

WINGS of the MORNING

Snap!

Mellow flavor -- fragrant aroma. Any good coffee has both -- but with Schilling there is also a peculiar "snap" in the flavor -- like a bracer! -- Westerners call it "Wings of the Morning."

YOUNG CHILD FALLS OFF RUNNING BOARD

(Associated Press Leased Wire) SALEM, Ore., Feb. 21.—Unaware that his two and a half year old child was on the running board, Mel Kloster, of Barlow, drove from his home towards Canby this morning. The youngster fell from the vehicle after riding nearly a mile, was picked up by passing motorists and taken to a doctor's office at Aurora, where it was found by its mother who had come after help when she missed the child. Bruises, cuts and a bad fright were the only injuries received by the youngster.

PURE SPIRIT BEST OFFERING TO GOD, MINISTER AVERS

Revival Audience Listens to Sermon for Church Members, Delivered by Dr. Matthews.

The union revival meetings continued last night at the Presbyterian church. There was good music, with Mrs. Gladys Strong at the piano, and Mr. E. R. Fleckencher with his violin. There were two vocal solos by Mrs. Deets.

Dr. F. B. Matthews, pastor of the Baptist church, preached on the topic, "What Should We do for Jesus?" The sermon was especially directed to church members, and being expository of parts of the 12th chapter of Romans.

Our Offering "In the Metropolitan Museum in New York City there is a valued chest of pottery, jewelry, precious stones, gold and silver. A vast amount of money would not buy these things, for this treasure chest was discovered in the year 1876 on the island of Cyprus. They took it from the forgotten vaults of a Temple, which was destroyed 600 years before Paul made his missionary journey to Cyprus. And these treasures were offerings which those people of 24 centuries ago brought to their Gods.

"Paul is telling us in this 12th chapter of his letter to the Romans the offering, which we may bring and should bring to our God. I beseech you that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, not a dead one. He is asking us to make strong and clean the house wherein we live. He wants it brought as an offering to God. Verses 6 to 8 mention some of these. Whittier had the great gift of writing chaste and beautiful poetry and that gift of his was dedicated to God. Michael Angelo was superbly endowed with the gift of painting and this he brought as an offering to Christ. Farraday and Newton were scientists of first magnitude, and did their work by the grace of God, giving him the glory. That's the sort of thing that is advocated here. Bring the output of your mind and your hands as an offering to God.

Verse 17 says: 'Render to no man evil for evil, and later we read: 'Avenge not yourselves.' Get hold of Christ's way of doing things, act as He used to act, and present this as an offering. There is no better one and for this offering God waits at this hour. "On an African mission a black girl sold herself as a slave for the rest of her life, and received 85 cents in return. This amount of money she turned in as her offering toward missionary work and by doing so brought the complete offering of all her days to Christ. The angels of God must have broken into voice when she did this beautiful thing. "The best offering you and I can bring is the one that assures the blessing of God."

FLYING CROSS IS AWARDED 5 FLIERS

(Associated Press Leased Wire) WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Award of the distinguished flying cross to five outstanding aviators was announced today by the war department. The men honored and their deeds follow: Captain John A. MacReady, Dayton, Ohio, and Lieutenant Oakley G. Kelly, Portland, Oregon, for the first trans-continental non-stop flight from New York to San Francisco, May 23, 1923. Lieutenant Arthur C. Goebel, Los Angeles, for his non-stop flight from Oakland, California, to Honolulu, August 16-17, 1927. Lieutenant Russel L. Maughan, stationed at Salt Lake City, for his dawn to dusk flight, New York to San Francisco, June 23, 1924. Captain Hawthorne C. Gray, a posthumous award, for his balloon flight in 1927, reaching a record height of 42,470 feet.

TRAFFIC MISHAPS IN OREGON, 1927, SHOWS DECREASE

(Associated Press Leased Wire) SALEM, Ore., Feb. 21.—The number of traffic accidents in Oregon decreased in 1927 as compared with 1926, the respective totals being 29,188 and 30,025, says the annual report of T. A. Rafferty, state traffic inspector. While the number of fatalities increased from 89 in 1916 to 141 in 1927, the higher number is attributed mainly to a more thorough method of checking fatalities. Under the new system serious cases are watched by traffic officers, and in event of death after the lapse of some time they are recorded as traffic casualties. In 1927 the total number of arrests was 2481, while in 1926 it was 3225, a decrease of 1144 during the last year. This is largely due to the increase in the legal speed limit from 30 to 35 miles an hour, which has cut down the arrests for speeding by more than 50 per cent. License violations decreased, but arrests for reckless driving increased. Total receipts from the activities of the department reached $270,560.15, an increase. Since its organization in 1920 the traffic division has returned in fines, fees and recovery of stolen property a total of $1,116,556.27. Prohibition law violations caused 147 arrests for traffic violations, reckless driving 323, speeding 693, licenses 585, failure to comply with public service commission rules 30, defective lights 401, defective equipment 41 and miscellaneous 261. Of the fatal accidents 48 were in Portland and 93 outside of Portland.

UMPQUA POST HAS OVER FOR HUNDRED MEMBERS SIGNED

The membership campaign being conducted by Umpqua Post of the American Legion is progressing in a very satisfactory manner and the post today reported its membership list as totaling slightly more than 400. While this is not a record number, yet it places Umpqua Post in third position in the state and indicates a great interest among ex-service men in American Legion affairs. It is the aim and goal of the membership committee to bring the total to 500. The post is in a contest with Medford post, which has signed up over 300 members.
