MILLIONS FOR OIL USED BY RAILROADS

NEW YORK, The views of the Roy. Hugh L. McMenaniii, Denver Catholic priest, on "the new woman," attracted attention today Preaching in the actors' chapel of St. Malachy's church, he said: "Far be it from me, mere man, to find fault with what my lady should wear. If she insists on wearing her hair as short as her skirt, it is her business, but it may be indicative or the Pagan tendencies. She attempts to attract by the lure of her person rather than her personality and men are beginning to take her at her own valuation, a rag, a bone and a hank of hair."
