We would like to see the former members and friends of the work here, present on this date. Put the date on your calendar and plan to come. ROSEBURG MARKET OFFERINGS BOON TO HOUSEWIVES

Roseburg housewives and buyers from out of town points who visit the city tomorrow and first of next week to lay in supplies, will find the local markets full of a choice variety of fruits and vegetables, besides wide selections in all fancy and staple groceries. In today's issue of the News-Review, as is usual every Friday, leading groceries and markets are advertising special prices for Saturday. In some instances these prices hold good over Monday, and housewives from all over the county find it profitable to scan these lists. Even if they do not buy their groceries on these bargain days, they get a good understanding of what supplies are worth. However, these advertisements, and the advertising of some local food supply concerns that run daily, are closely read, and dealers make every preparation to meet the demand that always results from setting their goods and prices squarely before the buying public.

For Saturday the lists are up to the standard of completeness, and dealers are offering the best of food supplies at saving prices. While it is impossible to list every item of food, buyers, by consulting announcements, will find lots of suggestions that will help materially in keeping up on home economies. The markets include the best of meats, and in the fresh vegetable line local sweet corn, tomatoes, cabbage, cucumbers, potatoes, beans, peas, onions, string beans, lettuce, carrots, celery, radishes, green peppers, squash, etc. In fresh fruits the local grown strawberries, blackberries, raspberries, apples, peaches, plums and apricots tempt the buyer. Then there is the usual array of bananas, oranges, grapes, etc., from the southern growers. Besides all these fresh delicacies the grocerians are ready to supply all staples at low figures. Roseburg and Douglas county people need not go hungry over Sunday if they will consult the advertising columns of today's issue.
