PEACE OR WAR ASKS POLAND OF LITHUANIA

The satisfied the council which asked Heelaerts Van Biokland, Dutch foreign minister who is acting as special reporter in the controversy, to draw up a report based on these declarations and arrange procedure for settlement of the alleged mistreatment of Lithuanian clergy at Vilna, which is expected to offer difficulties.

Both the Poles and Lithuanians must agree to the text of a formula of settlement, which was being drafted today and it was noted that after adjournment of the council session the Lithuanians did not entirely agree with members of the council that the conflict had been regulated in principle.

Both Premier Waisemarns and Foreign Minister Zaunis were far less optimistic than the Polish delegation. The Lithuanian foreign minister said there were many points still undecided which the Lithuanians consider important. The Dutch foreign minister is preparing a report which is expected to include a formula upon which both Lithuania and Poland may agree and he has still to receive a statement from both countries. These statements must Foreign minister Zaunis said there was no reason to expect the immediate establishment of diplomatic relations between the two countries as conditions absolutely forbid it. He also said that news from the Lithuanian-Polish frontier was disturbing, as within the past three days the Poles have moved additional troops near the boundary.

Daisy in Society

(Continued from page 2.) well before cutting. Mix prepared fruits and sift 1 cup of flour over them. Stir with a fork until thoroughly coated. Cream butter and slowly beat in sugar. Sift in 1 cup of flour and beat hard. Add eggs well beaten. Beat hard and add molasses, chocolate melted over hot water and fruit or cider. Mix thoroughly and add remaining flour, mix and sifted with soda, salt and spices. Beat until perfectly blended and smooth. Be sure that the flour and soda and spices are thoroughly mixed before adding to first mixture. Add prepared fruit and nuts and mix well. Turn at once to deep prepared pans and steam three hours. Remove from steamer and bake forty-five minutes in a slow oven.

Conserving the Moisture

Stretch and the heavy waxed paper over each loaf of cake to prevent moisture from settling on top of the cake during steaming and to prevent the moisture in the fruits from leaving the cake. When cake is taken from the oven place in a clean towel on a cake cooler or bread board. Place each cloth over pan to completely cover it. Let stand fifteen minutes and then lift off the pan. Turn cake right side up and let stand until cold. Wrap in heavy waxed paper and keep in a tight tin box until wanted. Allow at least three weeks for the cake to "ripen."

Life's Niceties

HINTS ON ETIQUET

- 1. If invited to a Christmas dinner party, it is necessary to take gifts to other guests?
2. How are Christmas gifts different from those sent in response to wedding invitations?
3. What should be the guide to selecting Christmas gifts?
THE ANSWERS:
1. No, unless all agree to bring ten-cent joke presents or some other plan is made.
2. Less formal.
3. One's purse, primarily. A gift way beyond your means is embarrassing to the recipient.

THE WOMAN'S DAY

BY ALLENE SUMNER

"More beautiful Gifts for Your Christmas Shopping Than Ever Before" read the ads. But one wanders and wanders through the stuffy department store aisles, utterly bewildered by plain "junk," useless, unattractive, unnecessary junk we are asked to buy. Power boxes that tinkle tunes when the lid is lifted, and who cares? Trees and flowers made from crystal beads, imported for $30, and how are they any better than the wax flowers in glass that used to stand on grandma's mantel? An old windmill carved from wood or bronze, "Lucky Elephants," and china dogs and cats. Nothing so indicates a nation's prosperity as its Christmas gifts. We seem to have passed the stage when just necessities or even luxuries satisfy. Now we go after eccentricities. For Your Daughter? The parents of little 15-year-old Josephine Hallemann-Julius who entered a "companionate marriage" with their full consent and cooperation a few days ago, must indeed be brave souls. For it is one thing to experiment with new and perhaps dangerous things for oneself, and quite another thing to permit one's children to do it. Nature has so constituted the very essence of parents that caution and complete protection almost always dominate their attitude toward their children. Just ask yourself if you would call a minister, prepare a wedding feast, and stand calmly by while your daughter's life was entrusted to a young man who was perfectly willing to stand for a companionate marriage, but who manifested no eagerness to go through the old-fashioned kind with its attendant responsibilities of home-building and child-raising. Now just watch for Josephine's high school to "can" her!

LINDY HAS SET NO DATE FOR MEXICAN FLIGHT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh declared today that no date had been set for his departure on his flight for Mexico City, but that it probably would be within ten or twelve days. The report that he had definitely set next Wednesday as the date of his departure he said was erroneous.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 10.—The government has ordered a flying squadron to welcome Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, America's aerial ambassador of good will, when he flies here from Washington.

Excursions are being organized by the National Railway to bring people into the capital from countryside for Lindbergh's arrival. Instructions will be wired by the railway to its men along the route to Laredo, Texas, at the border, to be prepared to give the flying colonel assistance in case of a mishap.

PAUL SAYS HE IS THRU BOXING

(Associated Press Special Wire) NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Punch "Em" Paul Berlenbach, who once ruled the light heavies is thru. In his dressing room last night after he had been technically knocked out by Jack Delaney, Berlenbach was approached by an attendant who asked him for his gloves. "No," said Paul, "I'll keep these. I've made my last appearance in the ring." Berlenbach's comeback aspirations went winging away in the sixth round when the referee stopped the fight. Three times Delaney put Berley down but Berley wouldn't stay. When the fight was ended the Astoria assassin, reeling and groggy, was still ready to go on. His gameness got him plenty of cheers, but it could not bring him victory. It was their fourth meeting. Each held a decision over the other, but Delaney had a knockout victory added to make his side of the ledger brighter. Buy the boy a IHC toy tractor or truck for Xmas, $1.00 to $1.25 each.
