LOCAL NEWS METER

This was a lively week for all
 The home town folks and others,
 For always, when the school takes up
 There's many busy mothers.

Then airplanes droning toward their goal
 And falling in the valley
 Make people wonder if 'tis safe
 To e'en walk in the alley.

The mining question looms again,
 With clamor at Tillamook,
 If present prospects hold out well
 'Twill prove a county pillar.

The heavyweights again fall to,
 Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney;
 The radio fans tune in on time,
 Excitement makes them looney.

The local citizens are sore
 Because another county
 Has been assigned to build the bridge
 And take away the bounty.

But no agreement has been signed,
 The council yet may alter
 Their plans and save the day if they Don't hesitate or falter.

Why am I living? and
 Just what am I?
 Will I live again
 After I die?

Wander when parted
 From my body?
 I am a mystery to Myself and you;
 Mystery unsolvable
 Through and through.

Where will the soul of me,
 If soul there be,

GRACE BEATTIE.

CONFERENCE OF OLDER GIRLS TO BE POSTPONED

Fear Spread of Infantile Paralysis if Meeting Held on Dates Planned.

Because of the prevalence of infantile paralysis in the southern part of the state it has been decided to indefinitely postpone the Older Girls Conference, which was to have been held in Roseburg during October. The action was taken today by the executive committee after a conference with health authorities, it being believed that the gathering, if held at the time planned, might result in the spread of the disease throughout the entire southern Oregon district.

part of the state and as infantile paralysis is quite prevalent in many of these communities it was feared that the gathering here might result seriously.

It was decided to postpone the meeting indefinitely and, if the epidemic in the other sections clears up in time to permit the meeting to be held with safety during the fall, new dates will then be announced.

So far no infantile paralysis has appeared in Douglas county and every possible precaution is being taken to prevent the disease from gaining a foothold in this locality.

ington and with the fleets and that there is too much money being spent on the maintenance of navy yards and naval stations along the Atlantic coast.

The admiral said he was greatly impressed by the interest shown by the general public in the navy. "The taxpayers have been generous to the navy," he added, "and congress has been generous too, but I fear we have taken advantage of them."
