

TRAVEL BY AIR

Aerial Taxi Service

Any Place—Any Time
Aerial Advertising
Special Rates for Sight-Seeing Tours.

Student Instruction

We Teach You to Fly.
Learn Flying at Home.

PERKINS & ADAMS

Travel Air Dealers

Terminal Hotel

LOCAL NEWS

From Eugene—
Mrs. M. S. Allen, Jr., of Eugene is here visiting with friends and relatives for a day or so.

Visitors Friday—
Mr. and Mrs. E. Lutzman of Melrose were in Roseburg during Friday afternoon visiting with friends and shopping.

In Friday—
N. L. Conn of Melrose was attending to business matters and trading here during the afternoon yesterday.

From Looking Glass—
Geo. Bacon, Looking Glass rancher, was attending to business matters and visiting with friends here yesterday afternoon.

On Business—
Dick Vandervort of Rice Hill spent several hours Friday in this city looking after business matters and trading.

WOOD and COAL

Denn-Gerretsen
COMPANY
PHONE 128

From Canyonville—
A. E. Peterson, resident of Canyonville, was in this city attending to business matters and visiting on Friday afternoon.

Business Visitor—
F. A. Smith, resident of Rice Creek, spent several hours yesterday visiting and attending to business interests here.

On Business—
F. G. Huntley, resident of Brockway, was a Roseburg visitor Friday and was looking after business affairs.

Visitors In City—
T. C. Bailey of Wilbur and E. C. Nickerson of Coyle, Washington, who is a guest at the Bailey home, were visitors in Roseburg on Friday.

To Tacoma—
Byron Rader, who has been here for the past three weeks visiting with relatives and friends, left last night for his home in Tacoma.

Home from Portland—
Mrs. H. G. Philpott, who for the past two weeks has been visiting friends in Portland, returned to this city yesterday afternoon.

To Salem for Homecoming—
Miss Clara Horcher and Miss Eleanor Merewether, teacher in the Senior high school, went to Salem last night to attend the homecoming program at Willamette University, of which they are alumni, during the weekend.

To Attend Meeting—
Mrs. C. H. Thurston went to Portland last night and will spend a few days there. She will attend the meeting of the L. A. of B. of R. T., which is held once each year at some point in the state. The meeting next year will be in Roseburg.

To Salem—
Mrs. A. J. Carman went to Salem last night to visit with friends until after Sunday.

Mrs. Marsters Improving—
Mrs. A. C. Marsters, who has been quite ill at her home on Kane street, is reported to be improving.

Business Visitor—
Sid Jaques of Cow Creek station was here late yesterday afternoon looking after business affairs and trading.

Enroute North—
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jost of Eugene, formerly of this city, passed through here yesterday afternoon enroute from the south.

From Yoncalla—
Mrs. Dick Hanan and Mrs. Harry Lauman of Yoncalla spent Friday afternoon visiting with friends and shopping in this city.

Expected from Coast—
Mrs. C. H. Crouch of North Bend is expected here this evening and will visit with her daughter, Miss Mary Crouch, over Sunday.

Enroute Seattle—
Mrs. M. E. Coddling and two children of Canyonville were visitors here late yesterday afternoon on their way to Seattle, where they will visit for several weeks.

General Manager Through—
J. H. Dyer, general manager of the Southern Pacific company from San Francisco, and party passed through here on a special car attached to Shasta number 12 yesterday afternoon enroute north.

Relatives Arrive Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gorthy and daughter, Fay June, arrived last night from Corvallis, North Dakota, to visit indefinitely and may locate here. Mr. Gorthy is the son of J. F. Gorthy of West Roseburg and a brother of Clinton Gorthy of this city.

In Portland—
Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Andrus, who have been at Wolf Creek during the past few months, came here this week and went on to Portland after a visit with relatives. After spending a few days in the metropolis they will attend normal school at Monmouth for the remainder of the year.

Dr. and Mrs. Laraway Home—

Dr. T. W. Laraway, county health physician, and Mrs. Laraway returned here last evening from a trip to Reedsport and Smith River. Thursday Dr. Laraway was up Smith River, where he examined all school children at the consolidated school and gave 28 diphtheria toxin antitoxins. Friday he was at Reedsport, where perhaps the largest baby clinic yet held in this county took place. Forty babies were examined during the day, the clinic being in charge of the Reedsport health unit. Five of the local women of that place assisted the nurse. Every family in Reedsport had been personally visited and invited to attend the clinic and a great deal of interest was manifested. Dr. Laraway while at the coast was in consultation with several officials in regard to the quarantine and found splendid cooperation.

(Continued from page two.)

ing, the group, following the regular practice period of the orchestra, joined in an informal time. A supper was served by Mrs. Church later. Enjoying the evening were Mrs. Ball of Portland, Mrs. Frances Lintott, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Newland, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Catching, Chas. V. Stanton and Dr. and Mrs. Church.

Girls' Club to Present Vodvil This Month

The Girls' Club of the Senior high school will present a Vodvil on the evening of November 18 at 8 o'clock in the Senior high school auditorium. Plans for the event are extensive and rehearsals are already underway under the direction of Mrs. B. E. Larson, advisor of the club. The vodvil will include song numbers, stunts, chorus work, a clog-dance act and a minstrel number. Sixty girls are to participate in the entertainment.

Two Matrons Entertain With Five Hundred

A lovely evening event of mid-week was the five hundred party for which Mrs. Lyle Davis and Mrs. Phil Harth joined as hostesses, bidding a group of their friends to the Harth apartments in the Banks building.

Chrysanthemums and dahlias were used in profusions in the rooms where the guests were at play. High honors for ladies were held by Mrs. Grant Osborn and for men Wm. Machen received the first prize. Mrs. Clyde Carstens received the consolation prize.

At the luncheon tables were bowls of orchid and yellow chrysanthemums as centerpieces to correspond with the favors. Enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carstens, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Ralls, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harth, Miss Doris Jackson, Miss Alice Post and Chas. Pickett and Wm. Machen.

Two Maids Honored at Dinner Party

In honor of the Misses Hazel Goodwin and Naomi Scott on their birthday anniversaries, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Runyan were hosts at a 6 o'clock dinner on Monday evening, bidding a few close friends of the two honor guests. Decorations were in keeping with Halloween and after the dinner here the guests found pleasure in fortune telling. Spending the evening were the Misses Hazel Goodwin, Naomi Scott, Bess Wharton, Helen Casey, Verna Carothers, Alice Ueland and the hosts.

Business Women Entertain With Supper

The Business and Professional Women's Club members entertained with a pot luck supper on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. A. B. Crawford which was decorated with profusions of roses and fall flowers for the event.

Thirty-six were at the small tables. During the evening after the supper the club members appointed a committee to make arrangements for a Thanksgiving ball, included on the committee are Mrs. Story Lee, Mrs. Alma Hansen, Mrs. J. M. Judd, Miss Naomi Scott, Mrs. C. S. Heinline gave a very interesting talk on club loyalty. Tentative plans were also formed for events to be given during the season and the group discussed the state dinner to be held here soon.

Following the affair a number of the members attended the Arthur Johnson concert.

Rose P. T. A. to Have Program Monday

A meeting of the Rose school P. T. A. is to be held Monday evening, November 7 at 7:30 o'clock in the school building and a very interesting program has been prepared for the evening.

Walter Fisher will talk on free text books for the schools and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly is to speak on "children's books." The musical part of the program is to consist of a piano solo by Miss Lucille Sappington, a vocal solo by Mrs. A. B. Taylor, a piano solo by Francelle Freeman, Prof. E. S. Hall will tell about the state meeting held this year at La Grande.

Mrs. Chas. W. Wharton Hostess for Lovely Affair

Mrs. Chas. W. Wharton received at her home on Chadwick street Friday afternoon for a charming one o'clock luncheon followed by bridge at which she entertained the members of her bridge club and fourteen additional guests.

The attractive rooms were colorful with autumn blossoms, which corresponded with the table appointments. Covers were placed for the Mesdames H. H. Clay Darby, H. D. Harris, Ben C. Zigler, Foster Butler, W. S. Jost, W. R. Brown, Wm. Bell, J. A. Harding, Geo. J. Fischer, G. V. Wimberly, T. B. Virden, O. D. McAllister, M. P. Rice, J. R. Wharton and the following members: S. A. Sanford, J. E. Sawyers, A. A. Wilder, Geo. T. Bolter, J. E. Barker, I. G. Broadway, A. Baum, S. L. Kidder, J. C. Home and W. F. Chapman.

The club prize was won by Mrs. Wilder and Mrs. J. R. Wharton received the guest prize at the close of play.

Announcement Made at Shower Friday

At a shower for which Mrs. J. G. Morris was hostess at her home at 133 North Flint street last evening, the announcement of the engagement of Miss Katie Finley and James Wamsley was made to a group of friends of the honor guest. Pink and white decorations were used in the rooms for the affair. Games were arranged as diversion and later in the evening the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Chas. Wamsley, served luncheon. A tiny bride and bridegroom decoration enhanced the cake centering the buffet and small pink and white rose corsages were favors in which were concealed the announcements.

Bidden for the affair were Miss Finley, Mrs. Merle Clark, Mrs. Thomas Simmons, Mrs. Geo. Finley, Mrs. Frank B. Matthews, Mrs. Chas. Wamsley, Miss Ruth Jennings, Miss Helen Bergh, Miss Margaret Pace, Miss Bessie Redburn, Miss Doris Pickett, Miss Mildred Morris.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Finley and both she and Mr. Wamsley, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wamsley, attended the local schools and have a wide circle of friends here.

Thanksgiving Dance to Be Lovely Event of Month at Club

One of the largest and most anticipated events on the November social calendar will be the Thanksgiving dance for members of the Roseburg Country club to be given soon at the club house. The committee in charge are completing plans for the affair and plan decorations entirely in keeping with Thanksgiving. Favor dances will vary the program for the evening and a supper will be served at the close.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Quinn are joint chairmen for the dance and assisting them are Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Throne, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dilard, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Berrie, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harth and Ivan Pickett.

Lodge Has Initiation and Supper Party

A pleasurable evening of the week was spent by the members of the Eastern Star lodge who entertained the members of the Yoncalla chapter, numbering about fifteen, on Thursday night. Initiation of a class of four candidates was the program of the evening and afterward a supper was served in the dining room, which was arranged with autumn flowers and foliage. About one hundred were in attendance.

Betrothal Former Roseburg Maid Announced

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hunt of San Lorenzo, California, announce the betrothal of their daughter, Gladys Moretta Hunt, to Mr. Martin Whitney Dunn.

The bride-elect is well known in Roseburg circles, having made her home here with her parents until five years ago. She is a graduate of the Roseburg high school and is a talented vocalist. Mr. Hunt was a business partner of Walter Good of this city while making his home here.

Dinner Given as Adieu to Couple

As a courtesy to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knauss who about to depart this week to make their home, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Heinline entertained at dinner Sunday at their home in Laurelwood, asking a few intimate friends of the honor guests.

Seated about the table were Mr. and Mrs. Knauss, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carstens, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. McAllister, Maria Knauss, Arthur Knauss, Jr., and the hosts.

Mrs. Schwartz Is Club Hostess

Mrs. Fred Schwartz was hostess for one of the charming club events of the week when on Thursday she invited the members of her bridge club and an added guest for play and luncheon.

At the tables were Mrs. Chas. H. Wade, Mrs. S. G. Sollick, Mrs. A. J. Hochradel, Mrs. Claire K. Allen, Mrs. E. R. Thurber, Mrs. Birney R. West, Mrs. Irvin Brunn and an added guest, Mrs. A. B. Crawford. Honors went to Mrs. Hochradel.

The Junior class of the Senior high school enjoyed a very delightful evening of fun on Friday at the school gymnasium, each member attending in costume. Stunts and games were forms of entertainment in the attractively decorated gymnasium and refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Economics Club Meets to Sew

The Home Economics Club of the Melrose Grange met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Vincent Frechery. The afternoon was spent with needle work and planning for a carnival to be given the latter part of the month.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon to the Mesdames S. E. Burway, John R. Benbark, Sr., Dave Benbark, R. A. Benbark, H. P. Conn, E. R. Penn, Fred Goff, Carrie Kruse, J. W. Plummer, F. T. Reese, and Emma B. Woods. Guests were Mesdames P. E. Brothers and White. The next meeting will be November 17 at the Grange hall.

Sunday AND MONDAY

Another Special—Chosen by Umpqua Amusement Co. to head list of bigger and better pictures.

Adapted from that Famous Play
"LUCKY SAM McCARVER"

You're Not Taking Any Chances When You See—

THOMAS MEIGHAN

HIS LATEST
BIG HIT

A DYNAMO
OF ACTION
AND DRAMA

"We're All Gamblers"

The Story of a Tenderloin
Roughneck Who Fights His Way to the Top.

Admission

Matinees 25c
Evenings 35c
Kiddies 10c

ANTLERS

Here's a Treat for the Tired Business Man.
TONIGHT
Reginald Denny in "All Night Out"
You'll Like It.

Club Tea Is Lovely Event of Early Week

About seventy-five matrons and maids called during the afternoon Tuesday at the club house of the Roseburg Woman's Club for the benefit tea, a lovely social event of the fall, given by the club women for the State Federation Endowment Fund.

Profusions of lovely autumn flowers and foliage transformed the rooms where the guests were received. During the afternoon Mrs. H. E. Coleman and Mrs. J. A. Harding poured. The committee in charge of refreshments included Mrs. Geo. Bradburn, chairman, Mrs. A. Dawe, Mrs. Floyd Frear, Mrs. Walter Good, Mrs. H. E. Coleman and Mrs. J. A. Harding.

Entertainment was provided by a group of the members, who participated in a playlet, which proved highly amusing. Mrs. A. D. Abbott directed the entertainment and the matrons taking part were Mrs. A. G. McMillin, Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. J. E. Runyan, Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mrs. A. G. Sutherland, Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen, Mrs. J. V. Short, Mrs. Carl B. Neal, Mrs. W. E. Ott and Mrs. Albert Minturn.

Several new applications for membership have been acquired, among them Mrs. E. M. Squires, Mrs. J. C. Leedy, Mrs. L. W. Metzger, Mrs. Mary Harding, Mrs. Geo. K. Quinn, Mrs. Grant Wilcox, Mrs. Woodley Stephenson, Mrs. Lee A. Wells, Mrs. H. C. Stearns, Mrs. A. D. Abbott, Mrs. J. B. Pland, Mrs. L. B. Ralls, Mrs. Clark E. Melton, and Mrs. H. G. Philpott.

Monday Book Club Opens Meetings

The Book Club opened its series of meetings for the season when on Monday Mrs. M. P. Rice asked the matrons to her home on South Jackson street for a one o'clock luncheon. A centerpiece of lovely yellow marigolds was used at the prettily appointed table where covers were laid for Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. D. B. Huber, Mrs. Paul Huber, Mrs. Wm. Bell, Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Mrs. W. H. Fisher, Mrs. Chas. W. Wharton and the hosts.

Mrs. Osborn and Miss Eva Rice were assisting. During the afternoon the guests sewed and planned the winter program. While not fully decided, the study for the year will probably revolve about short stories and articles.

Oliver plows and shares are sold at Wharton Bros.

TWO TEAMS PLAY A TIE

(Associated Press Local Wire)
PENDLETON, Nov. 5.—McLoughlin high school and Baker high school football teams battled to a 0-0 tie at Milton Freewater yesterday in a contest to decide the championship of eastern Oregon. Hufford of McLoughlin featured his team's play with long gains from scrimmage, while Hines, negro Baker quarterback, was the outstanding player of his squad with his excellent passing and punting.

If in need of a second hand grain drill see Wharton Bros.

LISTS SELF AS HOUSEWIFE

(Associated Press Local Wire)
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 5.—It became known here yesterday that Mrs. Maude B. Luse, who listed herself as a Portland housewife in filing a bankruptcy petition October 5, was the widow of J. P. Luse, real estate operator, who failed financially in 1916 after suffering losses in operations at Sutherlin, Oregon, and in mining ventures in southern Oregon. Luse dropped dead at Sutherlin in 1916.

Eat barbecue sandwiches and live forever. Brand's Road Stand.

RUSS SMITH BANKRUPT

(Associated Press Local Wire)
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 5.—S. Russell Smith who filed a bankruptcy following a recent $17,500 breach of promise verdict against him, yesterday listed his liabilities $50,812.90, assets $332.85.

Last Time Today
DON'T MISS IT

You never saw such fights.
"One-Shot" Morgan was a pretty bad hombre in

IN
DYNAMITE

IN
"The Wolf's Trail"

Adults 25c
Children 10c

MAJESTIC

TOMORROW ONLY

This snappy comedy drama is hailed by critics as one of the star's best and she is supported by

Ford Sterling

It's the same in all languages—"Figures Don't Lie!"

Esther Ralston

in
"Figures Don't Lie"

Also Good Added
Short Reels

Matinees 25c
Evenings 35c
Kiddies 10c

TONITE HOOT GIBSON

Ace of Western Stars in a fast moving epic of the glorious West.

"GALLOPING FURY"

LIBERTY

DIRECTION UMPQUA AMUSEMENT CO.