

School Days!

The fall term will soon be here with all its various interests to be cared for.

Of most importance, perhaps, are the

SCHOOL FROCKS FOR THE GIRLS

Every mother wants her daughter, from the little tot in the grade to the demure miss in the senior class of the high school, to be dressed attractively and sensibly. The best way to provide school frocks that will be all that is desired, is to

Buy ever fast color materials and make them up to meet the requirements

Anticipating your needs, we have stocked a wide selection in fabrics suited to school girl needs. We want mothers to come in and see them. Yes, we also have patterns for dainty and attractive school frocks.

I. ABRAHAM

THE SILK STORE

Iowa Boys Missing in North

Fearing that these four Iowa University students may be lost in the far north without supplies, Canadian northwest mounted police are seeking them in the wilds of northern Saskatchewan. Left to right are John Fuller, Keokuk; Max J. Kane, Iowa City; Gordon C. Armstrong, Britt, and Peder C. Boddum, Crystal Lake. Adventure and geological study took them to the edge of the Arctic Circle. The last letter received from them was postmarked Sturgeon's Landing.

LOCAL NEWS

From Reedsport—
J. H. Daily, Reedsport man, was here Wednesday and today attending to business affairs.

From Southern Oregon—
George W. Hood was here from Grants Pass over Wednesday looking after business matters.

From South—
Charles J. Driver was here from Grants Pass over Wednesday looking after business interests.

Visitor From Umpqua—
Mrs. Anna Good of Umpqua spent several hours in this city yesterday shopping and visiting with friends.

Oil Company Men Here—
R. J. Rogers and W. D. Hostetler, employed by the Standard Oil company at Medford, are business visitors here today.

Returns to Glendale—
E. F. Holtz, following a business visit here for the past few days, returned yesterday afternoon to his home in Glendale.

Mr. Cavender Here—
Frank E. Cavender, formerly of this city, arrived yesterday from Portland to spend a brief time visiting his brother and friends.

Mrs. Park Here—
Mrs. John Park and son arrived here from Ashland Thursday afternoon to visit with relatives and friends for the next few days.

Leaving for Portland—
Mrs. M. C. Ellison leaves today for Portland where she will spend a week visiting her sister, Mrs. Nelle Patton, formerly of this city.

Alaskan Arrives—
Mrs. E. C. Manning of Juneau, Alaska, arrived here Thursday afternoon to visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Johnson.

Visited Local Store—
H. K. Dorr, merchandise manager for the Montgomery Ward stores in the northwest was here this week looking after the local establishment.

Expected From New York—
Elwin Scott of Great Valley, New York, is expected here today from the coast and will reside in Douglas county, making his home with L. Learn of Flournoy Valley.

Visited Kin Here—
Following a visit here with Mr. and Mrs. James Clark of West Roseburg, Rev. and Mrs. Nell J. Barnes of Bend have returned home. Rev. Barnes is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

To Visit Kin in Roseburg—
Mrs. Katherine Garhart of Noblesville, Indiana, arrived in Roseburg yesterday afternoon to spend the next few weeks visiting with her mother and brother, Mrs. M. E. John and Chas. John, at the Roseburg hotel.

To Visit Grandmother—
Miss Ethel Clement of San Antonio, Texas, arrived here Thursday afternoon from the south and was joined in this city by her grandmother, Mrs. R. V. Goldner. They went on to the latter's home near Arago, on the coast.

Visiting at Pierson Home—
Mr. and Mrs. Will Champ and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Artie Lyons and daughter of Supply, Okla., are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Pierson for two or three weeks. Mrs. Champ is Mrs. Pierson's sister, and Mrs. Lyons is her niece.

Visiting Sister—
Arriving here yesterday afternoon, Mrs. S. O. Elliott of Danville, Illinois, and Mrs. Susan Aldrich of Aldrich, Minnesota, surprised their sister, Mrs. Frank Strett. They will visit here with Mrs. Strett for some time. Mrs. Aldrich has not been here for nine years.

Injured Man Better—
H. B. Gilpatrick of Glendale, who was injured Monday when a log rolled on him is reported improved at the Eugene hospital. He is suffering from painful bruises on the abdomen but no internal injuries or fractures were found in examination. He is employed with the H. and H. Lumber company at Glendale—Eugene Guard.

Photograph of Window—
In the July issue of The Turnstile, a publication devoted to retail grocery interests, appears a half-tone reproduction from a photograph taken of the local Piggy-Wiggly corner window, in which oranges were featured. The publication speaks highly of the attractive features of the window, stating that it incidentally sold 30 crates of oranges for the firm.

Wonderful Fruit Display—
The splendid display in the window of The Twentieth Century Store must impress visitors with the thought that the Umpqua valley is a productive spot. Back of the window display is another of vegetables, and the whole arrangement speaks volumes for this section. Roseburg people certainly need not complain of any lack of products of garden and orchard to select from.

Home From Vacation Trip—
Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Knott of Dillard have just returned home following a vacation trip south. They visited Medford, attending the American Legion state convention, later being joined by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole of Tillamook, the Rogue River and the four traveled to Crescent City and back. Mr. and Mrs. Knott returned home over the Roosevelt highway.

Visitors Thursday—
R. Hutchings and son, Jack, were here from Looking Glass Thursday visiting and attending to business affairs.

Enjoying Vacation—
Manager Caraway of the local Montgomery Ward store, is away on his annual vacation. In company with Mrs. Caraway he is visiting southwest Oregon vacation resorts.

Leaving on Vacation—
Miss Evelyn Hawn, cashier at the P. W. Woolworth company store, and Miss Lenore Hellwell leave tonight for Portland to spend ten days or so visiting with relatives and friends and enjoying a vacation.

In From Camp for Day—
F. H. Churchill, who with Mrs. Churchill and their guest, Mrs. Gault of Salem, is enjoying a vacation at Idley, was here Thursday from camp for a few hours. The party will remain at the vacation resort until Sunday.

Taken to Vancouver—
Following short funeral services for the late Frank N. Boardman at the Douglas Funeral Home today, the body was taken to Vancouver for burial. Mrs. Boardman and her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Hash, accompanied the body north.

Ex-County Folk Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Smith, formerly of Douglas county, have arrived from Maupin, where they now make their home, and are visiting at Glide with Mr. Smith's people, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith. They expect to be here for a few weeks.

Former Resident Visits—
Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Amaberry, of Bend, were visitors in Roseburg today for a short time. They are enjoying a vacation trip through southern Oregon and are going from this city to Oregon Caves. Mr. Amaberry formerly resided in this city while employed by the News-Review as a linotype operator. He also conducted a dance orchestra here for several months.

Back From Ten Day Trip—
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ford, following an enjoyable ten day trip by auto to Oregon and California points, are home again, returning Thursday. They drove to Crater and Diamond Lakes and visited Klamath Falls and Crescent City, back to Winchester Bay over the Roosevelt highway, returning to Reedsport and home over the Elkton highway.

Leave for North—
Mrs. Ben Greenough of Red Lodge, Mont., and her daughter, Mrs. Joe Weaver and children, of Myrtle Creek, were here visiting Thursday. Mrs. Greenough left for her home in the afternoon, having visited with her daughter at Myrtle Creek for the past few weeks, and was accompanied north by Mrs. Weaver and children to Eugene. They will visit there a few days before their return home.

Howard Krohn and Wife Visit—
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Krohn of San Francisco stopped here Thursday for a few hours to visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. Ferrell, visitors here from the bay city, and Mrs. Isabel Webb and Miss Ethel Webb, grandmother and aunt of Mr. Krohn. He formerly lived in this city and is well known among members of the younger set. Mr. and Mrs. Krohn were enroute to Portland, where they will visit his mother and sister, Mrs. Blanche Krohn and Mrs. Arthur Knauus.

Visited Nephew Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stewart of Kent, Washington, following a visit here the past few days with their nephew, G. M. Krell, manager of the Western Auto Supply company store, left this morning for home.

Assisted in Moving Quarters—
G. M. Krell, manager of the local store of the Western Auto Supply company, is back after a trip to Albany where he assisted on Tuesday in the moving of the Albany store to new quarters. Due to increase in business it was found necessary to move the business to a larger building which now provides for a shop as well as store.

Rev. F. L. Thuemler, of Medford, well known in this city, was injured Wednesday when the farm truck he was driving along the highway near Jackson, Ore., was struck by an automobile. He fell in front of the contrivance and was dragged for considerable distance. His injuries are not serious. Rev. Thuemler is one of the leaders in the Seventh Day Adventist church and is well known in this city, where he has visited at frequent intervals.

Because she could not protect her four-year-old daughter, Virginia Rose, from poverty and unhappiness, Mrs. Adeline Lethermon of Diamond, Mich., strangled the girl to death. Mrs. Lethermon, who is 23, had been crippled ever since an attack of typhoid fever two years ago and was separated from her husband. "She won't have to suffer like I have, and she's happier than I am now," she said after she was arrested.

Fine mayonnaise is made this way

—add the oil a little at a time as you beat and you'll control the mixture. Hills Bros. give you coffee of uniform deliciousness because every berry is roasted evenly by their exclusive, continuous process—Controlled Roasting. A few pounds at a time—never in bulk—that's the secret.

HILLS BROS COFFEE

From Oakland—
J. W. Bartrum of Oakland was in town this morning attending to business affairs and visiting with friends.

To Coast Today—
George Smith, manager of the Hotel Rose, went to Marshfield today to look after business affairs.

Clark Melton Visitor—
Clark E. Melton, Shell Oil company manager of Coos Bay, was here from Marshfield today on business.

W. S. Powell Here—
W. S. Powell, of Eugene, a former resident of this city, is spending a few days here visiting with friends.

Returning From Vacation—
Miss Mary Crouch, employee of the J. C. Penney company store who has been on her vacation and visiting at North Bend with relatives and at Riddle, is returning here the end of the week.

Home From Albany—
Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Roadman of South Pine street, returned home last night from Albany. Mrs. Roadman has been visiting there the past fortnight and Mr. Roadman man joined her there Tuesday.

Enjoying Trip to Bandon—
Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen and three daughters, the Misses Berntha, Vernita and Elsa Kohlhaugen, and Miss Mildred Haberly of Silverton went to Bandon this morning to spend two days at the beach.

Divorce Granted—
A divorce has been granted at Eugene in the case of A. C. Goettsche against Bertha A. Goettsche, according to word received here. Both of the principals are well known in this city. Desertion was charged.

Visited Nephew Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stewart of Kent, Washington, following a visit here the past few days with their nephew, G. M. Krell, manager of the Western Auto Supply company store, left this morning for home.

Assisted in Moving Quarters—
G. M. Krell, manager of the local store of the Western Auto Supply company, is back after a trip to Albany where he assisted on Tuesday in the moving of the Albany store to new quarters. Due to increase in business it was found necessary to move the business to a larger building which now provides for a shop as well as store.

Rev. F. L. Thuemler, of Medford, well known in this city, was injured Wednesday when the farm truck he was driving along the highway near Jackson, Ore., was struck by an automobile. He fell in front of the contrivance and was dragged for considerable distance. His injuries are not serious. Rev. Thuemler is one of the leaders in the Seventh Day Adventist church and is well known in this city, where he has visited at frequent intervals.

Because she could not protect her four-year-old daughter, Virginia Rose, from poverty and unhappiness, Mrs. Adeline Lethermon of Diamond, Mich., strangled the girl to death. Mrs. Lethermon, who is 23, had been crippled ever since an attack of typhoid fever two years ago and was separated from her husband. "She won't have to suffer like I have, and she's happier than I am now," she said after she was arrested.

CASH AND CARRY

STONE'S

CHAIN STORES

MODERN FOOD STORES

311 WEST CASS 225 N. Jackson

Choosing Your Coffee

The richness, smoothness and zest of old fashioned true Coffee flavor, found in Stone's Supreme "our best" Coffee or Stone's Special Blend Coffee, come to you at lower prices than these high qualities can be bought for elsewhere.

These qualities are produced only by skillful and scientific blending and roasting of different kinds of Coffees selected from many available varieties and grades.

In using either Stone's Supreme Coffee or Stone's Special Blend Coffee, you can be sure that these Coffees are packed under a name backed by a pride that would not allow that name to signify less than the best.

STONE'S SUPREME COFFEE	STONE'S SPECIAL BLEND
1 lb. 49c	1 lb. 37c
3 lbs. $1.45	3 lbs. $1.10

Special Produce Features

Sweet Klondike Watermelons, lb. 11 ¹ / ₄ c	Local Grown Crawford Peaches. See our prices.
2 Crisp Solid Head Lettuce, 2 for 13c	10 Local New Spuds, lbs. 25c

Note the Savings

HOLLYWOOD Dry Ginger Ale 2 for 39c	Stone's Cane and Maple Syrup 5 lbs. 89c	U. S. Dark Malt Syrup 2 tins $1.25
Highest Grade Tree Tea 1 lb. pkg. 69c	Albers Flapjack Flour 3 lb. pkg. 27c	Van Camp's Pork and Beans Medium tins, 3 for 25c

SOAP DEAL

6 Bars Crystal White	30c
3 Bars Palmolive	25c
	55c

All For 43c

Bulk Sweet Pickles Qt. 43c	Standard Peas 4 tins 49c	Best Foods Mayonnaise Pt. 39c
Tru-Blu Crackers 3 lb. box 43c	Preferred Stock Quality Shrimp 2 for 35c	Standard Sliced Pineapple No. 2 1/2, 2 for 45c

In Our Meat Department

Swift's or Cudahy's Hams Half or whole, lb. 33c	Eastern Sugar Cured Side Bacon lb. 33c
Sugar Cured Cottages lb. 30c	FANCY Country Bacon per lb. 33c

Two Store s for your Convenience. $5.00 orders delivered free—Sugar excepted

Business Visitor—

C. Hodges, Looking Glass resident, was in Roseburg for a brief time Thursday to look after business affairs.

In Roseburg Today—

T. R. Alexander, of the construction department for Montgomery Ward stores, is in town today.

Visitors in Town—

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hastings of Wilbur were in this city yesterday afternoon shopping and attending to business matters.

In From Glide—

A. L. Smith, resident of Glide, was in this city Thursday afternoon attending to business affairs and visiting with friends.

Miss Hunt in—

Miss Laura Hunt of Sutherlin spent Thursday afternoon visiting with friends and shopping in this city.

Returned to Portland—

Following a brief visit here with Miss Helen Zimrick, Miss Jewell Humphrey returned Thursday afternoon to her home in Portland.

TODAY AND SATURDAY

It's the man That Pays—and and Pays—and Pays

The sad, sad story of a young bachelor who becomes a father the day before his wedding. And it cost him plenty.

Reginald Denny

'That's My Daddy'

Every time he digs in his jeans, you get a million dollars' worth of laughs. And he is always digging.

Admission
Matinee 10 & 25c
Evenings 20 & 40c

ANTLERS

Coming Sunday

Clara Bow in "Ladies of the Mob"