BUFFALO IN ALASKA
(By NHA Service)
FORT YUKON, Alaska.—Travelers through the region around Selkirk have reported an immense herd of buffalo, numbering around 50,000. The animals are much like the buffalo of the American plains, but are called wood bison. The herd is believed to have grown from a small number that frequented the region of Pelly Lakes. Come and see the B. & P. W. Club play and entertainment at card party Friday night at K. of P. hall.

CLAIM IMPORTANT DOCUMENT STOLEN

(Associated Press Local Wire)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Counsel for William J. Burns reported to the court hearing the Sinclair-Burns contempt case today that a document affecting William J. McMullin, a star witness for the government, was stolen last night from one of the defense witnesses.

The Burns lawyer told the judge the document was taken from Miss Jeanette Lantz, who had been relied upon to contradict some of McMullin's statements, during a mysterious attack on her in her room at the Hamilton Hotel.

A man entered the room while Mrs. Lantz's husband was absent, counsel said, bound and gagged her, and ransacked her belongings. Both Mrs. Lantz and her husband, William Lantz, had been summoned by the defense to contradict testimony by McMullin, a former Burns detective, that the Burns men faked charges against the Fall-Sinclair oil conspiracy jurors.

The court is hearing testimony on a charge that Burns, Harry F. Sinclair and others were guilty of contempt because of their snubbing of the Fall-Sinclair trial jurors.

"WHY IS A PRETZEL THAT'S EASY"
(By NEA Service)
OKLAHOMA CITY.—Many a person has been taught to believe that the shape of the pretzel, well-known companion of a well-membered beverage, was inspired from a prehistoric carving of a den of snakes. Others, who came from prohibitionist ancestry, learned very early in life that the pretzel was the tail of the devil tied in a knot.

But they were all wrong. Take it from experts of the American Cone and Pretzel company, the pretzel is a representation of a child's arms folded in prayer.

Long ago, when children learned and said their prayers correctly, they were given a "pretzola," which meant "a little reward." An old monk who was in the habit of giving little cakes to earnest youngsters, began making his "pretzolas" to represent a child at prayer. They were bun sculpture, but excellent cakes, so both shape and name, with slight changes, have existed ever since.

CHURCHES

First Baptist Church, Roseburg. Frank D. Matthews, pastor. Sunday, January 29: 9:45, the Bible school; R. E. Crawford, superintendent. Come out and make the attendance good. 11, morning worship, "Highways and Hedges" will be the sermon subject of the pastor. Choir will sing "Shadows of the Evening," by Barri-Shelley. Mrs. Brand will sing the solo, "Fear Ye Not, O Israel," 6:30, the B. Y. P. U. for young people, 7:30, the evening service. An especially fine program of music will be given, consisting of an anthem by the choir, a vocal duet by Mrs. Brand and Mr. Luttrell, violin solo by Miss Naomi Scott, who will play "Romance" by Wieniawski, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Gertrude Wickham Whipple. "Good Gifts to Children" is to be the sermon topic of the pastor. As this is the last service before our special meetings begin, it is hoped that all members and friends may be with us at this important time. Special meetings begin Sunday night, February 5. Union services at the Presbyterian and Baptist churches. We must pack both buildings that night, so please plan now to help us.

Methodist Episcopal Church, south, corner Lane and So. Main St. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; W. L. Cobb, Supt. Morning worship, 11 a. m.; subject, "Four Imperatives." Epworth League at 6:30 p. m.; leader, Lucile Hand. Evening singing and worship, 7:30, subject, "The Great Truth." Solo, selected, by Clarence Hand. We are getting closer to our union campaign, which starts February 5, at the Presbyterian church. Let us pray for God's blessing to rest on every effort. We cordially invite you to worship with us at all these services. Come. We start on time. John H. Penhall, pastor, phone, 621-R; residence, 315 E. Lane.

The Methodist Episcopal Church at Dillard, T. F. Allen, pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m.; R. A. Hercher, superintendent. Fine attendance last Sunday, but we expect a larger attendance this Sunday. Be sure you are present. Preaching at 7:30 p. m. The Rev. H. L. Woodcock will bring the message. This is an opportunity you cannot afford to miss. Come with an open heart, expecting, and you will not go away disappointed.

The Methodist Episcopal Church at Looking Glass, T. F. Allen, pastor. Sunday school at 10, subject, T. Rodley, superintendent. Camas Valley only beat us in attendance by a very small majority last Sunday. We can, if we think we can. Do we think we can? Preaching at 11 a. m. Everybody welcome. Come early and stay for both services. Ask about the fine prayer meetings that are going on in the community. A blessing awaits all that will come. Do you want the blessing?

The Methodist Episcopal Church at Ten Mile, T. F. Allen, pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m.; T. Godfrey, superintendent. Our revival effort was a glorious success. There were regrets from many that it ended so soon. However, it is not ended, the work is going on. Splendid prayer meetings every Thursday evening. The folks will organize a young folk organization this Sunday night. Every young man is expected to back this movement and a great time is assured. Be sure to be present and take part.

The Methodist Episcopal Church at Camas Valley, T. F. Allen, pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m.; W. Reetz, superintendent. Preaching at 11 a. m. Rev. C. C. Coop bringing the message, 6:30, Epworth League; 7:30, preaching by the pastor. We are in the midst of our revival effort. The interest shown is a great encouragement. The prayer meetings have been well attended. The burdened hearts for souls are many. We believe God is going to give us a great victory. The Rev. A. Mitzer, pastor of the M. E. Church at Canyonville, is bringing the message each night this week and surely is being led by the Holy Spirit. You are missing an opportunity if you fail to hear her. Next week we will have some of our Roseburg preachers with us. Watch the papers for further notice.

Swedish Lutheran Eden Church, near Melrose, Rev. J. A. Kidlund of Marshfield will preach Sunday, January 29, at 11 a. m. in Swedish. At 7:30 p. m. he will speak in English. By special request he will give his third lecture on Dr. Martin Luther. His theme will be, "The Great Revival Brought About by Martin Luther in the 16th Century." The people of the surrounding country are most cordially invited.

First Presbyterian Church, corner of Lane and Jackson. R. W. Achon, pastor. Bible school at 9:45. W. C. Harding, superintendent. Immediately following the Sunday school hour there will be a Junior Christian Endeavor meeting for all juniors who do not attend the morning preaching service. We are very fortunate to have one so capable as Mrs. D. Vowel, who will take charge of the Junior work. Morning worship, 11 o'clock. Subject, "New Testament Conversion." The choir has prepared special music for this service. After finishing the enthusiasm of the Dr. Ira Lawlith meeting, we are contemplating a large attendance at the Senior Endeavor service. Meeting begins at 6:30 p. m. Evening worship at 7:30. Subject, "Cliffs of Refuge." Every one enjoys those snappy Sunday evening services. We urge all members to plan as far as possible to attend the Union Evangelistic meetings beginning Sunday evening, February 5.

The Church at Cleveland, the church with a welcome to all. Sunday school at 10; Mrs. John Krohn, superintendent. The lesson topics are unusually interesting and helpful and a benefit to all who study them. One of our noted writers has declared that no matter how extensive one's education may be, if a knowledge of the Bible is lacking it is not a completed education. Where can this knowledge be better gained than in the Sunday school? Message to the children following the Sunday school period. We are glad that all the children are able to stay for this service. We trust that every child in the community may soon be found in these two services. Morning worship at 11. Subject, "Faith." Each service finds new interest and new faces in the audience, for which we are grateful. Also keep in mind the prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vanwey, with Mrs. Vanwey as leader. We not only invite but urge every one to attend this service. It is a meeting not alone for the older ones but also for the young as well. Choir practice Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Krohn. Let every one interested in this part of the services be present at this meeting. And let us come up to the services of the Lord's Day Day prayed up and expecting the best day we have ever had together. V. D. and F. Fuson, Residence 944 E. Douglas, Roseburg.

Riddle Church of Christ. On Saturday at 7 p. m., the choir will hold its regular rehearsal. Beginning at 8 p. m., Saturday, there will be an interesting program of readings, recitations and music, followed by a basket social, the returns of which will be used chiefly in helping to furnish the building used as our meeting place. Admission free, everyone welcome. Bible school at 10. Morning sermon, "Doing the Impossible," Riddle, Junior C. E. at 6:30, and Intermediate C. E. at 6:30. The service at 7:30 will be unique and interesting in every respect. The whole service will center on the Bible. There will be a display of many different styles of Bibles—new and old, large and small, modern and ancient, English and foreign. Bring your Bibles of unusual style, for display. Sermon, "The A B C's of the Bible," Walter Stram, minister.

Myrtle Creek Christian Church. Emery W. Snyder, minister. 10 a. m., Bible school; Clayton Wood, superintendent. 11 a. m., sermon, "Why?" 6:30 p. m., Christian Endeavor; 7:30 p. m., "My Ideal Home." This sermon is based upon scripture and letters from members of the church. Thursday, 7:30 p. m., Bible study and choir practice. You are invited to every service.

Catholic Church, Kane and Oak streets. January 28, Mass and sermon at 8 a. m., Catechism classes and Biblical instruction at 9:45 a. m. High mass and sermon at 10:30 a. m. Rosary and benediction of the M. B. S. in the evening at 7:30.

The First Methodist Episcopal Church, corner of Main and Lane streets, Joseph Knotts, pastor. It is important that every one be on hand at Sunday school this Sunday, the last Sunday before the union revival campaign. 9:45 a. m. is the hour. Do your best. The children should plan to stay for Junior Church. The young people will enjoy the Epworth League service at 6:30 p. m. The study on media is interesting. The morning sermon theme is "The Task of All Christians in Roseburg." The evening sermon theme is "Calculating Present Day Righteousness." This evening sermon is an answer to some critics of the church, and is well worth hearing. Our choir is giving us some choice selections each Sunday. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

STATE PRESS COMMENT

"Single Unit Workers"
"To discourage the working of husband and wife at the same time, to discourage the employment of married women and to bring about conditions so that this is not necessary," is the avowed purpose of the "Single Unit Workers' league," recently incorporated in Oregon.

One would know without reading the news story, that the incorporators are men. We may expect that they will recite the usual time-worn formula of chivalrous regard for woman who must at all cost be "protected," kept in the home, a goddess on a throne. This theory, by the way, must be spurious and substantial, with plenty of room for a dishpan and a mending basket, a washbasin and a scrubbing brush, and all the insignia of regal femininity.

But back of this plausible excuse lies the real reason for the "single unit worker" propaganda, which is the masculine fear of feminine competition. Women are working and working well in a thousand fields formerly monopolized by men, and a good many men find it wearing to keep the pace with these feminine interlopers.

This league may be new to its corporate existence, but in its ideas and aims it is a hopeless back number. It harks back to that old fallacy that the world has only so many "jobs" to be filled, and that every new applicant is a menace to the job holder. It is the same mistaken theory that led the cottage weavers of England to fight the power loom and has inspired protests against every mechanical advance in industry.

Surely the world has learned by this time that there is no rigid bar restricting production and limiting employment. The opposite is true, that every successful producer of anything enlarges the market for everything else and in that demand creates new jobs for others.

Every woman wage earner is a better customer than she would be if she must waste her spending money from some lordly male, and her new wants act as a spur to industry, while her labor goes to supply the wants of others.

Viewed from the economic aspect, women's contribution to the world's work is all to the good. As to the social problems involved, the matter is one for the individual woman to decide, on the basis of her duty, ability and opportunity. For any man or group of men, leagued or otherwise, to attempt to dictate her decision is an unwarrantable impertinence.

With her instinct for home-making and her sense of maternal responsibility, she may be trusted to choose the better part for herself and her children, and to adjust the program of her life to meet its requirements, within the home and without.—Portland Telegram.
