KILLS THREE BROTHERS AND WOUNDS FOURTH

(Associated Press Leased Wire) BAKERSFIELD, Calif., Dec. 28.—Albert Stillard, 50, Delano rancher, shot and killed three of his brothers today and wounded a fourth on a ranch in the Woody district, and then escaped, a report received here from the sheriff's office said. The dead men are August, Eugene and Gabriel Villard, and the wounded brother, who is on his way to Bakersfield, is Joe Villard.

The merger report received at the sheriff's office was that Albert Villard suddenly appeared at the ranch house where his brothers were having breakfast. He opened fire with a pistol and shot and killed his three brothers before others on the ranch attempted to disarm him. Then, drawing another gun, Villard is reported to have rushed into the yard and shot Joe Villard. Joe is badly wounded.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Villard, aged parents of Albert, were not molested.

Albert Villard fled from the Delano ranch house and sought out a brother-in-law, saying, "I've killed my brothers, here is a letter," and then disappeared.

Since delivering the letter Villard has not been seen although officers from all parts of the country are reported closing in on the district where he was last seen.

August Villard was commander of the American Legion post at Delano.

No motive for the shooting has been assigned. Villard is said to be married and the father of nine children. The family is well known.

LONE EAGLE MAKES SPLENDID FLIGHT OVER BAY COUNTRY

(Continued from page 1) the flier lands at Hopanog flying field it will be for a three day stay instead of the customary two days he intends to spend in each country.

Is Voted a Colonel The next leg will be 140 miles from San Salvador to Tegucigalpa, Honduras, where congress has voted to make Lindbergh a colonel in the Honduran army.

From Tegucigalpa to Managua, Nicaragua, the flier will fly 150 miles. There revolutions and politics have apparently been forgotten in anticipation of Lindbergh's mission of good will.

His next Central American stop will be made at San Jose, Costa Rica, 210 miles from Managua. From there he will fly 320 miles to Panama, where extensive preparations have been made to prepare a field so that the plane can land on Panama soil rather than in the Canal Zone.

Food supplies for the Mexico City-Guatemala hop included some drinking water, a few sandwiches and a supply of army emergency rations. A duffle bag stuffed with clothing and a leather handbag with toilet articles, shirts and underwear comprised the baggage.

The gasoline supply was set at 150 gallons by Lindbergh, who considered this would give him a reserve of several hours over the maximum flying time— nine hours.

Farewell to Calles Lindbergh paid a farewell call on President Calles, which witnesses said was replete with emotion. When the American left the president's office it was said the president's eyes followed him, as a father might watch the departure of a beloved son.

Lindbergh told the president through an interpreter, that in saying farewell he wanted Calles to know how much he liked Mexico and its people, and how much he appreciated the president's honors, courtesies and kindnesses and those of the Mexican government.

Calles took the flier's hand firmly in his own. He looked steadily into Lindbergh's eyes for a moment and then a tender expression swept over the ordinarily stern face of the Mexican ruler.

"Adios," the president said. "Mexico admires and loves you. Your visit has meant much to us. Good luck and good-bye."

He gave Lindbergh an embrace in the Mexican fashion, patting him affectionately upon the back. "Good luck and adios," Calles repeated.

"Thank you," said Lindbergh.

OPPOSE LORENA'S VAUDEVILLE SHOW

(Associated Press Leased Wire) PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 28.—An unsuccessful attempt was made today by a delegation of club women to get the city council to prevent the scheduled appearance of Lorena Trickey at a local theatre next week.

Miss Trickey, cowgirl, was recently acquitted of murder charges in connection with the death of her cowboy husband, Slim Harris, at Lakeview.

"We're getting away from democracy when we come here and attempt to rejudge people already tried by the courts," said Mayor George L. Baker in reply to the club women's request.

"There is no law to prevent her appearance because she is not a criminal now."

He shook the president's hand and departed.

Tuxtepec is about 220 air miles southeast of Mexico City. It is about 50 miles due east of Huautla, the last point from which news of Colonel Lindbergh's progress was received.

Passage of the American flier near Tuxtepec would indicate that he was swinging slightly to the east in order to pass along the center of the isthmus of Tehuantepec.

Mother's Plane Safe BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Dec. 28.—Mrs. Ford plane carrying Mrs. Evangeline L. Lindbergh back to her school room in Detroit, landed at the Fort Brown field here today at 12:13 p. m., from Mexico City.

POULTRY MEETING WELL ATTENDED

One of the most successful poultry meetings ever held in this city was conducted today by specialists from the state college. The meeting was called by County Agent J. C. Leedy, who acted as chairman. The exceptionally fine attendance indicates the great interest shown in the industry in this county and all connected with the meeting were greatly pleased by the response.

The morning session was held at the city hall, but the room there was too small to comfortably accommodate the large audience, so the afternoon meeting was moved to the Indian room of the Umpqua hotel which was crowded to capacity.

Prof. A. G. Lunn, head of the poultry department of the state college, spoke this morning on "Management of Winter Layers" and in the afternoon on "Will the Beginners Stay in the Business." Prof. W. L. Johnson spoke both morning and afternoon on "Intestinal Parasites," illustrating his talk with lantern slides. He discussed diseases of both chickens and turkeys.

CAPT. McEWAN ACCIDENTALLY SHOOTS FRIEND

EUGENE, Ore., Dec. 28.—Ham Montgomery, shot in the neck a week ago at his home near Vida, was the victim of an accident. A shotgun in the hands of Captain John J. McEwan, football coach at the University of Oregon, permanently exploded, the charge striking Montgomery, it was stated today.

Relating details of the accident at a local hospital today Montgomery said: "It was purely an accident. I was among friends. I hate to think what would have happened to me if they hadn't been there to carry me down the side of the mountain to a doctor."

Captain McEwan was calling on Montgomery when the latter was interviewed.

STANFIELD NOT TO BE ARRESTED

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 28.—Warrants charging Robert N. Stanfield, identified as former United States Senator Stanfield, with assault and battery and failure to give name and address following an accident were swept into the discard today in municipal court.

Counsel for Howard G. Wilcox, automobile salesman and complainant, asked for dismissal of the case. The warrants issued a week ago had not been served, it was said.

Wilcox claimed that his automobile was struck by a machine driven by a man he declared was Stanfield, and that when he reconstituted the driver of the other car struck him in the face and drove away.

HEINRICK SAYS HICKMAN SHOULD NOT BE KILLED

(Associated Press Leased Wire) BERKELEY, Calif., Dec. 28.—William Edward Hickman, Los Angeles child slayer should not be hanged but should be "set aside" as a human psychiatric laboratory to be studied by society for its own protection, E. O. Heinrich, famed Berkeley criminologist and solver of many crimes, said today.

"Only vengeance will be satisfied if Hickman is hanged, whereas as his clinical possibilities in favor of society far outweigh mere vengeance," the criminologist declared.

"A fortune has been spent in the capture of Hickman," he added. "The full benefit of that expenditure should be realized upon."

Allegedly throughout the land should be permitted every effort to make an intensive study of that brutal boy's brain. His history should be probed with microscopic exactitude and the 'turning point' in his life definitely determined.

"In my opinion Hickman was sane when he planned the kidnaping but suddenly underwent a 'brain explosion' and was insane at the moment he strangled little Marian Parker."

Hickman case he gave revenge as the motive.

The Berkeley criminologist ventured the further opinion that Hickman, as the result of "brain explosion," he said, "counter obstacles such as the one that turned Hickman's mind into criminal channels and therefore every one of these children is a potential criminal. Hickman's case should bear intensive research."

SECRET SESSION OF OKLA. SENATE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Dec. 28.—A secret session of members of the state senate was being held this afternoon in a downtown hotel. It could not be learned whether it was meeting as a purported court of impeachment.

Twenty-two members of the Oklahoma senate determined in a secret caucus at a hotel here early today to convene an impeachment session of the senate in defiance of a temporary injunction by Governor Henry S. Johnston to prevent the meeting. W. C. Fidler, Oklahoma county senator, said this morning. The members, who constitute a quorum, outlined a plan Mr. Fidler said, to go to the capital, and if dispersed to convene elsewhere.

Three companies of the national guard, comprising sixty men, were mobilized secretly this morning under command of Major Abe Herkowitz, under the order issued by the governor December 12. At that time troops were used to prevent members of the house of representatives from meeting.

General Charles McPherson, commander of the 17th infantry of the Oklahoma national guard, arrived at the capital shortly after 8 a. m. to take command of the guard detail. He announced that the guardmen would be held in readiness to meet any emergency which might arise.

General McPherson immediately posted guards at all doors of the house and senate chambers.

The body was found by Miss L. L. Dunne, McNab's secretary, who called a physician.
