Indian Marathon From Frisco to Grants Pass Starts; Lone White Tests Stamina Against 29 Reds

(Associated Press Leased Wire)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—Speeded on their way by cheering thousands, 29 Indian runners started from the City Hall at 1:20 o'clock this morning on the 428 mile Redwood Highway Indian marathon to Grants Pass, Oregon. Jogging down Market street, lined with spectators and in the rear of an automobile caravan, the long distance runners passed through the financial district and out to the bay where a special ferry carried them across to Sausalito, where the grind up the northern California coast actually begins.
Frank R. Havenner, city supervisor and acting mayor, fired the pistol that started the squad of aborigines on their way. As they lined up, Mad Bull, Kaigok sponsored by the Oregon Cavenen of Grants Pass, was favored to repeat his victory of last year in this same classic. In winning last year, he covered the distance in seven days and twelve hours. Flying Cloud, also a Karok, and sponsored by the same organization, won second place last year. He is Mad Bull's running mate again.
An unidentified white man, representing an oil company, accompanied the Indians. While not eligible for any prizes, he will comply with every rule. It was announced he was a crack long distance runner and was in the race to match the stamina of the Caucasian with that of the Indian.
A $5,000 cash prize will be given to the winner with an extra $5,000 to be split up between the next five finishers. The race must be in ten days or less.

FATHER'S DAY

Don't Forget Dad On His Day!

Good old dad! He gives us all he has of wealth, energy and affection 365 days in the year. Our health and happiness are all the reward he asks.

Father's Day, June 17th, is dad's own day. Let's give him a nice bright CRAVAT, and a HICKOK BELT SET this year. They'll show we didn't forget and furthermore he is bound to like the crisp colorful beauty, of the cravats we offer, and the feeling of satisfaction at the waist line offered only by a Hickok Belt. They are the precisely correct gifts for dad on his day.

Either of the above can be considered safe and our certified reconditioned used cars are different ages in years of service, but all are worth more than we are asking for them if you figure the thousands of miles of economical transportation they will give their new owner.

We are of the opinion that no one will buy a used car unless it is a bargain, and if you will call and look over our stock of used cars we will leave it to your judgment as to whether they are bargains.

A STATEMENT RELATING TO THE FUTURE OF THE CHRYSLER CORPORATION and DODGE BROTHERS, INC.

The widespread public interest in recent events affecting the Chrysler Corporation and Dodge Brothers, Inc., deserves an authentic and official statement and an assurance regarding the future of these two corporations.

Subject to the approval of stockholders, Dodge Brothers, Inc., will be acquired by the Chrysler Corporation, the plan of amalgamation having been recommended by their respective boards of directors.

Each of these great institutions will retain its identity, and will continue, as heretofore, to produce and market its own product in accordance with the high and progressive standards from which motor car buyers the world over have previously benefited.

Each will benefit from the consummation of a plan which unites such tremendous resources in material, manufacturing facilities, financial power and manufacturing genius.

Dodge Brothers will continue to be Dodge Brothers, and Chrysler will be Chrysler. Their products will be separate and distinct and will be continued in production without interruption. Their sales organizations will be unrelated except as they shall mutually share in the advantages of the consolidation.

Both public and dealers may look forward to the greater benefits which the consolidation of such tremendous resources will produce—and the men identified with these businesses may be assured of a stable and definite future, inspired by the progressiveness which has been responsible for this uniting of two great companies.
