LINCOLN COUNTY STREAMS ARE AT HIGH FLOOD STAGE

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
TOLEDO, Ore., Nov. 25.—Steady downpour of the last 36 hours raised every stream in Lincoln county to flood stage and today conditions were fast approaching those of 1921 flood.

Already a big slide had blocked the Roosevelt Highway today at Whale Cove. A washout on the Corvallis-Newport highway blocked that road to heavy traffic. The Southern Pacific railroad to Newport was blocked by a derailed passenger engine and the Toledo city water main from Mill Creek was broken.

Total loss had not been determined. Serious damage to crops and livestock was expected if the storm should continue.

NOTICE

All persons holding warrants of Dist. No. 12, Glide, Douglas Co., should present them for payment to the First State and Savings Bank of Roseburg as interest stops on this date, Nov. 25, 1927. H. D. Connine, Clerk.

JUNIOR HIGH TO PLAY MEDFORD

The Junior high school football team leaves tomorrow morning for Medford to meet the Junior high team of that city in a return match. Recently the Medford team played in Roseburg, the score being a tie, 7 to 7, the game being one of the best to be played in this city for a long time. While the Medford team is more experienced, the local boys are heavier and have a great deal of real football knowledge and are hard fighters. This will be the team's last game of the season.

OREGON WEBFOOTS BATTLE FURIOUSLY

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
SEATTLE, Nov. 25.—The Oregon Webfoots ran true to form in the football game with the University of Washington Huskies yesterday, and although rated far below the powerful Washington team, battled their opponents to a standstill for the greater part of the game and lost only in the last six minutes of play when the Huskies punched across one lone touchdown. The try for extra point was successful and the game ended with the score 7 to 0.

SOCK ARTISTS BATTLE TONIGHT

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—Two knockout artists whose mitts have proved their steel-producing qualities, tangle at the coliseum tonight for ten rounds—first with Mickey Walker, middleweight champion, trying to climb up to the light heavyweight throne over the prostrate form of Paul Berlenbach, the Astoria assassin of other days.

LOCAL RIFLE AND PISTOL CLUB TO SEEK MEMBERS

The Roseburg Rifle and Pistol Club, which has been very active during the past few months, is engaged in a membership campaign by which it is hoped to greatly increase the size of the organization. The club has recently staged several very successful shoots and is arranging for another prize shoot to be held shortly before Christmas. The local club is affiliated with the National Rifle association, an organization of marksmen from all parts of the country. This association is recognized by the government, which cooperates by supplying ammunition, arms and supplies at cost, the members of the local club being able to benefit by this arrangement.

LIBERTY

"Nevada" a Gripping Tale of Old Frontier
A gripping story of the western frontier written by a descendant of real frontiersmen—that's "Nevada," Zane Grey's latest, which has been pictured in stirring fashion by Paramount. It is scheduled to open today at the Liberty Theatre.

MOVIES

ANTLERS
Emil Jannings Superb in "Way of All Flesh"
Convincing proof that a great motion picture need not necessarily be an epic in number of people used or the size of sets, is to be found at the Antlers Theatre where Emil Jannings' first Paramount starring vehicle, "The Way of All Flesh" is now showing.

HILL'S Cascara-Bromide-Quinine
the screen has ever shown. "The Way of All Flesh" is a saga of sacrifice, the coming of temptation in the life of a simple, home-loving man, a powerful sermon on the frailty of mankind. To see "The Way of All Flesh" with Jannings as the man who slew himself in the eyes of the world that his family might be spared shame, is to experience a flood of cleansing, thought-provoking emotions. There are laughs and tears; moments when the character seems to fairly speak aloud.
