

WOMEN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

BY GRACE CARROLL

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personal—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

A number of interesting social affairs have occupied the calendar this past week. Interspersed among the larger events providing pleasure have been club meetings and charming informal gatherings of various social groups.

The season for enjoyable jaunts is fast arriving and many, too, are looking forward to the time when the opening of their summer cottages at the beach or in the country will be at hand.

Miss Strong Presented Students in Studio Recital Saturday

On Saturday afternoon, April 28, Gladys H. Strong presented a group of her piano students in a studio recital. The program consisted of piano solos, duets, and two piano numbers. The following students participated: Patricia Abee, Marjorie Pearl Guiley, Kathryn DeLapp, Viola Richter, Elizabeth Campbell, Lee Wells, Frank Wells, Robert McKean, Richard Doucette, Cora Mayer, Carol Ackert, Vera Pinkerton, Virginia French, Louise Hess, Lola Cressy, Ruth Hoover, Elizabeth Williams, Florence Snedaker, Mrs. Willis Myers.

For Monday evening, May 7, Mrs. A. J. Young has invited the matrons of Badoura Club, Daughters of the Nile, to her home on Flint street. The affair will be of a social nature and the evening will be spent informally.

Senior High P. T. A. Will Meet for Program

The Senior High School P. T. A. will meet in regular session at the high school next Tuesday evening, May 8th, at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. Chas. B. Wade has been engaged to give a short health talk, E. R. Thibault, state traffic officer, will give some ideas on "Safety First." Mrs. W. M. Campbell, wife of the superintendent of city schools, will speak about the benefits of the P. T. A. work.

A musical program has also been planned. Miss Goodwin, the music instructor in the Roseburg schools, will provide part of it.

At the April meeting it was voted to have an "Apron Party" to raise the balance necessary for the lawn and shrubbery fund, and aprons, with an appropriate verse have been mailed to all parents of the senior high school pupils.

Those who have not already returned their aprons will please bring them Tuesday evening as this is the last meeting this year. An election of officers will be held, a full financial report will be given and all business for the current year will be closed, as soon after this meeting as is possible. It is important that all parents attend this meeting.

Mrs. Howard Carries entertained with an afternoon of sewing for the members of the Merry Go Round club on April 24, 14 guests being asked for the affair.

Later in the afternoon the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Frank Spain, served luncheon at one large table, which held a lovely centerpiece of spring garden blooms.

Group Friends Give Party as Adieu to Matron

Mrs. H. U. Cochran, Roseburg matron who is leaving in the near future to join Mr. Cochran, manager of the new Shell company, left at Thursday, when they will make their home, was the honor guest at a surprise affair arranged by a group of her friends on Tuesday.

Seven ladies called at the Cochran home on South Main street, spending the afternoon informally and later refreshments were served. Enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. P. U. Beauchamp, Mrs. Don Daniels, Mrs. Keith Wright, Mrs. V. L. McCutcheon, of Pasa, Mrs. J. A. Soules, Mrs. A. B. Grubbs, Mrs. M. R. Iyle, Miss A. Philibelle Grubbs, Patricia Cochran, Donald Iyle, Bobby and Douglas Beauchamp.

Dorothy Lewis in Home Management House at College for Term

OREGON STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 5.—Dorothy Lewis of Roseburg, senior in home economics, has moved into the Whitecomb home management house for the remainder of the term. Senior women live in these houses and carry on all the activities of home life, including the care of a child. This course in home management is required for graduation in home economics.

Miss Grace Corbion, Portland, and her Roseburg friends will be interested to know, will star as a "Milkmaid" in the "Midnight Frolic and Minstrel Show" to be given this evening at the Portland theatre.

Miss Corbion and her sister have been visitors in this city on several occasions as guests of relatives and are well known here. The dancer is quite talented and her part in the frolic will be quite an interesting feature. The entertainment is being sponsored by OTS, Wortman and King.

Surprise Affair Honors Young Man

A surprise affair honoring Elmer Lander and celebrating his twentieth birthday, April 22nd, was featured at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lander. A picnic dinner was greatly enjoyed by the guests. In the afternoon games and social converse, interspersed with refreshments occupied the guests. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Mellett and sons, Kenton, Marvin and Ned; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Whitson, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Boyer, Lacy Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, Eva Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Marsh, Elbert Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. French, Stella and Wesley French, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Thomas and son Richard, Joe Thomas, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Telford, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Johnson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Spaul, son Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCulloch, Gertrude Lander, Alice Lander, Minnie Myers, Merle Myers, Beale Telford, John French, Billie Black, Boyd Bradley, Raymond Bradley, Henry R. Lander, Clarence Myers, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lander, Ivan and Elmer Lander.

Neighborhood Club Plans for Summer Activities

The Neighborhood Club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Mable Wolcott last Thursday. A very interesting business meeting took place and several activities were planned for the coming summer. Luncheon was served at the close of the business meeting.

Mrs. Mary Smith was elected a new member of the club.

Members present were Mrs. Mable Wolcott, Mrs. Audrey Smith, Mrs. Eunice Church, Mrs. Jane Hanley, Mrs. Addie Neely, Mrs. Lucy Dick, Mrs. Ruth Lawson, Mrs. Vera Standley, Mrs. Alice Benson, Mrs. Beattie Brown and the hostess, Mrs. Mable Wolcott. Visiting the club were Mrs. Emma Thrush, Mrs. Barklow, and Mrs. Myrtle Wolcott.

After being entertained as guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Martens on South Kane street while visiting here, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Kary of Brookings, South Dakota, left Wednesday for the north. They have been spending the winter in Long Beach, California, and enroute home will spend a few days with H. L. Marsters and family in Salem and with friends in Boise, Idaho.

Community Circle Had Social Afternoon

The Temple Community Circle met at the home of Mrs. Victor Daniels on Wednesday of this week. Roll call was answered by the members with a Bible verse. A program of recitations, humorous stories, was enjoyed and enjoyed and singing and chatting occupied the rest of the social hour.

Business matters of importance to the circle were discussed and Mrs. Anna Coats presided in the absence of the president of the organization.

Following the program luncheon was served by the hostess, who was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Vina Walker of Roseburg.

The guests were Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. L. Sigl, Mrs. Sibola, Mrs. Behn, Mrs. Buell, Mrs. J. Coats, Mrs. Swift, Mrs. A. Coats, Mrs. Annie Rathkey, Mrs. Mable Rathkey, Mrs. L. Breitenbacher, the Misses Audrey Porter, Alta Hahn and Annie Sibola.

The club will meet with the people of the Olalia community for clean up day, May 16, at the cemetery, it was announced. The day will be spent in improving the grounds, cleaning out grass and weeds and gravel will be put at the entrance of the grounds by the men. Those attending will bring luncheon and a picnic will be held at the home of Mrs. Jasper Howard later in the day.

Fashion Plaque

A GRAY SUEDE FLOWER cut-lined with blue beads matches a new glove from France.

THIS IS THE NEW "Padlock Shoe" which features a small padlock instead of the usual button closing. Black patent leather with gray interwoven leather vamps.

For her daughter, Miss Maxine Stearns, on the occasion of her sixteenth birthday anniversary, Mrs. H. C. Stearns entertained with a delightful social affair on the evening of April 25, arranging the event as a surprise.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Woman's Club Made Plans for Month at Regular Meeting Tuesday

Mrs. A. G. McMullin, vice-president, presided at the fortnightly meeting of the Roseburg Woman's Club at the club building on Tuesday in the absence of the president, Mrs. Wm. Bell.

The committee to take charge of details for the annual Rose show was appointed. Mrs. Foster Butler being named as chairman. Mrs. Butler has served very efficiently as head of this committee for the past several years. The other members of the committee for the show this year are Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. H. E. Coleman, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen. The flower show will be held in connection with the annual Strawberry Festival and will likely be one of the outstanding events of the carnival. The show will be in the Bell building on Jackson street.

Among business matters which were to have been finished at the meeting was the selection of delegates for the meeting of the state Federation of Women's Clubs in Klamath Falls, but the appointments have been postponed until another meeting.

A musical program, under the direction of Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft, was enjoyed during the entertainment hour following the business session. Mrs. F. A. Bemis gave a vocal solo and Mrs. Mary Myers, accompanied by Miss Gladys Johnson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Spaul, son Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCulloch, Gertrude Lander, Alice Lander, Minnie Myers, Merle Myers, Beale Telford, John French, Billie Black, Boyd Bradley, Raymond Bradley, Henry R. Lander, Clarence Myers, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lander, Ivan and Elmer Lander.

Announcements have just been received here by friends of the birth of twins to Mr. and Mrs. Pale Horton of Springfield, April 29th. They have been named Anita Janelle and Arlin Raphael. Mr. and Mrs. Horton are both well known former Douglas county residents, having resided both at Roseburg and Riddle. While in Roseburg Mr. Horton was employed at the Oregon Soldiers Home. Mrs. Horton, before her marriage, was Miss Violet Cuthbert of Riddle.

Affair Saturday Evening Honors Canyonville Man

A birthday party for Wade Worthington of Canyonville was given at the home of Grace Conn of Melrose Saturday, April 28th. Special numbers were given by Henry Anderson on his accordion and by readings from Joyce Kilmer. These selections were enjoyed very much.

After games, music and stunts, refreshments were served to the following: Beatrice Worthington of Canyonville, Vera Starnes of Roseburg, Crystal Conn, Beale Haglan, Margaret Busenbark, Joyce Busenbark, Helen Busenbark, Wyn Churchill, Ethelene Conn, Wyn Busenbark, George Anderson, James Conn, Henry Anderson, Carl Blomberg, Joel Fenn, Ed Reeco, Henry Scott, Kenneth Conn, Otto Conn, Bert Matthews, Woodrow Conn, John Henry, William Williams Sandstrom, all of Melrose; Wade Worthington of Canyonville, John Williams and Wallace Robertson of Green Station, Ted Post of the Soldiers Home, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Conn and the hostess.

Mme. Schumann-Heink Will Give Concert on Farewell Tour

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 5. (Special.)—Many of the greatest honors that a nation can bestow upon an artist and a woman have been given to Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink during her farewell tour which brings the contralto to Eugene May 18 to sing for the last time. The concert of Mme. Schumann-Heink here will be the only one outside of Portland in this state.

Of 45 cities visited to date, 35 have observed the day of her last concert as "Schumann-Heink" day by proclamation of the mayor. Eugene also is expected to make May 18 a "Schumann-Heink" day with Mayor A. L. Williamson issuing a proclamation.

Mme. Schumann-Heink is a veteran of uncounted concert and opera seasons and the host and hostess of several generations of music lovers, and one of the greatest singers of all times. Her appearances here will mark her third and in the two previous concerts she made many friends. Coming back to those old friends and making new ones is one of the noted singer's greatest desires.

The concert will be held in the Arthur Coates, starting promptly at 8:15, according to announcement of Jack W. Benefield, graduate manager. Tickets are now on sale at the graduate manager's office, University of Oregon.

Teacher Entertained Class at Pleasureable Affair

A pleasureable affair of last week was a class meeting of the sunshine circle of the First Christian church at the home of Mrs. Pearl Kent of Roseburg, in the afternoon of April 28. After a short business meeting, in which the class elected new officers, a delightful luncheon was served. Those present were Mrs. Eugene Woods, the teacher of the class, the Misses Thelma Critcher, Opal Hoover, Eva Gibson, Mildred McLaughlin, Mildred Patterson, Helen McDonald, Catherine Kent, Leola Kent.

Students Will Be Presented in Recitals During Music Week

During National Music Week Mrs. Charles Helmling will present some of her students in recital at the First M. E. Church three consecutive evenings. On Monday, May 7th, a very delightful program of classic and modern numbers will be rendered by her artist pupil, Marie Langenberg, who has studied consistently with Mrs. Helmling from her first music lesson to this advanced stage where she now plays beautifully. The very popular Umpqua Male Quartette, composed of Messrs. Fisher, Hunt, Canaday and Lewis, will assist in making this an especially pleasing program.

On Tuesday, May 8, the intermediate and advanced students will present a well chosen program of solos and ensembles, assisted by the Roseburg Concert Orchestra, directed by Mrs. A. J. Young.

On Wednesday, May 9, the younger students will be equally attractive in their smaller solos and ensemble numbers and a very enjoyable feature will be a reading by Joyce Busenbark.

These programs will be unique because of the fact that two grand pianos will be used and Mrs. Helmling plays in unison with the student in all solo work. Mrs. Helmling has had a very large class all season and has stressed double piano training with every student.

Programs begin at 8:15 each evening and Misses Pauline Fisher, Dorothy Geddes, Margaret Hewitt, Vera McClure and Martha Yen will be at the door to usher all guests to a comfortable seat. Admission is free and a cordial invitation is extended to all who love music.

For her daughter, Miss Maxine Stearns, on the occasion of her sixteenth birthday anniversary, Mrs. H. C. Stearns entertained with a delightful social affair on the evening of April 25, arranging the event as a surprise.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

SOCIAL REGISTERITES PLAY BLUES AGAIN

Opening of the Races Finds Last Year's Favorite Color Still Much in Evidence

Miss Lassie Honeyman

By BETSY SCHUYLER
(NEA Service Writer)

NEW YORK, May 5.—Paraphrasing the old adage that "One swallow doesn't make a summer" I'd like to observe that one or even two spring races do not necessarily constitute a spring.

The first day of the spring meet of the United Hunts on the course at Aqueduct was blustering and chilly and dusty and a lot of other un-springlike things. And the second day was so rainy and cold that nothing but fur coats or rainy day apparel were in order.

On that first day, however, pride did its bit in keeping many a Social Registerite warm.

Happiness Blues.

It was a nice sight. The outstanding fact is that society is playing the blues again this year. Newer and jazzier blues and, curiously, happier blues they are this season. A certain new Lido blue tones up the whole scene, so penetrating and yet so becoming in it. All blue, or black and blue, is the new color scheme.

There were blue ensembles, blue coats, blue cut-dresses, blue chiffons, blue sweater suits and blue dresses. Even if the skies hadn't been blue, the scene would have been, nevertheless.

The most individual hat there was a turban of sweet, luscious-looking blue flowers, worn by Mrs. Dean Bedford. It topped a navy blue tulle and white satin blouse, with a pointed bow about to fall off her right shoulder.

Blue Shoes and Hat.

Katherine Steel picked Independence blue for her smart coat-dress. It tied on the left hip and had a most individual back yoke, standing collar and rather loose cuffs. Her smart oxfords were of matching blue kid. So was the hat band on a tailored Baku bonnet.

Miss Mary Ann Brodhead

Mrs. Walter Stackpole chose a vivid blue for the accessories with her grey suit.

The most charming blue figured frock I've seen this year was sponsored by Mrs. James Lemox Banks, Jr., under her black coat with its softly waving braid cuffs and shawl collar. This frock had those nice German batchelor buttons printed on a black background and tiny pipings of the vivid blue around the V-neck, the jabot and the cuffs.

And Powder Blue.

Lassie Honeyman, who by the way was a guest in Mrs. Frank Henderson's box, had her smart kasha coat lined with that subtle French powder blue and under it wore a chiffon frock of the same shade. Her hat, with snappy up-turned brim, was the powder blue.

Her hostess, Mrs. Frank Henderson, was one of the smart black-white pictures that made the exceptions that move the blue rule.

Her frock and cape of black flat crepe had frills and bows of black velvet. A deep, rich badger collar blew softly in the winds and gave a gentle frame for her smiles. In her own inimitable manner, Mrs. Henderson illustrated the new uses to which gardenias have been put by wearing two of them in white velvet on her straw toque. Incidentally she carried one of the new, most colorful purses—a rather large affair in red, yellow, purple and white.

A Satin Ensemble.

Mary Ann Brodhead, of East Orange, N. J., chose a rather purple belt for her satin ensemble of long coat, pleated coat and moulded jumper. The coat's lining and the frock's touches carried a contrasting light blue. Her hat showed how straw can be the perfect trimming on darker felt.

Mrs. Frank Henderson

Students Will Be Presented in Recitals During Music Week

During National Music Week Mrs. Charles Helmling will present some of her students in recital at the First M. E. Church three consecutive evenings. On Monday, May 7th, a very delightful program of classic and modern numbers will be rendered by her artist pupil, Marie Langenberg, who has studied consistently with Mrs. Helmling from her first music lesson to this advanced stage where she now plays beautifully. The very popular Umpqua Male Quartette, composed of Messrs. Fisher, Hunt, Canaday and Lewis, will assist in making this an especially pleasing program.

On Tuesday, May 8, the intermediate and advanced students will present a well chosen program of solos and ensembles, assisted by the Roseburg Concert Orchestra, directed by Mrs. A. J. Young.

On Wednesday, May 9, the younger students will be equally attractive in their smaller solos and ensemble numbers and a very enjoyable feature will be a reading by Joyce Busenbark.

These programs will be unique because of the fact that two grand pianos will be used and Mrs. Helmling plays in unison with the student in all solo work. Mrs. Helmling has had a very large class all season and has stressed double piano training with every student.

Programs begin at 8:15 each evening and Misses Pauline Fisher, Dorothy Geddes, Margaret Hewitt, Vera McClure and Martha Yen will be at the door to usher all guests to a comfortable seat. Admission is free and a cordial invitation is extended to all who love music.

For her daughter, Miss Maxine Stearns, on the occasion of her sixteenth birthday anniversary, Mrs. H. C. Stearns entertained with a delightful social affair on the evening of April 25, arranging the event as a surprise.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Bridge was arranged as the diversion, there being 20 in play. The honoree was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts from friends. At the close of the evening luncheon was served the group.

Little Joan Lea Parker Celebrates First Anniversary

Little Miss Joan Lea Parker was honored with her first birthday dinner party, by Mrs. H. A. Canaday, 540 S. Jackson street, Friday evening, April 27. The little Miss accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Parker of this city and Mrs. C. M. Parker of Medford, Oregon, to the Canaday home. She received a number of lovely gifts and was delighted with her birthday cake and the table centerpiece of forget-me-nots and maiden hair fern. She has many admirers who wish her many happy returns along with her very first birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Parker, Joan Lea Parker, Mrs. C. M. Parker, Mrs. M. A. Williams, and the host and hostess.

Evening Affair Given in Honor of Wm. D. Butler

Among the interesting informal affairs on the social calendar for early week was the evening party planned as a surprise and honoring Wm. D. Butler, manager of the P. O. Woolworth company store here, the event being at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Householder on South Pine street.

The members of the store staff and additional guests were invited for Tuesday evening, fifteen participating in the evening's pleasures. Lavender blues and tulips in a variety of colors were used as a decorative note in the room where the guests were received.