

Ventilated heat

For health and comfort, every house must have a constant, slowly moving circulation of air. Montag furnaces provide it in large volume. In every room in your home! This means proper circulation and warmth with less fuel, because the circulating air is constantly pre-warmed. No warm and cold "streaks" in a Montag heated home.

FILLED or FED

In both cases the stomachs of the animals are usually loaded to capacity, but just the same there is a big difference in the results the animal or fowl produces.

You can fill a cow on millrun, or a hen on wheat but neither will produce as well as if fed on a balanced ration, designed to promote production and to keep the animal or fowl in perfect health.

Umpqua Poultry and Dairy feeds are formulated with the idea of repeat business, we are not trying to make the cheapest feed on the market, but to make the best feed money can build for a minimum of cost.

We can use more millrun, or more ground oats and lower the cost, but what about RESULTS. That's what brings us new customers and keeps the old ones coming back.

You cannot buy better feeds than Umpqua Brand. They are made and sold Direct to the man who uses them. Always Fresh, Always Uniform, and Always Clean Feeds.
