EXPECT TWILIGHT LEAGUE TO START EARLY NEXT WEEK

Indications are that the twilight baseball league this year will attract a good deal of interest and attention. Four teams have been organized, and judging from all appearances they will be very strong and fast. The teams are sponsored by Umpqua Post of the American Legion, National Guard, Mason DeMolay and I. O. O. F. Each team is made up of experienced ball players and it would appear that the teams are about equal in strength so that some good games are assured. A meeting of all persons interested in the formation of a league has been called for tonight at Finlay field. The meeting will be held about 8 o'clock and plans will be made for the season. A schedule will be worked out and adopted and all details necessary for getting the league in operation will be taken care of. It is expected that games will start on a regular schedule about the first of next week.

FLAMES OF LIFE

(By the Associated Press.) NEW YORK—For vision, industry, enterprise and public spirit, in the words of Adolph S. Ochs, the American boy has no superior, if he has a peer. The publisher of the New York Times so spoke at a dinner he gave to Jesse H. Jones, publisher of the Houston Chronicle; Harry Chandler, publisher of the Los Angeles Times, and Colonel Robert Ewing, publisher of the New Orleans States. Mr. Ochs noted that much was said about the emigrant who rose to fortune,

Onward and Upward

Great strides have been made in our profession in the last decade, but no truly progressive funeral director is even yet content.

Constantly he is striving to make his service better. He adopts the new and better things and the improved methods as soon as they are proven. Such is our attitude towards our profession.

COLLEGE WOMEN TO HOLD ELECTION NEXT SATURDAY

At a recent meeting of the college and university women of Roseburg a branch of the American Association of University Women was organized. Miss Mozelle Hair of the extension division of the University of Oregon was present and gave a most interesting talk on the history of education for women, the work of the A. A. U. W., originally called the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, and its affiliation with the International Association of University Women.

After a constitution for the local chapter had been adopted, Mrs. Carl E. Neal appointed Mrs. Carl Wimberly, Mrs. W. M. Campbell and Miss Gladys Bogert as members of a nominating committee.

This committee will make its report at a meeting of the organization Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, April 28, at the Umpqua Hotel. It is desired that there be a large number of the college women present. Reservations may be made by phoning any member of the temporary membership committee, which is composed of Mrs. Maurine Newland, Mrs. Edward Kohlhaugen, and Mrs. B. E. Larson, or Mrs. Carl E. Neal, the temporary chairman may also be called.

SNAKE GALL WINE. FAVORITE DRINK CHINESE TOPERS

CANTON, April 26.—Cantonese toppers prefer to see their snakes before drinking rather than after. Snakes gall is an ingredient of a favorite winter beverage of local epicureans who have the price.

After the order is given a deft blue-gown waiter brings in a cage of reptiles from which the guest may choose. Only three deadly species are considered suitable for the preparation of this ambrosia, the hooded cobra, the yellow-and-black banded, banded viper and the tree adder. When the guest has made his choice the waiter, with skill and long practice, lifts the snake from the cage, evades its fangs and quickly extracts the gall bladder, which is squeezed into a cup of hot rice wine. The operation does not kill the snake.

Cobra-wine cost 50 cents a cup. Addict says it has a butter-sweet flavor, leaves a pleasant taste and is very good for rheumatism.

Flesh of these three snake species is also considered a cold weather delicacy in Canton. It is mixed with chicken, bamboo shoots and mushrooms and costs $2.50 a plate. A proper snake-meat feast, with all trimmings, such as is given by wealthy hosts, costs about $100.
