QUEEN MARIE IS INDIGNANT

(Associated Press Leased Wire) SINAIA, Rumania, Oct. 18.—Queen Marie expressed renewed indignation and amazement today at revived reports that Princess Ileana had eloped with a naval officer and at a further sensational report that the princess had attempted to commit suicide because her elopement had been frustrated. "I am grieved and astonished beyond measure that my good American friends whom I so lately met could believe such preposterous and implausible stories," said the widowed queen today at Peler palace where she is living with Princess Ileana, Prince Nicholas and her daughter, the former Queen Elizabeth of Greece. "As you see, Ileana has never left my side since King Ferdinand died," said the queen. "Is it fair or decent or manly for American and European papers to circulate such a libel about us so soon after our bereavement? I cannot believe that Americans have so little civility as to invade the sanctity of grief of a queen and the broken heart of a young daughter with such cruel and false stories. To the correspondent who visited the palace today, Princess Ileana herself declared that she was far too busy helping her mother and attending to too many serious and important affairs to think of marrying. Princess Ileana for the past three months has been seen virtually at all times with her mother. The only lapse in her stay at Sinaia was a month ago when she and others at the palace went for a short trip on the Black Sea in a launch which later encountered difficulties because of a storm. The party was aided by a German ship but at no time were the members in danger of drowning.

C. H. Giles was an arrival here from Marshfield Monday to look after business affairs in this city.

OIL PROMOTOR IS GIVEN A PAROLE

(Associated Press Leased Wire) LEAVENWORTH, Kansas, Oct. 18.—Gordon Campbell, Great Falls, Montana, oil promoter, was released on parole today from the federal penitentiary here where he was serving a two year sentence for using the mails to defraud in connection with the sale of oil stock. He departed for Great Falls.

RATE ADJUSTMENT NEED OF INDUSTRY

(Associated Press Leased Wire) DALLAS, Texas, Oct. 18.—Declaring the agricultural and livestock industry of the United States "is clearly out of balance with the industrial, financial and railroad industries," President John F. Shaughnessy, in his annual address before the thirty-ninth convention of the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners in session here, today urged that that portion charge be applied on all traffic moving through the various districts. "It seems to me that pending the general rate investigation, the long suffering and struggling agricultural industry should be accorded relief forthwith," Shaughnessy said. Virtually every state was represented at the opening of the convention here. President Shaughnessy touched on the various problems confronting the railroads and utilities of the nation. On regulation, he said, "there seemingly is no justification other than expediency for this war plan of centralization which has been maintained from a jurisdiction standpoint over the control and regulation of railroads. Certainly no good reason appears why the regulation of other utilities should be completely centralized at Washington."

MELROSE GRANGE ENDORSES UMPQUA HIGHWAY PROGRAM

Endorsement of the Umpqua highway program and support to the Umpqua Highway Association, "Diamond Lake to the Sea" has been given by Melrose Grange No. 434 in resolutions received today from that organization by the highway association. The resolution follows: Resolved: That Melrose Grange No. 434 endorse the Umpqua highway program, (the proposed highway following the Umpqua River from Diamond Lake to Port Umpqua) and render moral support and any other help we may be able to give the Umpqua Highway Association—Diamond Lake to the Sea. Be it further resolved that this resolution be presented to the Pomona Grange for consideration. MELROSE GRANGE NO. 434, Mrs. D. N. Busenbark, Secretary. Showing further the support being given this worthy road program by the residents of the rural districts, R. A. Busenbark, of Melrose, was the first to take out a membership card in the Umpqua Highway Association. He was issued card No. 1 today. Card No. 2 was issued to George Houck, mayor of Roseburg, who in a statement to the board of directors pledged his hearty cooperation in the movement to secure funds to complete the highway to Diamond Lake.

DEER HUNTER IS LOST IN KLAMATH

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Oct. 18.—One deer hunter found his way back to civilization late yesterday and another is still wandering aimlessly in the Klamath wilderness, seeking to find an answer to the riddle of blind canyons and long draws. Mace Redmond, after two days and one night in the Pogeama country, finally made his way to a remote cabin. He was directed to his camp site, 15 miles away and returned to his home here last night. But Harry Lewis, who has been lost in the wild country of eastern Klamath since Friday, has still to make his way back to civilization. If no word is received this morning, Sheriff Hawkins will organize a searching party. Lewis became lost while skirting Saddle Mountain, near Beatty.

SLAYER OF UKRAINIAN GENERAL CONFESSES TODAY

(Associated Press Leased Wire) PARIS, Oct. 18.—His voice trembling with hysterical joyfulness, Samuel Schwartzbard, who assassinated the Ukrainian separatist leader General Simon Petliura fifteen months ago, fully confessed his act before the court of Assizes today. The slightly built blond watchmaker told the court that he had fully premeditated the assassination of the Ukrainian general as an act of vengeance for the sufferings Petliura inflicted upon the Jewish race. The idea of assassinating the Ukrainian general, Schwartzbard said, resulted from revelations made in November, 1925, by a Russian officer who had overheard Ukrainian soldiers in the Paris Russian Red Cross hospital gloating over Petliura's alleged atrocities. Schwartzbard denied having been the agent of others and said that he had no accomplices. The court room was packed, many Jews and Slavs being among the spectators. Facing them as he made his statement, Schwartzbard was extremely calm most of the time. He became hysterical, however, as he recited his story of the assassination of General Petliura. It seemed as though the memory of the killing, invoked by his description of it, caused his agitation, seemingly one of delight.

REMUS PLEADS HE WAS INSANE

(Associated Press Leased Wire) CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 18.—George Remus formally pleaded temporary insanity today for shooting to death his wife, Mrs. Imogene Holmes Remus here on October 6. The plea was made before Judge Chester R. Shook in criminal court by Attorney Charles Elston, who is aiding Remus prepare his defense. Judge Shook set November 7 as the day for hearing the insanity plea.

DRASTIC CHANGE IN CALENDAR IS URGED BY EASTMAN

WEST BADEN, Ind., Oct. 18.—A drastic change in the calendar by 1933 was urged today by George Eastman, Rochester, N. Y., manufacturer, before the United States Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Eastman advocated an international conference to decide: (1) Whether the calendar should have its weekly names perpetually fixed to the same dates each year by the inclusion of an extra Sabbath in the last week of the year; or whether the quarters of the year should be made equal by alternating two months of 30 days and one of 31. (2) Whether 13 equal months of four complete weeks should be established, with a new month between June and July. (3) Whether the year's date should be fixed on the Sunday following the present eighth of April, and (4) In which year the simplified calendar is to begin. "A few months ago I sent letters to more than one thousand representative men in this country," Mr. Eastman said. "The response favoring the adoption of a new calendar, was overwhelmingly favorable." He added that many large firms already are using the thirteen 28 day periods in their accounting systems.

DELEGATES BACK FROM GRAND LODGE

After attending the annual grand lodge meeting of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters at The Dalles, the delegation representing the local lodges have returned to Roseburg, reporting an unusually successful convention. A. J. Hochradel of Roseburg and Fred Wright of Portland were the delegates from Alpha Lodge No. 47, and Mrs. Eva Marks and Miss Pearl Jones were from the Pythian sisters. Mrs. Marks was elected grand protector at the convention. One of the features of the convention was the splendid talk given by the queen chief of the Pythian sisters from Texas before the Knights of Pythias. Alpha lodge has been sending sprigs of myrtle to all the grand lodges in the United States, Hawaii and Canada and each of these lodges are sending the sprigs to the subordinate lodges. The myrtle leaves are found to grow only in Coos, Curry and Douglas counties and are used in the initiatory work of the lodge. Letters from all the grand lodges in the country are being received here by Alpha lodge officials, each requesting the order to send sprigs.

GEESE FLOCKING TO TULE LAKES

(Associated Press Leased Wire) KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Oct. 18.—Sweeping over the Klamath basin in triangles, rectangles and phalanxes, thousands upon thousands of northern geese have commenced their annual invasion of the basin country. Tule Lake—game paradise of the west—now abounds with great flocks of the lovely birds. The birds are "poor" following their long flight, but are quickly fattening up on the grain stubble fields.

SOLID FACTS

—for—

Your Consideration

Here's Some of 'Em

We of Roseburg have talked about Good Roads, the Diamond Lake to the Sea Highway, Canneries, Prune Markets and Broccoli, as well as Patronize-Your-Home-Town-Institutions—which are all good.

What One Industry Means

How to make Roseburg the best town on the map is what concerns all of us. It may not have occurred to Mr. Average Citizen what just one of Roseburg's institutions mean to the town. The Grand Grill has built up a splendid patronage in the past six years. The overhead of this Roseburg institution is around $80 every day. That's what it costs to run the place—and every dollar of that sum is spent right here in this town.

How To Turn the Trick

So, every dollar that business men and business women spend for meals here is put right back into circulation. The Farmer comes in for his share, as we buy Home Grown Products almost exclusively for our tables. We are determined to make the Grand Grill mean something to the good folks of the city and county.

Special Lunches

We are specializing in our unexcelled Merchants' Standard Lunch at 45c. Why ask your wife to cook your noontday lunch when the kiddies are at school? It's more economical to lunch at the Grand Grill.

For the Ladies

In our Special Blue Plate Lunch for ladies this week we feature either fried or fricassee chicken—a lunch without a peer, only 40c.

Just a word about our special breakfast—it's quality clear through. We buy and serve the best of everything. We use a special boiled ham for all ham and egg orders, and pure butter for frying eggs. It is business we are after, and we give you quality in return.

No need to dress up when you come here—come just as you are—tollers, travelers, or in dress suits—all are welcome.

Remember This

That 30c saved each day on your meals means $109.50 at the year's end.
