

WOMEN'S PAGE

GOWNING THE GIRLISH GRADUATE

Bendel Advises That Dress Be Designed for Wear at Later Parties

Left is a soft white taffeta frock with bouffant skirt, scalloped hem and rosettes of taffeta ribbon for its trimming. Demure is the shaded silk net frock in the center with modest neck and girlish skirt fashioned of many tiny ruffles. A tiny crystal beading around the neck and hipline is the only ornamentation needed by the white chiffon frock, right, with tucked bodice and a full skirt of uneven hemline.

many times onto it. The neck and armholes have self-binding, by hand, of course.

The skirt of this frock is full and trimmed at intervals with dices of pleated ribbon of the same taffeta as the frock. These rosettes circle the skirt and the streamers fall to the knee and swing gracefully as the wearer walks. The skirt is scalloped at the bottom and bound like the neck.

New Off-White Tones

Soft and clinging is a Loubounger concept of the graduation frock. Marquisette, in one of the new off-whites suggestive of string only softer in tone, is her medium. Matching crystals outline the neck and sleeves delicately and sparklingly.

The skirt has very full panels of the marquisette which fall in uneven grace over uneven lengths of chiffon. The whole frock has a billowing, sweet appearance.

The bodice is tucked and its neckline modestly cut. A little design is worked out with crystals below the waistline, circling the hips. The effect of this frock is one of great simplicity because of the delicate medium used.

Tiered Ruffles

Ruffles form the skirt of another frock of silk net. This net shades from a faint cream white to a creamy golden at the bottom. Each one of the many ruffles of this skirt is a tiny bit wider than the one above it so that the one of deepest color is the largest.

The modest neck of this frock has its slip cut slightly lower, giving a yoke effect that is at once quaint and youthful. A tiny corsage of flowers made from gold colored ribbons is its only trim.

SOCIETY

BY GRACE CARROLL

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personal—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

Music Week came forth for its share of notice the past few days and with the programs this evening to be presented at the Rose, Umpqua and Grand hotels one of the most interesting and brilliant weeks of music in the city in recent years will be brought to a close.

Visitors and delightful sunny days continue to provide inspiration in social channels. Another week will bring to Roseburg one of the largest delegations of guests for the early summer when the annual convention of the State Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs will be held here.

Mother's Day, Sunday, will be notable with programs, especially arranged for the day in the city's churches. The day has been set aside throughout the nation as a special time to honor Mother in various ways. Several Roseburg matrons will be going to Eugene and to Corvallis for the week-end festivities planned in honor of mothers of the students at U. of O. and O. S. C.

Mrs. West Entertains at One of Series of Bridge-Suppers

Arranged as one of a series of affairs and coming at a notable time in the week's social events was the attractive 7 o'clock bridge-supper for which Mrs. B. W. West was hostess to a group of her friends on Monday evening.

Profusions of sweet peas and amaranths made a pretty setting in the rooms and the small tables were appointed in colors to harmonize with the floral shades in the dining room.

Honors at the five bridge tables were held by Mrs. Leon McClintock and Mrs. J. A. Harding received the second prize.

The guest list numbered Mrs. E. R. Thurber, Mrs. Irvin Bruns, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. A. G. Sutherland, Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mrs. B. Z. Ziegler, Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen, Mrs. C. S. McElhinny, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. Leon McClintock, Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mrs. J. R. Wharton, Mrs. Maurice S. Newland, Mrs. B. Casey, Mrs. Arthur Baum, Mrs. Lee A. Wells, Mrs. H. D. Morgan, Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker and Miss Eva Rice.

Myrtle Hercher Is Bride of Month

A quiet but pretty wedding was celebrated at the First M. E. church in Medford Sunday, May 6, at one o'clock when Miss Myrtle Hercher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hercher, of Dillard, and Mr. Herbert Williams, son of Mrs. M. A. Williams of Medford were united in marriage by Rev. Tempie, pastor of that church.

The bride, a pretty girl, entered and turned her back at the altar to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss Van Sycor, a friend of the family.

The bride was dressed in a charmingly tailored going away suit of navy blue. The hat was a close fitting, transparent straw of canary yellow, matching the other accessories.

The church was beautifully decorated in pink and white rose buds and bridal wreaths.

The ceremony was witnessed by only a few friends and relatives. After the wedding breakfast at one of Medford's smart cafes, the bride couple departed on their honeymoon. Mrs. Williams has returned to Roseburg to resume her work at Ott's Music Store for the present and will be joined here later by Mr. Williams who will come from Medford.

Club Entertained by Mrs. Bailey Thursday

The ladies of the Home Economics club of the South Deer Creek grange met for a pleasant afternoon Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. H. Bailey.

Following a business program an informal hour was enjoyed and at the tea hour guests were served from a prettily appointed can.

Bridge Me Another

By W. W. WENTWORTH

(Abbreviations: A=ace; K=king; Q=queen; J=jack; X=any card lower than 10.)

1. When you hold Q J X X X, how many outside quick tricks are required to bid it initially?

2. How many quick tricks in the (left) hand are indicated by an informatory double of a one bid?

3. When you hold Q 10 X X X, how many outside quick tricks are required to bid it initially?

The Answers

1. Two.

2. Minimum two and one-half quick tricks.

3. Two.

Miss Lenta Baumgartner Is Lovely May Bride at Recent Wedding

A very attractive wedding which was among the spring season's notable affairs and is especially interesting to social circles in Roseburg was that last Saturday evening at which Miss Lenta Baumgartner, a niece of Mrs. H. H. Stapleton of this city, became the bride of Mr. John R. Caughill in Salem. The bride, a charming young woman, spent several months in Roseburg two winters ago while working at the Douglas National Bank, and has on several occasions since visited here.

Mrs. Stapleton, who attended her niece's wedding, returned home mid-week accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, her sister-in-law, who is to be her guest for a visit.

The following, telling of the marriage ceremony, is from the Salem Capital Journal:

One of the loveliest brides of the year was Miss Lenta Baumgartner, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, whose wedding to John R. Caughill, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Caughill of Salem, was an impressive event of Saturday evening in the Baumgartner home on North Winter street.

A group of 10 guests, relatives and close friends of the two families, was present for the ceremony performed by Rev. H. D. Rice, Episcopal minister, and the reception which followed.

The guests were greeted at the door by Miss Shirley Huntington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Huntington. Before the ceremony Miss Pauline Knowland sang "The Cause," and "At Dawning," and the wedding march was played by Miss Ruth Griffith.

The main living room was literally a garden with a background of palms, tall floor baskets of pink carnations and bridal wreaths. The vows were taken before an altar of flowers and ferns banked before the fireplace.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was exquisite in her wedding gown of white georgette made with semi-fitting, lace and full skirt with pointed hemline. Her full length veil, which fell from a coronet of point lace, was worn by her grandmother at her wedding. The bride carried Ophelia roses and white sweet peas in a shower.

Miss Josephine Baumgartner, her sister, only attended, wore a lovely gown of flowered georgette and carried sweet peas and roses in pastel shades.

Dr. Wilton Steiner was best man. Out of town guests included Mrs. H. H. Stapleton of Roseburg, Miss Della Sherwood of Coquille and Mrs. B. T. Benson of Seattle.

At the reception after the ceremony, Mrs. Lenta and her bridesmaids and Mrs. H. H. Stapleton, who acted as the serving woman, Miss Della Sherwood, Miss Prudence Patterson and Miss Erna Bollerand assisted with the serving.

Because of the prominence of the Baumgartner and the Caughill families the wedding created more than usual interest in Salem and in Eugene where both Mr. and Mrs. Caughill were students at the University of Oregon. Mrs. Caughill was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority and Kwama, sophomore honor society. Mr. Caughill is a member of Beta Theta Phi fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Caughill will return to Salem to make their home which will take her to southern California points.

In San Francisco she will be the guest of Mrs. Howard Barde, her sister, and from there will go to San Luis Obispo, where she will visit with another sister, Mrs. R. D. Watson. The latter has been quite ill, but according to recent word received by Mrs. Hughes, is much improved now. Mrs. Hughes will enjoy a visit in Los Angeles prior to her return north.

Party Saturday Honored Miss on Anniversary

A pleasant party for Helen McDonald on her birthday anniversary was given Saturday afternoon, May 5. The luncheon table was centered with an arrangement of snowballs and lilacs. Games, music and stunts were played and afterward refreshments were served to Margaret Horner, Thelma Gritter, Frances Sollick, May Henry, Marjorie Stephenson, Lorena Don, Opal Horner, Anna Fisher, Lorin Thornton, Nellie Rust, Helen Wilson.

Mrs. Washington Hughes to Visit in South

Mrs. Washington Hughes, Roseburg matron, will leave Monday for the south for an extended visit which will take her to southern California points.

In San Francisco she will be the guest of Mrs. Howard Barde, her sister, and from there will go to San Luis Obispo, where she will visit with another sister, Mrs. R. D. Watson. The latter has been quite ill, but according to recent word received by Mrs. Hughes, is much improved now. Mrs. Hughes will enjoy a visit in Los Angeles prior to her return north.

Spencers Hosts for Dinner and Cards

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Spencer were hosts at their home at a charming dinner party for a few of their friends, placing covers for eleven.

Cards formed the diversion following dinner and at play were Mrs. Josephine Stark of Sutherlin, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Russell of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Applegate, C. C. Miller and C. C. Fritow of Sutherlin and the hosts.

CHANEL introduced this georgette triangle elaborated with embroidery, for evening.

CHANEL introduced this georgette triangle elaborated with embroidery, for evening.

CHANEL introduced this georgette triangle elaborated with embroidery, for evening.

CHANEL introduced this georgette triangle elaborated with embroidery, for evening.

Large Program Given at Yoncalla Is Gorgeous Affair

One of the finest programs ever put on in Yoncalla was witnessed by a large crowd of people Friday evening, when the grade and high schools staged a May Day program in the school gymnasium.

The large platform in one end of the hall was transformed into a beautiful throne. Large bunches of dogwood and bunches of ferns were used in decorating. To the strains of a march, played by the school orchestra, the May Queen, Miss Leah Kelle, marched to the throne, where she was crowned Queen of Yoncalla, by Percy Thiel. She was preceded to the throne, by the two little Schosse girls, dressed in dainty frocks of organdie, and who carried baskets of rose petals. Jean Rupprecht, in a dainty frock of yellow organdie carried the crown on a satin pillow. Two little boys dressed in white carried the queen's train. Following the queen was the maid of honor, Miss LaValle Huntington, who carried a large bouquet of bridal wreath and pink roses.

The six maids followed the maid of honor. They were, Misses Mildred Smith, Lena Hammel, Helen Mathis, Blanche Tenor, Gladys Ohlsen, and Vanita Richards. They were gowning in voile dresses in pastel shades.

The program which followed was by far the finest ever put on in Yoncalla. Butterflies danced to the music, played by the orchestra. Little frogs leaped and croaked, flower audis, Beloret and Pierrette danced a pretty number. Bunny rabbits, baby bears, and naughty elves also had their share in the fun. Girls dressed in dainty frocks of yellow and another group, dressed in pink frocks, danced for her majesty. A highland lassie danced the Highland Fling, while sun-bonnet babies, overall boys, clowns, Japanese girls, and sailors all took their parts in very capable manner. Girls of the west danced to the crack of a whip, while twice the May Pole was wound. At the close of the program, a grand march, in which the entire school took part was witnessed, which ended a very wonderful evening for all who were present. The teachers and mothers were greatly congratulated on the wonderful success of this undertaking.

Loyal Women's Class Entertains Mothers of Cradle Roll Department

The Loyal Women's class of the Christian church entertained with a pleasurable affair Thursday afternoon honoring the mothers of the members of the Cradle Roll department of the church. The party was in the parlors of the new church and there were about fifty in attendance for the entertaining program.

The opening address was made by D. E. Carr, Bible school superintendent. Mrs. W. R. Baird, superintendence of the Cradle Roll, made the welcome talk and Rev. Baird entertained with a solo appropriate for Mother's Day. An address on the welfare of the child was made by Dr. DeWalt Payne, county health officer. Rev. Baird gave a reading, "When Melinda Sings," which was followed by a talk by Mrs. Chas. G. Stanton, the teacher of the Loyal Women's class. Rev. Baird closed the program with a vocal solo.

Games followed by refreshments completed the social hour.

Senior Class of Looking Glass School to Present Annual Play

The Senior Class of the Looking Glass high school will present the annual play on Wednesday evening, May 16, at the school auditorium.

The vehicle selected this year is Myrtle Elsey's "A Worthy Vagabond," a western comedy-drama in three acts. It is a play which will be enjoyed for its wit, humor, pathos and romance which have been combined with a thrilling climax to provide entertainment. The cast includes Robert Paulson, Arthur Millard, Marjorie Thompson, Irene Rodley, Susie Jacoby and Frances Welsh.

Also on the evening's program will be "Father's Day at Home," by undergraduates, who number Elizabeth Teiford, Lucia Rogers, Chester Williams, Bennett Rogers, Ethel Parker and Arthur Millard. Vocal and instrumental music will be presented and the Glee Club of the school will appear in a song recital.

Mrs. Wade Entertained with Luncheon and Shower Honoring Mrs. Thurber

One of the attractive affairs of the week had Mrs. Charles B. Wade as hostess when she entertained Thursday with a luncheon and a shower honoring Mrs. E. R. Thurber. The invited list included the members of the Thursday bridge club and added guests.

The rooms of the attractive Wade home on South Stephens street were enhanced with the use of spring blossoms. The table centerpieces were arrangements of tiny Cecil Brunner rose buds. Covers were laid for the honoree and Mrs. S. G. Sellick, A. J. Hochstadt, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. B. W. West, Mrs. Irvin Bruns, the club members and Mrs. Ivan Pickers, Mrs. W. A. Bogard, Mrs. J. R. Wharton, Mrs. C. A. Lockwood and Mrs. Leon McClintock, additional guests, and the hostess.

Following the luncheon and shower bridge gave interest to the afternoon hours, honors being held at the end of play, by Mrs. Sellick, who received the club prize, and Mrs. W. A. Bogard, who was the recipient of the guest prize.

Home Hints

SEALS of bronze on marble bases are willing ends for books.

Roseburg Matrons Guests of Mrs. Jost and Mrs. Burt at Luncheon in Eugene

A group of Roseburg matrons who are members of the Past Matrons Club motored to Eugene Tuesday for the lovely one o'clock luncheon at which Mrs. W. S. Jost and Mrs. Warren G. Burt, former residents of this city, presided.

The affair was given at the Jost home which was charming with a colorful array of May flowers. Beautiful appointments were used at the tables at which were seated Mrs. Paul T. Bubbar, Mrs. Geo. Kohlman, Mrs. T. B. Viden, Mrs. John E. Runyan, Mrs. W. H. Harris, Mrs. W. E. Clingenspeel, Mrs. V. S. French, Mrs. T. E. Singleton, Mrs. Albert Abraham, Miss Frances Howell and the hostesses.

An informal afternoon occupied the attention of the guests following the luncheon.

Tuesday Is Important Day for Woman's Club

Tuesday, May 15, has been set aside as one of the important days of the spring for the Roseburg Woman's Club which will meet that afternoon at 2 o'clock in the club building and members will plan details for the club's part in entertaining during the convention to be held here the latter part of the month.

Mrs. A. G. McMullin, vice-president, who will preside in the absence of the president, is desirous that all members of the club be present as unfinished business of the year will be disposed of with various other important matters.

A program will be followed by an informal social hour.

Club and Added Guests Entertained at Sewing Party

Mrs. John Marks entertained the members of the M. O. A. club of Edenhower and a few added guests with an afternoon of sewing on Wednesday.

BY HENRI BENDEL

FOR NEA SERVICE
NEW YORK, May 12.—Next to her bridal gown, the graduation frock is perhaps the most important dress in a woman's life.

Graduation frocks, like bridal gowns, used to be designed for one occasion only. Now both are created with the idea in mind of the later uses to which such things of beauty can be put.

Since the sweet girl graduate often wears a cap and gown for the event, her frock can be the type that she will rejoice in wearing to a party afterwards.

Simplicity Essential.
While the bride can, with perfect good taste, indulge her craving for fussiness, elaborate trimmings and an intricately evolved gown for her wedding day, the graduate must keep hers simple and girlish.

I always advise girls to avoid sophistication, first of all, when picking their graduation frocks. Materials and fashioning should be girlish sweet and young.

Taffeta, chiffons, organdies, nets and fine hand-worked batistes are the ideal media for graduation frocks.

Necklines always should be modestly cut. If there are sleeves, they should not be elaborate. Skirts are usually short but those in good taste always hide the curve of the knee.

Sparing with Laces.
Such trifling things as tucks, shirring, smocking, cording and incrustations seem to me in much better taste than tussy laces.

For instance, a white taffeta that is the essence of charming simplicity has a moulded basque with its bouffant skirt shirred

P. T. A. Elected New Set of Officers

At the last regular meeting of the Fullerton P. T. A. held Thursday evening the following officers were elected for the next year: president, Mrs. C. D. Fies; vice-president, Mrs. Lee A. Wells; secretary, Miss Cooper; treasurer, Mrs. Peterson.

It being Achievement Day for club workers, the cooking club gave the following program: whistling solo, accompanied by Maud Williams.

Reports of their cooking activities were given by Jean Empey, Dayis Curtis and Esther Myers. Mrs. Hewitt, club leader, then explained the plan and aims of the cooking club.

J. R. Parker, county club leader, told of club work from its inception to the present time and that the government expends $500 for club work in Douglas county. Mr. Parker divides his time between the club activity and horticultural work. He also told of the numerous projects for club work and said that each child who completes a project is awarded a bronze medal.

Dorothy Abbott played "Spring's Approach."

Genevieve Conney recited the club's tables of weights and measures.

Harriet Minturn told how to put up a school lunch. Eva Polney read menus for proper breakfast. Anna Brown and Margaret Cloake demonstrated the making of cookies.

The girls of the club sang three of the club songs they had learned this year.

All present enjoyed the program and felt a great deal of helpful work has been accomplished the past year.

Mrs. Wade Entertained with Luncheon and Shower Honoring Mrs. Thurber

One of the attractive affairs of the week had Mrs. Charles B. Wade as hostess when she entertained Thursday with a luncheon and a shower honoring Mrs. E. R. Thurber. The invited list included the members of the Thursday bridge club and added guests.

The rooms of the attractive Wade home on South Stephens street were enhanced with the use of spring blossoms. The table centerpieces were arrangements of tiny Cecil Brunner rose buds. Covers were laid for the honoree and Mrs. S. G. Sellick, A. J. Hochstadt, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. B. W. West, Mrs. Irvin Bruns, the club members and Mrs. Ivan Pickers, Mrs. W. A. Bogard, Mrs. J. R. Wharton, Mrs. C. A. Lockwood and Mrs. Leon McClintock, additional guests, and the hostess.

Following the luncheon and shower bridge gave interest to the afternoon hours, honors being held at the end of play, by Mrs. Sellick, who received the club prize, and Mrs. W. A. Bogard, who was the recipient of the guest prize.

Home Hints

PASTEL ORGANDIE makes a dainty powder puff container for the guest room.

PASTEL ORGANDIE makes a dainty powder puff container for the guest room.

PASTEL ORGANDIE makes a dainty powder puff container for the guest room.

PASTEL ORGANDIE makes a dainty powder puff container for the guest room.

PASTEL ORGANDIE makes a dainty powder puff container for the guest room.

PASTEL ORGANDIE makes a dainty powder puff container for the guest room.

PASTEL ORGANDIE makes a dainty powder puff container for the guest room.

Home Hints

SEALS of bronze on marble bases are willing ends for books.

Roseburg Matrons Guests of Mrs. Jost and Mrs. Burt at Luncheon in Eugene

A group of Roseburg matrons who are members of the Past Matrons Club motored to Eugene Tuesday for the lovely one o'clock luncheon at which Mrs. W. S. Jost and Mrs. Warren G. Burt, former residents of this city, presided.

The affair was given at the Jost home which was charming with a colorful array of May flowers. Beautiful appointments were used at the tables at which were seated Mrs. Paul T. Bubbar, Mrs. Geo. Kohlman, Mrs. T. B. Viden, Mrs. John E. Runyan, Mrs. W. H. Harris, Mrs. W. E. Clingenspeel, Mrs. V. S. French, Mrs. T. E. Singleton, Mrs. Albert Abraham, Miss Frances Howell and the hostesses.

An informal afternoon occupied the attention of the guests following the luncheon.

Mother's Day Song Service at Presbyterian Church

A splendid music service commemorating Mother's Day will be given Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Presbyterian church and the public is extended a cordial invitation to attend.

Rev. R. W. Achor will give a short address appropriate to the occasion. Chorus choir, under the direction of Elsie Carleton Strang with Frances Lintott at the organ console, will give special numbers. Assisting artists will be Gertrude Wickham Whipple, mezzo soprano, Grace Wickham Deets, contralto, Chas. S. McElhinny, baritone, assisting the incidental solos in the anthems. Gertrude Wickham Whipple will sing the solo, "Mother's Day," by T. S. S. and Dr. Louis Albert Banks has written a beautiful poem for Mrs. Strang which will be sung to the music of "Love's Old Sweet Song."

Third Annual Musicales Fine Event of Week

An entertainment which proved to be one of the best musical programs presented recently was the third annual musicale presented last evening at the Senior high school main auditorium, where the girls' glee club, quartette and the school orchestra were heard by a large number of music lovers.

The program, under the supervision of Miss Hazel Goodwin, instructor in music in the schools, was one of the observances of National Music Week.

The numbers were as follows:
1. Six orchestra selections.
2. Reading by Joyce Buehmark.
3. Numbers by Girls' Glee Club:
a. Happy Song—Del Riego
b. May Morning—Denza
c. Sing Along.
4. Numbers by Girls' Quartet:
a. Honey Town—Parker
b. Kentucky Balm—Glebel
c. Syncopeated Lullaby—Stin
d. Piano solo, "Eternity" by E. Groeger—Maxine Stearns
5. Girls' Glee Club:
a. Red Slides Above a Wigwam—Tvorak
b. Fallen Indian Leaf—Lozan
7. Vocal solo, "By the Waters of Minnetonka" (Lullaby)—Vera McClintock.
8. Girls' Quartet:
a. River, River—Chilean folk song.
b. Old Refrain—Kremier
c. Kerry Dance—Mollay
d. Little Girl with the Turquoise—Clark
e. Vocal duet by the Langeberg sisters.
10. Girls' Glee Club:
a. Song of the Fisher Bents—Balsbridge
b. Bells of St. Mary's—Adams
c. Song of Mother—Parks
d. Song of the Volga Boatmen—Russian folk song.
11. Girls' Quartet:
a. I Love a Little Cottage—O'Hara
b. The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise—Seitz
c. Sorrow Has Yea—Smith
d. My Wild Irish Rose—Olcott

Life's Niceties

HINTS ON ETIQUET

1. If a formal dinner is out of the question, what other ways can a hostess present a house guest to her social circle?

2. If one lives in a metropolitan apartment, where does one give a formal dinner or other large parties?

3. If one has limited means, what informal way can one introduce guests?

The Answers

1. By a series of informal dinners, luncheons, a late reception or tea.

2. At a club or hotel.

3. By giving a Sunday breakfast to friends.