

SOCIETY

BY GRACE CARROLL

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personal—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

The month of the year receiving the most favor for the bride as the appropriate time for her wedding has arrived and from indications this June will equal that of last year in marriages of interest in the city. The season has brought to mind the variety of lovely ceremonies both large and informal in Roseburg that have characterized June the past few years. There will be several out of town weddings, too, that Roseburg folk will be interested in slated for the next few weeks.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Thelma Olmstead, a former Roseburg maid, and Larry French, member of a well known Sutherland family, is to take place today in Portland, has created a great deal of interest in town this week. Miss Olmstead, the daughter of Mrs. E. Olmstead, is a graduate of Roseburg high school and an attractive young woman. Mrs. Olmstead and her daughter, residents of this city for a number of years, have been making their home in Portland for the past year. Mr. French is a member of the Beaver Hall club of Portland.

Another bit of news coming this week was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Ruth Ann Wilson, formerly of this city, to Mr. Ernest Carpenter of Yakima. Miss Wilson makes her home in Eugene. The end of this week and the coming week will witness a decided quiet preceding the start of real summer playtime when many Roseburg folk will be going out of town for a few weeks' trip or a vacation at the beach or mountains. Faculty folk in the school have been saying their adieu this week, as school is completed and a number of the instructors leave town for the summer months, not to return until fall, and others to accept posts elsewhere.

Miss Ellen Flook of Corvallis has been entertained for the past week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gabor in West Roseburg.

Woman's Club Will Have Lawn Party at Winston Home Tuesday

At the close of a recent membership drive in the Roseburg Woman's Club it was agreed by the two groups that the losing side was to entertain the victors at an event this spring, and carrying out that agreement the losing group will furnish refreshments on Tuesday afternoon, June 5, when the club women will motor to the country home of Mrs. W. C. Winston at Winston for a lawn party. The members of the club have been asked to meet at the club house on South Jackson street at 12 o'clock Monday and then to have transportation will be provided for. Each member has been asked to take her own dishes. Business for the year will be finished during the afternoon, the club closing its calendar for the summer season.

Mrs. F. W. Jones, a former Roseburg woman now making her home in Eugene, where she is house-mother at the P. Beta Phi sorority, was honored at a large luncheon for which the girls of the house were hostesses, entertaining about forty of Mrs. Jones's friends.

Former Residents Attend Program Here Last Eve

Mrs. Ella Day, sister of F. E. Alley of this city, and her daughter, Mrs. Gladys Collins, of Eugene, are visitors here, coming primarily for the graduation exercises last evening at the Senior high school. Mrs. Day and her daughter, both former residents of this city, taught in the high school here. Mrs. Collins was for two years class advisor of the seniors who received diplomas last night. They will return home today.

Evening Smartness

A new note gaining popularity in the smart world is the close-fitting evening cap. The hair is entirely covered by this one, of beads radiating from the crown, tulle, trimmed with rows of blue, a cluster of blue crystals leaves covers each ear.

Dinner Given by Music Teachers Assn. Honors Three of Members

A charming luncheon given by the Douglas County Music Teachers' Association Friday noon at the Rose Hotel complimented three of the members of the association, Mrs. Herbert F. Williams (Myrtle Hercher) whose marriage was an event of May 6, and Miss Harriet Groves and Miss Lucille Sappington, brides-elect. Miss Groves has announced the date of her marriage to Mr. John Weatherford for August and Miss Sappington's marriage to Mr. Walter Germain of Marshfield is to take place June 28. The affair was an entire surprise to the three honor guests.

One corner of the hotel dining room was reserved for the occasion and two large tables were arranged for the luncheon. At one, centered with a low green and gold basket filled with pink roses and tied with a large bow of pink ribbon, sat the three honor guests and nine of the members of the association. The other table held a centerpiece of poppies. At the places for the honor guests tiny place cards of brides and a bouquet of white rose buds tied with silver ribbons were laid. The other covers were marked with cards painted with designs of wedding bells and roses. Seated were Mrs. Williams, Miss Sappington, Miss Groves, and Mrs. Frances Lintott, Mrs. Laverne Lander, Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Mrs. Chas. Brand, Mrs. Fred L. Strang, Mrs. Nelle Moore, Mrs. Chas. G. Stanton, Miss Gladys Strong, Miss Naomi Scott and Miss Grace Carroll. The occasion also marked the final meeting for the summer of the association and Miss Strong, the president, presided at a brief meeting preceding the luncheon at which business matters were disposed of.

At the close of the luncheon the president presented each of the honor guests with a lovely gift from the association. Cards attached to the presents were signed by each guest present.

Two Groups Students Be Presented in Recitals

Two groups of piano and dancing students will be presented in recital the coming week by Miss Harriet E. Groves. On Tuesday evening, June 5, an interesting program has been prepared for a recital at Sutherland to be held in the large J. G. Cooper home.

The second recital will be held in Roseburg a week later at the M. E. Church, Sunday, June 10. Both programs will start at 8:15 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend these musical recitals.

Friends are welcoming Mrs. Gertrude Clark, Olympia, Washington, matron who is here for a month's visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clark.

Group Young People Enjoys Evening Affair

Members of the Kumjohus class of the Christian church Sunday school participated in a wholly enjoyable affair Tuesday evening when the group assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. V. Stanton in North Roseburg for an indoor picnic supper, followed by games.

The invited list for the event included Mr. and Mrs. Royd Braton, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. V. Stanton, Mrs. Eva Curry of Montana, Mrs. E. R. Walton, the Misses Esther Miller, Esther Edman, Thelma Pearce, Helene Pearce, Helen Ferguson, Gladys Buehl, Marjorie Snyder, Rhea Gates, Elizabeth Harding, Elsie Hudson Isabel Warren, Lally Guttridge and Donald Hagertry, Everett Guttridge, Ralph Church, Floyd Church, Dale Bird, Archie McGilchey and Ray Wampole.

Mrs. Washington Hughes returned to her home in Roseburg the first of the week following a fortnight's stay in California. She was the guest of her two sisters, one residing in San Francisco and the other in San Jose, Obispo, while away. In the latter city, Mrs. Hughes attended one of the picturesque fiestas in which the Spanish took part.

Program for Looking Glass High School Graduates Sunday

Sunday, June 10, baccalaureate program for the 1928 graduating class of the Looking Glass high school will be held at the school, the event taking place at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. Joseph Knotts of Roseburg will deliver the baccalaureate sermon. Musical numbers will be interspersed through the program, selections being given by the high school chorus. Miss Fern Hutchins will be accompanist.

Commencement exercises will be given Friday evening, June 15, at 8 o'clock. Those who will graduate this year are Irene Rodley, Marjorie Thompson, John Montgomery, Lester Jordan, Harold Strongmiller and Arthur Millard.

BOUFFANT VS. SLINKY SILHOUETTE

Summer Gowns, Whatever Their Design, Promise Feminine Grace

By HENRI BENDEL (For NEA Service)

NEW YORK, June 2.—There is a magnanimously sweeping grace about all the new gowns for summer evenings that bespeak the tendency of late modes to go the whole way in being feminine and lovely.

There is, however, a rift among styles right now for wear after the electric lights gleam. As the season progresses these two factions stand further apart. The two rivals are the clinging, slinky gowns of moulded silhouette and uneven, trailing hemlines and the crisp, bouffant gown of studied symmetry.

The former usually applies chiffon, lace or some other soft supple medium. The latter uses rippling tulle, vigorous taffeta, lively marquisette, fresh organdie, or lace or tulle over a foundation that holds them out briskly.

They Lend Dignity. Intelligent styling gives the new bouffant gown dignity as well as that appealing youthful air they inevitably exude.

The choice of materials somewhat decides just what type of bouffant a summer gown should be. But necklines, bodice structure and hip-flares are the points that the skilled hand concentrates on to give individual character to a bouffant gown.

I use different materials and different colors when two bouffant gowns are selected for two such varied types as a woman of middle years and a debutante. For the bouffant gown can be highly sophisticated, if restraint is used in a designing.

A bouffant gown for every type: left, a demure frock of jade green moire with Queen Ann collar; center, a youthful and frivolous pink organdie with gold thread lace and bertha collar; right, a sophisticated black net with gold applique.

A bouffant gown for every type: left, a demure frock of jade green moire with Queen Ann collar; center, a youthful and frivolous pink organdie with gold thread lace and bertha collar; right, a sophisticated black net with gold applique.

A bouffant gown for every type: left, a demure frock of jade green moire with Queen Ann collar; center, a youthful and frivolous pink organdie with gold thread lace and bertha collar; right, a sophisticated black net with gold applique.

Quaint and most demure is a period bouffant gown of sleek jade green moire that adapts the Queen Ann collar and the medieval basque to modern times. Bands of deep bluish green trim the very full skirt and edge the Queen Ann collar that is held off the shoulders by narrow straps of the lighter green.

In this gown the basque is cut in a novel line and that line emphasized by a minute piping of the darker green. The fullness of the skirts shifts in tiers, following this line and concentrates on either side of the front and back, giving a swinging movement when the lady walks. The spirit of balmy summer evenings is present in the dainty pink organdie and gold-thread lace. Here is a frock as sweet and fresh as the young girl who should wear it. The cape influence is noted in the bertha collar that takes a one-sided closing and the feminine note of the year suggests the soft pink net which edges this as well as the uneven skirt.

Color for Summer. The cold lace threading the skirt adds a richness to the crisp organdie. And a smashing bow and sash of turquoise blue satin ribbon strikes a most summery color note for decoration.

In contradiction to the striking youthfulness and "sweet sixteen" freshness of this organdie frock is the sophisticated black net over taffeta gown—the modish attire of the modish woman in her middle years.

The bouffant skirt concentrates its fullness on side paniers which stand out in most charming manner. The lightness of the net is balanced to dignity by the crisp black taffeta under it. Sumptuous and richly colorful is the border of gold in an apple design which ornaments the bodice and skirt of this gown.

Final Touch. To give a last sophisticated touch, the neckline is the elusive kind that uses the strap shoulder under net.

Whether Milady wishes demure, dainty or sophisticated gowns for evening, the bouffant, if properly studied and executed, offers quite the eminently correct answer to her problem.

Ogle-Harding Nuptials to Be Pretty Home Ceremony Sunday

Notably interesting among approaching June weddings to circles of the young folk is that of Miss Elizabeth Harding and Mr. Eldon Ogle of Portland, which is to be a quiet home affair Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Harding, on Garden Valley road.

Guests numbering 25, included in which are several out of town folk, have been invited for the ceremony which will be at 3 o'clock Sunday morning. Rev. W. R. Baird will read the nuptial vows.

The only attendants will be Miss Wanda Harding, sister of the bride-elect, and Kenneth Ogle of Portland, brother of Mr. Ogle. Miss Harding, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Harding, came to Roseburg about a year ago and has formed a wide circle of friends here. She is a graduate of the high school at Astoria.

Mr. Ogle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ogle of Portland and is employed by the Oregon Grain company.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast will be given. In honor of Miss Harding and Mr. Ogle, Miss Rhea Gates will entertain at 5 o'clock this evening with a picnic supper at Loni Rock.

Mrs. George E. Godfrey, daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Godfrey of Myrtle Creek, leaves Eugene this week for New York City, from where she will sail for Europe.

Mrs. Godfrey will travel east via the Canadian route and will visit in France, stopping in Paris as the guest of her sister, Miss Ann DeWitt. Later she will visit in Italy. She will be abroad for three or four months.

Miss Sappington to Wed Walter Germain This Month

The approaching marriage of Miss Lucille Sappington, who for the past four years has been an instructor in music in Roseburg, and Mr. Walter Germain, formerly of this city and now of Marshfield, is creating interest here.

Miss Sappington will close her studies this week and plans to leave within a few days. The wedding will be June 26 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sappington, near Washouak, Washington.

Mr. Germain was supervisor of the band instrument department of the Highline Conservatory here and the past year has been supervisor of music in the Marshfield schools.

Life's Niceties HINTS ON ETIQUET

1. Should one ever ask for a second helping at a luncheon?
2. If the hostess urges a second helping, should one individual guest, after the host has refused, hold on all the others by acceptance?
3. Is it considerate to refuse a dish at a luncheon?
The Answers:
1. No. The hostess has probably planned only for one.
2. It is better not to.
3. No. At a big dinner it can be done, for there are many courses. But at a luncheon where less is served, it would embarrass the hostess.

Engagement of Miss Leta Smith and Chester Morgan Told

More than usual interest is attached to the announcement of the engagement of Miss Leta Smith of Oakland and Chester Morgan of this city, both members of two well known families.

The news was made known last Saturday evening at a 6:30 dinner given at both the sorority and fraternity houses of which Miss Smith and Mr. Morgan are members on the O. S. C. campus.

At Chi Omega sorority house the announcement was made in a very clever and original manner. Minutiae newspapers, with the news printed in the society section, were brought into the room, while the 25 guests were at dinner and were presented each girl by the newboy.

At Alpha Sigma Phi house Mr. Morgan announced the engagement informally following the dinner.

The bride-elect is the charming younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam T. Smith of Oakland and is well known in Roseburg where she visits frequently. She attended school in Oakland and later was a student at the state college where she met Mr. Morgan.

Mr. Morgan, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morgan, is a graduate of Roseburg high school and after the completion of his studies there he attended O. S. C., graduating in 1926. He was prominent on the campus and a member of the college band.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Hugh Ritter Hostess at Pretty Affair

Mrs. Hugh Ritter was a charming hostess on Thursday afternoon to the matrons of the Women's Club at her home in Garden Valley.

Following the regular business session of the club a dainty two-course luncheon was served by the hostess at prettily appointed tables graced with bouquets of Dorothy Perkins roses. The guests included Mrs. G. C. Bailey, Mrs. Ed Brown, Mrs. A. Calhoun, Mrs. R. Evans, Mrs. R. H. Hutton, Mrs. W. D. Love, Mrs. G. McDaniel, Mrs. A. Nidey, Mrs. Fred Parrott, Mrs. J. B. Petch, Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Jr., Mrs. Adam Schneider and Mrs. Peter Sinclair.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Wednesday afternoon, June 13th, at the home of Mrs. Adam Schneider.

Mr. and Mrs. Harness Will Entertain at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Harness will entertain at an informal dinner party Sunday for Miss Mildred Stoltz, Miss Bernice Fixwater and Mrs. Mae Henderson.

Miss Moist and Miss Fixwater have been instructors in the city schools here for the past two years and leave the first of the week, the former going to her home in Portland and Miss Fixwater to Lebanon, where her parents reside.

Missionary Society Entertained Thursday

Mrs. Emmet Crawford entertained at her home Thursday afternoon for the meeting of the Baptist Missionary Society. She was assisted by Mrs. Tom Cobb and Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen, Jr.

Fashion Plaque

BLUE AND WHITE—A very chic new hat has a turned-down brim of white coarse straw, with a crown and large bow at the back of navy blue felt.

Bridge-Dinner Given by Matron for Visitor Here

Coming as one of the lovely social events of early week was the bridge-dinner at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening for which Mrs. B. Casey was hostess honoring a visiting matron, Mrs. B. H. Moore of Portland. Members of the hostess' dinner and afternoon club were formerly Harvard at the University of California.

The three leave June 8 and Miss Scott will leave the party at Muskogee, Oklahoma, where she will visit this summer with her sister, Lucy Scott Towne, concert artist and wife of H. B. Towne, who was heard in Roseburg last year. Miss Scott plans to return to Roseburg in the fall.

Miss Casey and Miss Stephenson will be joined in the east by Miss Taylor, secretary to Congressman Hawley at Washington, D. C. The three plan to sail on the Lapland June 22 from New York City and will visit principally in London and Paris. In the French capital Miss Stephenson will be employed in the American Library for a year. Various side trips are planned and the time for their return to the United States by Miss Casey and Miss Taylor will be made later.

No-Host Dinner Party Given for Visitor

Complimenting Mrs. B. H. Moore, Portland matron, who has been visiting in Roseburg, her former home, for several days, a no-host dinner party was given at the Roseburg Country club Sunday evening, the affair being arranged by a large group of Mrs. Moore's friends in this city.

Covers for about thirty guests were laid at one long table in the dining room of the club house, which was colorful with seasonal flowers. Garden blooms were used also at the table in keeping with the other decorations.

The evening was enjoyed informally.

Bridge Me Another

By W. W. WENTWORTH

(Abbreviations: Ace; King; Queen; Jack; Nany card lower than 10.)
1. Holding: spades—A Q X; hearts—A Q X; diamonds—X X X; clubs—X X X X; what do you bid initially?
2. What is indicated by an encouraging discard?
3. What should you bid initially when you hold: spades—A X X; diamonds—A K Q X X; clubs—A X X X; no hearts?
The Answers:
1. Pass.
2. Strength in suit discarded.
3. One diamond.

Club Had Informal Afternoon Meeting

The Neighborhood Club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Janet Huntly. Refreshments were served at the close of the business meeting.

Those present were Mrs. Ethel Brown, Mrs. Whitely Brown, Mrs. Lucy Hick, Mrs. Ed Neely, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Ruth Lawson, Mrs. Mabel Wolcott, and the hostess, Mrs. Janet Huntly.

Ladies Day at Country Club to Be Thursday of Each Week

Thursday of each week has been set aside as ladies day at the Roseburg Country Club links and on June 7 the series of golf games will be started by the ladies under the captain, Mrs. J. A. Harding.

It is urged by the captain that every lady who is a member of the club can possibly be present, do so. It is planned to tee off at 9:30 o'clock and 18 holes will be played before the groups finish for the day.

Arrangements are being made for luncheon at the end of the game to take place about 1:30 o'clock on the club house veranda and those wishing to make reservations for the luncheon may call Mrs. Harding at her home or at the Umpqua hotel before Thursday. Those who have no transportation to the club should notify Mrs. Harding and provisions will be made.

Thursday the series of bridge tournaments for the ladies will also be started and will be in charge of Mrs. B. Casey and Mrs. J. E. Barker, joint chairmen. These will continue through the summer and at the close a first and second prize will be awarded.

Roseburg Girl and Two Friends Plan to Visit Abroad

Miss Helen Casey, who has been instructing in the Senior high school, is making plans to visit abroad during the summer months, and to sail from New York City later in the month in company with two sorority sisters, Miss Emma Stephenson and Miss Marion Taylor. With Miss Naomi Scott, who has conducted a violin studio here the past few years, Miss Casey leaves the coming week for Portland, where they will be joined by Miss Stephenson, who was formerly a Harvard at the University of California. The three leave June 8 and Miss Scott will leave the party at Muskogee, Oklahoma, where she will visit this summer with her sister, Lucy Scott Towne, concert artist and wife of H. B. Towne, who was heard in Roseburg last year. Miss Scott plans to return to Roseburg in the fall.

Miss Casey and Miss Stephenson will be joined in the east by Miss Taylor, secretary to Congressman Hawley at Washington, D. C. The three plan to sail on the Lapland June 22 from New York City and will visit principally in London and Paris. In the French capital Miss Stephenson will be employed in the American Library for a year. Various side trips are planned and the time for their return to the United States by Miss Casey and Miss Taylor will be made later.

Home Hints

OLDLY MODERN is this Moroccan floor cushion with a design in blue, red and yellow leather which is so antique it looks ultra-new.

Mrs. Stanton Presented Students at Home Recital

Mrs. Charles G. Stanton presented her group of piano students in a recital at her home studio Friday afternoon. The pupils played their numbers with ease and in a manner showing their musical ability and the intelligent training they have been receiving.

The program was as follows:
Trio—Pom Pom, Frances Huber, Gwendolyn Rose, Alice Hutchings.
The Brownies' Parade.....Elodie Taylor
Summer Breezes.....Elodie Taylor
My Retirement.....Faith Lady Bridget
Billy Wadsworth
Class Demonstration—Major Scale Morning Prayer.....Streabog
Margaret Long
Arpeggio Waltz.....Krogmann
Minuet in G.....Beethoven
Class Demonstration—Minor Scales Valetta.....Krogmann
In Slumberland.....Krogmann
Gwendolyn Rose
Dream Song.....Forman
Gilding Along.....Kern
Elsie Dusenbark
Class Demonstration—Chord Building.....Cadman
Love Song.....Verdi
Anvil Chorus.....Verdi
Spring Song.....Merkel
Nelda Sherk
Class Demonstration—Melody Writing.....Melody
Sunbeams and Roses.....Bliss
Barcarolle.....Oesten
Betty Shoemaker
Il Desiderio.....Cramer
Avalanche.....Heller
Duet—Spring Song.....Mendelssohn
John: Mildred Marks, Mrs. Stanton.

M. O. A. Club Is Entertained at Sewing

Mrs. Harlan Moore was hostess for a pleasurable affair Wednesday when she entertained the members of the M. O. A. Club of Edenbouwer with an afternoon of sewing followed by luncheon. Assisting were Miss Pearl Jones and Mrs. George Powers.

The guest list included the Mesdames J. P. McKay, Geo. Powers, M. H. Allison, Mary Davis, A. W. Helmholdt, E. G. Cloak, John Taylor, Kenneth Cloak, Geo. Barker, John Marks, J. Jones, C. W. Cook, Geo. Bickle, Ralph Bell and the Misses Pearl Jones, Olga Sims and Jean Cloak, Marion Cloak, Elroy Mac Cloak, Nancy Mae Bell and Marceline Moore.

Miss Nellis McBroom Visited in Roseburg

A charming Roseburg visitor over last weekend was Miss Nellis McBroom, a former maid of this city who was here as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Effie Fish, and her grandmother, Mrs. N. L. Owens, on Court and Ella streets.

Miss McBroom leaves Chehalis, Washington, where she resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. McBroom, today for the east. In New York City she will attend a reunion of the class of 1926 of Vassar on June 8. Miss McBroom will be away the greater part of the summer and in the fall plans to return to Oregon, having been offered a position as instructor in Spanish at the University of Oregon.

Miss Groves and John Weatherford to Wed in August

Miss Harriet Groves, young Roseburg woman, has announced the date of her marriage to Mr. John Weatherford for August, the month being revealed to a group at a luncheon this week.

Miss Groves is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Groves of this city and attended the local schools. She was a student of Mrs. C. S. Heinline and later studied music in Portland. The past year she has conducted her own studio of music.

Mr. Weatherford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Weatherford of (Continued on page 3.)

Mrs. B. H. Moore Returning to Portland

Mrs. B. H. Moore has been a visitor in Roseburg the past ten days and has been warmly welcomed by groups of her old friends. She is returning to Portland, her present home, the first of the week. Mrs. Moore was Miss Mabel VanBuren before her marriage and was a well known musician of this city, having a music studio here. During her stay several affairs were arranged in her honor.

Mrs. Charles G. Stanton has closed her home music studio for the summer and will reside in Timber, Oregon, until fall. Mr. Stanton arrived from that place yesterday and Mr. and Mrs. Stanton and their son, George, expect to leave the first of the week for the north.

Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen, Jr., entertained as her house guests last weekend her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dill of Albany. Mr. Dill, who was manager of the Western Auto Supply company store here, and Mrs. Dill have been residents of Albany for the past year or so. Mr. Dill is manager of the branch store of the Western Auto Supply company in that city.

Mrs. C. J. Trask Here From New Hampshire

Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Potter Rummels are entertaining at their home Mrs. Rummels' mother, Mrs. C. J. Trask, Concord, New Hampshire, matron. Mrs. Trask will be here for the summer and fall, not returning east until October and she and her daughter and family will go to the beach for a part of the summer, taking a cottage at Bandon.

It is an interesting note that prior to her marriage Mrs. Trask, who is well known in New Hampshire, was an artist and received notable recognition in her work. For a number of years she taught art in the public schools. She is the wife of the president of the Bay State Artesian Well company.

Group Invited to Meet Visiting Maid

To have friends meet Miss Leona Geer, her house guest over last week end, Miss Frances Butler entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Butner, with an informal afternoon at home last Saturday.

Nine girls were asked and at the close refreshments were served at attractively appointed tables.

Miss Geer and Miss Butler are co-eds at the Oregon State Agricultural college and are members of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Hughes of Eugene were visitors here over Decoration Day, arriving last Sunday to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hughes. They returned home Wednesday evening.

News of Engagement of Former Resident Made Known

Of more than usual interest in social channels is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Ruth Ann Wilson, who formerly made her home in Roseburg, to Mr. Ernest Carpenter of Yakima, Washington.

The bride-elect, who now resides in Eugene, was supervisor of mathematics in the high school in this city several years ago and during her residence in the city formed a wide circle of friends.

Miss Nellis McBroom Visited in Roseburg

A charming Roseburg visitor over last weekend was Miss Nellis McBroom, a former maid of this city who was here as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Effie Fish, and her grandmother, Mrs. N. L. Owens, on Court and Ella streets.

Miss McBroom leaves Chehalis, Washington, where she resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. McBroom, today for the east. In New York City she will attend a reunion of the class of 1926 of Vassar on June 8. Miss McBroom will be away the greater part of the summer and in the fall plans to return to Oregon, having been offered a position as instructor in Spanish at the University of Oregon.

##