tuesday, Mrs. A. G. Sutherland inviting the matrons to her home at 495 East Lane street for the afternoon. At the end of the game Mrs. J. A. Harding held high honors. Refreshments were served at the small tables by the hostess.

Visitors Honor Guests at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Garrison were guests of honor at a family reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Swift in South Deer Creek last Sunday.

Mrs. Garrison is a sister of Mr. Swift and she and Mr. Garrison were visiting here for a few days before leaving for their home in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Swift were hosts for a dinner, placing covers for the following guests, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Chester J. Main and daughter of Myrtle Point, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamble and son of Canyonville, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Swift and son, Mrs. A. E. McCormack.

Auxiliary Meets for Social Evening

The L. A. of B. R. T. met for a social evening Friday at the home of Mrs. A. Dave on South Main street. The auxiliary holds two meetings each month, a business session fortnightly, and assemble seasonally.

Triple Chic

A new sports bracelet for fall has three rounded strands of shiny leather banded with narrow gold rings. The leather matches Milady's purse, shoes and hat.

Former Roseburg Matron and Daughter Will Visit Friends Here

Mrs. J. H. Phipps, Medford matron, is being warmly welcomed by friends in Roseburg, where she formerly made her home. Mrs. Phipps will visit here prior to her departure for Portland, there meeting her daughter, Miss Esther Pearson, who will arrive October 1 from New York City. They will return to Roseburg together to visit with friends, whom Miss Pearson has not seen for twelve years. Later they will go to Medford and Miss Pearson will be the guest of her mother in that city. She will visit with two girlhood friends, Miss Ruth Caro, in San Francisco and Mrs. Gordon Stewart (Mildred Parks) in San Bernardino before returning to the east.

Californians Return Home This Week

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bell and daughter, Beverly, and Mrs. Bell's sister, Mrs. Monda Manning, who have been guests of Mr. Bell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell, at their apartments on South Jackson street, returned to Los Angeles this week. The visitors, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell, spent ten days in a motor trip to Portland and Washington cities, visiting a week here on their return.

Auxiliary Entertains With Supper and Social

The Umpqua Post, American Legion Auxiliary, following the business meeting on Tuesday evening at the armory, entertained with the first social event of the group during autumn, asking the legionnaires as guests for a supper and social hour. About sixty enjoyed the pleasant occasion.

The auxiliary members are making tentative plans for their winter work and will outline for a social affair soon.

W. C. T. U. Has Election of Officers

An annual election of officers of the W. C. T. U. was the feature of the business session at the meeting of the group on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. D. H. Morgan in Laurewood.

Mrs. J. D. Osborn, retiring president, presided at the meeting and Mrs. J. Bettes led the devotions. The W. C. T. U. year is just taking up and the new officers who were elected are Mrs. T. B. Busch, president, Mrs. S. E. Collier, first vice-president, Mrs. W. E. Boies, second vice-president, Mrs. R. A. Bauerback, corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. W. Young, recording secretary, Mrs. Victor Mitchell, treasurer.

A social hour was enjoyed by the ladies after the meeting. The organization will meet again in two weeks at the home of Mrs. G. L. Backstrom on South Stephens street.

Mrs. Josephine Carr Guest at J. Wharton Home

Mrs. Josephine Carr, Los Angeles matron, is a guest at the home of her uncle, Joseph Wharton, in West Roseburg, for a few weeks. Mrs. Carr arrived in the city Friday and will be remembered by many here, having visited friends in Roseburg on a number of occasions. She has been spending the summer season in the east. During her stay several affairs are planned by relatives to welcome Mrs. Carr.

Club Meets for Play

The members of the Entre Nous Bridge Club met for play on Tuesday, Mrs. A. G. Sutherland inviting the matrons to her home at 495 East Lane street for the afternoon. At the end of the game Mrs. J. A. Harding held high honors. Refreshments were served at the small tables by the hostess.

Visitors Honor Guests at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Garrison were guests of honor at a family reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Swift in South Deer Creek last Sunday.

Mrs. Garrison is a sister of Mr. Swift and she and Mr. Garrison were visiting here for a few days before leaving for their home in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Swift were hosts for a dinner, placing covers for the following guests, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Chester J. Main and daughter of Myrtle Point, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamble and son of Canyonville, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Swift and son, Mrs. A. E. McCormack.

Auxiliary Meets for Social Evening

The L. A. of B. R. T. met for a social evening Friday at the home of Mrs. A. Dave on South Main street. The auxiliary holds two meetings each month, a business session fortnightly, and assemble seasonally.

Triple Chic

A new sports bracelet for fall has three rounded strands of shiny leather banded with narrow gold rings. The leather matches Milady's purse, shoes and hat.

Mrs. Josephine Carr Guest at J. Wharton Home

Mrs. Josephine Carr, Los Angeles matron, is a guest at the home of her uncle, Joseph Wharton, in West Roseburg, for a few weeks. Mrs. Carr arrived in the city Friday and will be remembered by many here, having visited friends in Roseburg on a number of occasions. She has been spending the summer season in the east. During her stay several affairs are planned by relatives to welcome Mrs. Carr.

Club Meets for Play

The members of the Entre Nous Bridge Club met for play on Tuesday, Mrs. A. G. Sutherland inviting the matrons to her home at 495 East Lane street for the afternoon. At the end of the game Mrs. J. A. Harding held high honors. Refreshments were served at the small tables by the hostess.

Visitors Honor Guests at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Garrison were guests of honor at a family reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Swift in South Deer Creek last Sunday.

Mrs. Garrison is a sister of Mr. Swift and she and Mr. Garrison were visiting here for a few days before leaving for their home in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Swift were hosts for a dinner, placing covers for the following guests, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Chester J. Main and daughter of Myrtle Point, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamble and son of Canyonville, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Swift and son, Mrs. A. E. McCormack.

Auxiliary Meets for Social Evening

The L. A. of B. R. T. met for a social evening Friday at the home of Mrs. A. Dave on South Main street. The auxiliary holds two meetings each month, a business session fortnightly, and assemble seasonally.

Triple Chic

A new sports bracelet for fall has three rounded strands of shiny leather banded with narrow gold rings. The leather matches Milady's purse, shoes and hat.

MOVIES

ANTLERS THEATRE

New Colleen Moore Comedy Coming Sunday.

A guaranteed gnom-chaser is coming to the Antlers theatre Sunday. It is Colleen Moore in "Orchids and Ermine," a thoroughly satisfying story of what happened to a little telephone operator at the lobby switchboard of a big New York hotel when she came into contact with a real young and handsome millionaire, some butter-and-egg men, a few gold-diggers and other Broadway-ites.

Colleen never was more chic than as the little plug-pusher who

Visitors Honor Guests at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Garrison were guests of honor at a family reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Swift in South Deer Creek last Sunday.

Mrs. Garrison is a sister of Mr. Swift and she and Mr. Garrison were visiting here for a few days before leaving for their home in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Swift were hosts for a dinner, placing covers for the following guests, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Chester J. Main and daughter of Myrtle Point, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamble and son of Canyonville, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Swift and son, Mrs. A. E. McCormack.

Auxiliary Meets for Social Evening

The L. A. of B. R. T. met for a social evening Friday at the home of Mrs. A. Dave on South Main street. The auxiliary holds two meetings each month, a business session fortnightly, and assemble seasonally.

Triple Chic

A new sports bracelet for fall has three rounded strands of shiny leather banded with narrow gold rings. The leather matches Milady's purse, shoes and hat.

ANTLERS THEATRE

An extraordinary musical event is scheduled for presentation at the Antlers theatre on Tuesday, September 27th. The Olivet choir, famous colored organization from Portland, will be heard at a concert consisting of plantation melodies, negro spirituals and special features, such as vocal solos and quartets, selected readings and choral numbers.

During February of the past year this remarkable group was heard at the auditorium in Poplar land and delighted an audience which packed the huge hall to overflowing.

ANTLERS THEATRE

It's a "Nutty" Picture! "The Lunatic at Large," current comedy at the Antlers, shows Don Errol as a tramp who finds himself tricked into a private sanitarium for the wealthy feeble-minded. From the moment he starts for the asylum to the end of the picture there is a riot of fun and a dozen hearty laughs a minute.

ANTLERS THEATRE

"Annie Laurie," Loved in Song and Legend, Lives Again in Lillian Gish.

Annie Laurie, beloved to the world for centuries in song and story, has come to life again on the screen.

This is the latest role of Lillian Gish, queen of romantic drama, who enacts the historic Scottish heroine in her latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer vehicle, "Annie Laurie," the dramatic spectacle of the Scottish Highlands coming Sunday at the Liberty theatre.

As the Scottish Joan of Arc, Miss Gish plays a role so totally

ANTLERS THEATRE

Thrill Drama De Luxe in Marine Picture.

Tonight marks the final showing of "The Great Mail Robbery," the stirring motion picture which has created a sensation during its engagement at the Liberty theatre.

This film is said to contain more thrilling action than half a dozen ordinary pictures, and tells a fast-moving story of the constant buttle carried on between the U. S. marines, detailed to guard the mails, and bands of criminals whose object it is to commit robbery. A train holdup is shown with a wealth of detail which makes of it a veritable screen classic, and raises excitement to a high pitch.

The entire railroad system is in an uproar, and finally the marines enlist the aid of airplanes and machine guns in an effort to defeat the bandits.

ANTLERS THEATRE

Two That Intrigued Her—And a Cocktail Frock

waistline with a simple little tie and gives it the appearance of a little basque. A crimson flower glorifies the shoulder.

For Many Occasions

The idea is that women cannot spend all their life changing their clothes. A woman may go to a cocktail party, then to dinner, then possibly to the theatre, and afterward to a night club, and with this very decorative jacket she is attractively costumed for the first event, and then the second too, if she likes.

For the theatre and dancing, where the waist may be more décolleté, the coat may be removed and she is in evening attire. Incidentally these little velvet coats to be worn with chiffons are greatly in favor with bridge players.

It seems that a thickness of velvet over the shoulder blades in a drafty room will render one comfortable enough so that the difficulty of remembering what is trump is minimized.

Of Printed Velvet

I saw an adorable little frock at Blanche Lobbouvier's which made me think of you. The top is made of black and white printed velvet and the skirt of black velvet. Though the material of the blouse comes to a low hip line, the actual fastening is at the normal waistline. It is the slimmest possible looking thing. Tiny folds of the velvet edge the surplice neckline and follow the scalloped line where the two different fabrics join. The chemise of pink chiffon beautifully hand hem-stitched.

Jacques is calling for me, and about to take me to tea, and I must not keep him waiting. He is too popular.

Yours, GERMAINE.

ANTLERS THEATRE

Amber Handled

A voluminous black velvet bag for fall has a most interesting and practical handle of amber.

Russian Originality in Cloth Coats For Autumn

Germaine Writes of Newest, "Obliging" Fall Models

PARIS, Sept. 21.

Dear Cousin:

You ask if there is anything new in cloth coats, to which I joyfully respond, there is indeed! The cloth of this season is the most original and obliging garment you have ever seen.

Shopping about I found two that seemed to me to answer every reasonable requirement. Both are of this very light wool, that is soft and caressing to the touch, but exceedingly warm and serviceable. A heavy coat is my abomination.

Individual Fur

Both of these, which I had photographed for you, show the new belts and the tendency to add fur in an individual rather than a routine manner. The one with the several occasions and has a number of friends in the city.

The marriage took place at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Chirwin in Central Point and Rev. J. M. Johnson read the service. Mr. and Mrs. Beery have been on a wedding trip to the coast and spent Friday in this city at the home of Mrs. Jack Allison, a friend of the bride, before going on to Medford this morning. Mrs. Beery has been a teacher in Grinnia Pass and will continue her work for the winter.

Mrs. W. E. Boise Home From Trip East

Mrs. Watson E. Boise returned in early week after an extended stay in the east. In Minneapolis Mrs. Boise attended the national W. C. T. U. convention and afterward visited with friends there and in St. Paul and her former home, Jamestown, North Dakota. She also visited with friends in Chicago and enroute home in Idaho and Washington cities.

A sportive beige coat trimmed with beaver (left); a Labouvier frock of printed velvet (center); and a gray cloth coat with Krimmer bolero.

Two That Intrigued Her—And a Cocktail Frock

waistline with a simple little tie and gives it the appearance of a little basque. A crimson flower glorifies the shoulder.

For Many Occasions

The idea is that women cannot spend all their life changing their clothes. A woman may go to a cocktail party, then to dinner, then possibly to the theatre, and afterward to a night club, and with this very decorative jacket she is attractively costumed for the first event, and then the second too, if she likes.

For the theatre and dancing, where the waist may be more décolleté, the coat may be removed and she is in evening attire. Incidentally these little velvet coats to be worn with chiffons are greatly in favor with bridge players.

It seems that a thickness of velvet over the shoulder blades in a drafty room will render one comfortable enough so that the difficulty of remembering what is trump is minimized.

Of Printed Velvet

I saw an adorable little frock at Blanche Lobbouvier's which made me think of you. The top is made of black and white printed velvet and the skirt of black velvet. Though the material of the blouse comes to a low hip line, the actual fastening is at the normal waistline. It is the slimmest possible looking thing. Tiny folds of the velvet edge the surplice neckline and follow the scalloped line where the two different fabrics join. The chemise of pink chiffon beautifully hand hem-stitched.

Jacques is calling for me, and about to take me to tea, and I must not keep him waiting. He is too popular.

Yours, GERMAINE.