ROSEBURG, OREGON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1927.

HOW WE DO PROGRESS!

The world, thanks be to Science and Education, is now getting along nicely. It is a long time, of course, since flyers began crossing the ocean in land planes (weeks and weeks), but we've progressed far since then.

A district school board in Michigan has ruled that all teachers, of the more deadly species shall wear smocks that cover them from Adam's Apples to ankles.

A doctor in Chicago proceeds to the rostrum of public information with the startling disclosure that 60 per cent of babies born to cigaret-smoking mothers die before they are two years of age.

A young man in Paris suddenly discovered the other day that he could fly with no mechanical aid whatever, relying simply on psychic powers. He has bruises to show for bad landings, collisions with furniture, fences and other obstructions.

Ghosts do not need the shade of night to cloak their movements, some Galileo of psychic research has just whispered to a waiting world. Ghosts have changed their habits lately, becoming much bolder, operating now in broad daylight, chains and all.

An English astronomer steps into the scientific laboratory for a few minutes and comes out with the news that the earth is to come to a dead stop. It will be a few million years, of course, but we're all very much interested.

There is no pro and con about it, a king has to be on the job these days, and that's all there is to that. What do you suppose would happen in Britain if King George failed to go grouse shooting in Scotland on the first day of the season?

Observe Fire Prevention week, October 9 to 15, and help to prevent fires which cost the state of Oregon twelve human lives, injured and maimed forty innocent people, some totally, and destroyed property valued at $6,716,893.27 during the year 1926.

Twelve citizens of the state of Oregon lost their lives and forty persons were injured, some disabled for life, in 1926 by fires, 90 per cent of which fires were preventable.

The difference between America and China is: In China they cut off a rebel's head and place it on a pole, and that's publicity; in America they sit on flagpoles, and that's news.

The Department of Agriculture reveals a scented fertilizer from the by-products of cocoa and chocolate. The farmer needs dollars and they give him cents.

The rate of shipment of grapes from California during the summer was 6000 carloads a week. My, what a lot of jelly we're going to have this winter!

Lack of trained actors is the stage's chief fault, says a critic. With revues crowding the playhouses, an actor would be lost in a theatre nowadays.

STATE FAIR PRIZE RAM BROUGHT TO DOUGLAS COUNTY

The first prize Romney ram at the Oregon State Fair was brought to Roseburg today by J. H. Short, who purchased the animal from its former owner and will add it to his band of 500 purebred sheep on his ranch about 8 miles east of Roseburg. The ram was one of the centers of attraction in the livestock department at the state fair and won the first prize in its district. It will be a very valuable addition to Mr. Short's band of sheep.

QUARANTINE ON PARALYSIS IS MOST SEVERE

Paralysis, due to the fact that the schools are closed, Medford schools have not opened but the team is practicing regularly, but if the disease is not abated before the date of the game Roseburg will probably not permit the Medford team to come here. No definite decision, however, has yet been made.

WANT TO DISBAND BULGARIAN GROUPS

Associated Press (Special Wire) BELGRADE, Jugo Slavia, Oct. 7.—The Jugo Slav minister to Sofia has been authorized to inform the Bulgarian government that unless effective measures are taken to disband Bulgarian groups operating in Macedonia, the Jugo Slav government has no other course but to recall him and to break off diplomatic relations.

The protest over the activities of the Bulgarian comitads, or irregulars, came as a result of the assassination yesterday of Brigadier General Michael Kocachevitch, one of the best known officers in the Jugo Slav army at Istip, the crime being attributed to comitads.

The Bulgarian-Macedonia has been closed by Jugo Slav government troops and gendarmes who are halting all traffic excepting transit in Macedonia, under the martial law measures taken as a result of the assassination.

Advises received in Belgrade this afternoon said that a band of Bulgarian comitads attacked the Macedonian frontier village of Kilsura early this morning, throwing nine bombs in government buildings and later fighting the gendarmes with rifle and hand grenades.

The attacking party, the advises stated, finally was repelled after a pitched battle lasting from 1 o'clock this morning until day-break. The casualties were not given in the message.

THE TINYMITES STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KNICK

Along the streets the Tikies went. They surely all were pleasure bent. The Jap, it seemed, could run real fast. He must have been real strong. 'Tis true most everyone delights in seeing very pretty sights. The Tikies more than liked it as they jostled right along.

They turned a corner rather swift and once the swerve gave them a lift right off the seat they sat upon, and Cloway nearly fell.

Wee Copsy clung to him real tight, and shouted, "Goodness, what a fright!" The Jap then picked up speed again and ran along pell mell.

Said one, "A Jirikisha is fun. I'm glad that I don't have to run as long as we are in this seat, it's really heave of sport. The Jap is very good to us. He doesn't even make a fuss, but keeps on running. He must be a very friendly sort."

When noontime came, wee Copsy cried, "I'm empty as can be inside. I'd like to have a bit of food. We ought to stop some place."

Said Copsy, "Oh, don't start a row. We haven't any money now." The Japanese man heard him and a smile spread on his face.

He stopped and said, "If you'd like tea, just leave your future plans to me." And then he pulled up to a place where a wee Jirik stood.

"Oh, come right in," she loudly cried. And when the Tikies were inside, she hid them sit upon the floor. They did, as best they could.

Said Copsy, "My, but she is sweet. I hope she brings us food to eat. The girl stepped out, but came right back. She held a big round tray. The Tikies soon began to smile, for they were served, in nicest style, some wa-
