

SOCIETY

BY GRACE CARROLL

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personalities—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

Among all the prominent holidays of the month of February perhaps none is more universally observed than Washington's anniversary, and indeed it is a date about which most delightful entertaining centers. Several events in club and social groups will mark the date, some to be given early next week.

Now comes the interesting announcement that for the end of the month the Roseburg Country Club will give a leap year dancing party for members at the club house.

The interesting affair is slated for Wednesday evening, February 22, dancing to begin at 8 o'clock. As a departure from the usual the ladies are inviting the men for the evening. Mrs. Fred Lockwood and Mrs. W. A. Bogard are joint chairmen for the party.

Miss Urnath Hostess for Dinner and Theatre Party

On the evening of February 14 a group of the younger boys and girls met at the home of Miss Anna May Urnath for an informal dinner party to observe St. Valentine's day.

A color motif in keeping with the occasion was used at the table and in the rooms. Covers were laid for the Misses Rose Neureiter, Jessie Pyron, Eileen Hamilton, Avis Nesley, Patricia Neal, Louise Hess, and Dorel Weidman. Showed in the room were Misses Urnath, Billy Wharton and the hostess, Annalee, with serving were Miss Elsie Wettstein, Mrs. G. H. Hess, Mrs. H. E. Allison and Mrs. A. Neureiter.

Following the dinner hour the guests attended the theatre.

Sewing Club Gives Entertaining Program

The South Deer Creek grange hall was filled to capacity Friday evening to witness a program presented by the Sewing Club of the school. This club is composed of the girls in the upper grades.

Miss Loh-Duncan acted as chairman of the meeting, and presented the following program: music, South Deer Creek Grange orchestra; recitation and song, six "Sassy Sewers"; song, by the three upper grade pupils; recitation, Mary Ellen Breedlove; recitation, Wanda Gay McKean; song, Willie Greenwood; Annie Brown; recitation, Nellie Rose Melton; music, by the orchestra; dialogue, Margaret Banning and Howard Hatfield; recitation, R. V. Hatfield; recitation, Vernie Marie Paul; piano solo, Isabelle Karner; song, six "Sassy Sewers"; recitation, Jimmie Kunkin; recitation, Fred Duncan; recitation, Jimmie Ingram; music, by the orchestra; drill, sewing girls. The last number on the program was a skit by six mothers of the children.

Pies and coffee were sold, and the children were the recipients of a considerable sum, which is for the benefit of the sewing club.

Mr. Shields Honored on Anniversary

A pleasurable affair of Wednesday was arranged by Mrs. B. F. Shields in observance of her husband's birthday anniversary. Fifteen friends of the honor guest were asked for an informal evening of five hundred.

Decorating the room decorations were arrangements of colorful spring flowers. At the end of play honors were held by Henry Worthington and Mrs. Hattie McEwen. After receiving the consolation prize, seated for luncheon were Mrs. Frances Freeman, Mrs. Ed Patterson, Mrs. Hattie McEwen, Mrs. Sally McEwen, Mrs. Ed Patterson, Mrs. J. G. Stephenson, Mrs. J. L. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hurlbut, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Worthington, Fred Fields, O. D. Newland and Mr. and Mrs. Shields. The honor guest was the recipient of several fine gifts from his friends.

Initiated Shoe

This black suede shoe, edged with gold and with a rhinestone initial holding down one corner of the turned-back tongue, was seen recently on a smart woman in Paris.

Silver Tea Given in Observance of Frances E. Willard Day

Interesting among the larger affairs to be given during the week was the special program and silver tea on Wednesday sponsored by the Roseburg Woman's Club building, the day being an observance of the anniversary of Frances E. Willard.

Officers of the union received the guests during the afternoon hours. Mrs. T. B. Busenbark of the union, presided at the afternoon program. Mrs. Josephine Hettes led the devotionals.

Dr. Louis Albert Banks gave a very interesting talk, reminiscences of Frances E. Willard, whom he knew intimately. He first met her in Vancouver, Washington, in 1882 when she made her first tour of the Pacific coast. He attended many of her meetings in other states in the union.

Rev. J. B. Penhall gave a stirring address, referring to Miss Willard's great work. In his talk he also took up another theme, stressing the importance of safe guarding the young people from liquor.

This part of the program was followed by readings by Mrs. J. B. Penhall, Mrs. Harry Winston and Mrs. H. R. Ferguson. Mrs. F. A. Bemis was in charge of the music hour.

Assisting in serving after the program were Mrs. Fred Fisher, Mrs. J. B. Halley and Mrs. Josephine Hettes. The tea table was appointed attractively in keeping with the room decorations of ferns and other greenery, combined with spring blossoms.

Proceeds of the tea are to be used for the Frances E. Willard Fund.

Social Afternoon Spent by P. T. A.

The ladies of the Hamilton P. T. A. met for an informal social afternoon Friday at the home of Mrs. G. A. Bonebrake. The ladies spent the afternoon in pleasant conversation after which the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Maurice Weber, served a delicious luncheon. Covers were laid for the Mesdames C. L. Branton, J. P. Brumback, G. Lindholm, J. B. Kurtz, J. Heidenreich, M. McKinnon, O. C. Brown, G. Tison, R. Hatfield, C. E. Banning, C. F. Krogel, W. H. Brown, Mildred Brown, Clare Tison, Master Maurice Weber, Jr., and the hostesses.

Life's Niceties

HINTS ON ETIQUET

1. Should a hostess try to provide elaborate "company" fare for house guests?

2. What should she do?

3. If the hostess is reducing what should she be careful to avoid doing?

The Answers.

1. No.

2. Just set a simple but good table.

3. She should prepare more nourishing things for her guests and not force her diet on them.

"SHE KNOWS HER ONIONS"

Copyright by MCA, Inc.

Anniversary Occasions Dinner Party

On the anniversary of her husband's birthday Mrs. F. I. Perry planned an enjoyable dinner party at their home at 814 Hamilton street February 12.

Invited for the afternoon were members of the family, including the children and grandchildren. Following the dinner hour the time was spent informally. Included in the group were Mr. and Mrs. P. I. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Perry and children, Vere and Gene, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Perry and children, Corinne Anne and Donald, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Perry and Rose Corlene and Vance Perry.

Pleasant Afternoon Event Honors Matron

An enjoyable event recently was the surprise house warming arranged by several of her friends for Mrs. C. Gorthy, who with Mr. Gorthy and their family have just moved to their new home in West Roseburg.

For the afternoon sewing was arranged and at the tea hour luncheon covers were laid for the Mesdames E. A. Williams, Leonard W. Delaney, Theodore Delaney, B. W. Woods, W. Carpenter, J. Moss, F. Guyard, E. Murray, E. Haglund, A. Jorgenson, Florence Leake, Frank Erno and the honoree.

Mrs. Richard Croker — Louise Van Allen

L. F. T.'s Will Entertain With Masquerade

Interest is centering about an affair to be given at the end of the month when the L. F. T. club will entertain with a gay masquerade party.

The night of February 28 has been selected as the time and the party will be at the Knights of Pythias hall. A complete program to vary the evening will be arranged by the committee in charge at a meeting to be held on Wednesday night, February 22. Mr. and Mrs. Storey lies are joint chairmen for the masquerade and assisting on the committee are Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thurber, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miceli, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Fargeter, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ott, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bogard, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burr, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. McAllister and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Entler.

Rice Creek P. T. A. Sponsored Pleasant Affair

On the evening of February 10 a delightful social affair was given at the Rice Creek school house where the P. T. A. of that school entertained with a box social and program.

Entertainment consisting of two vaudeville acts was enjoyed. Included were a two-act comedy, "In Want of a Servant," and a two-act musical play, "Peter and the Peddler."

The piano for the evening was furnished by W. E. Ott of Ott's Music Store and music was played by the Rice Brothers orchestra during the remainder of the evening. There were thirty-one baskets sold, netting $53 to be used by the Sunday school for a new piano.

Mrs. C. R. Blaxall has as her guests at her home in Ramona Court, Mrs. M. V. Kelt and her daughter, Maxine, who are here from Vulcan, Alberta, Canada, for early spring. They will remain until March.

Demure Chapeau

The quaintness of this soft taffeta poke shape, slightly wired, will have its appeal in our warmer climes.

Matrons Entertain at Lovely Afternoon Affair

Mrs. Roy Entler and Mrs. H. R. Nerbas were hostesses for a lovely afternoon affair, entertaining a group of their friends mid-week at another of a series of parties they have been giving.

For Wednesday a group of thirty-six matrons was bidden for a one o'clock luncheon followed by bridge and sewing. An attractive color scheme was achieved in the use of pink, carried out with carnaations.

Assisting at the exquisitely appointed tables were Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. H. O. Philpott and Mrs. Albert Miceli.

For the afternoon at the bridge tables Mrs. Clair K. Allen held honors and Mrs. Foster Butler received the consolation prize. The sewing prize was received by Mrs. Bert Wells.

Decorative Committee Meets Weekly

The members of the decorating committee who have charge of the decoration of the armory for the meeting of grand lodge of the Rebekahs here in the spring, met all day February 10 as guests at the home of Mrs. T. B. Busenbark at Melrose.

The morning was spent in preparing paper flowers and other novelties to be used in decoration. A luncheon was served at one o'clock, after which the group worked until four o'clock. The committee is composed of Mrs. F. A. Goff, Mrs. H. C. Shurtz, Mrs. V. F. Jackson, Mrs. O. H. Pickett, Mrs. J. E. Pickett, Mrs. H. A. Canaday, Mrs. O. L. Johnson, Mrs. M. R. Ivie, Mrs. Geo. Reynolds, Mrs. Theo. Bloom and Mrs. T. B. Busenbark.

The committee met again on February 16 for work at the home of Mrs. J. E. Pickett in Roseburg. At the afternoon Mrs. Pickett served refreshments.

Varied Program for Junior High P. T. A.

The Junior high P. T. A. is planning an interesting program for its regular meeting Tuesday, February 21st, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Junior high auditorium.

The president, Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen, will preside at the business meeting at which matters of importance will be taken up. This meeting is being planned with an idea of carrying out "Founders' Day," the birthday of the congress of parents and teachers, and each member is asked to bring a silver offering, one half of which goes to the national association and one-half to the state for the purpose of carrying on extension work.

The program which will follow the business meeting is varied and will cover several interesting topics. Mrs. K. Quine has charge of the musical numbers of the program, which includes cornet duet, Claude Crocker and Roy Catching; piano solo, Frances Lindott; vocal solo, Clarence Rand, with Mrs. Lindott accompanying.

D. E. Olesman, principal of the Junior high school, is arranging for a speaker from the Junior high faculty.

Mrs. Carl Neal will explain the Curtis-Reed educational bill now before congress and leave it open for discussion.

And last, A. E. Britton will present the Junior high P. T. A. Boy Scout troupe in a demonstration program. This Scout troupe is and has been sponsored by the Junior high P. T. A. and each parent of the pupils is asked to enjoy their first presentation. The program gives each member to attend this meeting. Visitors from other associations are invited to attend.

Mrs. Geo. K. Quine, Sr., invited members of Badoura Club, Daughters of the Nile, to her home on Tuesday evening for the meeting of the club. After a business hour sewing was the diversion.

Program Arranged for Benson P. T. A.

Quite an interesting program is being planned for Monday evening, February 19, when the Benson P. T. A. will hold its regular meeting at the school building at 7:30 o'clock. The business session to be followed by an informal entertainment along educational lines.

The pupils of the fifth and sixth grades will take part in the program, which will be a patriotic theme to celebrate the anniversary of Washington's birthday. Musical numbers will be played and slides of Hawaii will be given. In charge of Miss Helen Atwood, county health nurse, some very educational health films will be shown.

A large number of Roseburg folk went to Eugene Tuesday to attend the second annual ball of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen held on that evening in the Winter Garden. Red, white and green flags and lanterns were used in the ball. The programs for the evening were uniquely worked out, being in the form of a train order, with each dance scheduled to the minute and each honoring some division of railroad work.

Bridge Me Another

By W. W. WENTWORTH

(Abbreviations: A—Ace; K—King; Q—Queen; J—Jack; X—any card lower than 10.)

1. Declarer bids one no-trump. All pass. Dummy holds K Q 10 X. Declarer holds X X X. What should declarer play when opponent leads small card through dummy?

2. In planning your campaign against a no-trump bid, what should be your aim?

3. (a) It is necessary to know how to score? (b) Why?

The Answers

1. Queen.

2. To establish a long suit.

3. (a) Yes. (b) Bidding is influenced by the score.

(Copyright, 1928, by the Ready Reference Publishing Co.)

Sutherland Matron Entertained for Visitor Recently

Mrs. Josephine Stark joyfully entertained the ladies of the Sutherland Past Noble Grand Club on the afternoon of February 16. Mrs. Claude Shrank of Idaho being the honor guest for the affair. After the regular routine of business, Chester and Virginia Stark gave a number of piano selections. The former also gave a comic reading.

The hostess served dainty refreshments at the tea hour. Those enjoying Mrs. Stark's hospitality were the Mesdames Claude Shrank, A. E. Shihra, H. B. Shamp, Geo. Shamp, Sr., B. Schmidt, B. S. Black, Louis Allen, J. J. Galt, H. Barge, J. W. Culver, Geo. Green, Theo. Anderson, H. Wegner, J. Merritt, W. Hartsorn, J. Ross.

Club Will Give Leap Year Dance on February 21

Prominent on the social calendar for the coming week will be the Leap Year ball to be given by the Business and Professional Women's club on the evening of February 21 at the Oriental Gardens.

Ott's orchestra will play for the dance and arranged for the evening are prizes and feature dances. The event, one of the largest to precede the Lenten season, will be quite gala as a last thing before Ash Wednesday. Proceeds are to go to the club fund to finance the state convention here in the spring.

Mrs. Marsters Bids Club and Guests for Afternoon

Mrs. Ed Marsters planned an interesting meeting for the members of the Northside Sunshine Club and added guests who were invited to her home on Thursday afternoon.

A brief business session was followed by an informal social time and at the close the hostess served a two-course luncheon. Branches of business and pleasure were arranged with Duster Miller sprays to form attractive decorations and a Valentine motif was used in the favors.

Mrs. Clyde Crosby of Eugene and Mrs. Norman Fisher were club guests and members present for the afternoon were the Mesdames Fred Bowen, Lilius Marsters, H. P. Chilson, Lee Goodman, L. W. Miller, Geo. Marsters, Mrs. B. A. Hey, S. Durand, R. E. Harness, A. McComas, Virgil Bush, Robert Chilson, Wm. Fisher, E. P. Ballou, B. S. Nichols, Donald Young, T. Parkinson, Wm. Stark and the hostess.

Young High School Girl Presented Award

At a general assembly of the Junior High School students Thursday morning, following a playlet in which Frances Gorthy and Colly Reed won much applause because of their portrayals of humorous character parts, a surprise feature was enacted.

Principal Olmud made a few remarks about the local civic organizations and Unpopers. Clubs and their sister organization, the Unpopers Squaws, and then introduced the president of the Squaws, Mrs. T. H. Ness.

Mrs. Ness, giving an award of bravery to Miss Frances Gorthy, young high school girl, who saved two lives last summer, said, "On July 18, 1927, your classmates, (continued on page 3.)"

Oval Neckline

Lanvin puts a deep oval neckline on a blue taffeta robe de style edged with pink petals.