

Insist on the Genuine QUAKER OATS

Here's Modern Venus of Movies

VENUS	MOVIE BEAUTY
Weight: 135 pounds	112 pounds
Height: 5 ft. 4 in.	5 ft. 3 1/2 in.
Bust: 34 3/4 in.	32 3/4 in.
Hips: 37 1/2 in.	35 3/4 in.
Calf: 13 1/2 in.	12 1/2 in.
Ankle: 8 in.	7 1/2 in.

In all filmdom's collection of pulchritude, experts have decided, the most perfectly proportioned is Joan Crawford, pictured here. As a standard of beauty, Venus is now somewhat out of date, for in flesh and blood she would have weighed 135 pounds—which is 23 pounds plumper than the average movie star. The chart shows comparisons between the old and new ideals.

Poison Rum Show Congress Missed

Here's Congressman Willis M. Sirovich, of New York (right), rehearsing with Congressman Fiorello H. La Guardia, also of New York, the poison rum show Sirovich tried unsuccessfully to put on for the House. His demonstrations were not permitted on the floor but he declared he could prove that industrial alcohol could be made undrinkable without poisoning it.

Fine Old World, They Agree

Hands around the world, as it were. Capt. Costes (left) and Lieut. Commander Le Brix, French round-the-world flyers, enroute to Japan, were greeted at Honolulu by Capt. Lowell H. Smith, who led American army airmen in their globe-girdling in 1924.
