RISKO FOULS ROBERTI IN 6TH ROUND AND LOSES

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—The record against Johnny Risko, embattled Cleveland boxer, who took second place in Tex Rickard's heavyweight tournament, stood exactly the same at the start of the new elimination series as it did at the last—one defeat.

Risko got away to a bad start in the ball park of the Brooklyn Nationals last night, when he lost his first encounter of the season to Roberto Roberti, the Italian giant, on a foul in six rounds up to the final blow, a low left to the body, the Cleveland boxer had kept his record clear as a giant killer. He won three of the five full rounds after Roberti took the first two.

Opinions about the ringside were almost evenly divided over the final blow, a low left that buried deep in Roberti's body as he stepped into Risko from the ropes. To many it appeared that the punch had landed cleanly in the pit of the Italian's stomach.

To others, including Referee Johnny McAvoy, the punch was foul. The fans rose and howled their disapproval for fully five minutes as "Double Robert" seconds worked over him and finally landed the batter, unconscious and in great pain, from the ring.

Mrs. J. B. Thompson of Dillard was in Roseburg Wednesday visiting with friends and shopping. Oldsmobile Sedan, 1926 model in first class condition, offered for sale by the Hansen Chevrolet Co., for less than half first cost.
