GIRLS DRESSED IN BOYS CLOTHES ARE PICKED UP

(Associated Press Local Wire)
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7.—Arriving here today dressed in boys' clothing, Helen Downs, 17, and Eva Lewis, 16, of Tacoma, were picked up by the police. They were accompanied by Edward Downs, 15, Helen's brother, and Robert J. Ogilvy, 15. The girls said they were going to San Pedro, California, and the boys intended to get work in some Oregon logging camp. Police turned them over to the juvenile court pending word from their parents.

GENERAL CONDITION OF CHILD BETTER

The general condition of little 4-year-old Biny Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baldwin of Camas Valley, who lost her left hand and probably the sight of both eyes in the explosion of a dynamite cap Friday evening, is reported to be slightly improved by the attending physicians. The child is at Mercy hospital under observation. The right eye offers a chance for some hope of saving the sight and the left eye is undetermined as yet as it is not possible to see how much damage lies behind the posterior position, for a few days.

Guaranteed elements for reflector heaters. Arthur H. Crowell.
