Poultry Feeding Schedule

Our new booklets containing a great deal of useful information for the starting of baby chicks are now ready.

Ask for your copy at the mills, Roseburg or Myrtle Creek.

This schedule was written by a practical poultryman in our own county. If you are new in the business it will be of great help to you.

This year as usual we will have on hand a complete line of feeds for the starting and growing of baby chicks. Carefully mixed feeds from the best of materials, and the assurance that you can get what you want will go a long way to start your chicks right.

NEGROES CARRY OFF HONORS AT ARMORY FIGHTS

Holly Kayoes Jossi in 3rd and Cartwright Takes the Semi-Final.

WILDE ALSO WINNER

Judd, Rallying From Near Defeat in Round One, Earns Call Over "Dolly" Gray.

Scott Holley, lanky Ethiopian middleweight, filled a return engagement at the Roseburg armory last night by knocking out Bill Joss, of Tacoma, in the third round of the main event. Both men slugged to even honors in the first two rounds. At the opening of the third, Joss hit the canvas from a straight left to the jaw and took the count of nine. In the succeeding mixup he went partially through the ropes in the negro's corner. A few seconds later a terrific left uppercut sent him entirely through the ropes. At the same spot and this time he layed down for the fatal fall of ten seconds, and then some.

Another negro, Eddie Cartwright, of Portland, won the six round semi-final over "Heavy" Levitz, of Albany, who was substituted for Frank Burdell, a Vancouver, Wash. scrapper, who preferred easier pickings elsewhere. Levitz put up a good battle, but the negro was the aggressor in every round and scored the only knockdowns, one in the fourth and the other in the fifth. In the sixth round Levitz flashed in a brief rally, but he couldn't overcome the big margin piled up by his antagonist.

Judd-Gray Bout Thriller

The biggest thrill producer of the entire card was a three-round slugfest between Young Judd, of Looking Glass, and "Dolly" Gray, of Grants Pass. It looked like curtains for Judd in the first round when he went to the canvas twice, once for the count of eight and again for the count of nine, after once scoring a brief knockdown himself. In the second round the tide of battle began turning when Judd checked Gray's rush with a severe uppercut and forced him to use more caution. At the opening of the third round Judd registered another brief knockdown. From then on he hammered the exhausted Grants Pass boy almost at will but lacked the steam to deliver a K. O. When Judd was awarded the decision the fans roared their approval.

OSCAR VIII, PLAYING MANAGER, DOUBTS THAT HE WILL DON THE THIRDS GLOVE THIS YEAR.

As for the pitching staff in general, Lane is pretty well satisfied with it. The only addition, to date, is Dick Donnelly, right hander, tossed in a record of 14 wins and 14 losses with the Memphis Southern association club last season. Phil Muleahy, Bill Murphy, Dick McCabe, George Hollerson and Curt Fullerton, a quintet of youthful mountaineers, and Frank Shollenback, a veteran, are the mainstays of the hurling corps.

NO MORE GAS IN STOMACH AND BOWELS

The Roseburg and Douglas County Merchants' Association will hold its annual election of officers at the offices of the Douglas Creditors Association on the evening of Wednesday, February 8th. There will be an open discussion of the present credit situation and also of a number of important items which have been brought to the secretary's attention. A large attendance is expected and all members are requested to attend.

HOLLYWOOD TO HAVE BRIGHTER TEAM THIS YEAR

Owner Spends Large Sum for New Players This Season.

NEVER WON PENNANT

Nine New Faces on Squad, the Outfield Being Almost Completely Changed.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 8.—William Lane, owner of the Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast baseball league, formerly of the Salt Lake Bees, has spent a considerable amount of money in an effort to brighten up the record of his club. The past record, almost unique in the league, is based on the history facts that neither as the Bees, nor as the Stars, has the club ever won a pennant.

To remedy this the Stars' owner has renovated his club to some extent, expending between $40,000 and $50,000 for new timber with which to bolster up, and make his squad a pennant winning combination.

His purchases are nine in number. The outfield has undergone the greatest change, marked with the greatest change of four new players. Cleo Carlyle, centerfielder, and Frank Walsh, left fielder, were purchase of four new left chasers, came: Stanley Casper, left gardner from the Cedar Rapids club of the Mississippi Valley league and Bobby Roth from St. Paul of the American association. Pat McNulty, who was obtained from Cleveland last season, will battle the newcomers for a place.

Some new faces will be seen in the infield. Part of the inner garden will be covered by Mickey Heath, at first base; Johnny Kerr at second, and Dudley Lee at short. Heath is a .309 hitter and a fancy fielder.

CHURCH FILLED LAST NIGHT AT UNION REVIVAL

The Presbyterian church was again filled last night, as the union revival meeting was continued. Large crowds, good music and excellent gospel preaching are characterizing the meetings. On every side the present plan is commended. The congregational singing was led by Rev. Baird, who knows how to do it. There was a beautiful cornet solo by Mrs. Shockley, a fine vocal number by Clarence Rand. Besides, there was a large choir. Rev. John Penhall of the M. E. Church South preached on "The Great Invitation," taking as his text Luke 11:17: "Come; for all things are now ready."

GRANGE MINSTREL GREATLY ENJOYED

South Deer Creek Grange staged a minstrel show on the evening of February 4, to a packed house, many being unable to find standing room in the hall. Those taking part included Wm. B. Melton, Jr., Earl Duncan, Henry Cox, Alva Hunter, Fred McCormick, C. H. Bates, Fred Cachelin, Wm. H. Bailey, Harlan Melton, Wm. A. Karcher, and the Misses Rachel Smith and Josephine Cachelin.

REV. PENHALL SPEAKS

"The Great Invitation" Is Topic of Inspirational Sermon Preached Last Night.

There had been great preparation for the supper, and God's preparation for His great invitation began a long time ago. We read in Genesis 3:15 that God looked in mercy upon mankind and saw the necessity for a Redeemer, and He began the preparation for the salvation of the human race. Later He sent Moses into Egypt to be a leader in the deliverance of the people from bondage, a type of the deliverance of men from the bondage of sin. Through the prophet Isaiah, 741 years before Christ, He foretold the Redeemer, who was to be called wonderful Counselor the mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. The world has watched with interest the coming of Him who was and is the greatest in history. God continued to speak through Jeremiah, the prophet, and the message to His people was "Return unto me and I will return unto you." It pleased God to follow His people and remind them of their backslidings.

"It was because of God's great preparation for His great invitation that Jesus Christ came into the world, declaring, 'I am come that ye might have life, and have it more abundantly.' He repeats the blessed word, 'Come; for all things are now ready,' but we are so busy with material things that we haven't much time for the spiritual. We are getting ready for everything else but to live, I listen and I hear all manner of excuses: 'I know God is love. I know I ought to accept His invitation, but I don't feel like it.' My friends the word 'feeling' occurs only once in the Bible, while the word 'faith' occurs hundreds of times. The most important word, which I wish to bring to your attention tonight is 'come.' God appeals to your reason. Hear Him in Isaiah 1:18, 'Come, let us reason together.' You cannot see all the way at once, but Jesus is the light of the world, and He promises that he that followeth Him shall have the light of life. You may say, 'I have tried to be a Christian, but I failed.' Who was to blame for your failure? Was it God or you? Did you ask Him with your whole heart? Were you tremendously in earnest? The blind man sought Jesus with his whole heart. When he heard the multitude passing by he knew that Jesus was there, and that his one opportunity to receive sight had come. He cried out, 'Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy on me.' That cry was heard, and answered. Jesus has never failed to hear the cry of the penitent heart. He has paid the debt. He has borne our sins. He has provided the way for reconciliation to God. Grace is the source, blood is the cause. Faith is the appropriation, works are the manifestation. The blood cleanseth us from all sin.

The two young ladies, dressed as pickin'innies, and sitting at the feet of the interlocutor, favored the audience with two dances, the Charleston and a special number learned in the Roseburg high school. They also acted as bridesmaids at the Countown wedding. Music was under the management of Mrs. Ada Melton, who presided at the piano, and special numbers during the play included a trombone solo by Alva Hunter; saxophone duet by Harlan Melton and Wm. H. Bailey; violin solo, Wm. E. Melton, Jr., and two songs by the entire cast, accompanied by the various instruments.
