MRS. BERLENBACH WANTS PAUL QUIT

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Paul Berienbach, wife of the former world's lightweight cham o wants him to put away the boxing gloves for keeps.

"I don't want my Paul to fight mymore," she said, "and there isn't any reason in the world why he should continue. We have chough money to five on for the rest or our lives. He certainly proved he was a real lighter when he was champ.on.

It isn't going to do him any good to keep on fighting. If he doesn't quit, I'm afraid he is going to get hurt and I wouldn't want that for all the money in the world."

DOTY DELAYED IN SAILING TO U. S.

(Associated Press Lessed Wire)

PARIS, Dec. 10.—An eleventh hour hitch et a mysterious nature prevented Bemett J. Doty, former member of the French foreign legion, from salling for America on the steamship New York today. Doty and his literary mentor, although their full passage has been paid, postponed their departure at the last moment.

All that Doty would say was "What's the use of rushing? We have plenty of time. There are lots of boats sailing."

It was indicated that he might sail Wednesday.
