MILJUS LOSES HIS GAME BY WILD PITCH

REMUS CALLED COWARD, LIAR BY FEDERAL AGENT

Franklin Dodge Issues Denial of Statements Made Bootlegger King.

MADE OTHER CHARGE

Remus Declares He Was Justified in Slaying His Wife—Stripped Him of His Wealth

(Associated Press Leased Wire). CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 8.—George Remus' charges of intrigue and unfaithfulness by his wife, Inogene—circumstances which he said impelled him to slay her Thursday—stood challenged today from two sources.

Franklin L. Dodge, whose work as a federal agent sent Remus to the penitentiary branded as "king of the bootleggers," made point-blank denial at Lansing, Mich., of Remus' statements linking Dodge's name with that of Mrs. Remus. He denounced Remus as "a coward and a liar—ones who never personally offered violence to anyone except a woman or a child."

Another charge that has come from Remus' cell—that Mrs. Remus stripped him of his wealth while he was a federal prisoner—brought denial from Edward T. Dixon, the attorney who represented Mrs. Remus in her divorce action against the man now held for slaying.

"I am certain Mrs. Remus did not have a cent save what she borrowed," Dixon said.

"The only part of the Remus fortune known to exist is tied up by litigation. I would estimate it at $200,000 or $250,000."

Officials for the most part expressed themselves as skeptical of Remus' story that he is penniless. They pointed out that he has been driving about in expensive motor cars and maintaining costly quarters. They said also that he was generally regarded as a lavish spender.

MISSING RANCHER HAS BEEN LOCATED

(Associated Press Leased Wire). SALEM, Ore., Oct. 8.—William A. Dunigan, well to do farmer who disappeared from his Howell prairie home Thursday was found this morning by Lute Savage of Salem at the home of Dunigan's uncle, William Kaplinger, east of Salem. He had been sought for two days and nights.

QUAKE IN AUSTRIA

(Associated Press Leased Wire). VIENNA, Austria, Oct. 8.—Severe earth shocks lasting ten seconds shook Vienna at 8:48 o'clock tonight. Telegraph, telephone and tramway services were paralyzed. The population was panic stricken.

Buildings shook violently, glassware, pictures and other objects in houses crashed to the floor.

REBEL GENERALS ELUSIVE

(Associated Press Leased Wire). MEXICO CITY, Oct. 8.—Arnolfo Gomez and Hector Almada, rebel generals, have eluded the federal columns seeking to surround them or force them into decisive combat.

Announcement was made by the presidential bureau late last night that the rebels had slipped away from their position at El Triunfo ranch, near Perote, in the State of Vera Cruz, retreating south-easterly into a region of ragged hills and ravines.

One federal column occupied El Triunfo after the rebels' departure. Another continued its efforts to make contact with the insurrectionists.

PRINCE JAILED FOR FAILURE TO PAY HIS BILLS

"Emir" Passes Self as "Mohammed" but Police Detect Fraud.

PRESSED OWN PANTS

Was Wearing Gaudy Red Uniform Weighted Down With Gold Braid and Many Medals.

(Associated Press Leased Wire). VIENNA, Austria, Oct. 8.—Prince Zverenko Mohammed Saide, "emir of Kurdistan" and pretender to the Turkish caliphate, is in trouble again. He has been arrested here on a charge of failing to meet a hotel bill after passing as "Mohammed Pasha Al Rashid, direct descendant of Haroun Al Rashid."

The prince, emir, pasha, etc., has been in jail many times before, so the experience is not new. When the Vienna police were called in by the hotel management they found him arming like a Balkan prince in a comic opera.

This costume was not his best, however. He showed the police what he termed his official robe of office, a gaudy red uniform weighted down with gold braid and sporting on its breast "decorations" from all over the world.

Despite all his magnificence, it developed, according to the authorities, that the "emir" had been getting his exercise over a pants presser board. After ironing all day he would don his glittering array and sally forth for a gay evening. A pants presser's pay won't stand the strain of much social activity, so the hotel went unpaid, according to the management.

TENEMENT COLLAPSES

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Several children were buried in debris today when a three-story tenement building on West 35th street collapsed after an explosion of undetermined origin. Two children were removed alive and all the rescuers of the police and fire department were called to rescue the others.

WAR CLOUDS ARE NOW GATHERING IN THE BALKANS

Relations Between Jugoslavia and Bulgaria at High Tension Point.

PATROLS CLASHING

Feeling Is Running High Among All Parties in Big Game—Armed Bands Operate.

(Associated Press Leased Wire). BELGRADE, Jugoslavia, Oct. 8.—Relations between Jugoslavia and Bulgaria were at their highest point of tension today since the Balkan war of 1917. The Jugoslav minister in Sofia was under instructions to demand abandonment of the comitadj (irregular) bands in Macedonia on the alternative of a diplomatic break. The border was closed and Jugoslav troops were seeking to stamp out the Macedonian terrorists reported to be roaming the region seeking favoring opportunities to carry out their bombing raids.

One border patrol clashed with a strong force of comitadj near Sketchevir, on the Albanian frontier, and after a spirited fight forced them to retreat. Reinforcements were sent to this section as well as the Bulgarian frontier.

The good effect of the recent conferences of Jugoslavia and Bulgarian statesmen directed at removing causes of friction has been almost entirely undone.

This result, it was stated, was exactly what the comitadj hoped to attain by their present activities for once the relations of the two countries were put on a sound friendly basis, the occupation of these bands would be gone.

Feeling is running high among all parties in Belgrade. The government apparently has unanimous support in making strongest representations to Sofia. A grave view of the situation is taken in diplomatic circles. The British and French ministers called upon Foreign Minister Marinkovitch to obtain information as to the steps contemplated by the government.

Several armed bands are reported to be operating in the districts of Vranje and Bitolje. The comitadj are small groups and disperse rapidly after delivering their attacks, thus making the task of suppressing them most difficult.

Full details of the latest outrages are lacking, but while the raiders have done a certain amount of damage with bombs, it is believed there have been few casualties. It is estimated that there were no victims in the frontier village of Kilsura, attacked yesterday. The raiders there are to have been led by Vojvode Velichko, upon whose head there has been a price. The newspapers, regardless of political shade, are demanding exemplary and prompt punishment of the two men captured as alleged members of the gang which on Thursday assassinated Brigadier General Michael Kovochevitch at Istip.

Politika today publishes a Sofia dispatch saying that M. Nechitch, Jugoslavian ambassador, had told Foreign Minister Bourouff of Bulgaria that he considered his mission ended at Sofia unless Bulgaria took adequate steps to prevent further outbreaks.

NO CHANGE IN INFANTILE PARALYSIS SITUATION

There is no change in the infantile paralysis situation today, according to the report of Dr. Laraway. No new cases have been reported and no changes exist in the quarantine regulations. Reports indicate a gain in number of cases throughout the state with nearly every section affected. Some improvement, however, is evident in the southern part of the state, but schools, churches, theaters, etc., are remaining closed until all danger of further spread has passed.

AIR PASSENGER SERVICE WILL START SHORTLY

Leo Devaney to Be Head Pilot for New Coast Line.

TO HAVE 20 PLANES

Aviators Coming in Few Days to Make Inspection of the Field at Roseburg.

Leo G. Devaney, former Roseburg resident, who recently disposed of his garage business here to enter the commercial aviation field, is to be head pilot for the West Coast Aerial Transport company that is today announcing the inauguration of a Pacific coast air passenger and express service between San Francisco, Portland and Seattle, connecting with the lines east to Chicago.

Mr. Devaney will be among a group of pilots who will come to Roseburg in a few days to inspect the Roseburg field for the purpose of making suggestions regarding suitable landing field here to include Roseburg in the new service the aviation company is organizing.

(Associated Press Leased Wire). MAPLEWOOD, N. J., Oct. 8.—The failure of a scheme to kill his double, use the body to obtain $250,000 insurance for his wife and then elope with a 19-year-old girl was advanced by police today as the motive behind the suicide of Raymond Bloch, 35, Maplewood automobile dealer, in a New York hotel Wednesday.

Bloch slashed his wrists, swallowed poison, twisted a cravat about his neck and submerged himself in a bath tub.

Chief of Police James R. Helf said he obtained his solution of the suicide from the girl with whom Bloch planned to elope.

Helf obtained from the girl, Anna H. Thiem, of Kearney, the story of her two-months love affair with Bloch. The girl said she knew nothing of Bloch's plan to kill Michael Phoropoulos, a waiter, and leave the body in Bloch's car so as to enable his wife to collect a $250,000 insurance policy.

The girl said she and Bloch were infatuated. Bloch's business was failing, she said, and he bought a new car and wanted to take her west with him, abandoning his wife, soon to become a mother. Unwilling to leave his family in

BABE RUTH CRASHES HOMER SCORING ONE MAN AHEAD OF HIM; MOORE PITCHES NIGELY

Both Teams Were Hitting the Apple Today, but Wild Heave in Ninth Brings About Disastrous Finale to a Three to Three Tie.

Score by innings:
Pittsburgh.....1 0 0 0 0 2 0 0—3
New York.....1 0 0 0 2 0 0 0—4

YANKEE STADIUM, NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The New York Yankees won the world baseball championship today by defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates, for the fourth straight time. The score was 4 to 3 and Combs scored the winning run in the ninth inning when Miljus made a wild pitch with the bases full.

The end of the game was an anti-climax Miljus, who relieved Hill on the mound for Pittsburgh had seen the bases filled with none out and after fanning Gehrig and Neusel, cut one loose to Lazzeri that Gooch only managed to get the tip of his glove on, Combs trotting home with the winning run.

Miljus was charged with an error by the official scorer, and a wild pitch.

By BRIAN BELL, Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Facing a situation as desperate as it could be at this stage of the world series, the Pittsburgh Pirates must win today's game from the New York Yankees or find their baseball future behind them for this year.

Charged with three defeats in as many days they cannot afford to lose another. If the American win today's game from the New York Yankees or find their baseball future behind them for this year.
