

WOMEN'S PAGE

SOCIETY

BY GRACE CARROLL

All Contributions to this Page—Society, Women's Clubs, and Personal—Should Be Telephoned to the Society Editor by Friday of Each Week.

The noticeably quiet season of the year in social channels is at hand and except for the more informal affairs—brunching, house parties and interesting visitors, who continue to come and go, the calendar is almost void of entertainment. Picnics, swimming parties or gatherings of friends for a quiet evening of cards find favor during the warm days.

Vacation time is taking a number out of the city and those who are not summering at the coast resorts or the mountains, are being lured by delightful motor trips east or are abroad for the summer.

The week-end finds several leaving town either for the golf tournament in Grants Pass, many of the ladies accompanying the men of the Roseburg Country Club for Sunday's meet, or to Eugene for the Active Club International convention, which opened Thursday. Social gaieties have marked the program for the visiting women at the convention and a dinner-dance at the Eugene hotel will be a point of interest which closes the convention tonight.

Evening Affair Is Surprise Arranged for Bride-Elect

A much feted bride-elect this season is Miss Ruth Jennings, whose marriage to Frank White of Marshfield is to be an event of the coming month. Thursday evening Mrs. Elmer McKean arranged a surprise affair, a group of the members of the Baptist church joining in the entertainment, the guests going to the home of Mrs. Myrtle Jennings, mother of the honoree, on Thompson street for the evening.

A setting of gladioli and roses made a pretty color note in the rooms and games were enjoyed. Miss Jennings was presented by her friends with a large box, which when opened, revealed a lovely set of Havarian china.

A buffet supper was served at the close of the evening. About forty attended.

Mrs. Grant Osborn Bids Group to Meet Visitors

An informal afternoon at home was arranged by Mrs. Grant Osborn on Saturday, guests being bidden to meet Mrs. W. H. Graham, her sister, who is a visitor from Farwell, Texas, and Miss Betta Hemphill, niece of Mrs. J. D. Osborn, who was here from Portland a few days.

Refreshments were served at the tea hour. The group included Mrs. Graham, Miss Hemphill, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. E. Applewhite, Mrs. J. D. Osborn, Miss Eva Rice and the hostess.

Summer Wanderlust Taking Roseburgers East This Week

The lure of travel is drawing another Roseburg couple to the east this summer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harth leaving here Sunday by motor to be gone until fall.

They will motor over the McKenzie highway to eastern Oregon, over the Old Oregon Trail, thence to Chicago via the Lincoln highway and after visiting that city Mr. and Mrs. Harth will go to Niagara Falls, New York City, and Washington, D. C. They will visit Miami, Florida, and New Orleans. Mr. Harth plan to be in San Antonio, Texas, for the American Legion convention in the fall and enroute home will visit San Diego. While in the east they plan to take various scenic trips by plane.

Mrs. J. D. Osborn Hostess for House Guest

For her house guest, Miss Retta Hemphill of Portland, Mrs. J. D. Osborn entertained with a lovely luncheon at her home in West Roseburg Saturday.

Placed about an attractively appointed table were covers for seven.

Friends Honor Matron on Anniversary

As a surprise on her birthday anniversary, an affair was given Sunday evening, July 15, honoring Mrs. Thomas Fletcher of Brookway. Fifty-five neighbors were in attendance. Games and music were enjoyed and later in the evening refreshments were served.

Pretty Luncheon Honors Visiting Maid

A delightfully informal luncheon of the week-end was that on Saturday, commencing a visiting maid, Miss Doris Pickens, who was here from Salem, at the home of Miss Shirley Knight.

Covers were laid for the honoree, Miss Shirley Knight, Miss Mildred Stintzy and the hostess.

Large Gathering at Annual Picnic of Moose Lodge

A wholly pleasurable affair of last Sunday was the picnic and fishing event in which the members of the Moose Lodge and their families and additional guests participated the group motoring to Hutson's cove on the banks of the Umpqua river for the day.

This annual affair is always anticipated by the lodge members and friends as an outstanding vacation event. At noon the picnic dinner was enjoyed and in the afternoon horseshoe games, a base ball game and sports entertained those attending. About 50 attended.

Sutherland Matron Hostess at Dinner

Last Saturday evening Mrs. Josephine Stark was hostess for an informal dinner party at her Sutherland home, asking six friends.

Seated about the charmingly appointed table were Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Aydon, Mrs. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clark of Roseburg, C. C. Fritzer and Paul Helwig and the hostess of Sutherland.

Home Hints

VIGILANT against the entrance of dirt through the front door stands this wrought-iron shoe scraper in the form of a goose.

Fashion Plaque

A NEW FALL GLOVE employs metallic lace applied on a scalloped cuff.

Garden Club Members to Assemble at Soldiers Home

Members of the Roseburg garden club are to assemble at the beautiful gardens of the Soldiers Home on Monday evening between the hours of 6 and 8 o'clock.

The Soldiers Home has one of the most attractive grounds in the city and recent work under the supervision of Glenn Ringo, landscaper artist, has made the gardens a charming and colorful spot at the home. Mr. Ringo will receive the members of the club and escort them about the grounds during the calling hours.

Affair Honors Couple Who Leave Soon

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Blaxall, who will soon be leaving to make their home in Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Woodley Stephenson entertained with an informal party Thursday evening.

Supper was served later in the evening, there being covers for 11.

Dancing Party Entertains Group

Quite a pleasurable evening event of the week was on Thursday when the Umpqua Amusement company entertained with a dancing party at the Umpqua Club house, extending invitations to a number of Roseburg folk.

A Sutherland orchestra provided music for the affair, which was well attended.

Attractive Evening Affair Honors Bride-Elect

Mrs. Fred Porter and Miss Lois Byers, in entertaining for an attractive evening affair honoring Miss Ruth Jennings, bride-elect, which brought together a group of the younger set on Wednesday.

Guests numbering eighteen were bidden to the home of Mrs. Fred Knight, mother of Mrs. Porter, in North Roseburg for the event, which took the form of a miscellaneous shower.

Low bowls and vases were filled with gladioli and sweet peas intermingled with ferns, which gave an effective color note to the rooms. Cards formed the diversion for the guests and in mid-evening Mrs. Little Mary Joan Parkinson, bearing a pink trimmed umbrella laden with a shower of gifts, presented the presents to the honoree.

Mrs. Knight assisted the two hostesses at the supper tables. In the dining room one large table was laid for eight and two smaller tables in the other room held covers for six. Centering the room above the large table was a rose ball, formed of pink rose buds and covering the lights and about this were narrow pink streamers. Four tall tapered spindles at intervals on the table furnished the only light in the room. Quaint little baskets, holding a wedding bell of pink, and filled with confections were the favors to the guests.

The invited list included Miss Ruth Jennings, Mrs. Myrtle Jennings, Mrs. Joe Davis, Mrs. Myrtle Clark, Mrs. J. A. Caraway, Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mrs. Fred Knight, Miss Gertrude Laird, Miss Mona Porter, Miss Marian Ness, Miss Ida Kinney, Miss Hazel Strickland, Miss Margaret Jennings, Miss Anita Carroll, Miss Evelyn Hawn, Miss Grace Carroll, Miss Lenore Hellwell, Miss Mary Joan Parkinson.

On Tuesday evening Miss Ada Grace Moothart, who has been a visitor at the L. C. Moothart home, was honored with a wicker roast at the L. C. Moothart home on the banks of the Umpqua river in West Roseburg.

On Tuesday evening Miss Ada Grace Moothart, who has been a visitor at the L. C. Moothart home, was honored with a wicker roast at the L. C. Moothart home on the banks of the Umpqua river in West Roseburg.

Attractive Evening Affair Honors Bride-Elect

Mrs. Fred Porter and Miss Lois Byers, in entertaining for an attractive evening affair honoring Miss Ruth Jennings, bride-elect, which brought together a group of the younger set on Wednesday.

Guests numbering eighteen were bidden to the home of Mrs. Fred Knight, mother of Mrs. Porter, in North Roseburg for the event, which took the form of a miscellaneous shower.

Low bowls and vases were filled with gladioli and sweet peas intermingled with ferns, which gave an effective color note to the rooms. Cards formed the diversion for the guests and in mid-evening Mrs. Little Mary Joan Parkinson, bearing a pink trimmed umbrella laden with a shower of gifts, presented the presents to the honoree.

Mrs. Knight assisted the two hostesses at the supper tables. In the dining room one large table was laid for eight and two smaller tables in the other room held covers for six. Centering the room above the large table was a rose ball, formed of pink rose buds and covering the lights and about this were narrow pink streamers. Four tall tapered spindles at intervals on the table furnished the only light in the room. Quaint little baskets, holding a wedding bell of pink, and filled with confections were the favors to the guests.

The invited list included Miss Ruth Jennings, Mrs. Myrtle Jennings, Mrs. Joe Davis, Mrs. Myrtle Clark, Mrs. J. A. Caraway, Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mrs. Fred Knight, Miss Gertrude Laird, Miss Mona Porter, Miss Marian Ness, Miss Ida Kinney, Miss Hazel Strickland, Miss Margaret Jennings, Miss Anita Carroll, Miss Evelyn Hawn, Miss Grace Carroll, Miss Lenore Hellwell, Miss Mary Joan Parkinson.

Guests at Informal Gathering Honoring Southern Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Taylor were hosts for a charmingly informal gathering Saturday at their home on South Stephens street when they entertained with an evening of music for Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Graham of Farwell, Texas.

The rooms were decorated with summer flowers in various colors. Vocal and piano numbers were sung by Allie Blanche Graham, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Graham.

At the close of the evening refreshments were served.

The list included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mrs. J. G. Stephenson, Mrs. Woodley Stephenson, Miss Retta Hemphill of Portland, Claribel Stephenson, Allie Blanche Graham, Athalie Taylor and Sammy Lee Graham.

Miss Ruby Guile Is Charming Bride of Summer Season

One of the interesting weddings of the summer season was that of Miss Ruby Guile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Guile, and Glade Bruton of Roseburg, the event being a pretty afternoon service at the home of the bride's parents, 306 West 2nd Avenue North, last Sunday at 1 o'clock.

An effective setting was achieved with the use of seasonal flowers in attractive arrangements. Before an altar of Shasta daisies, sweet peas in pink and orchid shades, intertwined with fernery, the vows were exchanged.

Rev. Joseph Knotts, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, read the service before an assemblage of relatives and intimate friends of the couple. Just preceding the ceremony "A Dawn" was played.

The bride's loveliness was enhanced with a gown of rose georgette which was elaborated with a shower of bride's roses, white sweet peas and bride of the morning.

Miss Ellen Guile, sister of the bride, was her only attendant, and wore a becoming frock of peach georgette. She carried an arm bouquet of rosebuds, carnations and sweet peas.

Royd Bruton acted as best man for his brother.

After the ceremony the bridal party received informally and luncheon was served in the dining room. Presiding at the tables were Mrs. L. B. McBea and Miss Caroline Clemens.

Following a wedding trip to British Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. Bruton will return to Roseburg to make their home.

Both are graduates of the Roseburg high school, being members of the class of 1925, and the bride later attended school in Portland. Mr. Bruton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bruton and is manager of the Stones' Cash store on Jackson street.

Mrs. Clair K. Allen Entertaining for Two Visitors

Complimenting two of her house guests, Miss Louise Anderson of Portland and Miss Ethel Strum of Ashland, who are remaining for the week-end, Mrs. Clair K. Allen has planned an evening of bridge, issuing invitations for three ladies this evening.

Friends of the honor guests, who formerly lived in Roseburg, have been asked.

Mr. and Mrs. Gignoux Interesting Visitors From Honolulu

Mr. and Mrs. Alexis Gignoux of Honolulu, during their visit in Roseburg, as guests of Mr. M. S. Miller, few days this week, were extensively entertained. Mr. and Mrs. Gignoux went to Portland on Thursday to visit with a brother of Mr. Gignoux and on August 22 will sail from Vancouver for home.

On Monday evening Mr. Miller entertained for his house guests at a dinner party at the Umpqua hotel. Covers were placed for the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wharton and Miss Florence Wharton and the host.

Tuesday afternoon the visitors were guests of Mrs. Chas. W. Wharton and Miss Wharton for a scenic drive over the North Umpqua road. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Wharton entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Gignoux with a picnic dinner at their summer camp on the Curry estate bordering the Umpqua river. Following the dinner hour the guests went to Freeman Lodge, the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barker and spent the evening as their guests.

Mrs. L. W. Joser and son of Seattle, guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barker, were additional members of the party.

Wednesday was filled with a delightful drive to coast points, Mr. and Mrs. Gignoux being guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wharton and Miss Wharton.

On their return in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Gignoux entertained for a dinner at the Umpqua hotel, there being covers for Mr. and Mrs. Wharton, Miss Wharton and Mr. Miller and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Strawn Entertaining Guests From Kansas

Interesting visitors who arrived during the week are Mrs. A. C. Andrews of Kansas City, Kan., and Mrs. U. C. Andrews and daughter, Mrs. Mary Jane Andrews, of Overton, Kan., guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Strawn on Vista avenue.

Mrs. A. C. Andrews, mother of Mrs. Strawn, is to remain here to live and Mrs. U. C. Andrews, her sister, and Miss Andrews are spending three weeks in the city.

Sutherland Matron Hostess at Dinner

Last Saturday evening Mrs. Josephine Stark was hostess for an informal dinner party at her Sutherland home, asking six friends.

Seated about the charmingly appointed table were Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Aydon, Mrs. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clark of Roseburg, C. C. Fritzer and Paul Helwig and the hostess of Sutherland.

Mr. and Mrs. Black Entertain at Large Dinner Sunday

The week-end held several affairs of interest for visitors, among them the large dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Black were hosts Sunday at their home at 428 Pitzer street in compliment to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Graham, who with their two children, Allie Blanche and Sammy Lee have been here from Farwell, Tex. All but a few of the members of the Black family were present for the occasion.

Summer flowers, grouped in attractive arrangements, were colorful in the rooms.

Seated about the table were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Woodley Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Allie Blanche Graham, Claribel Stephenson, Athalie Taylor, Carl Black, Sam Black of Albany, Sammy Lee Graham and the hosts.

Dinner Given Complimenting Boise Folk

For Mrs. A. Weefe, her son, Algie Weefe, and her granddaughters, the Misses Lois and Edna Weefe, visitors here from Boise, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Marsters entertained with an attractive appointed dinner on Monday evening at their home in North Roseburg.

Covers were placed for the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Miss Laura Mason of Jefferson, Miss Dorothy Marsters and the hosts.

Miss Phyllis Shields, former Roseburg maid, is being welcomed here from Portland. She is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Clyde Carstensen, in Laurelwood for a fortnight.

Dinner Given in Ashland Honors Roseburg Woman

An interesting event for this week-end out of town was the dinner given by the Douglas county club of the Southern Oregon Normal school Thursday evening in North Roseburg.

Covers were placed for the honoree, Mrs. Edith S. Ackert of this city, county school superintendent. The following from the Daily Tidings tells of the affair.

Mrs. Edith S. Ackert of Roseburg, county school superintendent of Douglas county, was the guest of honor at a dinner given by the Douglas County club of the Southern Oregon Normal school last evening, Thursday, July 19, at the Plaza.

Covers were laid for thirty-three, at a table perfectly appointed and attractively covered with a large bouquet of pastel colored sweet peas. Every one present thoroughly enjoyed the informality of the affair and the amiability of the groups.

Earl B. Borsell, in the capacity of toastmaster, introduced the following persons, whose interesting talks were much appreciated: Carl A. Schneider, president of the club; Edith S. Ackert, "Spokane Standard"; Chas. K. Merrill, "The Southern Oregon Normal School"; Mrs. Susan Haynes, "What I Like About School Teaching"; Mrs. Jean Blake, "What I Don't Like About School Teaching"; and Miss Fern Scott, "The Problematic Youth." Perhaps the most interesting speeches were the "introductory" speeches given by every member present. This feature gave the rest of the group some idea of the work being accomplished by each person.

Members and guests present were: Mrs. Edith S. Ackert and daughter, Carol, Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Borsell, Carl A. Schneider, Charles K. Merrill, Mrs. Susan Haynes, Mrs. Jean Blake, Verle Tracy, Fern Scott, Lucille Aldridge, Violet Busch and sister, Hazel B. Payne, Frances Livingstone, Viola Cole, Mabel Multhead, Mabel Williams and sister, Gladys, Mrs. Bertha Blundell, Neva Akey, Minnie Alberts, Agnes Johnson, Lucille Woodruff, Mary Talbot, Mrs. Albert Fleischer, Katharine Jacoby, Mildred Humphreys, Mrs. T. E. Gray, Thelma Bartholmey, Crystal Atford, Florence Johnson and Mildred Russell.

Former residents being welcomed by their friends this week are Mr. and Mrs. Phil Singleton, who are visiting from Medford as guests of relatives in Roseburg.

Business Women Guests Week Brings Out of Town Wedding of Interest Here

Simplicity in appointments and a quiet service marked the marriage of Miss Helen Russell, former Roseburg maid, and Mr. Harry Barrett at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Rowley, 625 West 5th Street, Eugene, last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Quine, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, attended from this city.

The wedding ceremony, a late afternoon affair at 6 o'clock, was attended by only members of the two families.

A setting of summer flowers was effectively used in the room. The bride wore a going away ensemble of brown and rose with chapeau to match and carried an arm bouquet of rose buds.

Miss Iveta Barrell of Eugene, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and was frocked in a model in pastel color. Harry Ray of Eugene was best man.

Rev. Stivers, pastor of the Christian church of Eugene, read the nuptial service.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Barrett left on a honeymoon trip to northern points and on their way home will stop in Roseburg to visit relatives.

Mrs. Barrett attended school in this city and graduated this year from the Eugene high school. Mr. Barrett is employed by the Southern Pacific company in Eugene, where he and his bride will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Croft Complimented at Affair

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Croft, well known Roseburg folk, were honored with an informal party given by a group of their friends as a surprise on their wedding anniversary on the evening of July 18.

About fourteen assembled at the Croft home, 817 South Pine street for the affair and spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Croft. Many lovely individual gifts were received by the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Croft were married at Adkinson, Henry county, Illinois, July 18, 1881, 47 years ago. They lived in the east until fifteen years ago, coming to Oregon at that time and making their home here since then. They were five children, two living. They are Percy Croft of this city and Mrs. Byron Travis, wife of Rev. Travis who is pastor of the Presbyterian church at Lebanon.

Portland Visitor Honored at Party

In compliment to Miss Gertrude Ruckers of Portland, visitor here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. B. C. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wiley entertained with an informal evening at their apartments Friday.

Five were invited. Later in the evening refreshments were served.

Friends Gather at Surprise Affair

Complimenting Mrs. Anna Barnett of Riverside on the occasion of her birthday anniversary, a group surprised her on July 13. Refreshments were served at the close of the affair.

Those present were the honor guest and Mrs. Tom Blevins, Mrs. C. W. Andrews, Mrs. Tessie Jones, Mrs. Daye Clark, Mrs. Louisa Chapman, Mrs. Radabaugh, Mrs. U. F. McGloughlin and family, Mrs. Fred Kent and family, Mrs. Myrtle Denton and family, the Misses Mary and Goldie Milklin, Lily Armstrong, Maud James, Walter Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Enger to Arrive This Afternoon

Former Roseburg folk who will be warmly welcomed by their wide circle of friends here are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Enger, who are to arrive here today from Bakersfield, California, to visit with their niece, Mrs. Wesley Bonebrake, and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Enger have been making their home in the south for the past few years.

Delightful Entertainment at Bickle Home

On Wednesday the members of the M. O. A. Club of Edgewater were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Geo. Bickle on the Garden Valley road.

The afternoon was spent with games and sewing after which a very delicious luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. C. W. Cook and Mrs. Geo. Powers.

Those enjoying the afternoon were the Mesdames C. W. Cook, John Travis, E. G. Cloake, Harlan Moore, John Martin, J. Jones, Mary Davis, H. M. Allison, Geo. Powers, Ralph Bell, Mrs. Fletcher, Pearl Jones, Mildred Marks, Mildred Fletcher, Nancy May Bell, Ella May Cloake, Jean Cloake, Marceline Moore and the hostess.

Mrs. E. G. Cloake invited the club to her home for the afternoon of July 25th.

Week Brings Out of Town Wedding of Interest Here

Simplicity in appointments and a quiet service marked the marriage of Miss Helen Russell, former Roseburg maid, and Mr. Harry Barrett at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Rowley, 625 West 5th Street, Eugene, last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Quine, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, attended from this city.

The wedding ceremony, a late afternoon affair at 6 o'clock, was attended by only members of the two families.

A setting of summer flowers was effectively used in the room. The bride wore a going away ensemble of brown and rose with chapeau to match and carried an arm bouquet of rose buds.

Miss Iveta Barrell of Eugene, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and was frocked in a model in pastel color. Harry Ray of Eugene was best man.

Rev. Stivers, pastor of the Christian church of Eugene, read the nuptial service.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Barrett left on a honeymoon trip to northern points and on their way home will stop in Roseburg to visit relatives.

Mrs. Barrett attended school in this city and graduated this year from the Eugene high school. Mr. Barrett is employed by the Southern Pacific company in Eugene, where he and his bride will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Croft Complimented at Affair

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Croft, well known Roseburg folk, were honored with an informal party given by a group of their friends as a surprise on their wedding anniversary on the evening of July 18.

About fourteen assembled at the Croft home, 817 South Pine street for the affair and spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Croft. Many lovely individual gifts were received by the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Croft were married at Adkinson, Henry county, Illinois, July 18, 1881, 47 years ago. They lived in the east until fifteen years ago, coming to Oregon at that time and making their home here since then. They were five children, two living. They are Percy Croft of this city and Mrs. Byron Travis, wife of Rev. Travis who is pastor of the Presbyterian church at Lebanon.

Portland Visitor Honored at Party

In compliment to Miss Gertrude Ruckers of Portland, visitor here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. B. C. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wiley entertained with an informal evening at their apartments Friday.

Five were invited. Later in the evening refreshments were served.

Friends Gather at Surprise Affair

Complimenting Mrs. Anna Barnett of Riverside on the occasion of her birthday anniversary, a group surprised her on July 13. Refreshments were served at the close of the affair.

Those present were the honor guest and Mrs. Tom Blevins, Mrs. C. W. Andrews, Mrs. Tessie Jones, Mrs. Daye Clark, Mrs. Louisa Chapman, Mrs. Radabaugh, Mrs. U. F. McGloughlin and family, Mrs. Fred Kent and family, Mrs. Myrtle Denton and family, the Misses Mary and Goldie Milklin, Lily Armstrong, Maud James, Walter Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Enger to Arrive This Afternoon

Former Roseburg folk who will be warmly welcomed by their wide circle of friends here are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Enger, who are to arrive here today from Bakersfield, California, to visit with their niece, Mrs. Wesley Bonebrake, and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Enger have been making their home in the south for the past few years.

Delightful Entertainment at Bickle Home

On Wednesday the members of the M. O. A. Club of Edgewater were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Geo. Bickle on the Garden Valley road.

The afternoon was spent with games and sewing after which a very delicious luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. C. W. Cook and Mrs. Geo. Powers.

Those enjoying the afternoon were the Mesdames C. W. Cook, John Travis, E. G. Cloake, Harlan Moore, John Martin, J. Jones, Mary Davis, H. M. Allison, Geo. Powers, Ralph Bell, Mrs. Fletcher, Pearl Jones, Mildred Marks, Mildred Fletcher, Nancy May Bell, Ella May Cloake, Jean Cloake, Marceline Moore and the hostess.

Mrs. E. G. Cloake invited the club to her home for the afternoon of July 25th.

Business Women Guests Week Brings Out of Town Wedding of Interest Here

Simplicity in appointments and a quiet service marked the marriage of Miss Helen Russell, former Roseburg maid, and Mr. Harry Barrett at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Rowley, 625 West 5th Street, Eugene, last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Quine, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, attended from this city.

The wedding ceremony, a late afternoon affair at 6 o'clock, was attended by only members of the two families.

A setting of summer flowers was effectively used in the room. The bride wore a going away ensemble of brown and rose with chapeau to match and carried an arm bouquet of rose buds.

Miss Iveta Barrell of Eugene, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and was frocked in a model in pastel color. Harry Ray of Eugene was best man.

Rev. Stivers, pastor of the Christian church of Eugene, read the nuptial service.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Barrett left on a honeymoon trip to northern points and on their way home will stop in Roseburg to visit relatives.

Mrs. Barrett attended school in this city and graduated this year from the Eugene high school. Mr. Barrett is employed by the Southern Pacific company in Eugene, where he and his bride will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Croft Complimented at Affair

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Croft, well known Roseburg folk, were honored with an informal party given by a group of their friends as a surprise on their wedding anniversary on the evening of July 18.

About fourteen assembled at the Croft home, 817 South Pine street for the affair and spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Croft. Many lovely individual gifts were received by the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Croft were married at Adkinson, Henry county, Illinois, July 18, 1881, 47 years ago. They lived in the east until fifteen years ago, coming to Oregon at that time and making their home here since then. They were five children, two living. They are Percy Croft of this city and Mrs. Byron Travis, wife of Rev. Travis who is pastor of the Presbyterian church at Lebanon.

Portland Visitor Honored at Party

In compliment to Miss Gertrude Ruckers of Portland, visitor here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. B. C. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wiley entertained with an informal evening at their apartments Friday.

Five were invited. Later in the evening refreshments were served.

Friends Gather at Surprise Affair

Complimenting Mrs. Anna Barnett of Riverside on the occasion of her birthday anniversary, a group surprised her on July 13. Refreshments were served at the close of the affair.

Those present were the honor guest and Mrs. Tom Blevins, Mrs. C. W. Andrews, Mrs. Tessie Jones, Mrs. Daye Clark, Mrs. Louisa Chapman, Mrs. Radabaugh, Mrs. U. F. McGloughlin and family, Mrs. Fred Kent and family, Mrs. Myrtle Denton and family, the Misses Mary and Goldie Milklin, Lily Armstrong, Maud James, Walter Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Enger to Arrive This Afternoon

Former Roseburg folk who will be warmly welcomed by their wide circle of friends here are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Enger, who are to arrive here today from Bakersfield, California, to visit with their niece, Mrs. Wesley Bonebrake, and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Enger have been making their home in the south for the past few years.

Delightful Entertainment at Bickle Home

On Wednesday the members of the M. O. A. Club of Edgewater were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Geo. Bickle on the Garden Valley road.

The afternoon was spent with games and sewing after which a very delicious luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. C. W. Cook and Mrs. Geo. Powers.

Those enjoying the afternoon were the Mesdames C. W. Cook, John Travis, E. G. Cloake, Harlan Moore, John Martin, J. Jones, Mary Davis, H. M. Allison, Geo. Powers, Ralph Bell, Mrs. Fletcher, Pearl Jones, Mildred Marks, Mildred Fletcher, Nancy May Bell, Ella May Cloake, Jean Cloake, Marceline Moore and the hostess.

Mrs. E. G. Cloake invited the club to her home for the afternoon of July 25th.

POETS' CORNER

Signed Contributions for This Department May Be Sent to the Society Editor of The News-Review, and Will Be Used as Space is Available.

MY UMPQUA VALLEY FARM

By B. B. Dunn

There's a freshness and a fragrance in our fruits and flowers sublime,
In the new mown hay in our meadows, unmatched in any clime,
In the spread of our green valleys and the sweep of wooded hills,
In the flashing sheen of the waters of our rivers and our rills;
And nature's fingers weave in gladness, fabrics of wondrous charm,
And her masterpiece, I'm certain, is my Umpqua valley farm.

There's a brightness and a whiteness in this charmed, enchanted land.

In the rapids of the rivers and the gleaming, golden sand;
There's a quaintness and a quietness lingering all about the place,
In the primeval forests, green where the white-tails stalk with grace,
And nature is watching over us, to shield us from all harm.

Mr. and Mrs. Croft Complimented at Affair

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Croft, well known Roseburg folk, were honored with an informal party given by a group of their friends as a surprise on their wedding anniversary on the evening of July 18.

About fourteen assembled at the Croft home, 817 South Pine street for the affair and spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Croft. Many lovely individual gifts were received by the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Croft were married at Adkinson, Henry county, Illinois, July 18, 1881, 47 years ago. They lived in the east until fifteen years ago, coming to Oregon at that time and making their home here since then. They were five children, two living. They are Percy Croft of this city and Mrs. Byron Travis, wife of Rev. Travis who is pastor of the Presbyterian church at Lebanon.

Portland Visitor Honored at Party

In compliment to Miss Gertrude Ruckers of Portland, visitor here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. B. C. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wiley entertained with an informal evening at their apartments Friday.

Five were invited. Later in the evening refreshments were served.

Friends Gather at Surprise Affair

Complimenting Mrs. Anna Barnett of Riverside on the occasion of her birthday anniversary, a group surprised her on July 13. Refreshments were served at the close of the affair.

Those present were the honor guest and Mrs. Tom Blevins, Mrs. C. W. Andrews, Mrs. Tessie Jones, Mrs. Daye Clark, Mrs. Louisa Chapman, Mrs. Radabaugh, Mrs. U. F. McGloughlin and family, Mrs. Fred Kent and family, Mrs. Myrtle Denton and family, the Misses Mary and Goldie Milklin, Lily Armstrong, Maud James, Walter Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Enger to Arrive This Afternoon

Former Roseburg folk who will be warmly welcomed by their wide circle of friends here are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Enger, who are to arrive here today from Bakersfield, California, to visit with their niece, Mrs. Wesley Bonebrake, and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Enger have been making their home in the south for the past few years.

Delightful Entertainment at Bickle Home

On Wednesday the members of the M. O. A. Club of Edgewater were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Geo. Bickle on the Garden Valley road.

The afternoon was spent with games and sewing after which a very delicious luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. C. W. Cook and Mrs. Geo. Powers.

Those enjoying the afternoon were the Mesdames C. W. Cook, John Travis, E. G. Cloake, Harlan Moore, John Martin, J. Jones, Mary Davis, H. M. Allison, Geo. Powers, Ralph Bell, Mrs. Fletcher, Pearl Jones, Mildred Marks, Mildred Fletcher, Nancy May Bell, Ella May Cloake, Jean Cloake, Marceline Moore and the hostess.

Mrs. E. G. Cloake invited the club to her home for the afternoon of July 25th.

And she is with me, I am certain, on my Umpqua valley farm.

The following was written by Miss Alma Thompson, 13-year-old Looking Glass girl to the memory of Oscar