OM2475—Week of October 2
There's A Man In South Africa Who Buys Penney Suits

He runs a small mission bookstore which supplies "native school books, bibles, slates and charts," but he knows how reliable our suits are, how well they fit, and how long-wearing their quality.

He also knows—because every dollar of his tiny salary must be spent carefully—that their purchase means a real economy and that he is sure of satisfaction.

It takes faith to send your money thousands of miles away, and wait several months for the merchandise. But our business policies, it is faith like this that makes us all work harder than ever.

BLIND PERFUME PEDDLER FOUND WITH YOUNG GIRL

SPokane, Oct. 6.—In response to a telegram from the sheriff of Jackson county, Oregon, police raided a tourist cabin camp here and found Walter Lavenwood, blind perfume peddler, with three women, a 14-year old girl, an eight-year old boy and an 18-year old Spokane youth.

The Oregon officials had been particularly anxious for the detection of the girl, whose last name "Spinson" she is being held to day in the juvenile detention house pending the arrival of Oregon officers.

The women and their relations with Lavenwood were entirely proper. They said they had been employed to sell Satchel perfume.

The eight-year old boy was turned over to juvenile authorities and no charges have been preferred against Lavenwood or the women.

SILVERSIDE RUN NOW ON AT WINCHESTER, BAY

The silverside run is now commencing at Winchester Bay and Roundpoint, offering good sport for both, according to J. C. Webb, Winchester Bay who is spending a few days in Roseburg on business matters. The salmon can be seen jumping to great numbers all over the bay. Mr. Webb says, and some fine catches are being made. Several local fishermen have already come to the mouth of the river to enjoy the fishing and others are expected to go over the weekend. Arrangements are being made at Winchester Bay to provide boats and equipment for fishermen who make the trip to the mouth of the river to enjoy the sport.

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
 PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 6.—Resisting an armed robber who ordered him into the rear room of his pharmacy at 1413 William avenue, Robert S. Ball was wounded when the intruder fired point blank at him. The bullet grazed Ball's forehead and stunned him. The thief escaped with $5 from the cash register.

Later a robber whose description tallied with Ball's assailant, held up the Lincoln Park pharmacy, 545 Fremont street, and robbed G. A. Hagie, proprietor, and Mrs. Hagie of $100, the day's receipts.

S. A. Crowder, fruit stand proprietor, was held up and robbed of $6 by four men, one of them armed, who drove up in a car.

H. T. Johnson, grocer, 327 Mississippi avenue, was held up and robbed of $15 in his store by a man armed with a revolver.

GERMAN PLANE FORCED TO LAND OFF CAPE ROCA

LISBON, Oct. 6.—The Junkers plane D-1230, which was forced to descend into the sea yesterday off Cape Roca, was not damaged and is awaiting the arrival of a tug which is proceeding to the spot, says a message received today from Santa Cruz.

The advices said that the D-1230, which is an airplane from Germany to the United States by way of the Azores, descended in the sea last evening because of a heavy fog just northwest of Lisbon. Neither the machine nor its occupants, who included Lilli Dilleuz, Viennese actress, was injured and it was hoped that the flight to Lisbon could be resumed today.

The seaplane this morning was surrounded by fishing boats and the sea was calm.
