CELEBRATE JUMP ABOLITION HAS ANOTHER ADVOCATE

CHICAGO, Mar. 2.—Abolition of the center jump in basketball proposed recently by Sam Barry, Iowa coach, gained another advocate today in Coach Harold G. Olson of Ohio State.

These two are agreed that it would make for better team play to have the center jump only at the start of the first and second halves. At each score, the team scored upon would be given the ball out of bounds.

Barry and Olson charge that the team with the tallest center nearly always wins, and the supply of six-footers-plus is growing scarce.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Law Enforcement
ROSEBURG, Mar. 2.—Editor of News-Review—Why change the 18th Amendment? It seems to me there is only one answer.

Too many wet officers in dry office places; part neglect through lack of knowledge, and part afraid they will expose what they are sworn to do. Not always are local officers to blame. The higher up the more slack in duty. Fines run from $5.00 up and many violators are not seen on purpose.

Why, if sworn as officers to execute the law to its fullest, as Al Smith says, why set asleep.

If a mail sack is robbed do the mail authorities go to bed. No, year after year they try and in very rare cases do they fail.

On each letter the government stamps $300.00 penalty for violation. Maybe this letter is only worth 5 cents, but the law says $300.00 and up for violation. Now, some one takes a drink and violates the law and accidentally or purposely kills some one with a car, and later is turned loose. A 5 cent letter costs this man $300.00 penalty or 20 years in jail. A 5 cent drink cost the man nothing—yet some one's life is taken.

Yet some, for profit mostly, want local option or government control or Canada's system. But the great majority, mostly mothers, are patiently waiting for better enforcement. If the 18 amendment is to be a success as is the mail system, of which every one is proud, then we must have enforcement and when the law is once broken and penalty set not left to a judge to say, "I excuse you."

I am proud of some of the officers around Roseburg, and refer to Portland, Albany, Coos Bay and Washington, D. C., papers as references to lack of stock in offices.—READER.

PECKINPAUGH'S ROLE AS PLAYER NOT ENDED

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
CLEVELAND, Ohio, Mar. 2.—Suspicious that Roger Peckinpaugh won't manage the Cleveland Indians entirely from the bench this summer have been strengthened by the veteran's workout at his old position of shortstop at the tribe's practice at New Orleans.

Peck, however, hopes the Burns-Poasement lineup combination will keep him off the playing field. In yesterday's session he had Carl Lind, racy Tulane University boy, team with him at second.

Lind couldn't wait until next week when the rest of the team joins the batterymen.
