LINDY'S WIT

It begins to appear that our old friend Lindy has a sense of humor. A friend recently told how he and two other pals of Lindy spent an evening with the latter in New York not long ago. They made the evening uncomfortable for the aviator by persisting in singing the song "Lucky Lindy."

TOO MUCH FAMILY?

Mrs. Ethel Cromwell of Bridgeport, Conn., has had her husband arrested. In the 10 years they have been married she has borne 13 children. Her husband earns between $18 and $30 a week. She had him arrested because she did not want to have any more babies, while he insisted on it.

Roseburg should not and probably will not hesitate to subscribe the few hundred dollars needed by the Epworth League to establish a permanent recreation site on the East Umpqua river. This undertaking will not only bring profit to the city commercially, through the purchase of supplies in the annual vacation seasons, but it will greatly augment the prestige of the upper Umpqua regions as ideal outing spots.

If press dispatches are correct, and the only question to be decided regarding the validity of airport bonds is whether or not such bonds are for a "public purpose," this litigation should prove no serious obstacle to the bonding of municipalities for the construction of up-to-date flying fields, says the Medford Mail-Tribune.

Other Presidential Elections—1876

The republican national convention of 1876, meeting in Cincinnati, June 14-16 nominated Rutherford B. Hayes of Ohio for president and William A. Wheeler of New York for vice president.

(Continued from page 1.) of them were reporters and photographers. Mrs. Josephine Boll, elderly mother of "The Queen of Diamonds," as Miss Boll is popularly known, was with her daughter until the plane took to the air and expressed entire confidence in the success of the flight.

There was little ceremony about today's take off. Lehoultier told reporters just at the take off that while it would be "very nice" to beat Miss Cartwright across the ocean, the flight of the Columbia was not a race.

"We are going to take every precaution," he said, "and we won't be stampeded into leaving before things are right. But we hope to get off first."

NEW YORK, June 7.—Le Prensa, Spanish language daily, today says that Miss Matel Boll, aspirant for the honor of being the first woman to fly across the Atlantic by air, has told the newspaper she is the widow of Hernando Rocha-Schloos, wealthy Colombian ranch owner, who was killed in an automobile accident near Bogota, Colombia, last month.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE GAMES

(Associated Press Leased Wire) Another Occidental college product, Len Hassler, scintillated yesterday in the Beavers 4-3 win over the Indians. The youthful shortstop handled eight chances without a bobbie, and some of his stops pulled big Ed Tomlin out of tough spots.

Bassler's single with the bases full in the ninth hooked up a host of pitchers' battle between Dumovich and McCabe and gave Hollywood another 3-2 decision over the Oaks. By their triumph the Stars moved back into a tie for first place with San Francisco. Batteries: Dumovich and Lombardi; McCabe and Bassler.

Making his first start in a Mission uniform, the veteran Harry Krause, traded by the Oaks because he was "through" blanket Sacramento with five hits to give the Missions a 3-0 victory, the second straight. Huff drove one out of the lot. Batteries: Kallio, Singleton and Koehler; Krause and Whitney.

A 5-1 lead amassed in the early innings was too much for the Seals to overcome, although Suhr smashed a homer with two men on in the ninth, and the rejuvenated Indians chalked up another win over San Francisco, 5-4. Bud Teachout, the former Occidental star, had the Seals well under control until Suhr's homer, and was able to stave off further damage after that. Batteries: May, Moudy and Vargas; Teachout and Yorker.

BALL SCORES IN MAJOR LEAGUES

(Associated Press Leased Wire) The National league race was a bit tighter today as the result of a lot of in-incident weather. Brooklyn enjoyed a fine batting afternoon again Ray Kops, Carl Mays and Jim Edwards as Douglas McWeeny turned back Cincinnati's forces memorably for seven innings. Something cracked in McWeeny's service at this point, and the Reds piled up five purely decorative runs in two innings as Babe Ehrhardt rushed in to the rescue. The score was 8 to 5. The fighting Cards are thankful for whatever success they can register on the field, but they are able to take only slight comfort from their 11 to 5 victory over the Giants at the Polo Grounds yesterday. McKechnie's men rallied

THE TINYMITES STORY BY MAJ COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KNICK

"Well, this is really quite a treat," said Cloway, as he took a seat upon the houseboat roof, and watched the donkey trudge along. "To make our little houseboat no do not have to work. Ho, ho! But, if that donkey runs away we'll surely be in wrong."

The donkey trudged along on shore. He had a lot of strength in store and didn't seem to tire one bit. He held a steady pace. The old man watched the bunch, and cried, "How do you like this little ride?" "Oh, great," exclaimed we Copy, with a smile upon his face.

"In 'bout an hour one Tiny cried, 'Some of our food should now be tried. Let's have a little feast right here upon the houseboat floor. We'll give the old man something, too. 'Twould be a kindy thing to do. We'll wrap it in a bundle and then toss it to the shore.'"

So, everyone had quite a lunch. Then Copy said, "I have a bunch our ride is going to end real soon. The donkey's standing still. 'This will be all,' the old man said. 'A dandy rapids is ahead. Your boat will ride through that alone. 'Twill give you all a thrill.'"

The rope was shortly thrown ashore. The Tinies thanked the man once more and then the houseboat drifted to the rapids rather fast. It soon began to tip gamedly to win, but the showing of Grover Cleveland Alexander in the first two innings convinced the baseball sharps that the veteran right hander will be useless to the St. Louis club for a few weeks more at the least. Alex has a sore elbow.

The Cubs improved their position somehow at defeating the Phils, 5 to 3, but Joe McCarthy, in panic as the home team began to hit in the seventh, used up Malone, Bush and Jones in turning in the victory.

Herb Penneck obtained revenge against the Indians for the game they won from him at the Yankee Stadium last month. He kicked off his ninth victory of the season, 3 to 3 as George Uhle took another beating.

Howard Ehmke and Eddie Rommel of the Athletics failed to halt the young sluggers of Dan Howley, who won 5 to 2 behind the good pitching of Sam Gray. The Yanks lead by a mere nine games.
