George Remus demonstrated adaptation to environment by making $1,000,000 at bootlegging. He murdered his wife, shooting her down despite pitiful appeals for mercy.

Remus told a Cincinnati jury, of men and women, that frantic jealousy of a Mr.

shooting moment.

The jury on the first ballot acquitted him, and when Remus after acquittal, was safely in his cell, and appropriately in tears, members of the jury rushed to shake his hand and congratulate him. He may have to go to the insane asylum for a while to prove his good faith.

Crime is a puzzling phe-nomenon. Hickman, a 19-year-old kidnaper and murderer, for whom all California hunted, was a model boy in his Bunday school class, vice-president of his high school class. The graduation annual said of him. Excellent scholastic standing, unequalled record in turriculum activities and high standard of ideals."

Mr. Remus also killed partly for revenge, his wife had deceived him with another man.

There are different degrees of revenge, and of murder. Twelve jurors unanimously acquitted Remus. Not one juror in 100,000,000 would vote to acquit Hickman.

The Reverend Cadman remarks that "this planet may exist for nearly a million bil-lion years longer. If I really believed it, I think I should try to have a pretty good time while still in the flesh."

Hickman is thought to have kidnaped and murdered a few days after she had been kidnaped. Discovery of her body was made by her father, who had just paid ransom money fer her safe release. The father had opposed his employment in a bank.

He said his hal, which he actured of the actual killing, stole the towel from his room "to get him in bad." Asked why the towel was used, he said the girl's body was filled with blood and the towel had to be used to abserb it.

The laundry mark-on the towel caused officers last Sunday morning to visit Hickman's apartment in Loe Angeles, but they did not disturb him.

Still refusing today to believe the gruesome tales told by his son of the kidnaping and killing of the little girl, the father waits for some word from the boy saying that it is all a mistake, that he is not guilty of the crime for which he is accused.

Guards Frightened

Hickman's guards were frightened in the early morning hours when one of them reported that he had watched the prisoner for two solid hours without observing a movement, or even hearing a breath. Fearing he might possibly have taken some concealed drug, they roused him enough to determine he was alive.

They then combed through his mass of hair to make sure that he had secreted no pill there.

Hickman was roused for breakfast at 7:15. He said he was hungry. His meal consisted of egg sandwiches and coffee, which he consumed with apparent relish.

Holds Brief Audience

PENDLETON. Ore. Dec. 23.—William Edward Hickman, held here for kidnaning of Marian Parker, 12 year old Los Angeles girl, who was brutally slain, held a brief audience in the city jail this morning.

LOS ANGELES POLICE BELIEVE

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 23.—Andrew Oliver Cramer, implicated by William E. Hickman as an accomplice in the Marian Parker case, was located today in Lincoln Heights jail here, where he has been a prisoner since last August, thus eliminating him, police say, from any connection with the crime, Cramer told detectives that among his acquaintances was a woman known as June Dunning, who also was named by Hickman in his confession to police at Pendleton, Oregon.

Cramer's brother, Frank Cramer, is a prisoner at the county jail, serving a term for robbery. Andrew was sentenced for headening.

Andrew Cramer said that his brother had "kept company" with Rose Hurst, alias Rose Cramer, whose true name was said to be Rose Dunning and who has a sister, June Dunning. Both women operate rooming houses, Cramer said. Police were ordered to bring both women to headquarters for questioning.

. Says He Knows Hickman

"I know Hickman." Andrew Cramer told detectives. "I don't know why he picks on me. Of course it is impossible for me to have been in on that killing. It's too ridiculous to talk about. I've been right here all the time."

The woman the prisoner named as Rose Dunning was said by him to have a police record in San Francisco.

Hickman Just Smiles

PENDLETON, Dec. 23.—Peering thru the bars of his cell here today, William E. Hickman smiled when informed Andrew Cramer, the man he named as slayer of Marian Parker, had been in jail at Los Angeles since last August. MARRIED A MEXICAN Without confusion he said that the man he had been as-sociated with in the kidnaping plot probably had taken the name of Cramer.

A slight laugh escaped Hickman's lips as the dispatch from Los Angeles was read to him.

"That is strange," he said. "It can't be!" Then he added:
"Perhaps the man took the pame of Cramer just to get me in Speaking in a straight-forward manner, the young prisoner said that the man he described as Cramer had been in trouble before. "He said he had been in a kidnaping in Denver, and kidnaper of Marian Parker, Los Angeles school girl, said that he would not go to his son, held in jail at Pendieten, Oregon. When reminded that he had mentioned June Dunning in his confession here yesterday, Hickman said: "Well, if you can find her perhaps she can explain who this other man Cramer is."

When especial attention was directed to Cramer's quoted statement: "I know Hickman. I don't know why he picks on me. Of course it is impossible for me to have been in on that killing," Hickman said:

"Yes I know Cramer."

Asked where he was before last August, when Cramer was sentenced to jail, Hickman declared he was in Kansas City and later went to Chicago. Hickman then rambled on, telling about his movements, how he rented a room at the Paradise Arms Apartments in Chicago, on Washington Boulevard, and paid $11 a week for the room.

PENDLETON, Dec. 23.-A picture of driving thru the kidnaping while he had with him in his car Marian Parker, 12, who later was slain and dismembered, was given by William Edward Hickman in an interview in the jail here today.

"We were driving out in Hollywood Friday night when my car was stopped by a traffic light. Marian was beside me, and the newsboys waved their papers close beside us. Marian seemed to be amused by this.

"We got along very well together. It was not my intention that she should be harmed. In fact I loved her. I still love

The Mexican mother goes about the house with a smile untouched by the grief gripping her husband. "Yes, he told me that it was his boy," she prattled in broken English. "Sure I'll tell the children when they are old enough to understand. I guess." they roused him enough to determine he was alive.

They then combed through his mass of hair to make sure that he had secreted no pill there.

Hickman was roused for breakfast at 7:15. He said he was hundred with apparent relish.
