BALL SCORES IN MAJOR LEAGUES

While the Yanks led their closest rivals in the American league by 13½ games and the Cards are ahead in the National by three and a half games, most of the other clubs are battling desperately for positions as close to the leaders as can be secured. The standings from second place down show one or more shifts almost daily and threaten to continue to do so until the final curtain is rung down.

In the American league, only 121 games separate Detroit in last place from Philadelphia in second. In the National, the Giants, in runner-up position, lead the Pittsburgh Pirates in sixth by eight and a half games.

The Yanks yesterday removed what doubt, if any, remained as to their ability to beat the Athletics just about as often as they want to. Both ends of a double header went to the champions, 12 to 6 and 8 to 4. Lou Gehrig hit two home runs in the first game, his 17th and 18th of the season, and Tony Lazzeri duplicated the feat in the nightcap.

The St. Louis Browns failed to take advantage of this double reverse for the Athletics for they permitted Detroit to score five runs in the eighth and a 7-4 triumph at Detroit. The standing shows the Browns only two and a half games back of the A's.

George Burns' homer with two on in the sixth gave Cleveland the verdict over the Chicago White Sox, 5 to 2. The Indians announced the unconditional release of Garland Buckeye, mammoth right hander, who has failed to round into form this season.

Boston moved to within a single game of the fourth place Indians by taking Washington into camp twice, 2 to 1 and 7 to 1.

The National league program saw the Cards end all square after a double header with Donie Bush's Corsairs of Pittsburgh. Fred Fussell blanked the Cards in the first game 2 to 0. The Cards made four errors and were outthrew 12-11 in the second. They pulled it out of the fire, 8 to 6, chiefly because home runs by Frisch and Bottomley and five doubles were in their hit column.

Eppa Rixey pitched the Cincinnati Reds back into third place with a 4 to 1 triumph over the Chicago Cubs.

Brooklyn dropped into fourth place two points ahead of the Cubs, when the Braves pounded Clark, Moss and McWeeny for 14 hits and nosed out the Robins, 8 to 7.

OVERTURNING BOAT DROWNS 3 PERSONS

(Associated Press League Wire)
SEATTLE, July 2.—A Seattle attorney, a young woman of Portland, Ore., and a man of Centralia, Wash., were drowned last night in Lake Washington when a motorboat in which they were cruising capsized.

The dead were Edward Conyns, Seattle attorney; Miss Victoria Lewis, 24, a stenographer of Portland, and Charles Shoemaker, 23, of Centralia.

Firemen worked for several hours over Miss Lewis' body in a vain attempt to restore life. The bodies of Conyns and Shoemaker had been recovered at a late hour.

Mrs. Shoemaker and Lee S. MacDonald, caretaker of Conyns' home on Mercer Island, who were in the boat, managed to clamber on top of the overturned boat and were saved. Miss Lewis' body was discovered caught on the propeller when a launch started towing the capsized craft to shore.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—Lester S. Bray, 44, of San Francisco, was killed, and Mrs. Bray and the couple's 9 year old daughter were injured, as were four other persons, in a three-cornered automobile accident here last night.

Police said a machine driven by Mario Rossi, of South San Francisco, struck Bray's car, and then crashed into one driven by Harry McSally, of San Francisco. Rossi was also injured, and hospital physicians said he was under the influence of liquor. A police guard was set to watch him in the hospital.

Alta Nell, aged 9 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Niel of Reedport lies at the point of death at Kalama, Washington, suffering from terrible burns, says the Port Umpqua Courier. She received them when her clothes caught from a campfire. The little girl was drying the dishes and her screams attracted the attention of parents. Before they could be of help, however, she received terrible burns on her body, arms and legs.

Notice of the accident was sent to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox, grandparents of the little girl.

The Niel family left Reedport during the past month for an extensive trip to different parts of the Pacific Northwest and were spending the holiday at a camp near Kalama, Washington.
