Bible Standard. Temple, corner of Chadwick and East Douglas streets. E. E. Crook, pastor. Our Sunday school begins on time at 9:45 a. m., with Miss Kathryn Montgomery superintendent, and her fine group of teachers will cause you and your children to enjoy the Sunday school. The Bible contest that she puts on between classes is very interesting as well as helpful. Preaching at eleven o'clock by the pastor, the subject being "It is Finished." There will be services at Glendale at the regular hour 3:00 p. m. There will be special music both instrumental and vocal. The Crusaders meet at the Temple at 6:30 in the eve and we request all of the Crusaders to be present as we expect to get some choruses ready for the rally and we want all of the Crusaders and friends to help put this rally over in such a way that every church in the city will be benefited thereby. Preaching at 7:45 with a good musical program and a live wire testimony meeting preceding. We extend a warm welcome to all and ask you to come and enjoy a real spiritual service with us. Those who can arrange to keep one or more of the Christian young people that shall attend the rally on the 7th and 8th of April we would be pleased for you to call us at 439-L at your earliest convenience as we want to make this union really one long to be remembered. So please cooperate with us and let every church in the city help to make this young peoples' gathering one of real blessing to all who attend.

Riddle Church of Christ. Our evangelistic rally begins on Friday night, March 16, led by Walter Stram as the evangelist, and Gerald Hosh as the evangelistic singer. Meetings every night till March 25 at 7:30. Some of the first sermons will be: Friday: "When the Apostles Had a Revival." Saturday: "The Greatest Book in the World." Sunday, 11 a. m., "Three Things that Make God and Men." Sunday 7:30 p. m., "Who is Jesus Christ?" Great congregational singing and special music at every service. Bible school Sunday morning at 10 a. m. E. at 6:30 and 8:30. Walter Stram, minister.

First Presbyterian Church. The Brick Church, corner Lane and Jackson. E. W. Achon, pastor. Bible school 9:45. Immediately after Bible school the Junior Endeavor meets in the church parlors. Three cars have been solicited to take the juniors and their leader to the county convention at Sutherlin, Sunday afternoon. Morning worship 11 o'clock. Subject: "Suffering for Undeserved Hatred." The choir will render special music. Frances Lantieri, the organ. Many of the Senior Endeavorers are planning to attend the county convention Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Sunday night we are hosts to the DeMolays. The boys will march to the church in a body and sit together during the service. The pastor will speak on the subject "Crusading With Christ." The choir under the leadership of Elsie Jackson Strang has prepared special music for this occasion. Rev. E. Iverson, Sunday school missionary from Medford, has begun a series of meetings at Edgewater. Let us pray for these meetings and attend them as much as possible.

St. George's Episcopal Church. The Pioneer Church of Roseburg. Cass and Main street. Fourth Sunday in Lent. Celebration of Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m. Holy Communion and sermon at 11:00 a. m. Evening prayer and sermon at 7:30 p. m. Church school at 9:45 a. m. Class in Personal Religion on Monday at 7:30 p. m. Confirmation instruction at 8:45 on Monday evening. St. George's Guild will hold a meeting in the Parish House on Wednesday evening at the usual hour. Celebration of Holy Communion at 7:30 and 10:00 a. m. and on Thursday at 5:00 and 10:00 a. m. The Right Rev. Walter Taylor Sumner, D. D., Bishop of Oregon, is to be with us on Sunday, March 25th. At the 11:00 o'clock service a class will be presented to the bishop for confirmation.

The Methodist Episcopal Church at Dillard, T. F. Allen pastor. Sunday school at 10:00 a. m. R. A. Hercher, superintendent. Preaching 11:00 a. m. Rev. C. C. Coop bringing the message. We begin our revival effort Sunday night 7:30, message by the pastor. All invited to these meetings. We will have with us during these meetings the ministers from Roseburg who will preach for us. We expect a great time and expect that you will avail yourself of this exceptionally opportunity of hearing these great messages. Come expecting to meet with God and you will not go away disappointed. The week's program will be announced Sunday night. Be there to hear it. We hope to have Rev. Anna Mizner, of Canyonville, with us several times during the meetings.

If you want to do definite work for Christ, we have a place for you. The Out and Out Club of Roseburg will conduct one or more services for us. The Girls' Gospel team of Looking Glass, led by Mrs. Burchard, will be with us. You want to hear them. Other announcements later.

The Methodist Episcopal Church at Looking Glass, T. F. Allen pastor. Sunday school at 10:00 a. m. T. Rodley, superintendent. Preaching at 11:00 a. m. by the Rev. Sarah T. Woodcock. We welcome you to both services. As we did not hear from Camas we naturally take it for granted we had the larger attendance last Sunday. Be sure and find out where the cottage prayer meeting is Thursday evening. We hope to organize a young folks organization very soon so that we can have meetings every Sunday night.

The Methodist Episcopal Church at Camas Valley, T. F. Allen pastor. Sunday school at 10:00 a. m. W. Reetz, superintendent. Preaching at 2:30 p. m. Young folks service 7:00 p. m. Ask where the cottage prayer meeting is for the coming week, and be sure to be there. Don't miss any of the services. You can greatly strengthen the work by your presence, then take part in the work of the kingdom if you would receive a great blessing. We shall look for you Sunday.

The Methodist Episcopal Church at Ten Mile, T. F. Allen, pastor. Sunday school at 10:00 a. m. T. Godfrey, superintendent. Preaching at 11:00 a. m. Prayer meeting Thursday evening 7:30. We services. The family has our prayers and sympathy.

"How pleasant, how divinely fair,
O Lord of Hosts Thy dwellings are—
With strong desire my spirit faints
To meet the Assembled of the saints."

The First Methodist Episcopal Church, corner of Main and Lane streets. Joseph Knotts, pastor. In-c.-ing regularly in attendance at Sunday school is a good sign. Let everybody be on hand at 9:45 a. m. The Epworth League meets at 6:30 p. m. Particular attention is called to the morning sermon theme, "The Vassalage of Man." The evening sermon theme is in line with the pre-Easter theme. This time the theme is, "Jesus on the Cross." These sermons leading up to Easter should interest you. Do not miss this one. We have an excellent choir directed by Mrs. C. S. Heinlein. They will give us special numbers morning and evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

First Baptist Church, Lane at Rose. Frank B. Matthews, pastor. Sunday, March 18th. 9:45 The Bible school. Men, the women of the school are lining up against us. And boys, the girls are against you. What shall we do about it? Only one more Sunday and the contest is on. Come out and learn the details. 11:00 morning worship. The pastor will preach at both services. His morning subject: "Abstract and Concrete Faith." The choir will sing the anthem: "O Blessed is that Man," by Williams. 6:30, the B. Y. P. U. for young people. 7:30, Popular Sunday night service. The service will start with an unusually fine program of music. Splendid orchestra begins to play at 7:10, so come early. That orchestra is composed of William Ott, violin; H. A. Canady, cello; Mrs. Shockley, cornet; Clifford Page, saxophone; Chester Morgan, trombone; Mrs. Love, mandolin; Miss Hercher, piano. And in addition, the choir with Mrs. Brand as leader, and Miss Strong at the piano, will give these four beautiful numbers: Tenor solo by Frank Grubbe, "There is a Green Hill Far Away," by Thomas; duet by Mrs. Brand and Frank Grubbe, "Edenland," by Pearls; and male quartet, "O Silvery Sea of Galilee." The pastor will preach on the topic, "The Devil's Show Window." These questions will be answered: 1. Why should funerals cost so much? 2. Is science making the world happier and better? 3. Who is to blame—young people or their parents?

The Methodist Episcopal Church South, corner of South Main and Lane street. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. W. L. Cobb superintendent. Morning worship at 11 a. m. Subject, "One Thing at a Time." WHO has not admired the plump freshness of the tomato just picked from the vine?

AND because Frye's "Delicious" Brand Ham is brought to the tables of the Northwest just when its mellowness and fragrance is ripe to perfection, it receives a hearty welcome as being "Everything the name implies."

HAM is at its best immediately after the curing process has been fully completed, and the Frye packing plant adds efficiency of distribution to skill in selection and preparation. Every Frye's "Delicious" Brand Ham has passed through rigid double inspection—there can be no variation in the high standards of perfection.
