They called her a soulless "gold-digger" but—

Do you remember the sensational breach of promise suit, a few years ago, by a humble flower-girl against her young millionaire lover and his wealthy mother? At the trial many ugly charges were hurled at the girl. She was called a "gold-digger," a blackmailer; a shameless creature who loved only money and the luxury money could buy.

But when, in a voice broken by sobs, she told her pitiful story, men hardened to sorrow wiped their eyes furtively—women in the court-room wept aloud.

Then came that dramatic and unlooked-for conclusion. An unexpected witness was called to the stand—and in ten words hurled into the tense silence of the crowded court-room a bombshell that reverberated to the ends of the earth.

Most people were stunned by the unexpected outcome of the trial. Even today few suspect the true history of events behind that tremendous drama of intrigue, suffering and deathless love.

But now the entire story has been told by the girl who was the central figure in that amazing drama. Told in words that will bring tears to your eyes—tears of joy, of sorrow, of understanding and sympathy.

NEW POSTAL RATES ON LIBRARY BOOKS NOW EFFECTIVE

Beginning July 1st, books sent from and returned to free public libraries receive a greatly decreased rate provided in a bill recently passed by congress, and amended through the efforts of the Oregon State Library and the Oregon senators, following the Library's protest against a proposed increase. The new rate omits altogether the former service charge of two cents per package reduces the cost of the initial pound from five and six cents to a flat rate of three cents, throughout the state. All additional pounds in the third zone will cost one cent instead of two cents each. The state thus becomes one zone for library books, which receive a preferential rate.

The state library in 1927 sent out to its patrons 23,631 packages of books. The initial saving on these, regardless of zone and weight, would be $1,150, which will accrue to the benefit of the country patrons of the library, as they refund the postage charges when the books are returned. The state library estimates a saving of from $3,000 to $3,500 a year to its patrons, and a great increase in the mail order use of state, county and city libraries. Senator Steiwer gave this bill special attention in response to the requests of the trustees of Oregon state and county libraries.

NOTED SAVANT IS VERY ILL AT 75

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

CHICAGO, July 5.—Professor Albert A. Michelson of the University of Chicago, whose accomplishments in the measurement of light speed have given him an international reputation, has been seriously ill for a fortnight, it was learned today.

Prof. Michelson, who is 75 years old, collapsed while playing chess. He was taken to a hospital where he was found to be suffering with anaemia and stomach trouble. Physicians last night said his condition was much improved and that if he continued to gain strength he would soon be able to leave the hospital.

Despite his years, Prof. Michelson has maintained an active interest in athletics. His prowess on a tennis court has been repeatedly demonstrated by his victories over much younger men.

NORTHWEST BANK DOES NOT ASK SUIT DISMISAL

(Associated Press Leased Wire)

PORTLAND, July 3.—A motion to dismiss the suit brought by two stockholders against the directors of the now defunct Northwestern National bank, was not forthcoming today as the trial entered its twelfth day. It had been predicted generally that such a motion would be filed by the defense at the end of presentation of the plaintiff's case.

Throughout the testimony presented by plaintiff's attorneys, the defense predicted an early disposition of the suit, but a change in plans has led to the preparation of the full defense.

The suit, brought by Charles A. Burckhardt and Fred A. Ballin, is for $58,000, alleged lost by them through the carelessness and mismanagement of the directors of the Northwestern National bank.
