TENNESSEE'S EX-GOVERNOR ENJOYING BOAR HUNT (Associated Press Leased Wire) HAPPY VALLEY, Tenn., April 13.—Royal wild boar hunts in the prodigious middle ages were rivaled in color and dimension by the fox hunt which roams these hills tonight in honor of "Uncle Al" Taylor, former governor of Tennessee. Preparations were complete today for an all night fiesta and distinguished guests by the scores had arrived to join the 800-odd in the hunt, planned on a gigantic scale. A mile of road had been paved to the top of Bogart Knob, so that guests might reach the scene of festivities by motor. A circus tent was in place, electric lights had been strung about, telephones had been connected, water had been piped up the slope, a piano was in place—every imaginable provision had been made for comfort of the guests at this totally stag affair.

BALL SCORES IN MAJOR LEAGUES

(Associated Press Leased Wire) Grover Cleveland Alexander turned back the champion Pirates without a run in the hits at St. Louis yesterday while his Cardinal mates triumphed by 5 to 0. The Cincinnati Redlegs joined the Chicago Cubs for the second consecutive day, this time by 9:30, a six run flurry in the eighth inning, breaking a tie of three all. The St. Louis Browns of the American league broke out in typical Missourian manner with another decision over the Detroit Tigers, 7 to 2. The Chicago White Sox outthrew the Indians by 19 to 7 but dropped another engagement to Cleveland 2 to 1. Cold and wet grounds forced idleness upon the other big league outfits and revived the argument that the opening of the pennant races should be delayed until the last week in April.

COLLEGE WOMEN WILL ORGANIZE

A meeting of all college women who have had one or more years of college work will be held tomorrow at 1 p. m. at the Umpqua hotel. Miss Mozelle Hair of Eugene, past president of the state branch of the American Association of University Women will be present and with her assistance it is hoped that the organization of a local branch of the association will be perfected.

A few weeks ago Dean Kate Jackson of O. S. U. was here and spoke before an informal gathering urging the formation of a branch here in Roseburg. At that time considerable enthusiasm was shown and a committee was appointed to arrange for a future meeting. The committee succeeded in having Miss Hair come here for the organization meeting and are most anxious that every college woman should be present, not only those residing in Roseburg but anywhere in the surrounding country. Notices have been sent to all who could be reached, but many names are not on the list. Reservations for the luncheon may be phoned to Mrs. Carl H. Neal, 641-R or to one of the other members of the committee in charge, Mrs. Maurice Newland, Mrs. Edward Kohlhaagen, Miss Edna Veach and Mrs. Fred Fisher.

HOT COMPETITION GIVES HILLSBORO 35 STAGES DAILY

(Associated Press Leased Wire) SALEM, Ore., April 13.—So Kean has become a competitor with Pacific Stages, Inc. and the Southern Pacific Motor Transport company between Portland and Hillsboro that the two propose to operate 35 vehicles daily except Sunday between the two points. The Pacific Stages schedule, on file with the public service commission, is to become effective May 1, while the Southern Pacific schedule, also filed with the commission, is to become effective May 1. The latter adds 11 cars from Portland to Hillsboro and 10 in the opposite direction. Farmers everywhere are buying that Red Strand longer life fencing, 9-39 at 35¢ per rod.
