MANDELL DEFEATS M'LARVIN IN HARD 15-ROUND BATTLE

Stout-Hearted Challenger
Completely Outclassed
By Speed and Skill of Champion

(Associated Press Local Wire)
NEW YORK, May 22.—The light-weight division still boasts the same old ruler—dapper, clean-cut, handsome Sammy Mandell—but if ever they award titles for real courage in the prize ring, Irish Jimmy McLarnin must be crowned king of them all.

For fifteen rounds under glaring lights above a ring pitched in the center of the Polo Grounds, the black haired sheik from Rockford, Ill., slashed and tore last night at the body and chin of the McLarnin kid.

Lefts that shot out with the sting and drive of a whip lashed out about Jimmy's face. Short right chops closed his left eye, lefts smothered the other eye, and punches from every direction brought a stream of blood from his nose.

There was not a dissenting voice in the crowd of less than 25,000 that gathered in the big National league ball park when Joe Humphries announced that Mandell was still champion after 15 rounds of furious battling.

For every one of those 15 rounds, McLarnin, hoping always to land the smash that stowed away the ghost of the ghetto, piled into the champion—and into a storm of punches that battered his features almost beyond recognition.

It was the attack of a youngster who didn't know what fear meant, a kid with a fighting heart that couldn't be slackened.

Jimmy's effort not only won him the plaudits of the crowd but the whole-hearted recognition of the champion himself. But it gained him only three of the 15 rounds, and carried him on even terms with the title holder in three others. Mandell won nine rounds by wide margins.

When the battle was over and radio beckoned the title holder who has defended his crown only twice in three years, his first words were for the loser.

"Gee, I'm tired," said Sammy. "I fought the hardest man I ever faced. I'm still the champion, but the next lightweight king will be Jimmy McLarnin."

(Associated Press Local Wire)
ATHENS, Greece, May 22.—The coalition government of Premier Zalmis resigned today after a brief life of somewhat more than three months.

A political crisis in the present Greek government had been brewing for some time with every indication that Eleutherios Constantine Venizelos, strong man of Greece during the war, would return from his retirement to active political labors. Dispatches from Athens last night predicting the resignation of the Zalmis cabinet said that Venizelos probably would be entrusted with the formation of a new government.

Venizelos, who was an ardent supporter of the allied cause during the World War and eventually brought Greece in on the side of the allies, had devoted the past two years to political study and historical writings, offering only an occasional suggestion on current governmental problems.

BALL SCORES IN MAJOR LEAGUES

(Associated Press Local Wire)

The Boston Red Sox, long the butt of many a baseball jest, no longer are doormats to be trampled on with impunity by the rest of the American league.

After a fine showing against the invading clubs in the recent inter-sectional series, the Red Sox came to New York yesterday, snapped an eight game winning streak of the New York Yanks in the first of the double header, 8-4, and then saw their own string of wins ended at seven in the nightcap 3-2.

At Philadelphia the Athletics moved up to within three and one-half games of the Yanks by taking both ends of a double header from the faltering Washington Senators, 4 to 3 and 2 to 1. Old Jack Quinn won the first game with a single in the 18th inning.

In the National league the Chicago Cubs came out on the short end of a home run battle with the St. Louis Cardinals, 8 to 7. Hack Wilson hit two home runs, each time with a man on base but Bottomley duplicated the feat for the Cardinals.

The Cincinnati Reds moved up to within half a game of the Cubs by splitting even in two games with the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-3 and 6-3.

All other major league clubs had an open date.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE GAMES

(By the Associated Press)

Playing off Saturday's 13 inning tie, the Missions, with young Merton Nelson holding the Angels to three hits, yesterday coasted to a 3-0 victory in the odd game of the series. The Bells practically settled the issue in the first inning when Swanson's single, Dittmar's error and Redd's sacrifice put two men on the base, from where they scored on Griffin's drive to right.

Bats: Nelson and Baldwin; Weatherly, Wright and Sandberg.

LOOKING GLASS NEWS ITEMS

The play "The Worthy Vagabond" given by the high school Wednesday night was a huge success. Each of the actors did their parts with great credit to themselves. It was thought by many to be the best play the Looking Glass high school has yet given. Preceding the play came a one act play entitled, "Father's Day on Mother's Day Off." Also a number of songs were acceptably rendered by the high school. Between acts were given solos by Ann Morgan and Elizabeth Hitchins; piano solos by Velma Strickland and Lois Buchanan; a number on the violin and piano by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nickens and a song, "The Gypsy Trail," by Anne Morgan, Lucia Rogers, Alma Thompson and Elizabeth Hitchins. The crowd took up every seat in the house and the receipts totaled fifty-one dollars.

The eighth grade took the state examinations last Wednesday and Thursday. The school term of the lower grades will expire next Friday.
