Weddings have held important place on the social calendar this month and especially have the past two weeks been filled with marriages of interest to Roseburg society folk.

Club meetings the past fortnight have been fewer, most of the organizations having completed their year's activities and cancelled meetings until after the summer season. Much of entertainment continues to surround visitors and this week several more have arrived to visit with friends and spend a few weeks vacationing.

Through the week interest has been provided by the several patriotic organizations meeting in convention with the G. A. R. and various social events have filled the time not otherwise taken up by the business seasons for the visitors.

Golf and Bridge Draw Interest of Society Club Women

Ladies' Day each week at the Roseburg Country Club continues to hold interest for the women and last Thursday a large crowd turned out for golf in the morning and the bridge tournament in the afternoon hours.

A number of players were on the links during the morning, Mrs. J. A. Harding, captain of the team which is to enter a tournament as soon as members are chosen, is now organizing and has appointed Mrs. Leon McClintock chairman of the handicap committee, Mrs. C. S. McMillan and Mrs. Kenneth Quinn are the other members of the committee. The tournament committee is composed of Mrs. Nathan Fullerton, Mrs. O. M. Berrie and Mrs. Chas. B. Wade. The captain is very anxious that all players turn out each week and that scores may be taken and those in charge of the tournament may secure handicaps and select those who are to be members of the team.

A luncheon at the club house at noon formed an interesting interval of the day Thursday. Seven tables of bridge were in play in the afternoon. The three high scores were held by Mrs. J. A. Harding, Miss Elizabeth Parrott and Mrs. G. R. Child.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Berrie and Miss Eva Etice motored to Portland Friday for a visit with friends. Miss Etice will remain there for ten days or so.

Son of Roseburg Folk Weds Oswego Maid at Pretty Ceremony

A wedding of interest in Roseburg circles was last Saturday night at Westminster Presbyterian church in Portland where a beautiful service was read at which Miss Katherine Joan Wilson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson of Oswego, became the bride of Ralph Roberts Smith of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Smith of Roseburg.

The nuptial service was performed by Dr. Harold L. Bowman, Cliff Denton, Portland organist, called the wedding march as the members of the bridal party took their places before the altar.

The bride was gown in a wedding dress of lace-trimmed white satin, fashioned with tight bodice and long flowing skirt. A veil was held in place with orange blossom sprays and she carried as a bouquet a shower of roses, sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

The bride's attendants, Mrs. Frank P. Stuechan of Oswego, was matron of honor. She wore pale green sequette and carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses and orchid sweet peas. The Misses Catherine and Margaret McVay, cousins of the bride who were the bridesmaids, wore frocks of gold and orchid taffeta and their bouquets were formed of sweet peas in pale shades of the bridal party.

Paul Smith of Medford, a brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man and Howard E. Kelley, Roseburg M. Colwell, Richard Martin and Carroll Akers were ushers.

Following the wedding the bride and bridegroom received at the Irvington home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McVay, uncle and aunt of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ueland and two children and Mrs. Julia Ueland, who have been guests the past two weeks of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ueland, Mr. Ueland's parents, at 1258 Harrison street, left Friday for their home in Outlook, Montana, by auto.

Complimenting the visitors, the Misses Emma and Alice Ueland entertained with an attractive supper Sunday evening at the Ueland home. Twelve intimate friends were bidden for the affair.

Picnic Is Given as Adieu to Club Member

Mrs. Georgia Stewart entertained the New Idea Club on Wednesday afternoon, asking the members for a farewell picnic honoring Mrs. T. P. Byram, who is leaving Roseburg to make her home in Los Angeles. A picture, a souvenir booklet and a shawl of handkerchiefs were presented to Mrs. Byram in a most unique manner.

Enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Stewart were the Mesdames J. M. Curtis, E. C. Marks, T. P. Byram, R. H. Williams, V. R. Buckingham, P. C. Calkins, G. J. Jones, Elmira Smith, E. P. Ballou, F. D. Owen, S. S. Mabey, E. Weber, Elvora Fisher, P. A. Clemens, and the Misses Hazel Marks, Ethel Marks, Harshorn, Byram, Mabey, and Calkins.

Mrs. Stewart was assisted by her grandsons, Gordon and Kenneth Stewart.

The New Idea Club will have an informal meeting July 11 at the home of Mrs. G. E. Marks.

An attractive visitor here for the summer is Mrs. B. H. McNamee, who with her young son, Ben, Jr., arrived from Los Angeles Wednesday to visit with her sister, Mrs. J. R. Wharton. Mrs. McNamee will be remembered by many here on previous visits.

Friends Entertain for Visitors

Mrs. Arthur Knauss, who with her two children, Elizabeth Maria and Arthur, Jr., has been here for the past two days visiting friends, returned to Portland Friday afternoon.

Several charming and interesting affairs have been arranged to honor Mrs. Knauss during her visit here. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Whipple were dinner hosts for the visitor.

Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sharp entertained at a picnic at which Mrs. Knauss and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Webb, her uncle and aunt, who have been visitors here from Springfield, Mo., shared honors. Mr. and Mrs. Webb have been guests at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Isabel Webb, and leave today for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Requa Leave for Idaho

Friends regret the departure of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Requa, who have made Roseburg their home the past year and who leave today by auto for Twin Falls, Idaho, to reside. Mr. Requa has been a member of the Senior high school faculty the past winter, instructing in agriculture, and is taking over active management of a large ranch at Twin Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Requa will be accompanied as far as Boise, Idaho, by Mrs. H. G. Philpott and her son, Junior. They will visit there for a month with Mrs. Philpott's parents.

Dr. Flora Houck Coming From Boston to Visit

Her Roseburg friends are anticipating the arrival from Boston of Dr. Flora Campbell Houck, wife of Dr. George H. Houck, who will visit in Eugene with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dugald Campbell, and later will be here for a visit with Dr. and Mrs. George E. Houck, parents of her husband. Mrs. Houck has completed her internship in a children's hospital in Boston and will leave for this country about the first of July. Dr. Houck is at the Peter Bent Brigham hospital and will have finished his internship next fall. Dr. Campbell, brother of Mrs. Houck, has returned to Oregon to visit his parents and is now in Eugene. He has been teaching in the department of geology of the University of Louisiana. Mr. Campbell will be at Harvard University as an assistant at assistant and instructor in geology the next season.

Montana Folk Are Entertained at Affair

For the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ueland and Mrs. Julia Ueland before their departure Friday for Outlook, Montana, Miss Boss Wharton entertained with an informal affair at her home Wednesday evening.

Club Party Is an Attractive Event of June 22

The Roseburg Woman's Club house on South Jackson street was the scene of a gathering of the members of the Business and Professional Women's Club at a bridge party on the evening of June 22. Summer flowers were used in decoration.

One new member has been admitted to the club recently, Mrs. Edith Faibe, who served as convention chairman at the state meeting here in May, was presented with an emblein pin by the club.

Routine business took up the earlier part of the evening and letters were read from Lena Madesson Phillips, national president, and from various state officers. State reports were heard and the club officers and committee chairmen gave their reports, summarizing the year's work.

The nominating committee announced the following names for new officers: Mae Pyron, president; Katherine Kony, vice-president; Edith Gilmore, secretary; Laura Lee, treasurer; Mae Baldwin, sergeant-at-arms.

It was announced that Mrs. L. B. Skinner has invited the club to her home in Winston for a gathering sometime in the near future. New officers will be installed at the next meeting of the club this summer and committees will be appointed soon to take care of installation.

Among some of the affairs planned by the club for this summer is a picnic with the coast club. A committee will be named by the president to arrange for details.

During the evening tables for cards, numbering 5, were arranged, and at the close refreshments were served. The club has voted to send greeting cards to Miss Helen Casey, who sailed last week for abroad, during her travels.

Mrs. Ballou Asks Club Ladies for Informal Afternoon

On the afternoon of June 21 Mrs. E. P. Ballou entertained informally for the ladies of the Northside Sunshine Club at her home. Business was followed by an afternoon of sewing and at the tea hour covers were placed at one large table covered with a low bowl of summer flowers for the guests.

Mrs. F. D. Owen was a guest of the club and the members spending the afternoon were the Mesdames Fred Bowen, Ed. Marsters, Geo. Marsters, Elsie McComas, Virgil Bush, S. Durland, Donald Young, Clair Pettit, L. L. Marsters, N. R. Fisher, Wm. Fisher and the hostess.

Club Women Met for Program and Shower Honoring Member

A large number of members of the Teamle Community Circle met at the home of Mrs. Annie Condit the week and a short program and shower was given honoring Mrs. V. Hahn. Many lovely gifts were received by the honor guest, Mrs. Beatrice Hahn, was a club visitor from Los Angeles.

Mrs. Wharton and Daughter Arrive Home

Miss Florence Wharton, for the past season in Honolulu, in company with her mother, Mrs. Charles W. Wharton, arrived here the first of the week from Seattle. Mrs. Wharton has been instructor of physical education in the elementary grades of the Honolulu schools and is home for the summer vacation, joining Mrs. Wharton at Seattle last week. She will be at the Wharton home on Chadwick street for several weeks.

Mrs. Reetz Is Hostess to Neighborhood Club

The Clatsop Valley Neighborhood club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. G. Reetz. After a very interesting business meeting luncheon was served to the members and several guests. Members present were Mrs. Mabel Wokott, Mrs. Vera Standley, Mrs. Junner Huntley, Mrs. Evelyn Rossell, Mrs. Alice Brown, Mrs. Edith Brown, Mrs. S. J. Jones, Mrs. Winnie Brown, Mrs. Lucy Dick, Mrs. Ruth Lawson, Mrs. Audrey Smith, Mrs. Mary Smith and the hostess, Mrs. Edna Reetz.

Lines from Alden Harness

One day I saw this pretty stanza in a scrap book:
"When fear would close your mind and heart
To hark truths that you discern,
Till peace and freedom would depart."
And now, how many return:
When fear would keep you to the club
And bid your aspiration wane,
Just know you are the child of God,
Secure and safe in his domain."
Upon being told that the lines were from Alden Harness' poem, "Victory Over Fear," which appears in "Poems for Mental Workers," I found further and found this specimen in rhyme:
"Work upward to the truth till you receive and radiate
The thoughts that from the heart of God forever emanate."
In the poem entitled "Harmony," written by Mr. Harness' Roseburg student these lines:
"Able in holy harmony and peace"

Chic Shoulders Undergoing a Broadening Influence

Ruffled Collars and Flaring Skirts Are Making Waists Look Slimmer

By BETSY SCHUYLER
(NEA Service Writer)

NEW YORK, June 29.—Smart, conservative women's ideas are getting broader all the time—when it comes to the shoulder treatment for their costumes, that is.

It occurred to me last week, noting the very broad-shouldered effect of one corsette frock with a double berth, that this is just one way of achieving a very slender waist appearance. Maybe we are all working back to the mid-Victorian effect, where the feminine waist looked as if it could be spanned by a couple of hands, whether it could or not.

Capes, berths, ruffled collars and drop yokes and all kinds of wide fur are in use on summer things. Quite a divergence, really, from those sleek, poured-in and moulded slender lines of last season.

Slenderizing Effect

Of course some of the fair debts just can't look broad shouldered. Take June Hess, I saw her inching in a printed frock of tiny white and pink flowers on a dark brown background. But the pleated collar that rippled over her shoulders did tend to broaden them. The skirt had five little pleated ruffles to flare the frock out and heighten the effect of the slender waistline.

There's a vogue in vivid sports coats right now that is pleasingly stimulating. Mrs. George U. Harris has a homogenous coat of blazing yellow and red figures on a cream background. Dapper collars it. The sleeves flare to a very wide cuff. It is three-quarter length and looks tremendously smart topped by a small orange straw turban.

I have called attention to feminine grace of white silk pique before. But to fully appreciate it, one should see Alice Kenney's tunic overblouse of it with a pleated ruffle finishing the V neck and a double ruffle flaring below the natural waistline. She wears it with a navy blue tulle with three-quarters coat collared in soft grey summer fur.

Kerchief jewelry is new and quite in keeping with this summer that subdues the nonchalance of last season's sports things. Mrs. A. P. Messmore wore a little silver yacht placed amidst below the knot of the polka-dotted kerchief she wore as a collar to a light blue cardigan suit of flannel.

The use of the bow-knot, or "love-knot," as some just must call it, is running riot in all kinds of accessories and decoration. Bernice Chrysler has one worked out in dark brown on the tan upper to a three piece brown ensemble. With it she wears acid love-knots for bracelets and as a tiny ornament for a stunning brown pica straw hat with medium brim.

Brown progresses in smartness until I would wager the smartest of women each will have at least one formal brown gown for next winter. Genevieve Fox was the cynosure of all eyes on the Ritz roof recently, dancing in a beautiful and unusual gown of cinnamon and brown tulle, with each tier finished in cream lace, with a moulded bodice finished with a square neck of lace.

White linen collars and cuffs and even separate vests of fine and even separate vests of fine hand-worked lincens are quite the vogue—making me wonder again if we are not enroute to days of elaborate details of dressing reminiscent of the mid-Victorian days. Mrs. Sidney Whalen has a lovely set of collar and cuffs of hand-worked linen on a medium blue sports suit. Mrs. S. Bryce Wing is another woman with chic who knows just how effective and feminine lingerie touches are to tallored costumes.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Booth Will Visit in Southland and Attend Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Harrie W. Booth left Thursday on an extended trip to southern states and the east and will be away for a month, going to Miami, where Mr. Booth will attend a national convention as a delegate from Roseburg. They are stopping enroute in Pasadena, there to visit with Miss Faye Geidies, sister of Mrs. Booth, and in Los Angeles and San Diego. In the latter city Mr. and Mrs. Booth will be guests of the latter's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Geidies. From California they will go to New Orleans and Jacksonville, Florida, thence to Miami for the convention July 9 to 11. Following that meeting Mr. and Mrs. Booth will visit in Washington, D. C., New York City and Philadelphia. Enroute home they will visit Chicago, and will travel through Canada and over the Canadian Rockies.

Miss Casey and Two Friends Sailed for Europe June 23

Miss Helen Casey, Roseburg maid, with Miss Emma Stephenson of California and Miss Marian Taylor of Washington, D. C., two society sisters, sailed last Saturday from New York City for Europe and the party of three will be abroad during the summer.

Miss Stephenson will spend the year in Paris as a librarian at the American Library. During her absence her friends from Roseburg are sending showers of greeting cards to Miss Casey.

In New York City Miss Casey met and enjoyed a visit with one of her former students, Hall Seely, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Seely of this city, who also sailed recently with the Yale University Glee Club which will appear in a series of concerts on the continent this summer.

Miss Hair to Represent Oregon Business Women at National Meeting

The Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs will be represented at the national convention by Miss Mary Hair, for the past year state president and again elected to that office for 1928-29 at the convention held in Roseburg this spring.

Miss Hair is to leave Sunday morning for New Orleans and will be joined by other state officers and one or two club presidents. This delegation will join California groups at Oakland and Los Angeles.

entire mixture until smooth. Then fold in the egg whites. Divide into thirds. Color one red, one blue and leave the other white.

Butter cake pans and dust with flour. Then use Checkerboard Cake pan. After the batter is in the pan lift cake up and take out of batter before baking. Place in about 35 minutes. Put together with any desired filling.

Baked Stuffed Tomatoes
Firm ripe tomatoes
1 cup boiled rice
1 tablespoon onion juice
Salt, pepper and butter
2 cups boiled chicken
1 tablespoon celery
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
Use one tomato for each person, scoop out the seeds and part of the pulp. Sprinkle the inside of the tomatoes with salt and pepper. Fill with the other ingredients, well mixed. Chop the cold-boiled chicken into bits, also chop the celery and parsley. If blood the onion can be omitted. Place the butter before adding. Place the top slice on the tomatoes, bake in a bake pan with a little butter, and bake until the tomatoes are tender.

Independence Day Crackers
To one can of salmon, drained and flaked, add six soda crackers, rolled fine, one tablespoonful of melted butter, three eggs, and sufficient sweet milk to make a mixture of the proper consistency to mold. Season to taste, shape like cannon crackers, and fry in deep fat after rolling them in egg and cracker crumbs. Just before serving insert a fuse of radish or celery in the upper end of each "cracker" and send to the table garnished with heart leaves of lettuce and quarters of lemon.
