

WOMEN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

BY GRACE CARROLL

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personalities—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

St. Valentine's Day, ever a date about which romance and sentimentation is woven, is providing inspiration for groups of congenial affairs and this week has been indeed interesting with numerous gay parties in which the motif of Valentine's has been prevailing. Lincoln's birthday comes Sunday and the week following will bring the anniversary of Washington's birth, two dates about which will center several important entertainments. The pre-Valentine season will close then and a period of thoughtfulness will be observed. Ask Wednesday on February 22 begins the season of Lent, observed since the fourth century as the forty days before the feast of Easter, and is designated as a special time of penitence and preparation by many churches for Easter, which this year is April 8.

The Monday Book Club will hold its regular fortnightly meeting next week when the members have been invited to the home of Mrs. C. S. Heinline in Laurewood.

Senator Eddy Is Speaker at Meeting Loyal Women's Class

A most interesting business and social meeting combined was participated in by the members of the Loyal Women's Class of the Lutheran church on Thursday when they were invited to the home of Mrs. J. A. Hutchings on Mosher and 1st streets.

The program committee arranged for a talk by Senator B. L. Eddy, who presented quite an interesting paper on "Every Woman at the Polls in 1928 to Support a President Who Will Uphold the 18th Amendment as It Now Stands."

Miss Parrott and Mr. Parrott Hosts for Dinner and Bridge

The bridge and dinner club members met on Wednesday evening as guests of Miss Elizabeth Parrott and Mr. George Parrott, who entertained them at a dinner at the Empqua hotel preceding evening hours of cards at the Parrott home on Cobb street.

Koenigs Will Be Hosts at Dinner Tonight

Mr. and Mrs. J. Koenigs are entertaining at their home at 119 Benson street this evening at a dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. T. H. News, Mr. and Mrs. R. Willett, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hammer of Milbank, South Dakota, and Miss Lucille Koenigs.

Master Donald Ivie Observed Anniversary

Master Donald Ivie was the honoree guest at a party arranged by his mother, Mrs. Merle R. Ivie, at her home on East Douglas street Wednesday afternoon, when five little guests were asked to celebrate with him on his fourth birthday anniversary.

Games formed the entertainment and afterward Mrs. Ivie, assisted by Mrs. J. A. Soules, served refreshments to Mary McCutcheon, Patricia Cochran, Ward Soules, Garret Soules, Bobby Ivie and Donald Ivie.

Flowers Move

Covers were laid for the Mesdames P. H. Williams, V. R. Buckingham, C. E. Marks, C. L. Mabley, F. A. Stewart, Curtis Calkins, G. S. Jones, Elma Smith, J. Bailey, A. Clemens, E. P. Ballou, D. E. Hendrickson and L. E. Goodman, Wm. Fisher, Clinton Morley, D. Morse, additional guests, and the hostess.

Mrs. L. B. Nichols Hostess at Affair Honoring Matron

The home of Mrs. L. B. Nichols at Brockway was the scene of a lovely afternoon affair on February 2, the event being arranged as a surprise to honor Mrs. Lucy Jennings on her birthday anniversary. Dainty appointments were used at the luncheon table and colors in pale shades were used in decoration. A large birthday cake rendered the table arrangement. The honoree was the recipient of many lovely remembrances from the invited group. Later the afternoon hours were filled with enjoyable games.

Leap Year Dance Will Be Unique Event Given by Club Feb. 21

What is expected to be one of the largest pre-Lenten affairs on the social calendar is the leap year dance planned by the Roseburg Business and Professional Women's Club for Tuesday night, February 21.

Dinner Planned to Honor Visitor From Seattle

On Tuesday evening the girls of the World Wide Guild of the Baptist Church planned a dinner for 6:30 o'clock at the church parlors as a courtesy to Miss Louise Campbell, who was a visitor from Seattle in the city during that day. Miss Campbell spent fifteen years in missionary work in south China and gave a most interesting informal talk before the guild during the evening following the dinner.

Doernbecker Hospital Tea Is Large Benefit Event of Tuesday

A much anticipated and very lovely affair early in the week was the Doernbecker hospital tea, an annual social event given under the auspices of the Roseburg Woman's Club and this year held in the new club building, where a large contingent of Roseburg women were received during the hours of 2 to 5 o'clock.

Early spring blossoms were colorful in the attractively arranged rooms and predominated in the tea table decorations. Receiving at the door were the officers and board of directors of the club. A brief business session preceded the affair. For the receiving hours Mrs. A. D. Abbott and Miss Evelyn Quine each gave pleasing groups of vocal solos.

The distinguished guest for the occasion was Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, charming Portland woman and secretary of the Oregon State Tuberculosis association. Mrs. Dunbar made many friends in this part of the state while she was the president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs and her visits here are always welcome among club and social groups. The visitor gave a very instructive and educational talk on the Doernbecker hospital, one of the institutions assisted by the federated women's club.

During tea, in charge of serving and assisting in the rooms with other members of the club, were Mrs. J. V. Short, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mrs. A. D. Abbott, Mrs. L. B. Skinner and Mrs. Wm. Bell. A large sum was received at the tea and will be turned over to the hospital fund.

Mrs. Owen Arranged Luncheon for Group

Mrs. F. D. Owen was hostess for a lovely one o'clock luncheon at her home on Empqua avenue on February 1 when she invited the members of the New Idea Club to be her guests for the afternoon. As a centerpiece, the table held a bowl of colorful snapdragons.

Covers were laid for the Mesdames P. H. Williams, V. R. Buckingham, C. E. Marks, C. L. Mabley, F. A. Stewart, Curtis Calkins, G. S. Jones, Elma Smith, J. Bailey, A. Clemens, E. P. Ballou, D. E. Hendrickson and L. E. Goodman, Wm. Fisher, Clinton Morley, D. Morse, additional guests, and the hostess.

Mrs. L. B. Nichols Hostess at Affair Honoring Matron

The home of Mrs. L. B. Nichols at Brockway was the scene of a lovely afternoon affair on February 2, the event being arranged as a surprise to honor Mrs. Lucy Jennings on her birthday anniversary. Dainty appointments were used at the luncheon table and colors in pale shades were used in decoration. A large birthday cake rendered the table arrangement. The honoree was the recipient of many lovely remembrances from the invited group. Later the afternoon hours were filled with enjoyable games.

Winter Style on the Meridian at Palm Beach

Linen and Cotton Abound as Florida Fashion Reaches Its Height

BY BETSY SCHUYLER
NEA Service Writer

PALM BEACH, Feb. 11.—The southern winter season is reaching its climax. All the best hotels and smart clubs—the Everglades, Bath and Tennis, Palm Beach Country and the Beach—are abuzzing with gay activity. It's generally an 18-hour day the poor dears put in down here—beginning at 11 a. m.

I suppose so long a day is really needed to allow time for costume changing. After all, it takes time to don the bathing suit, the golf and tennis togs, sauntering costumes, dinner garb and then formal attire for the time when brilliant stars shine and syncopated music flows.

Linen's Solid Colors
I have noticed many linens and cottons lately. The linens are for the most part solid colors, with bandings of contrasting shades fagotated in or hemstitched or put in with other handwork. The cottons are volles, swais, oranges and so on—in sweet flowered prints.

The jacket-frock is a new note. It's a sleeveless sports dress—usually of white and it may be linen instead of silk. The topping jacket is really a longer cardigan and it is gayest of the gay—either in heavily embroidered linen or wool or in patterned silk. New Navajo prints introduce jackets that take their design from the blankets Indians weave.

Socks, Socks, Everywhere
Socks are the newest fad. You see them everywhere. Tennis courts seem to demand them. Of course young folks dispense with under-hosiery. Take such a cute looking person as Anita Murray and socks add a juvenile touch to her smart-frock costume that is positively irresistible. I saw her yesterday in the Breakers' Casino in a stunning little linen frock white with coral insets fagotated in by hand and little curly-cue designs embroidered on two hip

Kay Kenny

Mrs. Harrison Williams

Anita Murray

Mr. and Mrs. Cochran Honor Guests at Affair on Twenty-fifth Anniversary

A group of friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Cochran gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Grubbe on South Main street last Saturday evening for an affair complimenting the couple on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Attractive room decorations of flowers were used. A supper was served after an informal time with music, and assisting were Mrs. J. A. Soules and Mrs. M. R. Ivie. Mr. and Mrs. Cochran were presented with a beautiful coffee urn by their friends.

Enjoying the affair with the honor guests were Mrs. May Pierce, Mrs. McCutcheon, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Soules, Mr. and Mrs. V.

T. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Ivie, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crossgrove, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hohl, the Misses Dorothy Dale Jackson, Mildred Cochran, Alphabelle Grubbe, Patricia Cochran, and Ed Renfro and Lynn Grubbe.

Mrs. Quine to Have Daughters of Nile for Meeting Tuesday

Mrs. Geo. K. Quine has extended an invitation to the ladies who are members of the Daughters of Nile, to be her guests at a meeting at her home on Pitzer street Tuesday evening, February 14. A full attendance of the club is asked. Sewing is being arranged for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman Will Entertain Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hoffman will entertain at a dinner Sunday for a group of Roseburg and out of town folk. Members of the family have been asked and will include Mrs. B. R. Scruggs of Portland, Mrs. Mary Fuller, Mrs. Chas. Chowler of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Norton of Myrtle Point, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Johnson, Miss Florence Fuller, Clyde Norton of Myrtle Point, Loren Johnson, Darward Johnson and Linden Hoffman.

Mrs. Charles W. Fox of Corvallis is a visitor here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Orcutt, on Chadwick street. Mrs. Fox is recovering from a recent major operation.

Group of Young Folk Form Social Club

Among the latest arrivals in the club coterie of the younger groups is a social club formed recently with the members of the Melrose Grange as sponsors. The members are composed of girls and boys over fourteen years of age living in the Melrose, Elgarose, Cleveland, Umqupa and Looking Glass vicinities.

A committee of six, including Margaret Busenbark, Crystal Fenn, Bessie Hagan, Carl Bloomberg, Ed Reece, James Conn, Wm. Sandstrom and Grace Conn, met at the Hagan home to outline the constitution to be submitted to the club.

On January 28 the group met in special session with nineteen charter members attending. The following are the officers who were elected for the year: Wm. Sandstrom, president; Ed Reece, vice-president; Grace Conn, secretary-treasurer; James Conn, sergeant-at-arms. Following the business, an amusing and clever skit was given as entertainment. Taking part were Dale Busenbark, Bessie Hagan, Ed Reece, Margaret Busenbark, Carl Bloomberg. Under the supervision of Mrs. Fred Reece, the boys of the club served refreshments at the close of the evening.

Valentine Dinner Party Given Thursday

Valentine motif was used at the dinner party arranged by Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Chase for a group of ten intimate friends whom they entertained at their home on South Stephens street Thursday evening. Red and white predominated in the attractive appointments. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Young, Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Kerbas, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wells and the hostess.

Two Matrons Will Entertain at Smart Affair

Among the smart events planned for the coming week will be the bride-juncheon at which Mrs. R. E. Entler and Mrs. H. R. Neffs will be hostesses, the affair being one of a series arranged by the two matrons to entertain groups of their friends.

Social Club Met for Afternoon of Sewing

The Rural Social Club members met on Friday as guests of Mrs. M. Porter for an afternoon of sewing and visiting. At the close refreshments were served to the Mesdames George Caskey, Matt Karlsrufer, W. O. Patterson, Paul Conkey, Joe McLarnan, S. E. Dunn, James Hewitt, John Krommings, Leland Hewitt, Clara Howard, Geo. Hall.

pockets and at the bottom of the chic coral yoke. Her white socks had a bit of coral in their cuffs. Her frock featured the new natural waistline silhouette, quite a departure from the straight up and down of this time last year. She wore a cute little white turban with an embroidered banding in coral tone.

Constance Fox wears linen too. I saw her shopping along the Via Mizner in a tricky little pale blue handkerchief linen jumper suit with a cute Mandarin collar. She wore a natural burlap hat with it. Natural straw hats, incidentally, more often than not top a white costume this season. The trend is away from dead white-even silks and linens are veering towards "off-white," natural string and a white gregg.

Shell-Pink Crepe
Sports costumes are introducing all kinds of new color treatments. Mrs. Harrison Williams wore a shell-pink crepe jumper frock that has a convertible collar. Worn up, it takes a new line that gives a little standing collar in the back and none in the front. Down, it looks like a coat closing, with notched revers.

She sponsored the black-white shoes and black-white hat combination, the hat of bank with an all-around mushroom brim.

Black-white, Too
Black-white bathing suits are in high favor. Mrs. George Baughman had on a black-white suit version at the Sea Spray Beach that consists of a black satin suit with a deep white satin gilet. A black jersey three-quarters coat and white bandings tops it.

A gaudy but pleasing red ensemble was worn by Kay Marie Kenny, at the Breakers Beach. It used graduated and waving stripes in a most distracting manner to ornament its one-piece suit and coat. It was most chic and unusual. Of course, bathing at the Breakers, she must wear hosiery. But, like most smart women she chose a nude shade to give the illusion of bare legs.

Ellen Braden Radabaugh One of Students in Recital in Eugene

Ellen Braden Radabaugh, wife of Glenn Radabaugh who formerly made his home in this city, was among the pupils of the schools of music and oratory at the Eugene Bible University presented in a recital in the chapel of the music hall on Wednesday night.

Mrs. Radabaugh is a charming young woman and is known in Roseburg, where she has been a visitor several times. Her selection was a piano solo, Bachman's prelude in C minor.

Sewing and Music Arranged for Group

Miss Esther Miller entertained for the members of the Eldeen Sewing Club on Thursday night, asking the group for sewing and music.

Predominating in the room decorations was the Valentine motif. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Esther Edman later in the evening.

Group Bidden for Dinner Party Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. H. U. Cochran invited a small group of friends for an informal dinner party on Saturday night to observe with them their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Seated at the prettily appointed table were Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Grubbe, the Misses Alphabelle Grubbe, Mildred Cochran, Marjorie Cochran, Patricia Cochran, T. L. Neumann, Ed Renfro and the hosts.

Mrs. Kohlhagen Complimented by Aid

Quite a pleasurable event of Thursday afternoon was the surprise planned to honor Mrs. Louis Kohlhagen, the members of the Baptist Ladies Aid society arranging the affair to follow the regular business session at the church parlors.

Portland Maid Complimented at Affair Given by Mrs. Bates

Complimenting her house guest, Mrs. Mary Moppel, of Portland, Mrs. Bert G. Bates entertained with an attractive Valentine party at her home at 321 South Mill street Friday evening.

A group of the younger maids and matrons were asked for three tables of bridge and the prize was won by Miss Fernie Reymers. At the end of play luncheon was served at the prettily appointed tables, where colors were used to correspond with the red carnations which predominated in the room decorations.

Betrothal Announced at Afternoon Affair This Week

At a pleasurable social event of the week for which Mrs. Rose Brou was a gracious hostess to the members of the Tenmile Community Club, the betrothal of Miss Helen Barnes to Stanford Buell of Dilard was made known.

The guests were asked for a luncheon and assisting was Mrs. Nannie Swan. Covers were placed for Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Hahn, Mrs. Cabot, Mrs. W. McDaniels, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. L. Sisk, Mrs. L. Breltenbacher, Mrs. A. Watson, Mrs. Howard, E. Swift, Mrs. Clifford Howard and son, Gordon, Miss Alta Hahn, Miss Viola Howard.

Mrs. Howard was an additional guest of the club. For the meeting on February 22, Mrs. L. Breltenbacher has invited the group to her home for a meeting.

Miss Trefren Honor Guest at Attractive Affair Early in Week

A large circle of the younger maids and matrons in the city were invited guests at a lovely event of the week given by Miss Trefren at the Howell Apartments Tuesday evening in compliment to a charming visitor, Miss Thelma Trefren, a former Roseburg girl who is here from Yuma, Arizona, as the guest of friends.

Attractively arranged was the Valentine motif used in the room, which with the flower combinations of violets and freesias, formed a colorful background for the affair. At the bridge tables Miss Naomi Scott held honors and Miss Trefren was given guest prize.

Assisting at the luncheon tables were Dr. Lucetta Smith, Mrs. Donald Hillwell and Miss Vera McMullin.

Bidden to renew friendship with the honoree were Mrs. Edw. Kohlhaugen, Mrs. Donald Hillwell, Mrs. Maurice S. Newland, Mrs. H. Lee Connelly, Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mrs. Keith Wright, Mrs. George M. Bradburn, Mrs. Harry Burr, Mrs. Bert G. Bates, Mrs. Allen Hewitt, Mrs. Carl Wimberly, Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. Harrie Booth, Miss Bessie Wharton, Miss Verna Carothers, Miss Naomi Scott, Miss Vera McMullin, Miss Rosina Porter, Miss Evelyn Quine, Miss Eva Rice, Miss Helen Casey, Miss Marjory Poppel of Portland, Miss Amy Erickson, Dr. Lucetta Smith.

Club Bidden to Luncheon by Mrs. H. C. Waddell

For an attractive one o'clock luncheon the first of the week Mrs. H. C. Waddell invited the members of the Monday Bridge Club to her home on Kane and Lane streets.

A bowl of Jasmine and Heather was a lovely table centerpiece. Covers were laid for the Mesdames D. B. Bubar, Ben C. Ziegler, Wm. Bell, Geo. A. Bradburn, H. D. Harris, John Thorne, A. J. Young, A. D. Abbott and H. C. Waddell. Mrs. Russell Dunham of Marshfield and Miss Katherine Devos assisted.

Honors at the bridge tables were held by Mrs. Thorne at the end of play.

C. E. Societies of City Observed Movement

The worldwide Christian Endeavor movement of young people observed for eight days, beginning January 29 and concluding February 5, the 17th anniversary of the founding of the first young people's society. The local Christian Endeavor societies formed an observance of the movement in joining in the union revival services.

(Continued on page 3.)

Bustle 'n Beads

There's a bit of a bustle about this gown, subtly introduced with shimmer ribbon under a beaded ornament.

