

Ask Your Dealer For

Mel-O-Maid

Butter and Ice Cream

Richer and Better

Look for the Mel-O-Maid Signs

Made by

Douglas County Creamery

Phone 340

LOCAL NEWS

Yoncalla Visitor—O. K. McCurtain, resident of Yoncalla, was a visitor in this city Thursday to look after business affairs and visit friends.

Left for South—Following a brief business visit in this city, J. Prag of Portland yesterday afternoon left for the southern part of Oregon.

Brockway Man In—Mr. W. Brown was here from Brockway looking after business interests and visiting with friends during yesterday afternoon.

Home From Cottage Grove—Mrs. A. B. Greenland and Mrs. A. C. Kidd returned to Roseburg Thursday afternoon following a visit with friends in Cottage Grove.

Glendale Lady Visits—Mrs. Harvey Smith of Glendale, who has been visiting at the home of her mother near Myrtle Creek, was a visitor in this city yesterday.

Is Guest at Auto Park—Carl H. Lindberg, California resident, was at the Roseburg auto park yesterday evening on his way home. He has visited friends at Olalla.

Returning From Canada Trip—Guests at the Roseburg auto park last night were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Eagle and parents, who are returning to their home at Jasper, Cal., from a trip to Canada.

Seattle People Stop Here—Alexander and Mrs. R. P. Maxwell, of Seattle, were in Roseburg last evening on their way home from a visit in Eugene, Cal.

Iowa Folk To Visit Seattle—Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Withee, and Miss Viola Wright, of Sioux City, Iowa, were visitors at the Roseburg auto camp last night on their way to Seattle and return.

Will Locate in Los Angeles—Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Dave and family, of Adelade, Wash., spent yesterday evening at the local auto park. They are going to Los Angeles where they will locate.

Visited at Noyes Home—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seigrist, San Diego, California, people, stopped here yesterday for a visit at the C. E. Noyes home. The Californians are touring northern points.

Spending Few Days—Mrs. D. J. Reardon of Klamath Agency, a visitor at Glendale this summer, is spending a few days in this city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Casebeer, on South Stephens street.

Former Resident to Visit—Harry Lewis, former resident of this city now making his home in Medford, is to arrive Saturday from the southern part of the state for a visit over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole at Tillam.

To Take Crater Lake Trip—Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Prendergast, Alameda, Calif., residents, were in the city overnight. They are on a two weeks' vacation trip and have just visited Portland. Before returning home they will go to Crater Lake for three or four days.

Ness Friends Visit—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Easton and family, of San Anselmo, Cal., were visitors in Roseburg yesterday. They are old friends of the Ness family of this city, but have not seen them for 17 years. From here they will go to British Columbia.

Back From North Umpqua—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole returned from the North Umpqua country yesterday afternoon following a vacation in that district. They are returning this afternoon to their ranch above Tillam. Mrs. Poole is a daughter of Jan. Hutchings of this city.

Walnut Growers Visit—W. H. Bentley of Dundee, manager of the Oregon Walnut Growers' association, and E. B. Edes of Lebanon, manager of the Walnut growers' plants at that place, came to this city and in company with J. C. Leedy, county agricultural agent, yesterday afternoon visited growers and orchards in Roseburg and vicinity.

Ex-Resident in New Business—A. T. Lawrence, former real estate man of this city who went to Pasadena about a year ago, has purchased a large filling station in that city and is now operating that business. He is enjoying a fine patronage there and it is understood, from word received here, that he has doubled the business.

Will Go On To Marshfield—Mr. N. E. Swainson and mother, of Long Beach, Cal., were guests at the Roseburg auto park last night on the return from a trip as far east as Illinois. Today they went to Marshfield to visit their brother and son, O. W. Swainson, who is captain of the ship Pioneer of the coast geodetic survey. They may return to Roseburg today before continuing their journey to Long Beach.

Engineer and Agent on Trip—F. E. Price, rural engineer from the O. S. C. extension service, arrived this morning from Corvallis and in company with J. C. Leedy, county agricultural agent, goes this afternoon to the northern part of the county. The two will visit Drain, Elkton, and then go to Smith River, being on a crops tour. They will visit a number of farms and hold conferences with people individually in regard to crops.

Merchant Visitor Here—Charles Rowell, owner of the Tennille store, was in this city Thursday attending to business affairs and trading.

Attending Nurserymen's Meeting—C. E. Noyes of this city has gone to Seattle where this week he is attending the Pacific coast Nurserymen's convention.

On Business Trip—Walter Leake left yesterday afternoon for Seattle where he will be looking after business affairs for the next five days or so.

California Men Visit—Frank Simons of Eureka, Cal., and Jack Traylor of Oakland, Cal., stopped overnight at the local auto camp enroute to Seattle.

Judge Hamilton in Portland—Hon. J. W. Hamilton, circuit court judge, went to Portland yesterday afternoon to spend a few days looking after business affairs.

Are Taking Long Vacation—Mr. A. Muthaupt, Bellingham, Wash., butcher, accompanied by his son, were overnight guests of the local auto camp on their return trip from southern wanderings which began April 1.

Pasadena Residents Here—Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Taylor, who reside in Pasadena, stopped over in Roseburg last night. They are on a summer vacation trip up north. Mr. Taylor is an optometrist.

Stop Overnight at Park—Mr. and Mrs. O. Butler, returning to their home in Los Angeles from a trip to Portland, were guests at the local auto park overnight. Mr. Butler is stock manager of the Western Lithograph company in Los Angeles.

Will Locate in Seaside—Fred Rogers, former Ventura, Calif., resident, accompanied by his cousin, passed the night at the Roseburg auto camp. He is on his way to Seaside to locate. He will join Mrs. Rogers and his daughter there.

Returning to Wenatchee—Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kenzibach and children of Wenatchee, Wash., were guests of the Roseburg auto park last night on their return journey from Stockton. Mr. Kenzibach is in the flour milling business.

Will Visit in Northwest—Mrs. F. L. Seeger, nee Reid, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. W. J. Hayden of Oakland, were in Roseburg overnight on their way to Vancouver. During their journey they will visit friends at Eugene, Albany and Portland.

Visiting at Coast—Mrs. Horace Campbell of this city and her daughter, Mrs. George Neuner of Portland, the latter's two children and little Patricia Leake, are spending a week or so at Bandon beach, where they have taken a cottage.

Are in Roseburg Overnight—R. L. Averill, Bellingham, Wash., jeweler, accompanied by his wife and Ella L. Cole and Eva L. Cole, stopped at the Roseburg auto park last night on their way home from Los Angeles. Their trip has taken them about 30 days.

Ex-Resident Visits—Gilbert Gilbertson, formerly of this city and Glendale, now a resident of Bunkin, near Coos Bay, was in Roseburg today on his way home from Portland. His eye-sight, which he almost lost a short time ago, has greatly improved following the removal of a cataract at Portland and the use of specially made glasses.

Saw Roseburg 55 Years Ago—D. M. Kerby, with his family, and brother J. E. Cronin, all of McMinnville, were in the city yesterday enroute to Yreka, Calif. Mr. Kerby is one of the prominent sheep raisers in the McMinnville section. Mr. Cronin said that his family traveled through Roseburg by wagon from Yreka, Calif., over 55 years ago, and that the roads then were not so good as the present ones. The journey at that time took them two weeks and was far from comfortable.

L. A. People Visit Kin—Mr. and Mrs. H. U. Nolan arrived yesterday by motor from their home in Los Angeles to visit in Roseburg with Mrs. Nolan's sister, Mrs. Carl Lundeen. Oregon is their former home and they may dispose of their Los Angeles property to return to this state to live. They experienced a pleasant trip to this city but found it quite warm south, it being 105 degrees in Redding the day they visited there. Mr. and Mrs. Nolan will visit in Portland after a stay in this city.

MONEY CAN'T BUY A BETTER OIL than THE NEW ZEROLENE

1928 Super-Lubrication A STANDARD OIL PRODUCT

Herbert Byers Visits—Herbert Byers of Canyonville spent the morning in this city visiting friends and attending to business affairs.

To Visit at La Grande—John Hazelton of the Soldiers' Home left here yesterday afternoon for LaGrande, where he plans to visit for some time.

Cleveland Man In—George Reynolds, resident of Cleveland, was a visitor in this city Thursday afternoon to look after business interests.

Visitor Yesterday—C. Tavender, resident of Melrose, was in this city for a few hours Thursday looking after business matters and visiting.

From Portland Office—J. P. Jensen, from the Portland office of the Corvallis Creamery company, was here yesterday on business and this morning left for Medford.

Expected Home Saturday—Mrs. Geo. J. Bacher and two children, Helen and George, have been spending the past fortnight in Portland visiting with friends and are expected home at the end of the week.

To Return Sunday—Mrs. Harry Burr and daughter, Patricia June, who have been visiting Mrs. Burr's relatives at Boise, Idaho, are expected to return to their home in this city Sunday.

Mrs. Crittser Home—Mrs. T. J. Crittser returned to her home in this city yesterday afternoon from Red Bluff, Calif., where for the past few weeks she has been enjoying a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Cobb.

Kansas People Here—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Quirk and son, George, of Wichita, Kansas, are here for a visit with A. M. Wiswell, night clerk at the Grand Hotel. The visitors have been touring the Pacific coast and just arrived from Los Angeles.

Operates Service Station—A. T. Lawrence, formerly engaged in the real estate business in this city is now operating a service station at Pasadena, to which place he moved several months ago. Reports are that he is doing a very excellent business.

On Business Trip Salem—Dert G. Bates left last night for Salem where he will spend a few days attending to business matters. He is preparing to leave in the near future on a trip up the North Umpqua river in company with James Goodman of Salem and motion picture cameramen, for the purpose of securing a movie travelogue of that scenic district.

Resident Meets Kin—A. N. Rapp, merchant of Ellensburg, N. Y., and uncle of Mrs. Metta Brown of this city, passed through Roseburg yesterday on a pleasure trip around the country. He was one of a party of sixteen which included Mrs. Rapp and fellow townspeople. All were greatly pleased with what they saw of Oregon. It was the first time Mrs. Brown had seen her uncle since childhood.

Miss Baker and Party Visit—Miss Lucille Baker, teacher the past winter at the Benson school, stopped over here this morning to visit friends on her way to Portland from San Francisco, where she has been spending some time. She met her sister and husband, who arrived in the bay city from Honolulu, and they are accompanying Miss Baker home to Portland for the summer.

Marshfield Man in City—Harry McKewon, former proprietor of the Chandler hotel, is a visitor here today from Marshfield and is looking up old friends, while in the city. Mrs. Grace Cross, sister-in-law of Louis Simpson, who is owner of Shore Acres at D. M. Kerby, and of which family Mr. McKewon is a close friend, is to arrive here this afternoon from San Francisco on her way to the coast. Mrs. Cross also has a number of friends here.

Former Resident Hurt—Frank Denning, a former resident of Looking Glass, was burned about the face at Marshfield yesterday, according to word from that city where he is employed as steward of the Elks' club. He opened the door of the furnace, causing a small explosion, which hurled him back against the concrete wall. The flames singed his hair and burned his face, but his eyes were protected by his glasses so that his eyesight was not injured.

Petaluma Editor and Party Visit—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Newburg and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Carpenter of Petaluma, California, stopped over here today to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Jones. Mr. Newburg is city editor of the Argus, published at Petaluma. The party has been touring Oregon, making the trip to Crater Lake, the McKenzie highway and Columbia highway trips. They are enthusiastic in their praise of Oregon scenery and climate. Mr. Newburg remarking that it is the prettiest he has ever seen.

Californians Injured—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. North of Whittier, Calif., motoring to Salem, Oregon, met with an accident this morning on the highway approaching the city limits to the south. A car directly ahead of their machine swung to the left of the roadside, Mr. North's car crashing into the rear of the automobile. Mrs. North was thrown against the windshield, breaking the glass and receiving a severe gash on the left side of her face and other injuries to her head. Mr. North was only slightly cut about the face by the shattered glass.

CASH AND CARRY STONE'S MODERN FOOD STORES

CHAIN STORES

311 WEST CASS 225 N. Jackson

Saturday Sales Items

PURE CANE, CLOTH BAG

Sugar, 10 lbs. - 67c

Produce Items

Lemons doz.	35c	Apples For sauce or pies, 5 lbs.	15c
String Beans Fresh and tender, 3 lbs.	29c	Bananas 3 lbs.	25c

Study the Following

Soap Crystal white, 10 bars	39c	Milk Carnation, tall tins, 3 cans	28c
Washing Pdr. Peet's granulated, 2 pkgs.	68c	Noodles Chinese Red Diamond, 3 pkgs.	25c
Jar Rings Red rubber, double lip, 4 doz.	25c	Rice Flakes Heinz's, 2 pkgs.	23c
Peanut Butter In bulk, 2 lbs.	39c	Salad Oil Bulk, bring container; qt 35c; gal	1.35

Coffee Stone's Supreme, lb. 49c; 3 lbs. 1.45

CRISCO COUPONS
Bring your Crisco coupon to Stone's. Redeemable on any size can desired.

Smoked Meats

Bacon Special, medium weight, dry cure, lb.	30c	Picnics Hockless, lb.	25c
Cottages "Lots of lean," lb.	30c	Hams First Grade, lb.	33c
Salt Side lb.	25c

TWO STORES FOR YOUR CONVENIENCE

Then you come back to a truly enriching shortening

Try This Tested Recipe

Quick Cake

1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 cup melted Wild Rose Lard
1 1/2 cups brown sugar
1/2 cup eggs
1/2 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 cup dates cut in pieces
1/2 cup walnuts

Place all the ingredients in a bowl and beat together for 4 minutes. Bake in a greased pan 25 to 40 minutes. This may be baked in muffin pans. Directions must be followed carefully to make cake successfully.

Most home cooks nowadays are tempted to try the many imitation shortenings—Go back to the old-fashioned way, use WILD ROSE BRAND PURE LARD—you'll notice immediately its greater richness and better flavor in all cake making. Made fresh daily, this ideal natural shortening has fully 20% more shortening properties than substitutes or imitations, which are sold at much higher prices.

Made by Fry's & Co., Seattle, Under U. S. Govt. Inspection. Sold by leading dealers.

Wild Rose pure Lard fresh

A Perfect Shortening for Every Purpose

Home From Coast—Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Burch and Verne Shrum returned here last night following a brief trip to Gold Beach, where Mr. Burch and Mr. Shrum were attending to business affairs.

Returned From Portland—C. W. Parker, proprietor of the Roseburg garage, is home following a trip to Portland where he spent several days on business. Mr. Parker had planned to take the trip from Portland to Seattle on the West Coast planes, but reservations had been taken for more than a week ahead.

Visiting at Brockley Home—Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sanders of Yreka, California, are here for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brockley. Mr. Sanders is a brother of Mrs. Brockley.

New Sign Installed—A new Neon sign has been installed at the Richfield station on Rose and Oak streets through Roy Hubham, who has the local agency. The sign is one of the larger types with the world's best in colors. It has been placed in front of the station facing the two streets where it attracts a great deal of attention.

Wounded Pigeon Found—A wounded carrier pigeon fell last evening in front of the home of Mrs. Pearl James at 243 Sheridan street and is being cared for by the family until its owner can be found. The pigeon carries a registered number, 27, Seattle, 186 on one leg and the numbers 212 and 215. The pigeon apparently had struck a wire as it fell exhausted and had a wound in its breast and one eye was swollen shut. Although it would not eat last night it was coaxed to drink water this morning. It is carrying two mailed messages.

Home From Convention—S. J. Jones, who has been visiting with friends in Eugene and attending the Baptist convention there this week, is home.

From Willbur—Mrs. Peter Thornton, resident of Willbur, was here for a few hours yesterday shopping and transacting business.

Visiting at Brockley Home—Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sanders of Yreka, California, are here for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brockley. Mr. Sanders is a brother of Mrs. Brockley.

Visitors Returned Home—Mrs. Ginn and daughter, guests for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chet Paden, have returned to Medford.

Barbours Home From Portland—Mr. and Mrs. George Barbours with their children returned to Portland, where they spent a few days visiting and on business.

Accepts Position at Grand—Ross Bates, who is spending his school vacation with his parents in this city, has accepted a position at the Hotel Grand for the summer period.

Wounded Pigeon Found—A wounded carrier pigeon fell last evening in front of the home of Mrs. Pearl James at 243 Sheridan street and is being cared for by the family until its owner can be found. The pigeon carries a registered number, 27, Seattle, 186 on one leg and the numbers 212 and 215. The pigeon apparently had struck a wire as it fell exhausted and had a wound in its breast and one eye was swollen shut. Although it would not eat last night it was coaxed to drink water this morning. It is carrying two mailed messages.

LAST TIME Today

It's the one laugh hit so far this year.

Karl Dane and Geo. K. Arthur in "Baby Mine"

TOMORROW ONE DAY ONLY

Buck Jones in "Blood Will Tell"

A thrilling romance of laws and outlaws.

Coming Sunday SYD CHAPLIN in THE FORTUNE HUNTER

Antlers

General Merchandise FOR CASH ONLY

From Now to July 21

RIVERSIDE STORE

1 mile north of Roseburg
GEO. M. DENTON, PROP.

Golden West and Del Monte Coffee, lb.	53c
Royal Club Yellow Cling Peaches, No. 2 1/2 can	23c
Royal Club Spinach, No. 2 1/2 can	15c
Ball Mason Jars, 2 qt. size, complete, doz.	$1.05
Ball Mason Jars, qt. size, complete, doz.	90c
Ball Ideal Glass top qts., complete, doz.	$1.00
Men's Straw Hats	20% off
Men's Leather Gloves, buck and horsehide 20% off
Ladies Black Silk Hose, $2.00 value	$1.50
5 gal. Oil Cans with pump, $2.50 value	$2.05
1 gal. Oil Cans, 45c value	35c
Fisher's Blend Flour	$2.20